SHENANDOAH IN THE LEAGUE

Scranton Drops Out of the State League at Reading To-night.

OUR TEAM SUCCEEDS IT!

Pottsville's Only Rival Will Meet Her For the First Time This Season Tomorrow, and as a Leader, Too.

Special to EVENING HERALD.

SCRANTON, Aug. 2.—The state league club of this place plays its last game in the league at Reading to-day and the vacancy will be filled by the Shenandoah club, which will fill Scranton's dates at Pottsville to-morrow and Saturday.

The Scrantons will disband at Reading to-night and then re-sign its players and proceed to Springfield, Mass., to-morrow to join the Eastern league.

James Smith, the manager of the Shenandoah club, returned here from Scranton this morning. When shown the above dispatch he said it was correct. He was agreed at Scranton yesterday that Shenandoah should fill the first vacancy and it was well understood the Scrantons would be the first to drop out, but the latter fact was kept in reserve as much as possible as Scranton wanted to sell Hadden and Hogan. The former has since been sold to Boston and Scranton has determined to pull out of the state league to-night.

The Shenandoahs will play at Pottsville to-morrow and Saturday, at Harrisburg on Monday and Tuesday, and at Lancaster on Wednesday and Thursday.

The first game in Shenandoah will be played with the Hazletons, on Saturday, August 11th.

The usual Sunday games will be kept up here. Either Allentown or Reading will be the club for next Sunday.

Manager Smith says the home club will be entirely re-uniformed. The management ought to receive some encouragement in this connection from the citizens. This will be the first season Shenandoah has ever had a professional club.

Speaking of the strength of the home team Manager Smith said he believed Shenandoah had material with which to make a start, but it will be increased and strengthened by an additional pitcher, catcher and right fielder. The club will carry twelve men.

Barclay, the catcher, will probably withdraw from the home team after the first few days, as he does not wish to participate in professional games.

Chuck McFiehligh is expected here on Saturday, from West Virginia. If he comes he will be signed as right fielder.

In entering the state league Shenandoah steps into Scranton's shoes in every sense of the term. It takes the schedule and percentage. The result is that Shenandoah will start out to-morrow as leader of the state league club with 17 games won and a lost and a percentage of .510. Allentown is second in the race and Pottsville third.

Here's to Shenandoah! May she not only hold the lead, but increase it steadily. One thing is certain, Pottsville will be blue in the face during the balance of the season, trying to beat Shenandoah out. Again, here's to Shenandoah!

WHO HIT THE EYE?

Somebody Struck Gatawackos, but No One Seems to Know the Offender.

Anthony Gatawackos, a big Pole, appeared at Justice Dengler's office this morning, his left eye in ailing, and blood in the right for the fellow who closed the left. It is here the difficulty arises, however, as Anthony can't tell who punched him. He was riding on a crowded Traction car near Lost Creek, Saturday night, when a man struck him, he alleges, without provocation.

Gatawackos remembers his assailant's face, but didn't know the name and to add his prosecution summoned Conductor Hesser and Motorman Dee, who were in charge of the car at the time. Mr. Hesser told him justice that he was collecting fare at the other end of the car at the moment and was prevented seeing the affair by the crowd between. He went forward immediately afterward and endeavored to learn who made the assault. No one would tell. He then remarked that there would be trouble if the fight started again. The case was continued pending a further hunt for witnesses.

BROKE HER NECK.

A Woman Loses Her Life Through an Unruly Horse.

Mrs. Thomas Gray, aged 50 years, was instantly killed yesterday in a runaway accident in the Catawissa Valley. Mrs. Gray resided with her husband and five children near Slabtown. Yesterday, accompanied by her youngest daughter, aged about fourteen years, she started to drive to Shenandoah with a load of huckleberries.

As the vehicle descended Kunkle, orred hill, near Leitzel's farm, a bolt which held one side of the shafts to the wagon broke and the horse ran away. Mrs. Gray was thrown from the wagon and struck upon her head on the ground, breaking her neck and causing instant death. The daughter was also thrown out of the wagon and was very badly cut and bruised, but sustained no fractures. The victim was the wife of Edward Thomas Gray, who is employed at Titman's powder works.

EXPLOSION OF DYNAMITE.

Two Polish Miners Badly Injured at Ellengowan Colliery To-day.

Baltro Batulowski and Peter Alet, two Polish miners residing in Ellengowan, were dangerously injured at the Ellengowan colliery to-day. After putting dynamite in a hole they put black powder in on top of it and commenced tamping. A terrific explosion followed and it is surprising the men were not killed. Their bodies and limbs were badly torn and one bled almost to death. They were sent to the Miners' hospital.

