

PHILADELPHIA, July 2.—The members of the National Editorial Association arrived at the Park on Saturday night, and their first session opened this morning.

The Pennsylvania Editorial Association will arrive at Ashbury tomorrow about noon. The members rendezvoused at the Girard and Lafayette hotels last night, and to-morrow at 8:30 a. m. they will leave on a special Pennsylvania railroad train for the Park as the guests of that company.

Many of the newspaper men, their wives, sisters or sweethearts, visited Broad and Dauphin streets this evening and witnessed the destruction of Herculaneum.

The outing this year will be unusually large, and welders of the pen are anticipating a good time. Besides the Editorial Association—National and State—the National Educational Association will convene at Ashbury Park on Friday for a week's stay.

The sources of recreation and pleasure at Ashbury Park are abundant and varied. Twenty-five years ago it was an almost ideal wilderness. The thriving flora consisted entirely of native pine, beach grass and blackberry bushes. There are oaks and cedars, but they were in greater part stunted and misshapen. The underbrush was almost impenetrable. One house only stood within the present borders and another one stood near by. There were no roads, for there was no one to use them.

From the middle of June until the first of September there is rarely a week day without one or more excursions. Churches, Sunday schools, societies, orders and organizations of every character form within a radius of a hundred miles have their annual outing day and Ashbury Park gets the lion's share of them. There are times when from 100 to 150 carloads are landed in a single day, comprising from four to eight separate excursions, and with all these crowds it is rare to see a single arrest. This is accounted for by the fact that most of the organizations coming here are of a high moral and social standing. There is pleasure without debauch; intoxicants must either be brought along or surreptitiously obtained. The open temptation does not exist and the chief element of crime and disorder is wanting.

Special Auction Sales.

A large quantity of dry goods, boots and shoes, groceries of all kinds, notions, etc., will be sold at auction at Reese's Auction Rooms, on West Centre street, commencing Saturday evening, 30th inst., and continuing on Monday evening and every evening for the balance of the week, until the entire stock is sold out. This will be a rare opportunity for people to purchase goods cheap.

Fire in Ruda Penth.

Ruda Penth, July 2.—Ten houses were destroyed and twenty-five houses were badly damaged last evening by a fire which consumed a loss of $40,000. Besides the fire a wall fell, killing two policemen and injuring several firemen.

Sport Was by a Nose.

NEW YORK, July 2.—The attendance at Sheepshead Bay yesterday was good, and as a rule the races were interesting. The usual fine race was seen in the handicap, when Sport and Don Alonzo ran nose and nose for nearly half a mile, the last quarter being a hard drive. The distance was a mile and an eighth. Stowaway took the lead and held it for half a mile. Then Don Alonzo went to the front and remained there until but half a mile was left to go, when Sport joined him. At the turn into the stretch Sport clung on and in the last few jumps poked his nose far enough in front to win. Time, 1:57 1/8.

The attractions at Pottsville will be two games of ball with the Harrisburg team, and a display of fireworks in the evening at Tambling Run.

The celebration at St. Clair will be on an elaborate scale and will probably exceed any similar demonstration in the county.

A horse kicked H. S. Shafer, of the Freeman House, Middleburg, N. Y., on the knee, which laid him up in bed and caused the knee joint to become stiff. A friend recommended him to use Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which he did, and in two days was able to be around. Mr. Shafer has recommended it to many others and says it is excellent for any kind of a bruise or sprain. This same remedy is also famous for its cures of rheumatism. For sale by Grubler Bros.

Last June, Dick Crawford brought his twelve months old child, suffering from infantile diarrhoea, to me. It had been weaned at four months old and being sickly everything ran through it like water through a sieve. I gave it the usual treatment in such cases but without benefit. The child kept growing thinner until it weighed but little more than when born, or perhaps ten pounds. I then started the father to giving Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. Before one bottle of the 25-cent size had been used, a marked improvement was seen and its continued use cured the child. Its weakness and puny constitution disappeared and its father and myself believe the child's life was saved by this remedy. J. T. Marlow, M. D., Tamaroa, Ill. For sale by Grubler Bros.

IN SENATE AND HOUSE.

The Sugar Schedule Passes the Senate with Only One Amendment.

WASHINGTON, July 3.—The senate began the formal consideration of the tariff bill as amended in a committee of the whole in the senate yesterday, and when a recess was had last night much progress had been made. The sugar schedule, which overshadowed in importance the other schedules, being considered the pivot upon which the fate of the measure depended, went through the trying ordeal and escaped with only one amendment. That amendment made the repeal of the sugar bounty and the sugar schedule go into effect immediately on the passage of the bill, instead of Jan. 1, 1895, the date fixed in committee. The adoption of this amendment signified the first victory won by Mr. Hill. In addition to the Republican votes in favor of it four Democrats, Messrs. Coke, George, Irby and Pugh, and Mr. Peffer (Pop.), joined with Mr. Hill. On two other votes, if the Republicans could have held their forces intact, the fate of the sugar schedule would have depended on the casting vote of the vice-president, and on one vote, if Mr. Quay had voted with his party associates, the one-eighth of a cent differential in favor of the sugar refiners would have been defeated. Mr. Jones gave notice of an amendment to the sugar schedule continuing the sugar bounty in force until Jan. 1, 1895, to the extent of nine-tenths of a cent in sugars above ninety degrees and eight-tenths below. Without completing the flux, hemp and jute schedule the senate at 7:35 took a recess until 10 this morning. This action indicates that it is the intention to try and pass the bill before adjournment today.

The house held a brief session, and on account of a difficulty of holding a quorum nothing of importance was accomplished beyond the passage of a resolution directing the commissioner of labor to investigate the question of the work and wages of women and children. Before 2 o'clock the house adjourned until Thursday.
