This month will indeed prove a most august one if it shall witness the defeat of the Democratic assault on the country's industries.

SENATOR HILL vindicates the President by impeaching his party. The operation is like saving a tumor by amputating the person to whom it was attached.

The Sugar Trust scandal is like a bog-head of monopoly molasses—thickest and blackest and foulest in its lowest depths. The repulsive mass can only be purified by fire.

THE question whether the real interests of the whole country or the supposed ones of the Democratic party are to be sacrificed still remains in the balance at Washington.

PRESIDENT CLEVELAND seems to be having serious trouble with his unruly team of horses, and just now he isn't showing consummate skill as a driver. The Senate horse balked and the House steed tried to gallop ahead; the Presidential driver applied the lash, and now there is such vigorous kicking that the whole turnout is in danger.

IT IS INTERESTING to note how public attention quickly turns to new subjects and how soon a sensation pallis in the presence of a fresher attraction. Only a fortnight since the whole country was absorbed in the Chicago riots; now we are getting but the scant aftermath, which attracts very little attention in the presence of the critical condition of tariff legislation at Washington. A few weeks ago Europe was watching eagerly developments in Africa, expected to furnish the nucleus of a war among the powers whereupon the assassination of President Carnot made France the world's theatre. Now in its turn comes the Korean complication, with China and Japan practically in the throes of warfare.

CONSIDERABLE indignation was expressed at the Lehigh Valley depot yesterday over the condition of two wounded miners who arrived at the place on their way to the Miners' hospital. The men had been terribly mutilated by a blast of duallin and presented a pitiful sight, which was aggravated by the manner in which they were brought from the scene of the accident. They were crowded in a small, uncovered spring wagon with a light bedding of hay. Such a means of conveyance for men suffering as these two victims were was not only a flagrant violation of the law, but a disgrace to a civilized community. It was nothing less than rank inhumanity. To the credit of the Lehigh depot employes, it should be said, that they provided stretchers and other means to alleviate the sufferings of the unfortunate men and set an example which should bring a blush of shame to those who first sent the victims on their painful journey.

THE IOWA Republicans in their state convention adopted resolutions in favor of more rigorous laws for the restriction of immigration. They insisted, moreover, that the present laws were not enforced with sufficient thoroughness and energy. This is perfectly true. Our immigration laws are loosely and laxly administered and herds of people who ought not to be admitted to the United States are allowed to enter. Our mob leaders, our mischievous agitators, our Anarchists, are chiefly of foreign birth. The honor, peace and safety of the Republic imperatively require that European mischief-makers shall be kept out of this country. France and other European countries are adopting laws of merciless severity against all Anarchists, and it is likely that great numbers of these wretches will be driven out of Europe and will try to seek refuge in America. Every one of them should be shut out.

THOUGHTLESS people who are prating of the needs "of a stronger government" do not stop to reflect that we have a Federal army of 35,000 men; that there are over 100,000 state militia, of whom the President is commander-in-chief, and that there are over 13,000,000 of military age in the United States, fully 12,000,000 of whom at the first call, are ready to take up arms for the Stars and Stripes. Where is there a stronger government?

Will Prosecute Sunday Workers.
POST WAYNE, Ind., Aug. 2.—Some of the discharged strikers on the Pennsylvania and Nickel Plate lines declare that they will file affidavits against all the men employed on these roads who work on Sunday. The strikers allege that they have the names of all the men who will probably work next Sunday, and that they will be arrested on Monday morning for Sabbath desecration. It is said the threat will positively be carried out. Post Wayne is very particular on Sabbath observance under the new municipal administration.

Whitcap Whipping Leads to Murder.
LEXINGTON, Ky., Aug. 2.—Near Oaldea Oscar Morton shot and killed Hiram Wilson. The cause of the shooting was a whitcap whipping that occurred several nights ago, when several women of questionable character were severely whipped. One of the women was a friend of Wilson's, and learning that Morton was among the whitcaps he swore revenge. Morton had been warned, and when Wilson put in an appearance Morton opened fire upon him, killing him instantly.

