PULLMAN'S DIVIDENDS.

The Pullman Palace Car Company is a corporation, and all corporations like dividends. The capital stock of this par-Meular corporation is thirty-six million dollars, nominally. What the bed-rock capital stock is or was before it was watered is not known. Eight per cent. ser annum on this nominal capital stock annually amounts to two million eight hundred and eighty thousand dollars; a good round sum, which probably may be sixteen per cent, on the honest, bed-rock

When the profits of palace car building were so much decreased as to render it becessary to reduce the wages of the Pullman workmen as well as to put them an short time, it may well have been Beared that the precious dividends, so dear so the stockholders of all corporations, might be discontinued and the eight or sixteen per cent, naturally lessened if not withheld altogether. This seemed the more probable after the poor workmen had been forced to strike, the works siesed, and a suspension of railroad bustness rainous to the whole country had taken place.

Fortunately, however, for the stock-Solders this has not been the case. A marterly dividend of two per cent., or sight per cent, per annum, has just been seclared by the Pullman corporation, and me fortunate stockholders divide among themselves seven hundred and twenty Shousand dollars.

The suspension of this dividend for one guarter might have prevented the strike. at then why should not capital have its first dues and why should the Pullman stockholders be expected to forego their beloved dividends?

A SETBACK FOR DEBS

His Answer Not a Sufficient Reply to the Charge of Contempt. Chicago, July 25.—Debs and the other officers of the American Railway urden met with a decided reverse yesterday in their light against the prosecution for contempt in the United States court. The court decided that the answer filed by the defendants is not a sufficient reply to the charge of contempt, and the motion of their attorneys that they be discharged was overruled. Today the court is hear-ing the evidence of the government to sustain the contempt charge, and the de fendants will be given the opportunity to produce evidence in their defense.

The decision of the court was announced by Judge Woods after he had conferred for a few minutes with his colleague, Judge Grosscup. Judge Woods said in substance: "It is true that a procedure like this is criminal technicality, but not essentially. It is an incident in the main case in equity under the bill flied by the government. No case has been cited here in which the federal courts have sustained the proposition put forward by the attorneys for the respondents. If anything should happen to change our minds dur-ing the further course of the case the de-fendants will have the benefit of the change."

During the discussion Edwin Walker, made special counsel for the government, made the suggestion that it was within the power of the defendants to end the trouble by declaring the strike off. They are still in contempt, he said, and the government is in possession of information that the injunction is still being violated. Judge Woods said that if there are fur ther violations of the injunction a supple mental information can be filed and the guilty parties will find themselves in much worse position than they would otherwise be in. Attorney Gregory denied that it was within the power of his clients to declare the strike off.

Estally Shot by Her Wronged Husband. Johnstows, N. Y., July 25.—Samuel Mill, a glove cutter, residing the northern part of the village, after a night's behauch shot his wife in the breast with a twentytwo caliber revolver. The shot did no prevent her escape from the house, but as she rau to the house of a neighbor Mills pursued her and fired several times. Finally he put the revolver to his own breast and shot himself. Mills was arrested, but no attempt was made to extract the ball, as his condition was critical. Mrs. Mills is also in a dangerous condition and both will probably die. Mills had detected his wife in improper relations with a man named Dehler.

GORMAN COMPARED TO CASSIUS

The New York Senator Declares That Per sonal Considerations Will Not Prevent Him from Defending the President When He Is Unjustly Attacked.

WASHINGTON, July 25.-Another dramatic scene occurred in the senate yes terday, but President Cleveland, instead of being, as on Monday, the object of at tack by the leader of his party, was de-fended with vigor and vim. Mr. Cleve-land's champion was his old political rival and enemy, Senator David B. Hill, of New York. The New York senator spoke for almost two hours to breathless galleries and a full senate. Several times the presiding officer was unable to re-strain the enthusiasm his remarks svoked, notably when Mr. Hill declared that personal considerations would not prevent him from defending the president when he was unjustly attacked. He defended Mr. Cleveland's letter, his right to send it and the sentiments it contained, and made a strong point against his adversaries when he pointed out that they criticised the president for siding with the house, when they admitted that they had used all their influence to induce him to interpose in behalf of the senate amendments to the tariff bill. He took up Mr. Gorman's argument and met it point by point in a manner satisfactory to himself at least, and concluded with piece of satire that stung those on the floor and tickled the galleries unmeasur ably.

Mr. Gorman on Monday compared Mr Hill to lago. Mr. Hill likened those who had joined in the assault on Mr. Cleve land to the conspirators who stabled Casar to death at the foot of Pompeil' statue in the Roman senate. Mr. Gorman he characterized as the lean and hungr he characterized as the lean and hungry Cassius; Mr. Jones as Marcus Brutus, the honest Brutus of the senate; Mr. Vest, who struck the first blow on Friday, as Casca; Mr. Voorhees as Trebonius, "testy but earnest," and Mr. Harris as Mctallus Climber. They had struck down the pres-ident, Mr. Hill said, not that they loved Mr. Clevaland less, but that they loved Mr. Cleveland less, but that they loved the senate compromise more. "And yet," be concluded, and each word rang out with Anthony, 'They are all honorable

Mr. Caffery, of Louisiana, who followed Mr. Hill with a brief speech, also gave to the country his share of the secrets of the political prison house. He detailed at length the manner in which the sugar schedule had been prepared, insisting that it was made by and in the interest of the sugar trust. Hathen gave way in order sugar trust. He then gave way in order to give the Democrats a chance to cancus, Altogether it was a very exciting day, and the indications are that others as interesting will follow to Attend It. Washington, July 25.—The Democrats of the senate yesterday afternoon decided to retire behind closed doors for the pur pose of settling their differences on the tariff and trying to reach an amicable un derstanding. Senators Hill, Murphy and Irby were the only Democrats present at the Capitol who did not respond to the caucus call. The caucus continued for three hours, and without reaching any conclusion or taking a vote on any propo-strion, adjourned until today at 3 o'clock, when another meeting will be held.

