THE INDIANS.

The Harrisburg State Independent remarks editorially that "the Indian schools seem to be getting all they ask for in the way of money from the federal government."

This causes the Mauch Chunk Daily News to remark: "Had the federal government planted such institutions as the Carlisle Indian schools half a century or seventy-five years ago instead of wasting millions on the corrupt Indian agencies, and the millions more to subjugate the red skins by the military power, they would by this time be quite as far advanced in civilization and good citizenship as the average of our existing white population."

All accounts from the Carlisle schools during recent years are that fully ninety-five out of every hundred pupils return to their people in the West and become efficient educators among them.

"The Carlisle school teaches not only reading, 'riten and 'rithmetic, but such industries as black-smithing, shoe-making, printing, wood working, &c., whilst many of the pupils also spend several of the busy summer months working on farms in Cumberland and surrounding counties, and all reports agree that with but few exceptions they do remarkably well. That is the true way to civilize the American Indians."

A BOOMERANG.

The Philadelphia North American says the Alabama Bourbons are greatly indignant because the Kolb party has resorted to campaign methods that menace Alabama society with chaos. The charge is that the Kolb speakers have been telling their ignorant audiences that Kolb has been cheated out of his election twice, and that he will be elected this time, and will be seated if "rivers of blood flow and hundreds of men die."

Of course it is possible that Kolb has been counted out, because the Bourbons down there have never failed to count in their men when it was necessary. A good deal of indignation is expressed by the Bourbons over the lynching of Jack Brownlee, a negro, who had been making speeches for Oates, the Democratic candidate for Governor. The Kolb men filled his house with bullets, smashed his doors, and then took him out and gave him 203 lashes. Similar whippings have been given to other Democratic negroes, and the Alabama Bourbons are horror-stricken.

It is rather late for that. When the Bourbons need to call "Republican niggers" to their doors and shoot them, or took them out and hung them, filling the bodies with bullets; when the Alabama Bourbons need to drive hundreds of freed men into the swamps solely because they voted the Republican ticket; when to the protests of all decent people these Bourbons replied: "Mind your own business!" we do not remember that any Bourbon was indignant. Such campaign methods were practised by the Bourbons for a dozen years, and the Bourbon press had no tongue. We denounced those methods then and we denounce them now; but retributive justice is not altogether dreadful. The Bourbons can now see themselves and their wickedness as the world saw them years ago, and the picture may possibly suggest repentance and reform. The Kolb men have revived the Kuklux, and are giving the original Kuklux-Klan a large dose of its own medicine. It is wrong now, just as it was wrong twenty years ago.

BACK TO CONFERENCE.

Senate and House Conferees Will Come Together Again ON THE DISPUTED TARIFF BILL. The Senatorial Caucus Decides That It Must Go Back Untrammelled by Specific Instructions. The Vote on the Proposition Not Unanimous.

WASHINGTON, July 26.—The senate will attend to the request of the house for another conference on the tariff bill, and its conferees will return to the meeting with those of the house untrammelled by any specific instructions whatever. This was the conclusion of the Democratic senatorial caucus, which adjourned nine days after a two days' sitting. While the caucus did not commit itself to any definite line of policy in so many words, the conferees feel, with their Democratic colleagues, that they understand what a majority of them desire, and they believe this to be that they shall stand substantially for the senate bill.

This is not the individual preference of many, nor perhaps of a majority of the Democratic senators, but it represents the opinion of most of them as expressed in the caucus as the only practical course open to the Democrats who think that the present congress must pass a tariff bill of some kind, whether it be what they prefer or not. In other words, the result of the caucus which has just closed is the re-announcing of what was known when the three days' caucus closed last March, that it is impracticable to pass any tariff bill through the senate which does not meet the demands of the conservative senators and the Louisiana senators.

It became evident soon after the caucus convened yesterday that the resolution of Senator Jarvis to send the bill back to conference without instructions was the only course open to the caucus. The other propositions presented were those of Senator Vilas and his friends, one of which provided for instructions to the senate conferees to recede from the one-eighth of a cent differential on refined sugar without any other change in the sugar schedule, and the other to substitute for the present tariff schedule an additional duty of 45 per cent. ad valorem, without any differential, and that of the conservatives to instruct the committee to stand by the senate amendments.