Organizing the Miners.

By the efforts of Mr. John Rinn, of Gearhartsville, Pa., now in this region soliciting aid for the striking miners of the western part of the state, the following locals of the order of the United Mine Workers of America have been organized up to the present time: A local was organized at Shamokin on Wednesday, July 25; at Jacksons on Friday, July 27; at Mahanoy City on Saturday, July 28; at Charlestown on Sunday, July 29. Messrs. P. H. Penna, of Indiana, vice president of the United Mine Workers of America, and Mr. Crawford, of Illinois, a member of the national executive board, are expected in this region to continue the work of organization which has been inaugurated by Mr. Rinn.

Should be Remedied.

Repeated complaints are made of the condition of some streets, especially in parts where sewer and other pipes have been laid. The north end of Emeric street, at the Lehigh Valley railroad crossing, is in a very bad condition. A carriage was upset there Tuesday evening. Unless the proper authorities take prompt action in this matter the borough may find a number of suits on its hands. Besides, when such affairs are allowed to drag, the borough eventually makes the repairs at the expense of taxpayers who should in no way be held responsible for them.

Cake Walk and Festival.

The members and friends of the "J. A. C." connected with Major Jennings Council, No. 367, Jr. O. U. A. M., gathered in large numbers in Robbins' opera house last evening to participate in the ice cream festival and had a very enjoyable time. The festival was supplemented by a cake walk, which was won by Miss Sallie Griffiths and William Bashore. The guess cake was won by Miss Leubart. A squad of Co. A, Jr. O. U. A. M. Guards, and the Pittston and life corps gave a street parade and drill before the festival opened.

THE SCHOOL BOARD MEETS

Making Preparations For the Re-Opening of the Schools.

NO VACANCIES FILLED YET

Miss Carrie E. Smith Resigns as a Teacher—Difficulty in Securing a Site For the New Building.

The School Board held a regular monthly meeting last night and considered a number of important measures looking to the preparations for the next school term, which will begin on the 23rd inst., but owing to some of the committees being unable to make definite reports considerable business was postponed, including the election of teachers to fill the vacancies.

The directors present were Messrs. Conry, Hanna, Baugh, Ogden, Hooks, Morgan, Davenport, Burke, Devitt, Lee, Muldoon, Lynch, Manley, Stanton.

Secretary Hanna read a letter from School Director Trease stating that he expected to arrive home in Shenandoah from his western trip in about two weeks.

The resignation of Miss Carrie E. Smith, as a teacher, was read and accepted. It is understood that Miss Smith contemplates matrimony.

The teachers and salaries committee asked that the election of teachers to fill vacancies be postponed and the board decided to wait until the committee is ready to make a report.

Mr. Ogden, of the finance committee, made a report showing that the treasury of the school district is in a healthy condition for the opening of the new fiscal year, there being $10,912.82 on hand.

There is a large quantity of old desks on hand and as they take up considerable space for storage in several basements of school buildings the board instructed the committee on building and repairs to dispose of them for the best price obtainable.

As the indications are that the schools will be very much crowded next term pending the erection of an additional school building, the board has decided to again rent the two basement rooms in the P. M. church at the corner of Jardin and Oak streets. Additional furniture will be required for these rooms.

The proposition of an agent to supply all the school buildings with lightning rods was taken up, but as a majority of the directors expressed a lack of belief in the efficacy of lightning rods to arrest lightning, or anything else other than the waste basket, the proposition went into the waste basket.

The contract and bond of Jesse B. Davis for erecting an addition to the Union street school building have been signed and approved. The contractor is to begin the work in twenty-five days and forfit five dollars for each day he may be in default.

As soon as committees having unfinished business are ready they will notify the chairman of the board, who will then call a meeting for general business to make arrangements for the opening of the new term.

The question of purchasing the Latiffield property at the northwest corner of Cherry and Jardin streets as a site for a school building was discussed. It was stated that Mr. Langfield refused to sell it would be necessary to take proceedings to condemn the property, but a majority of the members expressed the belief that Mr. Langfield's reticency was more in the nature of a plan to get a high price out of the board and suggested efforts be made to secure a site elsewhere. A vacant piece of ground at the southeast corner of Oak and Gilbert streets was suggested. It was decided that the board meet at 6:30 Friday evening and proceed in a body through the Third and Fourth wards to look for a site.

PENCIL POINTS.

Our school teachers have three weeks in which to enjoy their summer vacation. To see a politician searching for your hand is a sign that you are worth saving.

Almost every town in the region complains of scarcity of water, but Shenandoah has at least a six-week's supply on hand.

There is talk of forming a foot ball league to take in Hazleton, Mahanoy City, Shenandoah, Pottsville, Ashland, Mt. Carmel and Shamokin.