Lynched by a Mob of Negroes.
ELK HORN, W. Va., Aug. 2.—Anderson Holliday, of this place, while drunk, shot at Bob Calloway and missed him, but the bullet passed through the head of Wesley Cobbs, killing him instantly. Holliday was arrested by Squire S. H. Pierce and posse. A mob of 300 armed negroes made a rush and succeeded in getting him from the officers. They then took him about a quarter of a mile into the woods and hung him to a tree and then riddled his body with bullets.

Informing Buck Discredited by Tests.
PITTSBURGH, Aug. 2.—The house committee on armor plate investigation visited the Carnegie plant at Homestead yesterday, accompanied by J. E. Buck, one of the informers. Buck failed to substantiate by tests his assertions that he was able to manipulate the testing machine. The committee left for Washington last evening.

Even the Best of Stories Misses Fire When Awkwardly Told.

Last year, while a certain distinguished English lady was traveling in this country, she expressed astonishment at the vast fields of corn presented to her view during a journey through Indiana and Illinois, and she wondered what the Americans did with the enormous crop. To this a bright young American girl in the party answered, "We eat what we can and can what we can't." The witicism would have been lost upon her ladyship had it not been for the friendly offices of others in the party, who, by dint of labor, diagrams, charts, etc., finally got her ladyship to see the point of the joke. Then her ladyship was so pleased that she put it down in her notebook to spring it upon her friends at home. This is the way the witicism spread when it is left loose at one of her ladyship's dinner parties. "In America, you know, they have so much maize that they eat what they can and tin what they can't."

When the Knights Templars journeyed to San Francisco, the most felicitous toast offered at their splendid banquet was in these words: "The ladies—God bless them! What would our Knights be without them?" An Englishman present was so delighted with the pleasantry—for the British adore punning—that when he got back to Australia he attempted to perpetrate the toast at a local banquet, and he wondered why there was no outburst of hilarious applause when he arose solemnly and cried passionately: "The ladies—God bless them! What would our Knights Templars be without them?"

We have all heard of the German who, having been fooled by a joker who pointed to a church steeple and asked, "How is that for high?" immediately went home, called his wife out into the yard, and pointing to the neighboring steeple tower asked with ill-suppressed mirth: "How high was dot?"—Chicago Record.

One Woman's Pin Money.
Among curious methods of raising money may be noted the following, discovered in a foreign periodical: A French woman advertises that she will, for a small consideration, send directions for keeping one's hair in curl. She adds that the method is a simple one and easily mastered.

IT FASTENS ITS HOLD upon you before you know it. It is sure to be in the air we breathe, the water we drink. The germ of consumption is everywhere present. The germ begins to grow as soon as it reaches a weak spot in the body. Catarrh, Bronchitis, and a scrofulous condition furnish the most common spots. The way to fight these germs—leaves a scar—renders the liver active and purify the blood with Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. Besides, it builds up healthy flesh. It is guaranteed in all bronchial, throat and lung affections, every form of scrofula, even Consumption in its earlier stages. If the "Discovery" fails to benefit or cure, you have your money back. Fortify yourself against disease by making the body germ-proof, then you will save yourself from grip, influenza, and many of the passing diseases. Too well known to need lengthy advertisements.—Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy.

CESARIO ON TRIAL.

President Carnot's Assassins Before the Assize Court.

NO REGRETS FOR HIS CRIME

The Prisoner Refuses to Admit His Connection with Other Anarchists—The Audience Revert at His Cold Blooded Attitude When Questioned.

LYONS, France, Aug. 2.—Santo Cesario, the anarchist who murdered President Carnot, was placed on trial in the assize court here. The prisoner was quietly removed to the court from his cell in the St. Paul prison at an early hour, and reached the court without any incident worth noting. The anarchists made no movement whatever, and recently they have even avoided all mention of Cesario's name. An entire battalion of infantry is guarding the court house, the soldiers being deployed in pickets upon all approaches, while a double cordon of troops surrounds the building itself. In addition a company of infantry is posted in the entrance hall, and a platoon of cavalry surrounded the prison van as it was driven at a gallop from the prison of St. Paul to the court house. The same escort last evening took the prisoner back to his cell. The soldiers on duty are supplemented by every variety of police official, from the local gendarme to the shrewdest detective officer from the Paris prefecture.

