POLITICAL FORECASTS.

Movements of the Politicians Accurately Chronicled.

BRUMM IS IN THE LEAD!

The Fight in the Thirtieth Senatorial District is Waxing Warm, and Each Candidate is Working Hard.

Special HERALD Correspondence.

POTTSVILLE, July 20.—From the very hour that the days of the meeting of the various conventions were fixed the political horoscope became clearer and the choice of the respective parties on certain candidates became crystallized. For Congress the choice of the Democratic party remains still with Reilly. It has never been anything else since the King crowd were routed by defeat of Murtha P. Quinn for County Chairman and the election of Louis Stoffregen by the Reilly faction. Now King is not in it any more for Congress and some of his closest friends, notably the Tooles, are Reilly supporters since little Jack got the Minersville post office plum.

On the Republican side it cannot longer be doubted that old war horse, Brumm, has dislodged his competitors. As I all along stated Mayor Jones never was prominent in this fight and it is pretty near time he jumped off the Congressional horse and prepared himself for a legislative contest before Graham, Kennedy, Schrick, or some one else, takes his place on the ticket. Shoen is still a very close second to Brumm, but unless he makes a sudden plunge to the front very soon, he, too, will have "not in it" pasted in his hat. For more than ten days past close observation could note how easily it was for Brumm to jump into the lead and he has done it with his old time celerity and cuteness. Will he stay there? That's the thing he must look to now.

COYLE WILL MAKE IT.
Hon. John J. Coyle, of Mahanoy City, cannot now be beaten for the Republican nomination for Senator in the 30th district. He is a hustler who hustles and the small piece of Edwards, his townman and principal competitor, has never even amounted to a race. It may as well be recorded now, Coyle will make the nomination he is after and his enemies in his own party may as well prepare to take their little medicine. After all it won't be a nauseous dose to swallow. Republicans can very well vote for Coyle, and as it is a Democratic district which is to be represented those Republicans who don't want Coyle may reflect on the possibility of his certain defeat if the Democrats don't make too great a blunder.

FRANEY'S FIGHT.
I regard the Democratic Senatorial contest in the 30th district, as do the friends of candidate Franey, philosophically. No man ever received anything worth having without the opposition and envy of some one. If Franey had not been so far ahead of his principal competitor, Mr. Watson, C. Watson would not have jumped into the arena to help Mr. King as he did last week. Now it should be the more gratifying on the part of Mr. Franey to "wipe" the two of them and more desirable on the part of the young Democracy who are at Mr. Franey's back to see to it that the victory goes to Mr. Franey with more certainty and positiveness. Mr. Franey is none the weaker because of Mr. Watson's entry into the field. What did Watson ever do as Senator which should make him a formidable candidate and one to fear at this stage of the contest when lines have been drawn between Franey and King and noses have all been counted and Franey found to be in the lead? No, in the opinion of your scribe, there is nothing in Mr. Watson's candidacy to strike terror to the hearts of the progressive Democrats in the 30th district who want to see Mr. Franey win. On the contrary, I can see plainly how the Franey people can turn this impertinent opposition of Watson to good account for Franey.

The Sheriff's contest remains about the same with Thomas J. Higgins leading on the Democratic side and Davis and Scott neck and neck on the other side. You may stick a pin here. Your favorite Dave Llewellyn is forging ahead for Director of the Poor.

So far as the office of Jury Commissioner is concerned both parties are still asked to nominate their poorest men. Unless the people very soon take hold and chase good men into the field for this office they may take the consequences in the court house when they have cases to try.

In Honor of Her Guests.

The Grant residence was the scene of much amusement last evening. Misses Floe Fulton, of Shamokin, and Bessie Patterson, of New York, are visiting Miss Jessie Grant, and last evening the latter gave a party in honor of her guests. Among those in attendance were the following: Misses Maud and Carrie Lewis, Jessie Grant, and Messrs. Clifford Potts and Frank House, Shamokin; Baird Halberstadt, Pottsville; H. H. Zulick and John A. Reilly, Jr.

Yeager will make his first regular appearance here in the game against the "Phillies" to-morrow.

Buried This Afternoon.

