REFORMATORY ABUSES

More Damaging Evidence Against Superintendent Brockway.

BRUTAL TREATMENT OF A BOY.

Handenfied to a Ring in a Cell for Seven Days and Confined in the "Rest Cure" for Seventy-two Days-Bicked in the Face by Breckway.

ELMIRA, N. Y., July 25.—At yesterday's session of the Refermatory investigating committee, an ex-convict, whose name is omitted at the request of the commission crs, admitted that he had lied when charged with improper conduct, and that he had implicated innocent men, who, he said, were sent to Anburn and made to serve out their maximum terms. The witness was a respectable and intelligent man, and proved that it was possible for one prisoner to benefit himself to the in-jury of others by adroit manipulation and

Frank Wallace, the Auburn transfer whose letters enused both the reformatory investigations, is a bright looking boy He was punished and transferred to Au burn because of his refusal to tell Super burn because of his refusal to tell Super-intendent Brockway where his relatives lived, desiring to save his mother from diagrace. Wallace signification to the story, giving the details as have already been published. He told of being hand-euffed to a ring in a cell and being left there seven days, and of being confined in the "rest cure" seventy-two days in a screened cell, being fed on hash and bread and water. Before beginning his testiand water. Before beginning his testi mony he asked that he be sent back to Auburn as soon as possible. Judge Gilbert offered in evidence the correspondence in the case between lace, Judge Seaver and Brockway, Mr. Deyo admitted only the latter's let ter. When cross-examined Wallace re fused to answer any of the questions to him except that he lived in New ) city with his mother, and that his father was dead. Wallace admitted having at tempted to escape from the police court is Buffalo when sentenced by jumping from a three story window and receiving in juries from which he has not yet fully re-covered. Witness said that while sitting in a chair on the guard room floor Mr. Brockway kicked him in the face.

Judge Seaver, of Eric county, who sen tenced Wallace to the reformatory, was called. Judge Gilbert again attempted to introduce the entire correspondence in the case, but all was excluded save the letter from the prisoner to Judge Seaver.

William Facey, an Auburn transfer next told his story. He said hewas:punished next told his story. He said he was punished in the bath room in January, 1893; that Brockway hit him in the chest, and told him that he was a nice kind of a man. He was paddled four times, and at last admitted anything they asked him. On these statements he was transferred to Anhara suggests.

Auburn prison.
"Were the statements you made true?"

asked Judge Gilbert.
"They were false," replied the witness.
He swore that a scar on his left shin was the result of punishment received, but the defense again introduced the records to prove he had it when he entered the

Will Start Up With New Men.

PHILLIPSBURG, Pa., July 25.—The committee sent to Philadelphia on Sunday to confer with the Berwind-White company from the Houtzdale district, falled to re turn resterday though private dispatches received stated that the company would not pay more than forty cents a ton for three feet thick coal, with a better price for lower grade coal. The mass meeting called to hear the report of the committee was therefore postponed until this after noon. An earnest effort will be made to start all the mines with new men. The trial of the twenty-four miners at Osceola, charged with being implicated in the burning of the Imperial mine tipple, was continued today.

Vigilant Wins Another Race ROCHE'S POINT, Ireland, July 25.—The welfth race between the Vigilant and Britannia took place yesterday. The prize competed for was $500 offered by the Royal Cork Yacht club, and the distance was fifty miles. The Vigilant won in 3h., 51 min., 59 secs. The Britannia's time was 3h., 56 min., 31 sees. During the race the jaws of the Vigilant's gaff were broken and she finished the race under extremely unfavorable conditions. It is now feared that she may not be able to race again until Saturday.

Congressman Reed Renominated. BIDDEFORD, Me., July 25.—Hon. Thomas B. Reed was renominated by the First dis-trict Republicans of Maine yesterday af-ternoon. The convention was held in the city opera house, Hon. H. P. Burbank, of Saco, acting as chairman. Hon. Frank Robinson, of Portland, presented the name of Mr. Reed to the convention. Thomas F. ### FELL TO THEIR DEATH.

Plunged Down Five Stories on a Broken Elevator.

THREE MEN KILLED, TWO INJURED.

The Victims Were Carrying Meal on the Elevator of a Brewery, and Disobeyed the Bules of the Establishment in Filling it with Human Freight.

NEW YORK, July 25 .- The drum shaft of an elevator at Clauson & Price's brea ery, One Hundred and Ninetieth stree and Eleventh avenue, snapped in two yes-terday afternoon, and the loaded elevator plunged down five stories. Three men were killed and two others seriously in jured. The dead are: Louis Boes, 40 years old, skull fractured and neck broken; Ber nard Schneider, 46 years old, skull and back broken: Anthony Karl, 45 years old, skull fractured. The injured are Henry Hornebier, 39 years old, right log fractures and injured internally; William Embock 36 years old, both legs fractured and in jured internally.

Six men were engaged in piling up 10s pound sacks of meal on a 10x10 freight of evator, which is creeted in the center of the brawary building. The elevator run from the fifth floor to the basement. These men had to take the meal from the fir floor to the wash house on the fifth. Under the platform of the elevator and acros the shaft two heavy beams were placed on which the elevator rested. These beam were to prevent any jarring as the med threw the heavy sacks of meal on the plat-

Twenty-five bags were piled up. Ther five men jumped on top and the elevato was started toward the top of the build ing. The sixth man had gone back to ge another sack, and as he returned with his burden he saw the elevator moving up ward. The men on the elevator shouted derisively at him. He looked upthe shaft and as he did so there came a crackling sound and a loud crash. The elevator had dropped like a massive hit of lead the two great beams which a minute be-fore had supported the platform were crushed like match wood, and the ele-vator car with its load of life and death dropped to the cemented basement and hook the foundation of the building. Of the five men on the loaded elevator ca two were found dead. All lay in a heap together. The broken sacks had thrown out mounds of meal, which were quickly dyed with blood. The dreadful concussion had killed Boes and Karl instantly Schnelder was still breathing, but died a few minutes after he had been dragged out of the wreck.

Whether the machinery was defective or the load on the elevator too great has yet to be determined. On each floor through which the elevator passed was a notice prohibiting employes to ride on the