Over a hundred specially selected newspaper men were sequestered into a space only large enough for about twenty persons, and these, owing to the postponement of the trial made purposely by the government to permit of the enactment of the new anti-anarchist law, had themselves under strict control. For the first time in the experience of many of them their "copy" will be edited by the judge.

M. Breuille, president judge of the Lyons assize, who is trying the case, was no sooner seated than he called on the gendarmes to bring in the accused. The crowd was distinctly disappointed at the mild appearance of the prisoner, but some people noted with pleasure and regret his curly dark chestnut hair, oval face and boy-like appearance of the blood stained anarchist.

After the reading of the indictment the names of thirty witnesses were read and answered to, and then Judge Breuille began to question the accused. The prisoner declared that he was wholly responsible for his actions, and acknowledged that he had killed the president from anarchist motives.

In reply to the judge's questions in regard to his childhood and his taking part in religious processions, Cesario answered mockingly, "Children do not know what they are doing."

Judge Breuille then examined Cesario at length as to his connection with anarchism. During this examination the president said: "Your family tried to wear you down by these horrible doctrines?"

To this the prisoner replied: "I love my mother, but I cannot submit to her prejudice or to my family's prejudices. There is the larger family of humanity."

In answer to further questions the prisoner told of his journey from Cete to Lyons, saying: "I came straight here to execute my mission. He then proceeded to tell the story of the tragedy in a careless tone, which contrasted deeply and fully with the deep emotion exhibited by the audience. His only regret seemed to be that he had not struck the heart of the president.

"What right had you to kill President Carnot?" asked the president judge, solemnly. "Leaving aside human laws, there is the natural law which forbids murder. You acted as assassin, judge and executioner."

To this Cesario coolly remarked, stroking his slight mustache: "If it is true that killing is forbidden why do the heads of states kill millions of men?"

"You are young to judge, and especially to kill," replied Judge Breuille. Then Cesario continued, warming up to his subject, and compared himself to a soldier, "ready to do anything." "But," said the president judge, "soldiers do not commit murder in order to defend their country. You not only killed the chief of the state, you also killed the father of a family, a model husband. You are guilty of a real, common law crime." "Yes," said Cesario, thoughtfully, though with the suspicion of a smile on his face. "He was the father of a family, but he caused the father of a family to be killed when he refused to pardon Vallant."

VICTORY FOR CHINESE SOLDIERS

Over Two Thousand Japanese Killed in a Battle Near Asan.

LONDON, Aug. 2.—A dispatch to the Times from Shanghai says that reports have been received from foreign officials at Seoul, the capital of Corea, that the Chinese, under General Yee, on Sunday last, defeated the Japanese forces near Asan. It is added that the Japanese withdrew to Seoul. Twenty thousand Manchurian Chinese troops have crossed the Korean frontier and are marching on Seoul.

An official telegram from Tientsin says that in the battles fought July 27 and July 28 at Asan the Japanese were repulsed with a loss of 2,000 men.

The emperor of China has issued an edict accepting the war which he says Japan has thrust upon him, and ordering his viceroys and commanders to root out the pestilent Japanese from their lairs.

The Japanese fleet is concentrating its strength at Kanghwa, an island at the mouth of the Seoul river, and a great naval fight is expected shortly.

The Japanese colonel who commands the Japanese troops in Corea formerly served, with other Japanese officers, in the German army and distinguished himself greatly.

Dispatches from Japanese and Chinese sources regarding the wreck of the Kow Shing are wholly at variance. The Chinese declare that the attack was wholly without provocation, while the Japanese assert that it was precipitated by the action of the Chinese soldiers on board the transport.

The Earl of Kimberly has demanded of the Japanese government that the British consul be allowed to be present when the commander of the cruiser, Naniwa is tried by court martial for the sinking of the Kow Shing. The German government has instructed Colonel Hannekin, who escaped from the Kow Shing, to give the fullest details of what occurred previous to the firing on the transport to the British consul at Seoul.