Senator Vilas and two or three other senators opposed the latter course, and the conservative senators declared absolutely and emphatically that they would not accept the Vilas proposition to recede from the differential, even though the ad valorem should be increased to 45 per cent. or any other sum within reason.

Senator Smith declared that such a change meant the shutting down of the refineries in his state, the throwing of thousands of men out of employment and a general disturbance of industrial conditions, such as he could not contemplate with composure, and would not accept. The Louisiana senators indicated a willingness to accept the substitution of 45 per cent. straight. The proposition did not, however, meet with general favor as the wisest course to pursue in view of the hostility of the New Jersey senator and those who acted with him, and in view of the fact that several senators who stated that they agreed with Mr. Vilas in his opposition to the sugar tariff as a matter of principle, advised in favor of the cessation of all efforts to give formal instructions.

There have been few secret conferences from which so many conflicting reports emanated; and it was apparent that each senator took away an understanding that suited himself as to what implied instructions the conferees were under. Some felt that the senate bill would be adhered to, and others that the main point of difference, the one-eighth of a cent per pound on refined sugar, was to be eliminated and perhaps a new sugar schedule presented. But from those senators who have been managing the bill the statement came with forceful emphasis that upon the main propositions upon which the houses differed—sugar, coal and iron ore—there would be no change from the senate bill when it was returned from conference. One thing which every one felt assured of was that forty-three votes could be counted on to send the bill back to conference.

The vote on the resolution to send the bill to conference again was not unanimous, Senator Vilas and a few others opposing it, and explicitly advising that a general coalition in the caucus should not be considered as binding them to support the report of the conference committee when again presented. Senators Hill, Murphy and Irby were again absent from the caucus.

The action of the senate caucus was received with much satisfaction by members of the house, and throughout the evening they gathered at the public centers and discussed the prospects of a speedy settlement. Although the general understanding of members was that the senators had not yielded on iron ore and discussed a reciprocity clause on coal, yet the tendency was so strong for a termination of the struggle that there was no criticism of what the senators were expected to do. Mr. Springer said that the caucus action would be readily accepted by the house.

Illinois Republican Ticket. SPRINGFIELD, Ill., July 26.—The Republican state convention, by a vote of 1,919 to 215, decided to make no nomination for United States senator. The following state ticket was placed in nomination: For treasurer, Henry Wallis, of Chicago; superintendent of public instruction, Professor S. M. Ingles, of Carlinville; trustees of the state university, S. A. Hullard and Alex. McLean, were re-nominated and Mrs. J. M. Flower, of Chicago, selected as the third nominee.

Mr. Fairman's Window smashed. CHICAGO, July 26.—About a dozen large plate glass windows in the residence of George M. Fairman, at the corner of Prairie avenue and Eighteenth street, were smashed with stones thrown by Simon Beckins, a Russian, and an anarchist, yesterday. When arrested Beckins declared himself of course against the United States government and George M. Fairman.

Accused of Alleged Poison Frauds. MINNEAPOLIS, July 26.—Peter Jarvis in the federal court acquitted Dr. G. A. Love and Dr. Henry Jones, of Preston, Minn., charged with returning false and fraudulent penicillin certificates and fraudulently obtaining money. There are two Van Leuven cases and the government attorneys are rather staggered at the verdict.

AN AUBURN SENSATION.

Nelson Beardsley's Alleged Widow Will Fight for a Slice of His Millions. ARTHUR, N. Y., July 26.—Nelson Beardsley, of this city, president of two local banks and director in all of the others, president of the Oswego Starch factory and many times a millionaire, died on Jan. 15 last, at his home on Genesee street. Simultaneously a widow named Mrs. Laura A. Armstrong, living in a less pretentious house in a quiet street a mile away, assumed widow's weeds and gave evidence of the most poignant grief. She personally visited the trades people of the city and announced that she was the widow of Nelson Beardsley, announcing that hereafter all bills should be made out in the name of Mrs. Beardsley.

Little credence was given to the woman's claim, as it was argued that, although the two names had been linked together for several years previous to his death more or less intimately, he was not the man to allow a scandal to be attached to his name. Portions of his vast estate were given to numerous relatives, but the bulk of it was left in trust for his six daughters. Nothing has been said in his will of a wife.