The funeral of Miss Lottie Hess, the estimable wife of Benjamin G. Hess, took place this afternoon from the family residence, on North Jardin street. A large number of friends and relatives were in attendance. Services were conducted at the house and interment made in the Odd Fellows' cemetery.

QUINN WANTS MONEY.

He Serves Legal Notice on the Borough Councilmen.

While the members of the Borough Council and their attorneys were at Davis' Run yesterday inspecting the damage to the breastworks, with the object in view of ascertaining, from their own standpoint, at least, who is responsible for the cost of the repairs to be made, they were interrupted by the appearance of Constable Thomas Tosh upon the scene. The officer had in his possession a legal document, which he immediately proceeded to read to President McGuire and the other Councilmen. It was simply a demand from the contractor for more money, setting forth that the contract calls for the payment of work done on the works on the 15th of each month, and that that portion of the contract had been violated and that if payment is not made immediately legal action will be taken. It will be remembered that at the meeting of the Council on the 12th inst. a bill was presented from Quinn & Kerns for $24,302.98. The question came up again at the meeting of Council last Thursday evening, when an order was granted in favor of the contractors for $12,000 on account, with the understanding that the full amount would be paid as soon as Council could receive an itemized statement from the engineer in order to enable them to retain 20 per cent on the cost of the pipe.

No definite understanding as to what course to pursue has yet been reached by the Councilmen.

OBITUARY.

The Grim Reaper Adds More Names to the List of Departed.

Mrs. Fogarty, after a brief illness, died yesterday, at the family residence on West Centre street.

Martha, late wife of James F. O'Hearn, died at her late residence, 25 South Bowers street, at 10:30 o'clock this morning, aged about 82 years. The deceased was a daughter of the late John Lamb, and is survived by a husband and one daughter, Katie, three years of age. Notice of the funeral is given in another column.

Lemuel D. Jones, who died yesterday at the residence of Mrs. Arthur Jones, on North Main street, had been a resident of Shenandoah about two and one half years. He had been an invalid for about five years and death was caused by paralysis and old age. Mr. Jones was a merchant tailor in Minersville and Pottsville for 35 years, and was well and widely known in that part of the county. The deceased is survived by three sons, David, of Columbus, Ga.; Arthur, of Shenandoah; Howard, of Pottsville, and by one daughter, Mrs. T. J. Heiser, of Windlow, Arizona. Interment at Minersville on Monday.

Reading Gentlemen Entertained.

C. G. Miller, manager of Dives, Pomeroy & Stewart's store at Pottsville, entertained the following Reading gentlemen on his farm at Schuylkill Haven Thursday: John Stoner, Edward Baker, Will Kopp, Harry Heckman and Harry Fahl. In the evening they were served with lunch at Zimmerman's cafe, from the portion of which they viewed the bicycle races between the employees of the Reading and Pottsville branches of this celebrated establishment. They were joined by Mr. and Mrs. Bible.

The game will be called at 3 o'clock to-morrow. Half an hour earlier than usual.

The Lavelle Fair.

A meeting of the managers of the Mahanoy Valley Agricultural Association was held at Lavelle on Thursday, and decided to hold the fair from September 18th to 21st inclusive. This is one month later than last year's event.

St. Nicholas to Resume.

It is expected that the St. Nicholas colliery will resume operations Monday, after a suspension of three months, caused by fire and the drowning out of the mine. This is one of the largest collieries in the valley controlled by the P. & R. company.

The home team is in excellent trim, according to the Sunbury papers. It will put up a good game to-morrow.

BRENNAN IS NOT GUILTY.

The Coroner's Jury Submit Their Verdict in the Case.

THE MURDERER NOT KNOWN

The Jury Finds That Frank Baynole Came to His Death From Blows Inflicted by Unknown Persons.

MAHANOV CITY, July 21.—The jury empaneled by Deputy Coroner Fogarty, to inquire into the death of Frank Baynole, concluded its labors last evening. There was not sufficient evidence to prove the guilt of William Brennan, the young man charged with murdering the Italian, and he was discharged from custody to-day. The evidence in detail follows:

Henry Shoppel, the night watchman, after being sworn, gave the story as already told by several witnesses. Did not leave engine house after meeting the quarrel between Brennan and the Italian until he was informed that he was lying on the road. I did not see any one hit the Italian.