ANOTHER FRUITLESS CAUCUS. Senators Hill, Irby and Murphy Refuse

The discussion at some points was very warm, and especially so just before adjournment, when Senator Vilas was speaking. Several senators interrupted him with questions, and criticized the course he was pursuing in the senate. This called forth equally tart replies from the Wisconsin senator, and there was prospect of the debate becoming more personal when, upon the suggestion of Senator Gorman, the adjournment took

The caucus merely served to emphasize the two facts that the Democratic senstors are all anxious to pass a tariff bill, and that there are still wide differences as to the kind of a bill they can pass.

It was recognized from the beginning that Senator Vilas' motion to strike out the differential duty on sugar occupied a most important duty on sugar occupied a most important position in the present controversy, and several senators inti-mated that until there could be assur-ances of its withdrawal no conclusion could be reached in caucus.

Senators Blanchard and Caffery, of Louisiana, were both conspicuous in the caucus proceedings. Instead of showing any disposition to yield the sugar differ ential they asked that the conference com-mittee be instructed to retain that feat-are and the 40 per cent. ad valorem, and or and the so per cent an valorem, and to add the one-tenth of a cent additional on augar imported from countries paying a bounty on augar, and also to continue for this year enough of the bounty paid under the McKinley law on augar grown in this country to make the duty equal to two cents per pound. Senator Blanchard intimated plainly that if the sugar sched-ule was made less protective than at pres-ent that he would vote to postpone the bill indefinitely.

The only motion made during the afternoon was one by Senator Jarvis to send the bill back to sonference without in-structions, and while nothing like a vote was taken the indications now are that this motion will pravail in the end.

TWO DESPERATE STRIKERS

They Kill Two Deputies and Defy a Posse

Sent to Arrest Them. BIRMINGHAM, Ala., July 28.—War has bindingham, Ala., July 25.—War has broken out again among the striking miners. Since 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon two deputy sheriffs have been killed, a third fatally wounded and a fourth badly hurt. Two desperate strikers did it all, and they are now surrounded on the mountain near Coalburg, refusing to surrender. The officers are determined to surrender. The officers are determined to take them dead or alive, and will close in on them as soon as more military reaches the scene.

Yesterday afternoon Deputy Sheriff Charley Cole and James Smith went to the residence of R. H. Hudson, near Coalburg, ten miles from here to arrest his son George on a warrant charging parti-cipation in the Pratt mines riot, when cipation in the Pratt mines riot, when half a dozen negroes and deputies were killed by strikers ten days ago. The younger Hudson drew a gun and began firing. His father, who was with him, joined in the shooting. The officers also fired, but the Hudsons were too quick for them, and Deputy Cole was shot in the breast and died three hours later. The younger Hudson killed both the officers. The elder Hudson was wounded in the hand. Smith lived long enough to tell the other officers who came to the rescue the story of the killing.

After the killing the Hudsons fied to the woods, both heavily armed. A posses was organized at Coalburg and another

Corean Troops Repulsed by the Japanese

Garrison at Secul.

Shanghai, July 25.—A dispatch received here fron Nagasaki, on the southwest side of the Island of Kloo-Sido, Japan, says that a detachment of Corean troops, at the instigation of the Chinese resident, have attacked the Japanese gar resident, have attacked the Japanese gar-rison at Seoul, the capital of Corea, and were defeated. A later telegram says that a Japanese cruiser and a Chinese transport have been engaged, and that the cruiser sunk the transport.

Coreans and Chinese engaged in a bat-tle on the 19th inst. with Tungsis' rebels and a large number were killed. It is re ported that the Corean king has been kid naped by the Japanese. The Chinese consul at Nagasaki has ordered all Chinese to leave their homes. Eight Japanese and three Chinese men-of-war and 20,000 troops are at Jensen. Trouble is imminent at that place. Cholera is increasing at a fearful rate.

London, July 25.—The Japanese legation in this city has received a dispatch confirming the news received by the way of Nagasaki of an attack of Corean troops upon the Japanese garrison at Seoul. The dispatch states that the palace guard were the agressors. It also states that the Corean troops at Seoul number 6,000 men. with several Gatling guns,

Impuled on a Wagon Tongue

PATERSON, N. J., July 25,-James F. oyle, a local agent of the Metropolitan Life Insurance company, was killed by a wood, Bergen county. The horses were being exercised by William Mills, a liv-eryman, on West street, when they bea frightened by an electric car an They rushed down a block and then collided with a small frame house on the corner of Mulberry and River streets, im-paling Foyle, who stood with his back against the building, the tongue of the wagon penetrating his left shoulder.

A Madagascar Prince in Trouble. LONDON, July 25.—A dispatch from Antananarivo, Madagascar, says that Prince Kakotomena, a nephew of Queen Kanava-lona, assaulted a French soldier in the streets of that city recently and inflicted serieus injuries upon him. The matter was brought to the attention of the French minister resident, and be has demanded that the prince be punished.

Explosion of a Natural Gas Well. COFFEYVILLE, Kan., July 25.-A gas well just north of town exploded with terrific force early in the morning, shaking the buildings in the town and throwing huge rocks in the air, some of which crushed through cottages in the neigh-borhood. For thirty acres around the well the ground is torn up as if by a vol-cano. There were no fatalities.