Prof. Barrell, of the Lehigh University, who was injured at the West Pittston shaft last week, has left the Pittston hospital. Mr. Mercur is still at the hospital, but is steadily recovering.

The members of the Evangelical Sunday school held their annual picnic at Washington Park, Ashland, to-day and the large number of people who attended it had a very enjoyable time.

It is expected the Morea colliery will start up again the latter part of this month, or first part of September. It has remained drowned out since the floods. The water is being hoisted out of the shaft by gun boats.

A. P. L. A. Special Meeting.

A special meeting of Star of Bethlehem Lodge, No. 7, A. P. L. A., will be held at the residence of Mrs. Rebecca Hood, on South Bowers street, this (Thursday) evening, at 7 o'clock, to make arrangements for the funeral of our late sister, Sarah Hughes, of Turkey Run. All sister lodges are invited to attend the funeral, which will take place on Friday, 3rd inst., at 3 p. m. REBECCA HOOD, Sec'y. 7-1-94

Mine Flooded.

The St. Nicholas colliery seems to be suffering from a spell of hard luck. The colliery resumed operations last Thursday after an idleness of about ten weeks, resulting from a fire in the mine, and it is now thrown idle again by a flood caused by a large body of water breaking through the abandoned workings of the old East Mahanoy colliery.

NOTES ABOUT TOWN.

Facts of Interest Grouped So That They May be Quickly Read.

A gentleman who seems pretty well posted intimated yesterday that three days a week will be a small boy who fell from a delivery wagon. As he fell one of his legs got between the spokes of a wheel and in making its turns the wheel whirled the boy around twice. The driver reined in his horse, but instead of stopping the animal backed off the boy was wheeled once in the opposite direction. Everybody who witnessed the affair felt confident that the youngster's leg was broken, if he did not sustain other injuries, but when released the boy's body did not show even a bruise.

One of the most remarkable escapes from injury seen on our streets for some time was that of a small boy who fell from a delivery wagon. As he fell one of his legs got between the spokes of a wheel and in making its turns the wheel whirled the boy around twice. The driver reined in his horse, but instead of stopping the animal backed off the boy was wheeled once in the opposite direction. Everybody who witnessed the affair felt confident that the youngster's leg was broken, if he did not sustain other injuries, but when released the boy's body did not show even a bruise.

Seventeen years ago last Sunday Shenandoah's crack military company left for Harrisburg to obey the call of Governor Hartranft to put down the riots. Company H was attached to the late Colonel Alexander Caldwell's Seventh Regiment and was the largest company that responded to the call. Before reaching Reading the company found that the bridge across the Schuylkill had been burned and the train containing the soldiers returned to Auburn, proceeding to Harrisburg over the Schuylkill and Susquehanna road and arriving at the capital early in the morning. The company marched to the arsenal and, after several days duty there, went on to Pittsburg, camping near Shady Side, in Raup's grove, a beautiful camping place. Shenandoah people looked with pride upon her military company, for it had the reputation of being one of the best drilled and strongest in membership in the service. None had a better record. Through spite and jealousy the gallant Seventh was broken up and nearly all the companies mustered out, among them Shenandoah's pride. Another piece of injustice upon the company was the withholding of one year's appropriation, which somebody pocketed. Since then the largest town in the county has been without representation in the National Guard, but under General Hastings administration as Governor a strong effort will be made to have the representatives revived. Capt. George W. Johnson, who was captain of Company H, is again a resident of this town, and it has been suggested that he organize a call and organize a new company with members of the old company still residing in the town as a nucleus, so that at the proper time they will be ready to take their place in the National Guard.

HAND MANGLED.

Sprinter Begley Suffers From a Soda Water Fountain Explosion.

John Begley, the well-known amateur sprinter, met with a serious accident at the Cleary Bros.' bottling establishment, on Peach alley, yesterday. He overcharged a soda water fountain, causing it to explode. About one-third of the copper vessel was torn off by the explosion and one of the fragments struck Begley's right hand. The index finger was stripped of the flesh and the palm and back of the hand was terribly lacerated. The young man was sent to the Miners' Hospital.

Inquests.

Deputy Coroner Manley and a jury last night held an inquest in the case of Mike Durish, the Austrian who was drowned in a flooded mine near Batesville on Tuesday afternoon. The jury learned that the man could not swim and plunged into very deep water. A verdict of accidental death was rendered.

Still Flooded.

There is still a large quantity of water in the new slope of West Shenandoah colliery, but the officials express the hope that it will be hoisted out by next Monday morning. This water is the surplus of what accumulated during the heavy floods several weeks ago.
