W. S. BURNAN, President. W. H. Nelson, who is in the drug business at Kingville, Mo., has so much confidence in Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy that he warrants every bottle and offers to refund the money to any customer who is not satisfied after using it.

Hear in Mind. John A. Reilly's is the place to get the purest wines and liquors, best beer and ales and finest brands of cigars.

Last June, Dick Crawford brought his twelve months old child, suffering from infantile diarrhoea, to me. It had been weaned at four months old and being sickly everything ran through it like water through a sieve. I gave it the usual treatment in such cases but without benefit. The child kept growing thinner until it weighed but little more than an when born, or perhaps ten pounds. I then started the father to giving Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. Before one bottle of the 25 cent size had been used, a marked improvement was seen and its continued use cured the child. Its weakness and puny constitution disappeared and its father naturally believed the child's life was saved by this remedy. J. T. Marlow, M. D., Amaros, Ill. For sale by Gruhler Bros.

HONORS TO THE BRAVE.

A Shenandoah Boy Receives a Life Saving Medal. Before the schooner Saratoga sailed from Philadelphia on Saturday on her summer cruise to the Azores, Gibraltar, Villa Franca and the Madeiras there was a very interesting ceremony. It consisted of decorating with medals five of the pupils and crew for gallantry in saving life within the last fortnight.

The entire ship's company was drawn up on deck, Captain Strong and the members of the board having the ship in charge stood grouped before it. Captain Lawrence, of the board, advanced with six cases containing the medals. There was absolute silence. Then he said: "I want the owners of these names to stand forward: John Huff, George Wrigley, H. J. Cather, A. J. Severin and Boatswain John Riley."

They obeyed. "You four boys and you, Mr. Riley," continued Captain Lawrence, "on June 16 sprang overboard, at the risk of your lives, to save John Hazzard, who had fallen out of the dingy. The act was a gallant one and worthy of the highest commendations. Such an act American sailors should ever be ready to perform, but bravery is bravery, however often shown; and this deed is courageous, particularly on account of the youth of the rescuers."

One of the recipients of the medals was Harry J. Cather, son of Mrs. Jane Cather, of West Oak street, this town. The medals are of gold, and are hung from a gold bar by a dark blue ribbon. On the reverse is the inscription, "P. N. S. S. Saratoga, Reward of Merit." On the reverse is the single statement, "For saving life," with the date.

Quadruple Murder in Vermont.

ST. ALBAN, Vt., July 2.—Four innocent young lives were offered Saturday, in ghastly sacrifice to matrimonial jealousy. Mrs. Lettie Baker, of Montgomery, strangled her four children, aged respectively 7, 3, 3 and 1 years. She is supposed to have been under the influence of morphine. Mrs. Baker was brought to the county jail here. Mitchell Baker and his wife have been married eight years, during the most of which time his jealousy of her has caused domestic troubles. She has not borne the fairest of reputations. They had agreed to separate, and after he left she committed the terrible tragedy.

Suicide is Not for Him. NIAGARA FALLS, July 2.—Edward Meyer, aged 22, of this city, while on the brink of the gorge below the falls, was prevented by his brother and friends from swallowing a dose of poison. Afterward he rushed toward the gorge and jumped. His friends peered over the bank expecting to see the lifeless body of Edward hundreds of feet below. Instead, however, they saw the fellow perched in the limbs of a jutting tree, and his friends finally got him up on top again. Had he not struck the tree he would inevitably have been killed.

German Malt and Bohemian Hops

L O R E L E I

ON the famous Lorelei Rock, which rises from the Rhine near St. Goar, there sits according to the German legend, a beautiful siren combing her long golden hair, holding aloft a foaming beaker of beer and singing a ravishing song. Boatmen are so entranced by the beauty of her voice that they draw near and drink the Lorelei Beer and become so enchanted that they refused to return to the common earth.