Q. Was there any one with the Italian? A. Kelly and his associates.

Q. What was Brennan's condition? A. It is hard to say. I cannot say anything about it.

Juryman—Did Baynole look angry? A. He looked angry.

Q. What time was this? A. It was the time when Galvin stopped him that I saw him.

James Lawler sworn—Did you see Baynole last Sunday? A. Yes, sir.

Q. What time was it? A. About 7:30 working time.

Q. Where was it? A. Near the electric road.

Q. State what you heard. A. Someone hollered out, "Macaroui Frank," and picked up a sprag, ran and grabbed Whitaker and then went to Brennan, who gave him a kick under the chin. He then started to go away.

Q. Where did you leave the Italian? A. Walking around the slope with a sprag in his hand.

Q. How long were you away? A. About three quarters of an hour.

Q. Why did you go to the Columbia park? A. To take a walk.

Q. Did you see the Italian when you came back? A. Yes, sir.

Q. What called your attention? A. He was on the stretcher.

Q. Whom did you leave then with the Italian? A. I do not know.

Q. Did you see anybody with a club in his hand? A. No, sir.

Q. Was he looking after anybody? A. He was looking after Brennan.

Q. Who was around there? A. Tabaney and Bradley.

Q. Were they quarreling with the Italian? A. I don't know.

Q. Did you see anybody hit the Italian? A. No, sir.

Q. Then you know nothing about the murder? A. No, sir.

Q. Who accompanied you to the park? A. Bradley, Tabaney and McGee.

Q. How long were you away? A. Twenty-five minutes.

Q. When you follows got down to the park what were you talking about? A. Don't know.

Q. Why did you go down to the park? A. We did not want to stay where the Italian was.

Q. If you did not want to see any more fighting, why didn't you leave when Brennan kicked the Italian, instead of staying half an hour or so? A. We left in ten minutes.

Q. Did you see Brennan while you were standing there. A. Didn't see Brennan any more until we left for the park.

Q. Did the Italian have a quarrel with anybody else? A. He got hold of Galvin.

Q. After that did he have a quarrel with any other person while you were there? A. No, sir.

Q. Didn't he have a talk with Bradley, McGee or Tabaney? A. I did not see him.

Q. Who did McGee leave? A. He left me and Tabaney.

Q. Where did Bradley go? A. Can't say where he went.

Q. Where did they go? A. McGee went down the road towards Shenandoah. Q. Was he in front of 160's? A. Yes, around there.

Q. Did you see any person while you and Tabaney remained at the slope? A. I saw Galvin.

Q. Didn't Galvin and Whalen leave there before you left? A. I cannot tell.

Q. What was the Italian doing? A. He was walking around by the slope with a sprag in his hand.

Q. Don't you know who struck the Italian? A. No, sir.

Q. Did you see the Italian fall? A. No, sir.

Q. Do you say that you do not know how the Italian met his death? A. No.

Henry Shoppel recalled.—Q. What time did you come to work? A. About six o'clock.

Q. Were you there at 9 o'clock? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Were you there at 8:45? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Do you know how the Italian met his death? A. No, sir.

Q. Did you hear any quarreling? A. No, sir.

Patrick McGee sworn.—Q. What time was it when you left the head of the slope to company with Lawler and Tabaney and Lawler? A. Five minutes before Bradley and Lawler.

Q. Where did you go? A. I went down on the other side. Bradley came after.

Q. How long did you and Bradley and Lawler were doing? A. Five minutes.

Q. Don't you know what Tabaney and Lawler were doing? A. No, sir.

Q. Didn't you and Bradley run toward the Shenandoah park? A. No, we walked.

Q. The second time you stopped was at the Shenandoah park, wasn't it? A. Yes.

Q. Why did you sit down then? A. To take a rest.

Q. Did you hear what caused his death? A. No, sir. I didn't know anything about it.

Patrick Lawler sworn.—I was going down the road when I saw the Italian with a sprag in his hand, and continued toward Jacksons. Didn't spend any time at the slope. Know nothing of what occurred afterward.

Q. Did you see only blows struck? A. No, sir.

George Stewart sworn—Live at Jackson's; was at Fowler's Sunday evening, in company with Mr. Ryan. Didn't go over to Fowler's slope; was over at the new slope; didn't see the Italian until I saw him in the road. Took off his hat to see who he was. He did not speak to me at all. Don't know how he came to his death.

