OTHER PROSECUTIONS TO FOLLOW.

Captain Doberty and Wardman Meehan and Hock, of the New York Police Force, Surrender Their Shields to the Police Commissionses.

NEW YORK, July 27,-The trial before the police commissioners of Captain Doh-erty and Wardmen Meehan and Hock, charged with accepting money for pollos protection, was concluded last night. Several witnesses were examined yesterday, smong them Inspector Williams, who testified to the good character of Captain Doherty.

When Captain Doherty himself was placed on the stand he said he had been eventeen years on the police force, and our years a captain. As a patroiman his salary was $1,300 s year, as a captain $2,750 In 1593 he bought a house for which he paid $18,000. Mr. Wellman, counsel for the prosecution, was getting deeply into his private affairs and the captain excitedly exclaimed that the figures had been obtained from Delancey Nicoll, whom he had retained to defend him before the Lexow committee. This Mr. Wellman denied. The captain also owned property in Brooklyn. He made most of his money by stock speculation. On an outlay of $200 he once made in five months den ow $23,000. He was a surgeant at the time, and dld not know in what stock he specnlated. Intered. It was 5 o'clock when the board arrived at a decision. The president read from a silp of paper the decision, which was that Captain Doherty and ex-Wardmen Mee-han and Hock had been adjudged guilty. He stated that Commissioner Sheehan disagreed regarding guilt on the charge of accepting money, but he concurred as to neglect of duty and dismissal from the force.

"You are, therefore, dismissed from the "You are, therefore, dismissed from the fores," said the president, addressing the accused captain. The three defendants then began to remove their shields, pre-paratory to turning them over to the board, but were told to sit down by the president until he had finished. The board, he said, desires me to in-struct the superintendent to prefer charges against Sergeants George C. Liebers, Fehx McKenna, Hugh Clark, J. O. Jor-dan and Charles A. Parkinson and Patrol-men W. Emanuel Meyer and Daniel F. Mallon.

Captain Doherty at this point offered his shield to President Martin, who made a motion to the captain to pass it to Superintendent Byrnes. Superintendent Byrnes refused to take it, and President Martin theu took the shield, and also those of the other dismissed officers

The sergeants were suspended from duty pending trial. They will be accused of having taken money from Mrs. Thu-row, keeper of a disorderly house.

Lawyer Grant announced that he would apply for a writ of certiorari from the supreme court to have the captain rein stated.
