GORMAN'S BROADSIDE.

The Maryland Senator Vigorously Assails the President.

HE CHARGES BREACH OF FAITH.

A Pointed Defense of the Senate Compromise as the Best Measure That Could Pass the Higher Body—Corroborated by Senators Vest, Jones and Harris.

WASHINGTON, July 24.—Perhaps no more remarkable scene was ever witnessed in the United States senate than that which occurred there yesterday when for two and a half hours Senator Gorman, the Democratic political leader on the floor, delivered his speech against the president and in defense of the senate tariff bill.

Mr. Gorman, with a frankness that amazed those present, discussed party secrets, opened the door to party enmities, and flashed his search light into the dark corners of party history. The president was assailed with keenness and vigor by the leader of his party on the floor of the senate.

Senator Gorman practically warned his colleagues that on the material points it must be the senate bill or no bill. Mr. White, of California, was the only other speaker of the day. While personally in favor of free coal and free iron ore, he, too, declared it to be the part of patriotism for the Democrats to stand together for the senate bill.

Washington, July 24.—In a list of nominations sent to the senate yesterday by the president were the following Pennsylvania postmasters: John T. Ives, Thurlow; John Nealon, Carbon; Moses M. Shaw, Bradford; John Westerman, Columbia; Frederick A. Seitz, Forestburg; John H. Ossebeck, Bradford; John H. Grady, Kane; Michael J. Derick, Dancoman; J. J. McCrum, Titusville; J. S. Sloan, New Bethlehem, Pa. Other nominations were: Archibald H. Grimke, of Massachusetts, consul at Santo Domingo; Hiram H. Lott, of Louisiana, consul at Managua, Nicaragua; David B. Peterson, of New Jersey, to be assistant collector of customs for the port of Camden, N. J., in the district of Philadelphia; Commodore Oscar F. Stanton, to be rear admiral in the navy; Captain Edward O. Matthews to be commander; Commander A. S. Crowninshield to be captain.

Death of Paterson's First Mayor. PATERSON, N. J., July 24.—Ex-Mayor John J. Brown died yesterday afternoon. He was president of the First National bank of Paterson, with which he had been connected since 1867, as well as a director of the Paterson Savings Institution, the Cedar Lawn Cemetery association and the Paterson and Passaic Horse Railroad company. He served on the board of aldermen when the incorporation of Paterson was being accomplished, and in 1856 was elected the first mayor. In 1857 he served as the representative of Passaic county in the state assembly.

Mr. Trumbull Has Not Accepted. CHICAGO, July 24.—On Friday a telegram was received at the law office of Hon. Lyman Trumbull from President Cleveland, tendering Judge Trumbull a membership on the arbitration committee to investigate the railroad strikes. The dispatch was forwarded to Mackinaw, Mich., where Mr. Trumbull is rusticated. As yet he has neither accepted nor declined the honor tendered him and what he will do in regard to the matter is an open question, though, owing to his advanced age, his acceptance is considered doubtful.

Escaped by Incendiarism. PERRY, O. T., July 24.—A band of outlaws came down on this city during the night and set fire to some wooden houses. While the people were trying to put out the fire the band liberated the prisoners in the county jail. Among the prisoners who escaped are "Bud" Appling, alias "California Cyclone," a prize fighter who was in jail for bribing at elections, and Clay Davis, a member of the Dalton gang, who is one of the most noted horse thieves and outlaws of Oklahoma.

Fined for Laughing. CHICAGO, July 24.—Emanuel Engstrom was fined $25 yesterday for laughing at bicycle lectures. The bloomers belonged to Mrs. Jane McCollum. Mrs. McCollum was riding a cycle in Lincoln park. She testified that Engstrom teased at her and made sport of her. Engstrom protested that he only laughed, and did not touch a single hair. The court took the prosecution's version and fined the defendant.

Britannia Again a Winner. QUEENSTOWN, July 24.—The race between the Vigilant and Britannia for the Royal Munster's cup was sailed yesterday, and resulted in a victory for the British boat. The distance, fifty miles, was covered by the Britannia in 4 h., 39 min., 15 sec.; Vigilant, 4 h., 31 min. Adding her estimated time allowance of a minute and 10 seconds, the British boat won by 1 minute and 35 seconds.

policy, but I, with the distinguished senator from Ohio (Mr. Brice) and the distinguished senator from New York (Mr. Hill), who carried the battle flag in that state, and the senator from North Carolina (Ransom) never permitted anything to stop our efforts until we placed him in this high station. We did it with an admiration for the man, with a belief that it would serve his country well, but I did it above all in order that we might have Democratic control in this government.

"Louisiana thought its two senators (Gibson and White) wanted to know before we entered upon the campaign—with no threat, with no inquiry except that which an honorable man had a right to make—what the policy of the party was to be under the apparently free trade resolutions adopted at Chicago. After a great deal of talk, after the most careful consideration, that candidate of our party told them as he told the public through his letter that the Democratic party was not to destroy industries, that it should place a fair duty upon dutiable articles, a revenue duty; that the bill which had met his approval was the Mills bill, and on the line of the Mills bill the Democratic party would act. The junior senator from New Jersey (Mr. Smith), Mr. Brice and myself did that, giving our time and our money and everything that man can give for the success of the party.

"In all my public career no man has ever charged me with perfidy. No soul can say that I ever made a promise about public or private matters that I did not carry out. I had the power to do it. These two senators and myself, carrying out the pledge of our party, whose candidate was endorsed by us, have stood here and been gibbered as three men who were in a sugar trust. It is due, sir, to those with whom I am associated to say that no man here would believe such a thing, but it is due to the man who writes the history that he shall have the truth of the transaction.

"What is our duty? What did we agree to do? We placed in your hands, Mr. Chairman, and you Democrats the power to say what we ought to do after careful and unfettered conference. No such confidence on the part of all our party has ever been given to men as we gave to you. Let this degree of confidence continue. Let this bill go back to a conference on the part of the two houses. These thunder clouds will roll by, these flashes of lightning, these exhibitions of temper, all must clear the atmosphere and enable the conferees to give new hope and new life to the American people.

Senator Gorman practically warned his colleagues that on the material points it must be the senate bill or no bill. Mr. White, of California, was the only other speaker of the day. While personally in favor of free coal and free iron ore, he, too, declared it to be the part of patriotism for the Democrats to stand together for the senate bill. After he concluded the senate adjourned, with the situation seemingly in as chaotic a state as ever.

Nominations by the President.

Troops Again Drive Out Commonwealers. CLYDE, O., July 24.—Bakowski's Commonwealth army arrived here and demanded food. This was refused by the mayor and the Commonwealthers threatened violence. The mayor called out Company I, of the Fifth regiment, who drove the army out of town at the point of the bayonet.
