The Senate and House are now giving an athletic exhibition in the form of a tug-of-war contest.

The up-to-date results of the tariff wrangle are the indefinite postponement of Mr. Cleveland's summer vacation, the loss of Mr. Gorman's temper and Senator West's dreadful attack of erysipelas. Six months more of the present drift of things would convert the halls of Congress into a vast infirmary.

DOUBT is entertained with reason regarding the nonchalant utterances of some of those in interest that the tariff conferees will be able to reach a definite decision on the large number of matters in dispute in the course of a few days. On some essential points the House and Senate are diametrically in opposition; for example, on the question of ad valorem and specific duties, Chairman Wilson says that the provision of ad valorem duties is a vital Democratic principle—just as much as free raw materials. Which side will yield and how long will it take to reach a decision? Then the Senate amendments number more than 600, and according to specific assurances given by the Democrats, these must be adjusted in full and free conference, of course, with the Republican conferees present. At this distance it does not look as if an agreement could be come at in a hurry, notwithstanding the assurances of interested Democrats to the contrary.

The announcement that Mr. Carnegie has come out against protection is no surprise. Mr. Carnegie has made an immense fortune through the tariff. The pig who has sucked his fill and rests in grunting content under the trees cannot have much sympathy with the pigs squealing to come in. Mr. Carnegie can only explain his course upon the theory of concentrated and implacable selfishness. Nor can we envy him the estimate it will receive from his fellowmen. Mr. Carnegie was credited some time since with the ambition to enter Parliament. We advise him in all kindness to nourish that ambition, and if successful, to confine himself to his Parliamentary duties!

TO BE COMMENDED.

Senator Hill is fairly entitled to commendation for the introduction of a bill, the avowed purpose of which is to keep Anarchists out of the country, as far as such a step is practicable. The language of the bill is unmistakable. There cannot be any misinterpretation of it, and in view of past experience it should meet with unanimous approval. It proposes to have additional or new immigrant inspectors at the principal European immigration ports, who will issue certificates to such persons only who, having had their records carefully examined, are regarded as fitted to become citizens of a republican country like ours.

Now is the time to take decisive and effective steps in this matter. It could have been done with great advantage years ago, but better late than never. Anarchists like Most and Mowbray are dumping themselves on our shores, being encouraged to do so by the prevalent report of American toleration. But the time for such leniency has passed. If there be any possible legislation that will in the future keep the country free from further anarchistic invasions, it should be enacted without further delay, and for that reason Senator Hill's bill should receive immediate attention.

THE DEMOCRATIC PRIMARIES.

Higgins Developed Great Strength—King Probably the Senatorial Nominee.

The Democratic primaries held Saturday were of a very spirited character, especially in Shenandoah, where a hard fight was made by the King-Watson-Francy factions for the Senatorial delegates. It is believed that King will be the nominee. There were rumors last night that the Watson and Francy delegates would merge themselves for a fight against King, but in most quarters the report was received as a joke. The fight in the convention will in all probability lie between King and Watson and will open with the odds in favor of the former. The interest through the county centered on the fight for delegates by the candidates for Sheriff. Higgins got all the delegates here and most of them down the valley. The indications are that Higgins will be nominated on the second or third ballot. G. E. McKernan of Pottsville, has withdrawn. Frank Langton and Dr. Sallade are still in the fight, but the former is said to be very weak. F. P. Spiess, of Tamaqua, has declared positively that he would not allow his name to be used in connection with the nomination for Sheriff. The fight in the convention will in all probability be between Higgins and Sallade with the former a strong favorite. There is not the slightest opposition to Hon. James B. Reilly's re-nomination for congress and so far as self-interest is concerned he can rest upon his oars until after the convention.

Poor Director Ebling is looked upon as almost certain of re-nomination. As to the Jury Commissionship it looks as if it will go to the mountain. Pottsville will certainly claim it if Higgins is nominated for Sheriff. The candidates for Jury Commissioner are B. J. McGuinness, Frank King and Timothy O'Brien, all residents of this town. The delegates elected here Saturday were: First Ward, John J. Reilly, J. J. O'Hearn; Second Ward, C. Quinn, Frank J. Brennan; Third Ward, John A. Reilly, Harry Dowling; Fourth Ward, Frank McCormick, Joseph Kerkwick; Fifth Ward, Daniel E. Brennan, Edward G. Gallagher.

What Shenandoah Has.

Miserable streets.
A widower who is too gay for his age.
The best daily paper published in the county.
The best railroad facilities of all the inland towns.
Some men who make ungentlemanly remarks about ladies.
A grown young man who laughs every time he says something.
A number of backwoods politicians who seek personal gain.
A man who says yes to everything you say while in your presence.
Scores of men with the caboose of their trousers worn smooth as glass.
A number who think they know how a newspaper should be conducted.
More base ball cranks to the square foot than any other town in the state.
A few who think they know how the town affairs should be conducted.
Too many parents who allow their children to roam the streets late at night.
A girl who would rather walk the streets than spend her evenings at home.
A number of young ladies of good families that know a strange ball player's drummer before he is in the town a half hour.