The Japanese minister at Seoul has placed Tai-Iun-Kun, the king's father, at the head of the Korean government.

The Rebellion in Samoa.
SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 2.—Admiral from Apia, Samoa, to July is say: There have been two skirmishes between small bands of the contending forces, and several Samoans have been killed and wounded. There has, however, been no really serious outbreak, and the protracted struggle does not appear to be near a termination. The rebel bands maintain their ground in Atua, and are well supplied with arms and ammunition. No determined attempts have been made to dislodge them, and the only fighting has been desultory skirmishing in the bush between the rebels and bands of the king's warriors. Both rebel and government warriors continue their barbarous practice of beheading those of the enemy who fall into their hands.

Lightning Destroys Live Stock.
DELAWARE, O., Aug. 2.—A severe storm in this locality yesterday did considerable damage. Charles Boston's barn, with sixty tons of hay, horses, cattle and farm machinery, was consumed. H. Hill's barn, with several horses, high grade cattle, fifty tons of hay and farming utensils, was also fired by lightning and destroyed. Mrs. Lewis' barn, filled with hay and farm tools, was destroyed. M. O'Brien's barn, with hay crop and all his implements, was burned. Similar damages are reported in adjoining counties.

Two More Robbers Bite the Dust.
SAMPBA, I. T., Aug. 3.—Two of the Cook gang of desperadoes, to some of whose members is laid the bank robbery at Chandler on Tuesday, have paid the penalty of an outlaw's life. A posse came across Henry Munson and Lon Gordon yesterday. The desperadoes immediately gave battle, but the second volley from the officers' Winchester brought the outlaws to the ground. Munson died instantly and Gordon was fatally wounded. One of the two marshals was severely wounded.

A Paradoxical Finding.
WASHINGTON, Aug. 3.—One of the oddities among court martial findings recently came to the navy department from a court at the Norfolk navy yard, which tried a marine for drunkenness and assault in hospital. They found the man guilty of drunkenness and also of assault, but not guilty of the charge of striking the man assaulted. Acting Secretary McAdoo, in his endorsement, called attention to this paradoxical finding, but confirmed the sentence of dismissal.

Minnesota's Incendiaries.
MINNEAPOLIS, Aug. 3.—The latest evidence of incendiarism has been discovered at Minnesota Transfer, where oil and waste had been placed in position to touch off. Extra guards have been placed. Local insurance men are much exercised over the incendiarism prevalent and offered a reward of $500 for the detection of any one guilty of the crime.

Uncle Sam as a Protector.
WASHINGTON, Aug. 3.—At the request of the Chinese and Japanese governments, made through their representatives here, the state department has instructed United States Minister Dunn, at Peking, and Mr. Denby, charge d'affaires at Tokio, to take under the protection of the United States the citizens of China in Japan, and of Japan in China.

Tyler Breaks Three World's Records.
WALTHAM, Mass., Aug. 3.—"Pinkey" Biles, of Chicago, is no longer the holder of the world's bicycling record for the one mile standing start. The record for that distance and three additional world's records, the quarter, half and three-quarter miles, were broken yesterday afternoon by Harry C. Tyler, of Springfield.

Pullman Works Resume.
CHICAGO, Aug. 3.—The Pullman works were started yesterday. But 250 men reported for work, although the company expected 800. About 1,000 strikers gathered about the building and good naturedly chaffed the returning workmen, but no attempt at violence was made.

Crops Destroyed by Hail.
ERIE, Pa., Aug. 3.—Heavy rain fell in this section, but at Westmore hall fell the depth of three inches. The hail was the size of walnuts, and for many miles to the width of a mile all crops, fruits and gardens were cut to pieces and entirely destroyed.

Indicted for Bribery.
NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 3.—The grand jury handed Judge Morris indictments as follows: Irwin Jamison, bribing and receiving witnesses from Judge Jamison, against I. W. Brown, city solicitor, and bribery.
