FAKIRS ON THE STREETS

A Hungarian Gets in Trouble on an Electric Car and Brings Suit—A Drunken Woman Gives Successful Battle to Five Men.

The employees of the Philadelphia and Reading Coal and Iron Company in this district on Saturday received their wages for the first two weeks in June, less nine per cent. It being the first pay-day under the full time schedule it was expected the town would be very lively Saturday night, but there was a disappointment.

The only difference in the appearance of the streets Saturday night was the great blooming of fakirs. Two stood at the corner of Main and Centre streets from about six o'clock until nearly midnight, making their seductive offers of a dollar's worth of goods for ten cents, and caught many fishes. Bitter complaint is made of the freedom the borough authorities give fakirs on pay nights and a number of merchants are contemplating requesting the Council to see that more than a nominal license fee is imposed upon them.

It was a surprise to learn that the lockup was not filled Saturday night. There were only two arrests and they were for petty offenses.

The first street disturbance occurred yesterday when an electric car stopped on East Centre street and a conductor ejected a Hungarian who had behaved himself in a disorderly manner on the car. A law suit has grown out of the occurrence and will be heard before Justice Toomey tonight. The Hungarian claims the motor-man, Howard Medlar, struck him in the face without cause.

A second disturbance occurred on East Centre street this morning, in front of Justice Toomey's office. Constable Gliblin had a strapping big Lithuanian woman named Fanny Putalovitz in custody on a charge of malicious mischief and surety. Fanny was more or less under the influence of drink and refused to go into the Justice's office. She fought like a tigress and successfully, too, against five men, but was eventually subdued and placed before the bar for a hearing. In default of $500 bail she was committed. She will be given until to-morrow morning to sober up and will then be taken to the lockup.

NARROW ESCAPE

A Painter Falls From a Building but Saves Himself.

Harry Wertz, the young painter who received slight injuries in a fall from a building in town several months ago, this morning made an unpremeditated acrobatic tumble that, but for his cat-like agility, would have resulted in serious injury.

Wertz was engaged in painting the side of a house occupied by Edward Welsh, in Brownsville. He stood upon a rope-suspended scaffold above the second story. The wind blew hard and the scaffold swung away from the building. Wertz lost his balance and fell several feet, twisting in such a way as to grasp the window sill. He climbed into the bedroom to find that his paint pot preceded him and the contents fast adding a new hue to the pretty carpet. Wertz was slightly injured by his fall.

HUNGARIAN DROWNED.

Attacked by Cramps and Sank Before Assistance Could Arrive.

GILBERTON, July 2.—John Dewood-yacht, a Hungarian, 20 years of age, was drowned in a mine breach east of Boston Run colliery yesterday afternoon. He went in the water to have a swim and was attacked by cramps. Cries of help attracted several men to the breach, but as the victim was some distance from the bank of the breach and none of the would-be rescuers could swim he sank to the bottom. Several men made repeated dives for the body without success and the water was dragged with the same result until midnight. The efforts were resumed this morning and at nine o'clock the body was brought to the surface. The remains were taken to the victim's boarding house at Boston Run.

The Libel Case.

The libel case in which Dr. John Szilvas and others of Shenandoah were defendants was continued at Potsville this morning, Dr. Szilvas being re-called to the stand. Hon. C. N. Brumm, the defendant's counsel, has recovered from the illness which attacked him on Friday last, and is conducting the case vigorously. Efforts are being made to wind up the case by to-morrow, so that the jury and others who have been wearied by the prolonged trial may be free to enjoy themselves on the Fourth of July.

Funerals.

The remains of Mrs. Williams, of East Coal street, widow of Abraham Williams, were interred this afternoon in the Odd Fellows' cemetery.

The infant child of Clara Smoyer, widow of Charles H. Smoyer, will be taken from the parents' residence on West Coal street at 5 o'clock this afternoon and interred in the cemetery on the hill.

Election of Officers.

At a regular meeting of Washington Camp No. 40, P. O. of T. A., the following officers were elected: P. P. Lucy James; A. P. Maranda James; P. Jennie Fozel; A. P. John Elshurst; N. P. Mary J. Gregory; A. V. P. Lena Hess; C. Estella Jones; A. C. Mary J. Hopkins; S. Robert Patterson; A. S. Lottie F. Jacoby; F. S. Alex. Seitzer; T. Sarah James; S. Sophia Stauffenburg; C. Carrie Frantz; G. Sarah Frantz; G. Mary Holvey; F. Frances; Ruth Hopkins; Mary Holvey and Mary Swindt.

Work Begun

D. H. Llewellyn this morning started a gang of men at work tearing up the rails of the Lakeside Electric Railway on East Centre street, between White street and the Lehigh Valley railroad, and will transfer them to the White street branch of the road. The graders for the Oak street bridge will arrive here early next week. The bridge will have two foot walks six feet wide.

