MT. CARMEL.

Mrs. K. T. John is circling among Shamokin friends.

George John, better known as "Farmer," is quite a masher. So the girls say.

Will Benson, of Centralia, shook hands with his many friends here last night.

Charles Shalter, of Port Trevorton, will remove his family to Mt. Carmel next Miss Piorence Stagle, of Debler, is a guest at the residence of Joseph Bud-dinger.

Miss Carrle Cope has just returned from an extended trip among friends at Shamokiu.

Edward E. Rhoads, of Heading, is com-pounding prescriptions at A. S. Jordan & Co.'s drug store.

D. J. Thomas, formerly of Shenandosh, ow a resident of this city, is one of the HERALD readers.

Miss Neta Moyer, of Milton, is being pleasantly entertained at the residence of Miss Adu John.

Henry Barnhard, of Ashland, said "How do you'do!" to old acquaintances here last evening.

Miss Annie Whitmer has returned to home at Sellinsgrove, after a prolonged visit to Miss Emma Wanamaker.

Misses Annie Wagner and Mable Wolfield, two of William-port's attractive young maidens, are the guests of Mis-Annie Jeffries. Miss Edith Fortner, of Centralia, ac companied by her friend, Miss Ella Hoag land, of Williamsport, were pleasant callers last right.

land, of Williamsport, were pieasant callers last night.

Not wishing to slight any one, we take pleasure in publishing the full details of another eventful surprise party that was given last evening in honor of Master Willie Fagley. About 9 o'clock, when Willie was thinking of retiring for the night, bis ears were greefed with a four ringing of the door bell. He hastily responded to the call and the reader can imagine his surprise when a group of prettily dressed maldens came trupoing in to welcome him back to his old home. The little gentleman left nothing undone to show his fair callers a royal time and assured them that he felt highly pleased to be the recipient of such a reception Games and singing filled the program and after partaking of a tempting repast they all returned to their respective homes. So another leaf in the book of life has been turned bearing the record of a happy event. Those present were: Misses Latlian Wardrops, Edith Whiteman, Katic Lewis, Ethel Derby, Christine Britton, Hattle Rhoads, Jennie and Nellie Penman and Katle Gould: Messra John Dreber, Ashland : Archie Derby, Will Wynn, John Thomas, James Smith, Charles Penman and Willie Fegley, of this city.

A Gain Event.

A Gaia Event.

Great preparations are being made for the picnic of the Columbia Hose Company, which is to mark the opening of the new Columbia Park on August 15th. It will be a great affair, as a stupendous program of attractions has been arranged. There will be a parade of the county firemen, a masquerade parade, professional wrestling matches, foot runing, including a handicap race open to all with the first prize 00 per cent, and the second prize 40 per cent, of each race, and to cap the climax there will be two parachate balloon ascensions. There will be dancing in the pavilion and the musle will be furnished by the Schoppe orchestra of ten pieces. The committee of arrangements is composed of Joseph Wyatt, Joseph Morris, William Hill, Frank Lewis, Alfrei Evans, Thomas Wade, John Delaney, Joseph Bosch, William Steller, Jers O'Nell, Joseph Platt, John McCabe, William Evans, John Shutt, Bavid Holvey and W. P. Williams. The floor managers at the pavilion will be T. J. Williams, William Meyrick, John Sbutt and William Hill.

Renneth Hazemore had the good for tune to receive a small bottle of Chamber-lain's Colic, Cholers and Diarrhora Remedy when three members of his family were sick with dysentery. This one-small bottle cured them all and he had some left which he gave to Geo. W. Baker, a prominent merchant of the place, Lewiston, N. C., and it cured him of the same complaint. When troubled with dysantery, diarrhox, colic or cholers morbus, give this remedy a trial and you will be more than pleased with the result. The praise that naturally follows its introduction and use has made it very popular, 35 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Gruhler Bros.

BRAVE FIRE FIGHTERS KILLED. Fell with a Floor While at Work in the Burning Building

Philadelphia, Ang. 3.—Two gremen were killed and five injured in a fire yesterday which almost destroyed the mill building at Randsiph and Jefferson streets. The loss will aggregate $50,000, fully insured. The building is 200 feet long, and four stories in height, and situated in the heart of the mill district. It is owned by David Cochran, who occupied the third and fourth floors for spinning cotton yarns. Part of the second floor was used by McCloskey & O'Hara as a carpet cleaning establishment, and the remainder of the structure was vacant.