Patrick Donovan died yesterday at his home, No. 205 West Centre street, from miners' asthma and dropsy. The deceased was in his sixth year and is survived by a widow and five daughters, Hannah, Nellie, Lizzie, Mame and Alice, and four sons, John, James, Patrick and Peter.

Tied to a Mine and Boston.

CONNELLSVILLE, Pa., Aug. 6.—A strange showing of transported customs of the Slav element in this region was made near Leith. The victim was a young woman who had violated the moral code that is supposed to govern these people. A party of Slavs took her from her friends, stripped her of clothing, lashed her to a stake and whipped her savagely for over an hour. She was reviled, tormented and spat upon by anybody who cared to. A young man offered to release some of the cords and was beaten off by the mob. When the girl was taken down, after six hours of torment, she could scarcely move.

Scranton's Postoffice Robbed.

SCRANTON, Pa., Aug. 6.—The vault in the Scranton postoffice was robbed last Thursday night, $5,800 in stamps being taken. How the robbers effected an entrance is a mystery. Postmaster Vandorf offers a reward of $500 for the arrest and conviction of the thieves and the recovery of the stamps. The affair has caused a profound sensation here, and skilled detectives have already been put at work upon the case. The postmaster is worried over the robbery. He has said that he suspects no one in the office.

At a Dinner

—when you have eaten heartily, you should take Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets.

lets. Your liver needs the gentle stimulating, as well as invigorating, effect of these tiny, sugar-coated Pellets. If you feel drowsy, dull, languid, ineffectively tired or debilitated; if you've no appetite and frequent headaches or dizziness, a furred or coated tongue—it proves that you're bilious. In that case you should carry in your vest-pocket a small sealed vial of these Pellets. They are anti-bilious granules, which act in a prompt and natural way, without gripping. So beneficial and lasting to their effect, that the makers can afford to guarantee that they will give you satisfaction, or they'll return your money.

There's no case of Catarrh so hopeless that Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy cannot cure. The makers will pay $5000 reward for any incurable case.

HIGGINS NAMED!

The Forecasts of Saturday's Primaries Have Been Fulfilled.

Congressman Reilly Renominated by Acclamation and Hon. T. J. Higgins, of Shenandoah, Nominated for Sheriff on the Third Ballot.

Special to EVENING HERALD.

POTTSVILLE, Aug. 6, 3 p. m.—The Democratic county convention convened here at ten o'clock this morning with a full representation from all districts. The nomination for Sheriff was the leading topic of discussion and all the delegates were prepared for a long siege. As was predicted, Hon. James B. Reilly had a walk over for re-nomination for Congress, he having been placed on the ticket by acclamation.

Three ballots were required to make the nomination for Sheriff. On the first Hon. T. J. Higgins, of Shenandoah, received 2,900 votes; Dr. Sallade, of Pottsville, 2,500; and Frank Langton, of Ashland, 1,700.

STABBING AFFRAY.

Three Lithuanians Victims of a Desperate Countryman's Knife.

The highway is which a continuation of the end of Coal street through the north end of Brownsville was the scene of a desperate encounter at about two o'clock this morning which resulted in the serious stabbing of Mike and William Petuski and John Poluski. The men stabbed were on their way home from Shenandoah when they were attacked by Enoch Kilgus and Peter Savakunos. Kilgus was the most desperate and played havoc with a sharp table knife, stabbing Mike Petuski in the stomach, hip and chest. William Petuski in the face, and John Poluski in the neck. The wound the latter received narrowly escaped the fatal result.

The assailants were arrested and taken before Justice Williams, who admitted Savakunos to bail, but committed Kilgus to await the result of Mike Petuski. The latter will probably be admitted to bail tonight, as Dr. Hochleiner has certified that the injured man is out of danger. No one seems to know why the attack was made. There was a Polish wedding in progress near the scene of the affray, but the occupants of the house denied that they knew any of the men.

THIRD ANNIVERSARY.

An Event in the Pastorate of Rev. Robert O'Boyle.

The third anniversary of Rev. Robert O'Boyle's pastorate of the Trinity Reformed church, on West Lloyd street, was observed last night by a special program of service. The interior of the cosy little edifice was handsomely decorated with natural flowers contributed and arranged by the ladies of the congregation, and the Schoppe orchestra of ten pieces rendered a program of excellent sacred selections. Rev. O'Boyle made an address in which he interestingly reviewed the work in the church during the past three years.

Rev. O'Boyle has just closed three years of as active and fruitful service as any clergyman has ever accomplished in a similar congregation. When he first took hold the church was in an indifferent condition, the membership was waning, the congregation having become discouraged on account of having no pastor. Rev. O'Boyle took hold of it with earnestness and by strong and persistent effort and hard work he succeeded in injecting renewed life and spirit into the congregation so that to-day it has a membership of almost four hundred communicants and the debt of the church has been so much reduced that a comparatively small amount remains unpaid.