Reward Offered

A correspondent takes exception to the letter published in the HERALD of Friday last in which acts of a repairman were pointed out as deserving of reward and says that the only fire known in Maple Hill colliery were those discovered by the first boss, who are constantly on watch for all dangers to life and property. The correspondent also doubts the feasibility of drawing a 170 pound man through an eight-inch hole.

Reduced Rates.

On account of the international convention of the Christian Endeavor, special tickets at the low rate of single fare for round trip will be on sale by the Lehigh Valley Railroad to Cleveland, O. These tickets will be sold at all stations, July 15th to 18th, good for return to July 31st. For further particulars apply to agents. 7-2-94-ed

A Big Day.

The Mahanoy City Park is now completed and will be the scene of a great demonstration on the Fourth of July. The attractions will be numerous and there are a number of entries. A wrestling match will be the main feature of the athletic tournament. Entries for the other events will be open until the afternoon of July 4th.

A Good Offer.

The firm of Lindsay & Wilgus, of New York City, have offered to defray the expense of constructing the electric railway from this town to Ringtown and take their pay in first mortgage bonds.

Missed a Coupling.

By missing a coupling a top man allowed an empty car to crash down the slope at West Shenandoah colliery on Saturday. It took several hours to clear away the debris and repair the damage.

Official Visit.

District President S. L. Brown, of the P. O. S. of A., will visit Camp 112, of town, to-morrow evening for the purpose of installing officers and deciding the contested election case.

DOWN WE GO TWICE!

The Jeanesville and Allentown Teams Beat Our Club.

A GAME THROWN AWAY

Two Errors in the Ninth Gave Jeanesville the Victory—In the Game With Kelly's Antediluvians We Never Saw Daylight! Better Material Wanted.

The stock of the home team has taken a big drop since Friday and the local patrons of the game are very much out of sorts. It was a shock to them to see their team lose a brilliantly played game in the ninth inning by two errors, but to have King Kelly's ante-diluvian diamond chasers come here and show them up before a crowd of over three thousand people was more than they could stand.

When the amphitheatre, the pierodicy and other collections of A. Bentons' manager of prehistoric masterpieces first made their appearance the large audience sized them up as winners, but still held on to a hope that the home team might be able to give them a hustle in some stage of the game, but even in this faint belief the crowd was disappointed. The Shenandoahs were not in it at any stage.

In the very outset Kelly made a flagrant error and the visitors made two runs in the first inning, with more, Kelly kept telling his men to "let up" during the whole game and they gambled around the diamond like worried pedestrians in a six-day race. More than half a dozen times the visitors apparently tried to let themselves be retired, but even then the home men were unable to make their plays.

It was certainly one of the greatest burlesques ever seen on the diamond and the fact that Kelly's men tried their best to avoid running up the score only made the audience more disgusted. It was clearly shown that the home team is very weak in more than half a dozen points and that for them to essay a defeat of the clubs in the state league is mere folly.

The home team may not appreciate it, but it is nevertheless a fact that most of the patrons of the game are impatient and unless steps are taken to furnish a better article of ball the attendances at the games are bound to diminish greatly. When the State league clubs come here the people do not expect to see them defeated, but they look for a game which will bring out some of the elements of the game which give the visitors their reputation.

The Allentown game ended in the eighth inning after the visitors had made three three-baggers and two runs and two of their players had been retired on a double play. It had been intended to play the nine innings, but some young men of town got into a quarrel with some Mahanoy City people and this attracted such a crowd to the vicinity of the diamond that the players had no room, so it was decided to close the game.

The home team is indebted to Kilroy for the four runs made in the eighth inning. He gave Tom and Ryan their bases on balls and virtually tossed the ball so that Wilson made a hit and brought Tom home. Henry then made a three-bagger and brought in two runs, and Harris brought him home with a three bagger. The score:

Score table for Shenandoah vs Allentown. Shenandoah: 0, 0, 0, 0, 0, 0, 0, 0, 0, 0, 0, 0, 0, 0, 0, 0, 0, 0, 0, 0. Allentown: 0, 0, 0, 0, 0, 0, 0, 0, 0, 0, 0, 0, 0, 0, 0, 0, 0, 0, 0, 0.

Earned runs—Shenandoah, 4; Allentown, 3. Two base hits—Wood, 2; Kilroy, 1; base hits—Henry, Harris, Kelly, Kilroy, Sweeney, Mulvey, Costello and McLoughlin. Bases stolen—Kilroy, 2; Moore, 1; Sweeney, 1; Costello, 1; Tom and Dodge. Runs on balls—Kilroy, 2. Hit by pitched ball—Duckson. Struck out—Kelly and Gallagher. Wild pitch—Mulderly. Time—1 hour 35 minutes. Empire—Whelan.