The fire is supposed to have originated from a spark struck by a nail in a picking machine on the second floor. The flames apread among the inflammable contents machine on the second floor. The flames aprend among the inflammable contents of the mill, and were subdued only after the entire southern portion of the structure had been gutted. None of the adjoining property was seriously damaged. After the fire was quenched several firemen entered the third floor and turned that have an a large quartity of cotton.

their hoses on a large quantity of cotton that was stored there. Suddenly, without the slightest warning, the floor gave way with a crash, precipitating the men to the first floor, where they were buried among the debris. Two of them were taken out the debris. I wo of them were taken out dying, having been smothered by the bales of cotton. The dead are: George Gelsier, of Engine No. 21; George Dickel, of Truck C. They died on their way to the bospital. The five other firemen sustained less serious injuries.

IN SENATE AND HOUSE

But One More Appropriation New Awaits

Action in the Senate. Washington, Aug. 3.—But one more appropriation bill—the deficiency—remains to be acted on by the senate, the sundry civil bill having been passed yes terday after a three days' discussion. The most important amendments adopted yes-terday were the increase of the quarantine fund from $024,000 to $1,000,000, and the donation of 1,000,000 acres of "desert" lands to the states to which the desert land laws apply, as well as to Nebraska, Kansas, Utab, Arizona, New Mexico and Oklahoma. The resolution introduced on Wednesday by Mr. Chandler looking to the investigation of the Dominion Coal company was laid before the senate and gave rise to a sharp speech from Mr.

Chandler, but was not acted on.

The house adopted the majority resolu-tions of the committee on elections, unseating Mr. Funston, of Kaness; and giv-ing the title to the seat to H. L. Moore, Several Democrats voted with the Republicans against unseating Mr. Moore. The conference reports on the District of Co-lumbia and Indian appropriation hills were adopted.

Another Big Lumber Fire in Chicago. CHICAGO, Aug. 3.—The lumber district was hat night visited by a second firs, which for a time threatened to rival in destructiveness that of Wednesday night. Before it was subdued it had wiped our three inmier yards and the wooden bridge over the Chicago river at Ashland avenue. The fire was directly east of where the fire was checked Wednesday night. Again firemen were compelled to fice from the flames, and Peter Fleining, driver of an engine, is in the hospital as the result of his burns. Lieutenant Cumilugham, of Hook and Ladder Company No. 16, was fatally injured by a falling wall, and Cap-tain Sallivan, of Engine 34, was seriously wounded by falling glass. The loss is

The Strike at Omoha,

OMARA, Neb., Aug. 8.—The situation at South Omalia hourly grows more serious. Five hundred men, including all the la-borers at the packing houses, have quit tores at the packing houses, have quit work in sympathy with the burchers. Some of the houses have extensive contracts on hand, which will compel them to begin running a full force in the very hoar future. The strikers know this and have hopes of winning their points for that reason, but it is now a self-led fact that the managers have made all the concessions they propose to, and after Monday will give employment to all men who are willing to work. are willing to work.

Carl Browns Welcomed to Vincland.

VINELAND, N. J., Aug. 3.—Carl Browns and a division of the Army of the Com-monweal entered Vineland yesterday after a march of eighteen miles. They are sixty-eight men strong in the division Their entrance into the town was an ova tion. Buildings were decorated with flags and bunting and the streets wer crowded with people. A fine dinner was served, and the ladies waited on the hungry commonwealers,

The fire fiend again visited the slaughtering house of John F. Quinn about one o'clock yesterday afternoon. The fire companies answered promptly to the call, but through the prompt use of the hose of the power house of the Lakeside Rallway Company, and the Darktown fire brigrade, the fire was handicapped. An investigation was made and it was found that cotton waste saturated with coal oil had been thrown beloint the holer. The sentiment of some people is that the cause of the fire is known by some one. Mr. Quinn says he left the pince at twelve o clock to go for dinner, and in his absence the fire made its appearance.

W. W. Lewis, the hotslman, is often ociock to go for dinner, and in his absence the fire made its appearance.

W. W. Lewis, the hotelman, is often made the butt of a joke by a friend in town. "Bill" generally proves equal to the consider, however, and eleverly avoids, or turns the fun back on the joker. The latter recently informed the boys about town that Mr. Lewis was buying up locust wings for the manufacture of a new medicine. During the day mobs of inds with hats full of wings besleged the pince to sell their wares. "Bill" held the lads until their number became a small army and then informed them that he had just sold out the entire business to his friend and that they should go there in haste as the friend was anxious to lay in stock at once. And away they went. Last night a burn floated in among the gilded crowd and ask if Mr. Lewis had any "fifteen cent rooms." "Who sent you?" was asked. The born innocently named the joker. "Did you want a front or back room?" The crowd smiled and the burn said he wasn't particular. Lewis rang for the bell boy, ordered a pitcher of ice water, winked to the boy and ordered him to "show the gentleman" to the cellarway with an apology about the upper salirway being blocked by the painters. The lam was led back among the beer kers when the lad extinguished his light, bid the guest good night, and skipped up stairs. The burn tumbled all over the barrels, swere long and loud and finally came out evidently not altogether satisfied with Lewis fifteen cent rooms.