A bomb was exploded in the city yesterday, however, which gives color to the woman's story that she intends to fight for a share of the millions. Through her attorney she has commenced proceedings to establish her right of dower as the lawfully married wife of Nelson Beardsley in his lifetime, as she had lived with him until the time of his death, and claiming one child, Nelson D. Beardsley, as the issue of such marriage. Mr. Beardsley was 58 years of age at the time of his death. The infant who bears his name in these proceedings is 2 years old.

Action was also commenced to recover on two notes alleged to have been given by Mr. Beardsley in 1891 and 1892. Her attorneys say they will commence proceedings in a few days to recover the sum of $70,000 which she declares is the value of certain securities given to her by Mr. Beardsley, in trust for their infant child, and which are said to be missing from her private apartment in the bank's vault. The public announcement of these acts has created a sensation which never has been equalled in the community.

Mrs. Conrad's Counter Charges. HELENA, Mont., July 26.—The Conrad divorce case is again before the public. Mrs. Mabel B. Conrad files answer to the application of her husband, John Howard Conrad, for divorce. Conrad is a prominent character, once Democratic candidate for lieutenant governor and accounted very wealthy. Mrs. Conrad is a daughter of Mrs. Barnaby, of Providence, R. I., for whose murder Dr. Graves was convicted at Denver, and afterwards committed suicide in jail. Several months ago Conrad began suit for divorce, accusing his wife of infidelity. Mrs. Conrad denies all the charges made by her husband. She also brings many counter charges. She says she had a large fortune in her own right, and that her husband, through pretenses, threats and unkind conduct succeeded in getting large sums of money from her, aggregating upwards of $50,000.

Sir William Whiteway Disqualified. ST. JOHN'S, N. F., July 26.—Sir William Whiteway and William Bond, leaders of the late government, were disqualified from the legislature yesterday for corrupt practices at the election. They represented the Trinity district with James Watson, who joined them only a few days before the election, his connection being that of a silent partner, not an active worker. Watson was also found guilty, but he was only unseated, leaving him eligible to again contest the seat. Sir William and Bond will not be allowed to again stand for election for three years.

Debs Out on Bail. CHICAGO, July 26.—The case of the government against Messrs. Debs, Howard, Kellher and Rogers, of the American Railway union, was again called in the United States circuit court, and was adjourned until Sept. 6 on account of the sickness of the government counsel, Edward Walker. Subsequently the accused men furnished bail and were released.

Death from an Army Wound. HILLSBORO, O., July 26.—Captain E. Carson died yesterday. Death was due to a bullet wound received in the first battle of Bull Run. Captain Carson was the author of the famous dispatch to Governor Foraker asking the latter not to surrender any rebel flags while he was governor.

Killed by Electricity. BALTIMORE, July 26.—Frank Gorshoff, 25 years of age, property man at the Auditorium, was killed last night by coming in contact with an electric wire. He was watering flowers on the roof garden, and striking one wire with his head he was thrown across two others.

Tommy Danforth Knocked Out. MINNEAPOLIS, July 26.—Tommy Danforth was knocked out in the seventh round at the Twin City Athletic club fight by Harry Finnich, the "Arkansas Kid." The fight was a canny one from start to finish, but Danforth was handicapped by age.

Vessel Wrecked, All Hands Lost. SAN FRANCISCO, July 26.—Word has been received here of the total wreck of the British bark William Le Lachour off Cape St. James, on Provost Island, 600 miles from Singapore. Out of a crew of twelve not a man lives to tell the tale.

Cholera Increasing in Galicia. VIENNA, July 26.—Cholera is rapidly spreading in Galicia, especially in the western district of Cracow and in the eastern districts, near the Russian frontier. Traffic across the frontier has been prohibited.

HOOD'S SAVED MY LIFE.

"For years I was in a very serious condition with catarrh of the stomach, bowels and bladder. I suffered immensely from dyspepsia, and in fact was a miserable wreck, merely a skeleton. I seemed to go from bad to worse. I really wished I was dead. I had no rest day or night. I did not know what to do. I had taken so much medicine of the wrong kind that it had poisoned me, and my finger nails began to turn black and come off. I began to take Hood's Sarsaparilla. I had faith in the medicine, and it did more for me than all prescriptions. I have gradually regained perfect health, am entirely free from catarrh of the bowels and pain in my back. My recovery is simply marvelous." W. R. Young, Potter's Mills, Pa.