The Jeanesville game was a contest well witnessed. Both sides played with considerable vim until the ninth inning, when the home club went all to pieces. When that inning opened the score stood 5 to 3 in favor of Shenandoah. A three bagger, a bad muff by Martin and a wild back act by Henry reversed the score and left our players vanquished. Young Yerkes, the new home pitcher, made a good impression in this game. The score:

Score table for Shenandoah vs Jeanesville. Shenandoah: 0, 0, 0, 0, 0, 0, 0, 0, 0, 0, 0, 0, 0, 0, 0, 0, 0, 0, 0, 0. Jeanesville: 0, 0, 0, 0, 0, 0, 0, 0, 0, 0, 0, 0, 0, 0, 0, 0, 0, 0, 0, 0.

Earned runs—Shenandoah, 3; Jeanesville, 2. Two base hits—Kilroy, 1; base hits—Sweeney, 1; Tom and Sweeney. Bases stolen—Kilroy, 2; Sweeney, 1; Costello, 1; Tom and Dodge. Runs on balls—Kilroy, 2. Hit by pitched ball—Duckson. Struck out—Kelly and Gallagher. Wild pitch—Mulderly. Time—1 hour 35 minutes. Empire—Whelan.

The following colleges were drawn to return prices of coal sold in June, 1894, to fix the rate of wages to be paid, made the following returns:

Table of coal prices and wages for various colleges and locations.

The average of these prices is $2.23 and the rate of wages is nine per cent, below the $2.50 basis for the last two weeks of June and the first two weeks of July, 1894.

DIAMOND DOPS.

Jeanesville will play two games here on the Fourth of July.

Barclay sizes up pretty well as a catcher. Gallagher, who played in center field for the Allentown, was formerly of the old Progress team of Girardville.

It is useless to further disguise the necessity for more ginger in the home team.

An interesting game of ball was played at Lost Creek yesterday between Centralia and the club of that place. But several innings were played, the score standing 16 to 9 in favor of Lost Creek. On July 4th these two clubs will come together at Centralia.

The attendance at the Jeanesville game was very light, but at the Allentown game the enlarged grand stand was crowded.

The home management is trying its best to get hold of some of the choice State league players. Rumor has it that the league may go to pieces after this week, and in such an event we may get some good players.

Bartholomew left for his home in Milton this morning.

The Easton State league club went under on Saturday and the Shenandoah management expects to get at least two of the players.

POLICE IN A DILEMMA. Peddlers Cause Their Arrest for Highway Robbery. Three of the borough police of Mt. Carmel are in a peculiar position. They have been arrested for highway robbery and from present indications may have to answer at the next term of court, regardless of what extenuating circumstances may be connected with the case.

The officers in trouble are Henry Waters, Benjamin Watkins and Abraham Morgan. They learned that four Shinnokin men were peddling in and about Mt. Carmel without a license. They took possession of the packs and carried them to Mt. Carmel, supposing the owners would follow and pay the fines to recover the property.

The peddlers did not materialize, but hid themselves to Shamokin and caused warrants to be issued for the officers on charges of highway robbery. It is claimed the packs contained $100 worth of goods. In their charge the peddlers declare that the officers used revolvers in securing possession of their goods and committed an assault upon them. It is claimed they did not try to place them under arrest, being content with seizing their goods at the point of revolvers. The peddlers believe the last action was brought in order to still further evade the law and obviate the necessity of the peddlers paying the fines and costs that would necessarily accrue. The friends of the policemen in particular and the public in general will watch the outcome with considerable interest.

Good for Hanburg. The little town of Hanburg, Berks county, has secured another industry in the Wilhelm Bicycle works. Reading made an effort to secure the industry. The agreements entered into provide for the erection of the buildings necessary, a 25 horse power engine and 15 horse power boiler, elevators, water closets, wiring of buildings for arc and incandescent electric lights, and a gas plant for lighting and heating purposes. The total cost will be paid for by the company in 10 years at 4% per cent. interest. The concessions are the ground free, exemption from borough tax for ten years and water free for five years.

Hospital Notes. The first four of the trained female nurses arrived from Philadelphia on Saturday. Four more are expected this week.

Dr. Millard has retired from hospital service and will spend a few weeks with relatives in Centralia before looking for a new location. The kindly young doctor will be much missed by the patients and attaches of the hospital, with whom he was a great favorite. His successor is Dr. Gallagher, of Mahanoy City.

Still Nice Per Cent. The following colleges were drawn to return prices of coal sold in June, 1894, to fix the rate of wages to be paid, made the following returns:

Table of coal prices and wages for various colleges and locations.

The average of these prices is $2.23 and the rate of wages is nine per cent, below the $2.50 basis for the last two weeks of June and the first two weeks of July, 1894.
