CENTRALIA.

Miss Ella Laughlin, of town, and her cousin, Miss Regatta Laughlin and sister, of Freehold, have returned after a few days visit to Shamokin friends.

Miss Viola Williams and sister, two of Hamilton's fair ones, are spending a few days here as the guests of the Davis family.

The funeral of Thomas Haggerty, who was killed on Tuesday, took place Saturday. It was largely attended. The T. A. B. Society, of which he was a member, turned out about eighty members.

Funeral services were held in St. Ignatius church and interment was made in St. Ignatius cemetery. Work is progressing on the electric road between here and Mt. Carmel, and it promises to be running cars before October 1st.

The St. Ignatius choir of eighteen members enjoyed an excursion to Glen Onoko and the Switch Back on Thursday. The excursion was given by Rev. Power. He accompanied and guided them through all their wanderings. All report having had a delightful time.

John Reese, formerly of town but now of Philadelphia, is enjoying a pleasant sojourn among friends here. The beautiful park of the P. O. S. of A., on Trexler's tract, will be the scene of a grand party under the auspices of the Philomath Social Club, on Tuesday evening, August 7th. The club is composed of a number of our prominent young men and they have done all in their power to make it a success.

If the weather is favorable the party will be held on the following evening at the place above named. Over four hundred invitations have been issued throughout this and surrounding towns, and a number of young folks from out of town are expected to be in attendance. Music will be furnished by Ryan's excellent orchestra.

Kenneth Bazemore had the good fortune to receive a small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy when three members of his family were sick with dysentery. This one small bottle cured them all and you will be more than pleased with the result.

The praise that naturally follows its introduction and use has made it very popular. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Grubler Bros. FRACKVILLE.

The Junior Auxiliary of the Protestant Episcopal church held a lawn party on Wednesday evening last, which was a grand success. Mrs. Mary Gray, aged 40 years, wife of Thomas Gray, at one time a resident of this place but for the past several years residing at Zion's Grove, died at that place Wednesday last. Interment will take place here to-day in Greenwood cemetery.

Funeral services will be held at the Evangelical church of town. Miss Nellie Richards is visiting friends at Sunbury. Our Borough Council held its regular monthly meeting on Thursday.

Joel Klock, of Philadelphia, transacted business in town Saturday. The Reformed Sunday school of town held their annual picnic at the head of the grade, and report having had a most enjoyable time. George Miller and Miss Emma Wertz, both of town, were married on Thursday noon at the Reformed church, Rev. Bower officiating. We wish the newlyweds a happy and prosperous journey through life.

Miss Mertie Smith, of town, visited Shenandoah during the week. Charles Gottshall, of town, took in the sights at Shenandoah. Annie, the bright and interesting six-year old daughter of Joseph Oliver, died on Thursday afternoon, after an illness of three weeks, from brain fever. The deceased was beloved by all who knew her. The parents have the sympathy of the entire community in which they reside.

My boy was taken with a disease resembling bloody flux. The first thing I thought of was Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. Two doses of it settled the matter and cured him. I can and will heartily recommend this remedy to all persons suffering from a like complaint. I will answer any inquiries regarding it when stamp is in closed. I refer to any county official as to my reliability. WM. ROACH, J. P., Princeton, Campbell Co., Tenn. For sale by Grubler Bros.

That Leon W. Washburn Circus. All the bill boards, dead walls and old barns and deserted houses are plastered with red and yellow posters emblazoned with the figures of creatures from every clime, and all to be seen for the small sum of 25 cents. Children 15 cents. Undoubtedly, in popular estimation, the chief attraction of Mr. Washburn's menagerie is in "Cupid," the little baby elephant, who is only three feet high, three months old, and weighs two hundred pounds. Cupid is the most gentle and tinnest of elephants and is never so pleased as when a crowd gathers around him, when he at once begins making his trunk in all directions for candies. The visitors give him cakes, candy, apples and fruit, at an average of two bushels a day, and he can digest anything but nails and quids of tobacco, of the latter of which he is very wary. As a staple food, he eats his potatoes and bran. He has a constant attendant and keeper in Don Melville, who has been with him since birth. There is also a special groom for his quarters. Altogether he has a pretty good time. He is certainly a great feature, far above any of any that has heretofore appeared in this city, and Mr. Washburn may well feel proud of so valuable an addition to his already extensive menagerie. It will exhibit at Shenandoah on Saturday, August 11.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a child, she cried for Castoria. When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

For Sale. One couch, half dozen cane seated chairs, black hair cloth parlor suite, one single bed, lot of framed pictures. See all in first class condition. Moving into a smaller house compels the owner to dispose of these goods. Apply at No. 109 South White street.

"I know an old soldier who had chronic diarrhoea of long standing to have been permanently cured by taking Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy," says Edward Shumpik, a prominent druggist of Minneapolis, Minn. "I have sold this remedy in this city for over seven years and consider it superior to any other medicine now on the market for bowel complaints." 50 cent bottles of this remedy for sale by Grubler Bros.

NOTES ABOUT TOWN.

Facts of Interest Grouped So That They May be Quickly Read. The Lorette Camping Club, composed of letter carriers, postal clerks, etc., from Philadelphia, Manayunk and other places, are still camping at High Point park.

The Commercial Hotel seems to be the favorite stopping place for visiting base ball teams. The Reading club put up there yesterday and they paid Landlord Guldin quite a compliment for the fine table sets.

Two Jackson Patch clubs, the Powder Kegs and Coal Crackers, played an exciting game of base ball near High Point park, yesterday. Darkness came before the game was completed, 1-0 score standing 270 to 198 in favor of the Powder Kegs.

The trestle to be erected by the Lake-side Electric Railway on Bowers street will be built entirely of steel, the second one of its kind in the United States. Instead of an eyestone, it will be an ornamental and greatly improve that thoroughfare and open up Oak street with a six-foot wide walk.

A town milliner relates an interesting and amusing story. It was brought out during a conversation in reference to cock-roaches. She said a pretty, neat looking lady, nicely dressed, called on her the other day to have a hat improved. On turning the lining inside out she discovered a nest of big, black roaches, which the lady in question had carried about on her head. To say that the milliner was astonished would be putting it mildly. She was paralyzed.

William Kendrick, the genial proprietor of the Kendrick House, who recently went to Denver, Colo., for the benefit of his health, has fared so well that he is not likely to again return to Pennsylvania. He found the air of that state and the hot springs a healing balm to his ailment and he now has a new man. During his stay at Denver Mr. Kendrick invested very largely in real estate in that city, and his family will, in all probability, follow him before long. He did not forget to take with him his violin, and those who heard him play recognized in the performer the William Kendrick of old, although he has greatly changed in appearance.

Heart Disease 30 Yrs! Short Breath, Palpitation.

Mr. G. W. McKinsey, postmaster of Kokomo, Ind., and a brave ex-soldier, says: "I had been severely troubled with heart disease ever since leaving the army at the close of the late war. I was troubled with palpitation and shortness of breath. I could not sleep on my left side, and had pain around my heart. I became so ill that I was much alarmed, and fortunately my attention was called to Dr. Miles' Heart Cure."

I decided to try it. The first bottle made a decided improvement in my condition, and five bottles have completely cured me." G. W. MCKINSEY, P. M., Kokomo, Ind.
