A DULL FOURTH IN TOWN

No Arrangements for a Parade or Other Demonstration—All the Neighboring Towns Will Offer Attractions and Reap the Holiday Harvest.

For the first time in twenty years Shenandoah will to-morrow allow the observance of the Fourth of July to pass without any formal observance, notwithstanding every other town in the county will have a demonstration of some kind.

This certainly reflects greatly upon the patriotic spirit of the place and should be very mortifying to the citizens.

Shenandoah being the largest town in the county and having within its borders upwards of fifty societies which parade frequently during the year, should be the first to the front with a demonstration in recognition of the anniversary of the Declaration of Independence, but instead of that we find the people allowing it to pass without any observance than if they were in Iceland.

Certain members of one of the patriotic organizations of town have attempted to justify the neglect by a statement that the societies which had charge of the Fourth of July demonstration last year lost money because the balance of the citizens failed to give them any support. This is a good cause for complaint, but is not a justification. Even one society and a drum corps would have been a redeeming feature.

The indifference of the citizens not only brings chagrin to themselves in face of the activity of other towns, but it also brings loss to the business people. Not only is there an absence of attractions to draw people from other places to celebrate the Fourth here, but there is also an absence of anything to keep the people in the town, and the consequence is that hundreds of people will go to the places where they can find pleasure and this town will be left to regale itself on the resources of every-day life and such fireworks as individuals may see fit to display.

The solution of the situation is that the people of the town seem to be growing more inactive every day, and it is only on the eve of the time when they should accomplish something that they find they have allowed the golden opportunity to slip through their hands.

At no time have the people missed a better opportunity. The collieries are working full time and reports from business sources show that the wages the miners received last Saturday were sparingly dispersed. This warranted the presumption that the people held a reserve fund to enjoy themselves on the Fourth of July, and it will be interesting to learn what the result will be when there is nothing to induce the expenditure. The Fourth of July has always been a day of jollification and the people will seek pleasure. As there has been no arrangements made in town, pleasure will be sought elsewhere and those who have reaped the benefits which a demonstration would have brought will be kicking themselves on the morning of the 5th because they were too slow.

Married at Tanques.

Ellis Lewis, the genial young bartender at the Ferguson House, was married yesterday to Miss Annie Arner, of Tanques. The ceremony took place at the residence of the bride's parents, Rev. Bartolet, of the Reformed church, officiating. The bride was attired in green silk, with lace trimmings and bouquet of roses. The groom was dressed in the conventional black. The young couple were attended in the ceremony by Miss Susie White and Charles Adams, both of Philadelphia.

One of the Candidates.

Joseph Wyatt, one of the candidates for the nomination of legislator in the First district on the Republican ticket, is making a hustling canvass. Mr. Wyatt is a genial and intellectual gentleman whose friends are legion, and in the office he seeks would make an excellent representative for the people. Should he receive the nomination, the Democratic nominee will find in him not only an honorable opponent, but one with a strength sufficient for the severest test.

More Warm Weather.

Weather Prophet Hicks in giving a forecast of July weather says the 2d and 3d will be the centres of the storm movements, and violent storms will probably appear from the 2d to the 4th. These storms will be attended by a very warm wave that will be followed by a cooler one. A severe warm wave is due from the 7th to the 11th, and this wave will culminate in heavy electrical storms with rain, hail and wind. Unless storms appear about the 8th, 9th and 10th the heat will continue until the 13th or 14th. Many storms, much cloudiness, local cloudbursts and heavy downpours will figure in the storm period from the 17th to 21st. Great heat may be expected on the 23rd and 25th. Cooler weather will follow this brief hot wave. The last July period runs from the 25th to August 3rd, and hot weather is promised at this time. The greatest general heat will be in the last days of July and the first week in August.

The Salinas Case.

The libel case against Dr. John Salinas and others from this town was continued before Judge Weidman this morning. A large number of witnesses were again in attendance. All the evidence not being in, and to-morrow being a legal holiday, the court adjourned at noon to-day until Thursday morning, when the case will be resumed. It will probably occupy the attention of the court for the balance of the week.

COUNTY SEAT LETTER.

Some Sensible Advice to the Republican Leaders.

BELIGERANTS MUST STOP

They Should Get Together and Adjust Their Differences Before the Rank and File Become Disgusted—When the Conventions Will Probably be Held.

Special HERALD correspondence.

POTTSVILLE, July 2.—The Republican leaders are not feeling in good humor over the beligerant attitude of two of its members, and the situation caused by it may lead to harm. It is somewhat singular that there should be so much jealousy among these two when now, above all times, they should be in accord. Brumm, Loach, Shoener, Koob, Wilhelm, Whitehouse, et al., should get together and resolve to turn over a new leaf, not the kind that people generally turn at the beginning of the year, but one that will keep with all these men in harmony nothing will prevent the party from achieving a glorious victory next fall.

It should be remembered that it was on account of jealousy in the ranks of the Republican party which changed the political complexion of the county bench and left the Republicans without a representative on it. To these jealousies may also be attributed Congressman Kelly's successive victories.