James Tabaney sworn—Wasn't at Fowler's Sunday night; Bradley, Lawler and McGee were with me.

Q. Who did you see there? A. Saw the Italian coming towards Brennan and Whitaker with a sprag in his hand.

Q. Where did you go then? A. I went over to the slope, and saw Galvin catch the Italian.

Q. Did you see Brennan afterwards? A. Didn't see Brennan any more that night.

Q. How long did you, Bradley, Lawler and McGee stay after the Italian was kicked in the chin? A. Some few minutes.

Q. Weren't you there half an hour? A. It may have been a half hour or more.

Q. What was the Italian doing all that time? A. Going around swearing and going on. Saying, "Me afraid to man." "Me like to go to jail."

Q. What did Lawler say to him? A. He did not say anything.

Q. What did Lawler say to you? A. He came over and said to me, "Did you hear the Italian?" but Lawler said he did not understand him.

Q. How long was it that Bradley and McGee left before you and Lawler left? A. I can't say.

Q. Did you see Galvin or Whalen leave? A. No, sir.

Q. Who was with you? A. When I left Lawler was with me.

Q. Where did you join Bradley and McGee? A. Thirty yards back.

Q. Where was Galvin? A. Galvin was at the slope.

Q. Do you know how the Italian met his death? A. No, sir.

Q. Had you any difficulty with the Italian? A. No, sir.

Q. When did you learn that he was struck on the head? A. The next evening when I was coming home from work.

Q. Didn't you know before then that his head was broken in and skull fractured? A. No, sir.

Mrs. Brennan sworn.—Q. What time did your boy come in? A. He came in early.

Q. What time about did he come in? A. He came in after the first snow.

Q. Can you not remember the time? A. I remember that he was in a long time before the 9 o'clock whistle blew.

Q. Did he go out after that? A. No, sir.

This ended the evidence, and the jury, after a brief deliberation, agreed upon the following verdict: "That the said Frank Baynole came to his death by a blow from a blunt instrument in the hands of persons unknown to the jury."

Whalen and Tabaney Arrested.

Whalen and Tabaney, two of the young men who were implicated in the death of Frank Baynole, this morning gave themselves up, and were immediately taken to Pottsville and placed in the county jail.

The "Phillies" will arrive here late to-night. There is to be no disappointment to-morrow.

Collieries Idle.

Orders were received yesterday at all the Philadelphia and Reading collieries to suspend operations to-day. The shut-down will be but for one day, as work will be resumed Monday morning. The Ashley Run and Cambridge collieries, however, did not suspend to-day. The Lehigh Valley collieries shut-down on Thursday for the balance of the week.

See Toy and Folkord play centre field and third base at the Trotting park to-morrow against the home team.

Died.

JONES.—On Friday, July 20, Lemuel D. Jones, aged 74 years, 2 months and 12 days. The funeral will proceed by carriage from the residence of his son, Arthur Jones, No. 11 North Main street, at 2:30 a. m. on Monday, to Minersville, where the final services will be held at the home of George Rhoads, at 3:30 p. m. Relatives and friends are respectfully invited to attend. 7-21-94

O'HEARN.—On the 21st inst., at 10:30 o'clock, Martha, wife of James F. O'Hearn, aged 82 years. Final Mass will be held in the Annunciation church on Tuesday, July 24th, at 9 a. m. Interment will be made at New Philadelphia. Due notice of the time the train leaves Shenandoah will be given in these columns on Monday. Relatives and friends are respectfully invited to attend. 7-21-94

Callahan, a stone wall in the left field, will play with the "Phillies" to-morrow.

Marriage Bells.

The announcement is made of the marriage of Miss Ida Porter-Brown, daughter of Capt. John R. Porter, of Centralia, to Mr. Alvan H. Boyer, of Harrisburg. The ceremony was performed at Jersey City, N. J., by Rev. Henry C. Cronin. The bride is well and favorably known in this town.

Ladies admitted free to base ball park on Sunday, July 23d.

Their Own Light Plant.

The Borough Council of Gilberton is making arrangements to erect their own electric light plant. At present the borough gets its light from Frankville.

The best game of the season can be looked for to-morrow.
