THE GREAT SUCCESS

Democratic Conferees Still at Loggerheads on the Tariff.

SENATORS WILL PROBABLY YIELD.

The House Conferent Belleve That the Situation Is Changing in Their Favor, and Are More Determined Than Ever. Ex-Speaker Reed's Cartoon.

Washington, July 31.—For the first time since the tariff bill has been in con-ference there were signs of wavering yesterday in the strong line that has steed behind the senate bill. "Senate bill or no bill" was repeated during the day, but less frequently and with less emphasis than heretofors. The only explanation for the brief conferences yesterday is the fact that the conferees feel that the situation is changing in their favor.

There are many reasons advanced to show that this statement has good foundstion. It is known that the mails and the telegraph are bringing to the Democratic senators urgent appeals to pass a bil "which will not favor the trusts and which will be in line with the demands of the party platform." In fact these requests upon the senators are endorsements of the position of the president and the house in the main points of difference. That these telegrams are having effect cannot be denied, and have caused the senators who are most insistent upon the senate bill as regards coal, iron ore and sugar no little

It is known that a great deal of pressure is being brought to bear on the Demo-eratic conferees of the senate to report an agreement with modifications of the three agreement with modifications of the three principal items, a compromise being sug-gested to the extent of a flat ad valorem rate on sugar of 45 per cent., with an ex-tension of the bounty to Jan 1, 1895, free iron ore, coal forty cents a ton, with a reciprocity provision that coal shall be admitted free from such countries as grant free admission to coal produced in the United States. While this proposition has not been submitted with any assertion that it is an ultimatum of the house conferees, there is a great deal of talk that such a proposition is likely to be prethat such a proposition is likely to be pre-sented. This, it is believed, will secure the votes of the Louisiana senators, the two Populists, Allen and Kyle, and Irby, of South Carolina. In that even it would take three other Democratic senators besides Hill to defeat the bill, and the house members declare the number cannot be

It is a fact that the situation, turning as it does on these lines, has caused considerable uneasiness among the Demo-crats of the senate and especially those who are known to be steadfast in their demands for the senate bill in its main features. The reliance of the house upon outside pressure and the Democratic sen-timent that seems to be railying around the president and the house from the country at large, it is claimed, will grow stronger from day to day until the senate conferees will be compelled to yield.

The tension between the senate and house was as marked at the close of the session yesterday as it had been at any previous time. The Democratic members of the conference found themselves in a complete deadlock when they met during the forencon, and the full conference called for 1 o'clock found itself without business before it when it convened. The full conference did not continue to exceed fifteen minutes, and the proceedings consisted in a statement by the Democrats to the Republicans that the Democratic con-ferees had been unable to reach an under-standing, and a suggestion on the part of Chairman Wilson, of the house conferees, that the conference adjourn subject to the

that the conference adjourn subject to the call of the chairman, which suggestion was acquiesced in by the Republicans.

The impression which ex-Speaker Reed obtained of the situation was embodied in a rough diagram, which he drew while the conference was in session, which represented the senate as a locomotive under full steam rushing down a steep grade.

Stretching arrays the track and directive arrays and directive arrays the track and directive arrays the track and directive arrays the track and directive. Stretching scross the track and directly in front of the engine is an immense well supported bumper, which is labeled "house," the Republican house conferees being represented as safely lodged in tall "That is the situation," he said; we all know what must happen when an irresistible force strikes an immovable

This is as much of a statement of the situation as could be obtained from any source. Democratic members of both houses appreciate to the utmost the ex treme gravity of the situation. The Demo cratic senators who will say anything on the subject say that to all appearances the house conferees are as unyielding as they have been at any time. It is stated that at the Democratic conference the house members appeared even more determined than ever to maintain their position.

Brutal Tragedy in Louisville. LOUISVILLE, July 31.—A brutal mur-der was committed last night at 1818 West Madison street. Thomas Evans, colored. 30 years old, cut his wife's throat from ear to ear with a razor, nearly severing her head from her body, and then com-mitted suicide by cutting his own throat. Evans was jealous of his wife, and they had quarrelled frequently. The room in which the tragedy occurred shows signs of a desperate struggle, the floors and walls being spattered with blood.

Archbishop Corrigan on Mgr. Satolli's Decision.

HE ACCEPTS THE PRINCIPLES.

The Editor of the Wise and Spirit Gazette Declares That the Church Authorities Will Not Enforce the Decree, and the Archbishop Responds.

NEW YORK, July 31 .- The World today says: Archbishop Corrigan has writ-ten a very important letter to the editor of The Wine and Spirit Gazette, in which he makes an authoritative statement with regard to the decision of Mgr. Satolli af-fecting Roman Catholic liquor dealers. The archbishop's letter was called forth by an editorial recently published in The Garette, which says of Mgr. Satolli's de-

"Will it be enforced in the cities of the country? Fally two thirds of the retail Catholics. Some of these are liberal con-cributors to church funds. We appreciate fully the delicate position in which Archbishop Corrigan and other bishops of the Catholic church in this country are placed by the decree of the papal delegate. We voice the sentiments of a large majority of the liquor dealers of this city and Brooklyn in saying: 'We dare Archbishop Corrigan to enforce in letter and in spirit the decree against the liquor traffic just issued by Mgr. Satolli, the papal delegate. Let the archbishop do it, and watch the

The Archbishop's letter is in his own

And arcadishop's letter is in his own handwriting. In it he says:

"In reply to your expressed wish, I have the honor to say that I loyally accept the principles laid down by Mgr. Satolli, both in their spirit and to the letter. More than this, no Catholic can refuse to accept them. As to the fear of consequences, I have yet, thank God, to learn what fear is in the discharge of my duty. Please re-member, however, that acceptance of principles is not to be confounded with the blind application of the same on all occasions and under all circumstances."

The editor of The Gazette, P. J. Smith has this to say about the archbishop's letter:

"The answer does not entirely and the answer coss not entrely and aquarely meet the issue. It is not a ques-tion of accepting a principle laid down by the head of the church, but of the cour-age to carry out in letter and in spirit the principles just proclaimed by the papal delegate in the face of seemingly adverse public sentiment. The issue is:

"Will the archbishop give orders to re-fuss admission to Roman Catholic socie-ties to any one engaged either as principal tres to any one engaged either as principal or agent in the manufacture or sale of in-toxicating liquors, and will be instruct the clergy to deny the rights and privi-leges of the church to liquor dealers who sell on Sunday?

sell on Sunday?

"The declaration of the archbishop seems to justify the conclusion that in the discharge of his duty he will enforce these principles, although he does not say so in his letter in distinct terms. Future developments will show how far this conclusion is justified."