But what is the use of citing these causes and effects. Let the child's play stop now and for all time. Harmony can be brought about with but little sacrifice by those who are responsible for the chaos, and I feel confident that if some of the leaders do not signify a willingness to bring it about very soon the rank and file will take the matter in hand and dispose of all the scoundrels.

Once again let me recommend that the candidates conduct their preliminary canvass good naturedly and go into the convention on their merits, each determined that if he fails to secure the nomination he will turn in and support his successful adversary.

Messrs. Brumm and Shoener are still very active in the canvass for the Congressional nomination. Loach still claims to have things his own way, and it may be that he will prefer waiting until the noses are counted at the convention before putting my faith in it.

Whoever the successful candidate may be, he should receive the hearty endorsement of the whole party, thus forgetting and forgiving and starting out anew with the best of interests of the people and the party in view.

Nothing has been heard lately of the several Republican candidates for Sheriff. Can it be possible that everything is "fixed" and the dear people are to be given a rest on that score?

It is semi-officially announced that the Republican delegate elections will be held on the last Saturday in July and the county convention will be held on either the first Monday or Tuesday in August. The Senatorial and Representative conventions will be held in the latter week.

Court Notes.

After the close of the Salinas libel case all the Pottsville courts will stand adjourned until the September term.

J. O. Ulrich, Esq., has filed an answer in the quo warranto proceedings against County Commissioner Allen, denying the allegations of the complaint.

A charter has been granted to the Greek Catholic Association of Shepton.

H. O. Bechtel, son of Judge Bechtel, has been admitted to practice in the courts of Schuylkill county.

M. M. Burke, Esq., has been appointed examiner in the divorce proceedings of Maggie Hauser against John E. Hauser, late of Shenandoah.

David Shapiro, the Polish peddler who shot Michael Burns, the Tanques hotel-keeper, has been sentenced to pay $100 fine and undergo four years' imprisonment.

Among the bonds approved by the court yesterday were those of Receivers of T. M. J. Scanlan, of Shenandoah; Llewellyn Bannan, Delano township; Daniel Collins, Gilberton; Patrick J. McLaughlin, West Mahanoy township; Thomas Horan, Girardville; J. F. Price, Frankville; Bard W. Payne, Ashland.

The Work Progresses.

The gang of men under the foremanship of D. A. Llewellyn who have been at work making the alterations necessary for the extension of the Lakeside Electric Railway to the corner of Main and Centre streets, are making rapid progress. Yesterday they succeeded in tearing up the track on East Centre street from the Lehigh Valley railroad to White street, and this morning they commenced making a trench on White street, running south to Oak, for the track which will connect with the branch which will be opened by the construction of the trestle on Bowers street and the bridge over the Lehigh Valley railroad.

Counter Suits.

Paul Shural, a Hungarian of town, appeared before Justice Toomey last night as complainant against Howard Medley, of Mahanoy City, a conductor on the Lakeside Electric Railway, charging him with assault and battery. Medley entered a counter suit charging Shural with assault and battery and interfering with a conductor. Each of the parties entered $500 bail for trial at court.

BASE BALL.

Henry Harris, Reilly and Bartholomew are released.

Most of the good players have been locked up in the State League and for that reason the home management has been hampered in getting the desired club.

The State League is gradually falling.

Ed. Henry and Fox, of the Reading state league club, arrived here last night and left for Hazleton this morning. Their playing here depends upon the fate of the state league.

Lavelle, an all-round man of the defunct Easton club, will be signed by the home team.

James Smith went to Allentown this morning to meet some of the players of the defunct Easton club, and expects to secure at least four of them.

The Miners' Journal says: "The Reading Company has given notice to Harry Ball, of Mahanoy City, agent for I. Robbins, that the lease for the ground used for base ball in Shenandoah will be discontinued if the Sunday games are not stopped."

There will be no game here to-morrow, as our team goes to Allentown. The disbandment of the Easton club left Allentown in the lurch for the Fourth of July and AL Johnson advised Kelly to get the best team he could secure for that day.

Hearing that Shenandoah was making improvements in its team by signing several state league players Kelly made an offer of $200 for the day to President Brennan and it was accepted. In addition to this Kelly promises to play another game at Shenandoah in consideration of the club helping him out of the lurch.

Constable Leitenberger, of Pottsville, went to Hazleton on Saturday armed with a warrant for the arrest of Alex Donahoe, manager of the Altoona base ball club, as one of the parties who a few weeks ago stuffed a Miners' Journal reporter with a fake story about Bill Lewis, of Mahanoy City, having lost a leg on the railroad. The constable had his warrant properly endorsed by a Hazleton Justice of the Peace and in company with a Hazleton officer went to the park, where Donahoe's club was playing, to make the arrest. When they inquired for the object of their search they were only but politely informed by Mr. Donahoe himself that he had just left the grounds and gone into town. They went immediately back to the town to hunt him up and Donahoe took the precaution to see that they didn't connect again, and they didn't.
