THE PULLMAN BOYCOTT.

for the Striking Car Stulliters. CHICAGO, June 27. - The threatened stelke was inaugurated at 9 o'clock last night, when the American Railway union or dered the Illinois Central men out. The switchmen were the first to obey, and quickly walked out, tying up the suburan as well as the express train service, he ? o'clock train for St. Louis was al owed to pull out, as it was made up be-ore the boyent went into effect, but that train, the men asserted, was the last that would be allowed to leave until the Pullman strike was settled. The union men were quiet and orderly, but apparently determined to a man to maintain the buycott. The strike, it was asserted by an of-ficial, will extend immediately to five other roads, the Chicago, St. Paul and Kansas City, Wiscomin Central, North-ern Pacific, Southern Pacific and the Santa Fe. Two of the trains on the Illinois Central that were tied up at Grand Crossing, south of this city, were run out by a Con-tral employe, who, under police protec-tion, manipulated the necessary switches. A crowd of 2,000 strikers and their friends gathered about the station and an extra detail of police was called to protect the switchman. No attempt was made to run suburban trains, and hundreds of suburbanites were compelled to resort to street cars and cabs to reach their homes.

The Central strikers have announced that they will not interfere with mail trains, but will confine their attention to passenger and freight service. Michigan central and Lake Shore trains were alowed to pass Grand Crossing, but none arried Pullman cars.

President Debs asks the co-operation of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen. The officers of that body manifest a dis-position not to be drawn into the trouble asserting that they had nothing to do with the strike at Pullman or its conse-

The first through train on the South to enforce the boycott of Puliman cars Jersey Railroad reached Cape May Satur-

> At II o'clock a special train of twelve Chestones, that was scheduled to leave Chestonic than the not begin to accommodate all who were anxious to inspect the new road, and the management was obliged to run another section consisting of nine cars. The cars and locomotive are all of the latest pattern, and are equipped with all the modern conveniences for the comfort of presences.

The first section pulled out of the Cam-

Passengers.

The first section pulled out of the Camden depot of the Reading Railroad a few minntes after 11 o'clock. Nearly all the officers of the South Jersey road were aboard, together with a large number of representatives of other railroads. The second section was started off soon after the first. Brief stops were made at Winslow Junction and also at Tuckahoe, where the South Jersey's tracks branch off to Sea Isle City.

On approaching Cape May the trains were enthusiastically greeted by the residents, who were out in force to welcome the South Jersey's entrance to that fam us resort. Bands fill-d the air with music, men shouted, handkerchlefs were waved and it all ended in a street parade. Almost every cottage in the place was handsomely decorated with flags and bunting in honor of the occasion, and several flowery arches contained the words. "Welcome South Jersey," "Cape May Will Yet Flourish."

The guests were entertained by the railroad company at the large hotels, and the trains started homeward late in the after noon with a delighted load of passengers. The road is now ready for business.

A FATHER'S TERRIBLE CRIME

Stabbed His Wife, Cut His Daughter' Threat and Then Attempted suicide. MILLVILLE, N. J., June 27.—Josep Whitsett stabbed his wife with a black smith's file, cut his daughter's thron with a razor, set fire to his house and trie with a razor, set fire to his house and tried to burn himself to death in the flames in this place yesterday afternoon. Mrs Whitsett will recover, but her daughter will probably die. Whitsett, who is 37 years old, came to this place from Pater son about two years ago, and bought the house in which the tragedy took place. Neither he nor his family were social inclined, and but little is known of ther The family were at home, soon after dinner hour, when Whitsett, without any apparent reason, grabbed a long black smith's file and drove the sharp and of it into his wife's back, directly between the shoulders. She and her daughter Jen nie, aged 19, fied from the house, shriek ing with terror, followed closely by the husband and father, who overtook his daughter just outside the door and feller her to the ground with a terrible bloo from his fist. Then be drew from his pocket a keen razor, and, holding the girl's head back, deliberately out her throat, making a gash that extended to her shoulder.

Leaving her where she fell he again pur sued and overtook his wife, knecking he down and beating her with the fury of madman. When he deprived her of cor sciousness he returned to the house, whis he set on fire in a dozen places, and retito await death by the flames. The firmen, who were attracted to the scene b the flames, had to use force to remove hi from the house, so determined was he t make way with himself. He was remove to jail. The house was burned to th

Ladies' Tallor Gowns,

Ladies' Tailor Gowos.

The tailor costume is exceedingly popular this season. These gowns are worn everywhere in town, in the country and even at the seasoner and in the mountains. They are made in every kind of material: light woolens, serge, duck, ginghams, and foulards. This prevailing fashion calls for a great variety of models and every syle of French and English coats are brought into requisition. As for the skirts, although their simplicity is always adhered to, in accordance with the severe tailor system of dressing, they, nevertheless, exhibit a diversity of styles. This fact is well exemplified in the latest McDowell Fashion Magazines which contain, besides several pretty and very practical models, the patterns of which can be secured by means of compons at exceedingly m derate prices. The c coupons form an attractive monthly feature in the McDowell Magazines for they enable one to scarre the patterns of the newest and most correct fashions.

'La Mode de Paris," and "Paris Albam of Fashion," ones only $3.50 each per year, or in cents a copy. "The French Bressmaker" is $1.00 per annum, or 50 cents a copy. "La Mode," which is an equalied as a family journal, costs merely the triffing sum of $1.50 per year, or in cents a copy. The three first mentiones in publications offer each $1.00 worth of coupon patterns and "La Mode" fifty cents worth of the same as a premium for a yearly subscription. If you are unable to procure any of these journals from your newsitealer do not take any substitute from him but amply by mail to Messrs. A McDowell & Co., 4 West 14th street, New York.

A WESTERN GARDEN SPOT.

It Is a Locality in Which a Local Ratiroad Man Feels Special Interest.

Harry E. Heller, the popular traveling passenger agent for the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad, is now proudly telling people they can ride west from miles. The western terminus of the Burlington line at present is Sheridan, Wyoussig, to which an extension has been built from Lincoln, Nebraska.

Sheridan, which was created by the establishing of the Hurlington shops there, is one of the garden spots of the earth. It is situated in the centre of Sheridan country, 14 miles east of the Big Horn Meuntains. Within a radius of 35 miles are half a million acres of irrigable land, capable of producing twenty millions of wheat annually. Fourteen miles west in the Big Horn Range is sufficient timber to supply Nebraska and Wyoming. There are gold mines in the Bald Mountains 40 miles west and then comes the Big Horn Basin of two and a half million acres, capable of producing a hundred million bushels of wheat annually.

The crops about Sheridan are surpassed The crops about Sheridan are surpassed nowhere on earth. Minerals, fuel and stone are plentiful. Stock taising is profitable. The cost of living is low and wages are good. The climate is healthful, pulmonary diseases and malaria being unknown. The manufacturing establishments in Sheridan are run by electricity generated by water power. From Sheridan the Burlington is building a road to Billings, Montana. Another spur, striking the southern boundary of Yellow-stone Park, will eventually be extended to the Pacific coast. The Burlington has now over $600 miles of road and will eventually be the largest in the world.
