No Action Taken at the Meeting of House Democrats.

THERE IS NO SURRENDER!

Speaker Crisp and Chairman Wilson Stay a Resolution in Favor of the Senate Bill.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 8.—Chairman Wilson and his associate house tariff conferees scored a victory yesterday when the house Democratic caucus, called with a view of terminating the tariff struggle by instructing or advising the house conferees, adjourned without taking any action. The effect of this was to leave the house conferees to proceed as they saw best. The friends of Mr. Wilson could have passed the Livingston resolution, expressing confidence, but there was no desire on the part of the supporters of the conferees to take this course. The sentiment was general that the movement inaugurated to bring about an acceptance on the senate bill had resulted in materially strengthening the opposition to the senate bill.

The proceedings opened by the introduction of a resolution by Mr. Bynum providing for joint caucuses of Democratic senators and representatives on Friday next in case the conferees have not by that time reached an agreement. In a brief explanatory statement, which was a brief one, Mr. Bynum said that although there had been a clamor from a part of the press for the house bill, he believed that the overwhelming sentiment of the country was for the best possible bill that could be agreed upon. For himself, he preferred the senate bill to no bill, and as he interpreted the wish of the party it was for a tariff bill and prompt action. He had no sympathy with the stand taken by some members that it would be better to retain the McKinley bill than substitute the senate bill for it. Chairman Wilson commented upon it as an unfortunate circumstance that at a crucial point in the negotiations of the conferees, and at the last critical stage of the conference as well, movements had been started to hold a caucus over the heads of the house conferees, so to speak. The house bill had seemed to be acceptable to the country, he said, while the senate bill had not. He believed that if the house conferees did their duty, and the house its duty, that a bill honorable to both house and senate and acceptable to the party and the people would be the result. Such a result would not be brought about, he said, by any action that would notify the senate that if it would hold out to a given date the house would instruct its conferees to recede.

Mr. Livingston (Ga.) proposed a substitute for the Bynum resolution expressing the confidence of the house in its conferees and leaving the matter entirely in their hands. Then followed a discussion of the position held by the senate and the prospects of an agreement. Mr. Breckinridge, of the ways and means committee, rose to correct the impression which might be maintained, he said, if not corrected, that any ultimatum from the senate had been received by the house conferees and opposed by them.

One of the Louisiana members argued that speedy action was necessary; that it was plain the senate would not yield, and proceeded to pay a high tribute to Senator Mills as a pioneer in tariff reform, and said that this conspicuous tariff reformer had personally assured him that it was the senate bill or nothing, and unless the house soon recognized this all tariff legislation would fail.

Mr. Cooper (Ind.) said senators around Mr. Mills had been trying to create the impression that nothing but the senate bill could pass, and that this might have its effect on Mr. Mills. These claims were being made by the senators under cover. Mr. Cooper said that now that the American people had been publicly notified, those senators they had been publicly notified. They would have surrendered already, he said, if the caucus movements had not given them hope that the house was weakening.

During this discussion Mr. Bynum offered to amend his resolution to extend the time within which it was designed to be acted upon by the conferees. Something of a sensation was stirred by the forging to the front of Speaker Crisp when the general debate was well underway. The speech of the speaker was temperate, but very forcible, and its logic was so irresistible that at its conclusion Mr. Bynum, the author of the resolution, withdrew his motion. The speaker declared that it was and should be the purpose of the Democrats of the house, as Democrats, to redeem the pledges they had made to the people. He deprecated the passage of any resolution at this time. The senate had not withdrawn its support from the senate conferees, and the house should stand by its representatives. No vote of confidence was needed, while on the other hand the passage of Mr. Bynum's resolution would be a virtual surrender. He gave it as his opinion that the conferees could reach an agreement in a couple of weeks at most, but they should not be harassed by a "back fire" from their own house.

garding the status of negotiations upon sugar, coal and iron, but no definite information was forthcoming. Finally Mr. Bynum withdrew his resolution, explaining that he was satisfied with the representation made, and on motion of Speaker Crisp the caucus adjourned.

The tariff conference was entirely subordinated to the house caucus, and was devoid of interesting features. The conferees had two brief sessions during the day, and discussed the coal and iron questions, besides talking to the sugar schedule. The revolt, however, served no purpose, except to emphasize the fact that the disagreement is still unbroken, and that very little if any progress is being made. Senate conferees have re-expressed their conviction many times during the past week that if an agreement is not soon reached the situation demands the reporting of another disagreement.

THE WAR IN THE ORIENT.

The Falling of Chinese Rivers Will Prevent a Japanese Invasion.

THEYING, Aug. 8.—A Chinese cruiser has captured a Japanese trading bark and taken her to Taku. All pilots have been warned officially that they must not guide Japanese vessels nor give them any information as to the waters and coast.

The rivers are falling steadily, in consequence of the drought. It will soon be impossible for the Japanese to make a raid up the Pei Ho toward Peking.

A copy of a Japanese edict issued since the declaration of war has been received by the Central News correspondent in Shanghai, saying the local authorities will be held responsible for the lives and properties of Chinese subjects remaining in their several districts.

The Russian officials in Shanghai say that if Russian trade suffers too severely from the war Russia will interfere. Russia's movements are watched very closely by Japan, owing to the report of a Russo-Chinese entente.

The weather on the China sea is so rough that all smaller vessels have been driven into port. The Japanese cruisers are supposed to be concentrated at Chefoo.

Shocking Wife Murder and Suicide.

CHICAGO, Aug. 8.—Henry Russell, colored, yesterday afternoon murdered his wife, Carrie, by cutting her throat with a razor. He then ended his life by slashing his own throat. The scene of the tragedy was in the building in the rear of 9 South Sheldon street. The couple lived on the second floor. About 2 o'clock Russell commenced quarreling with his wife. In a short time the woman was heard screaming, and several men who went to her assistance were driven out by Russell, who threatened to kill them if they came back. The police were notified, but before they arrived Russell had cut his wife's throat from ear to ear, and then taking up the dying woman in his arms he brought her to the window and huried her into the yard. He stood at the window with a bloody razor in his hand and looked down upon the apparently dead form of his wife. Before any one could enter the house and seize him the desperate man drew the razor across his own throat.

Brown's 'Wenters' Capture a Train.

ATLANTIC CITY, Aug. 8.—Thirty members of Carl Brown's army of Coxeyites stole the West Jersey freight train at May's Landing and threatened the train crew with violence if they were molested. At McKee City the railroad men attempted to oust the hoboos and were roughly handled and driven off. When the train stopped at Pleasantville all but three of the men left the cars. The trio were arrested, arraigned in the police court and fined $25 each and sentenced to serve thirty days in the county prison. There was not a cent among the three.

Murdered by Her Paramour.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 8.—Ethel La Roy, a dissolute woman, was murdered in a shocking manner on O'Farrell street. After a desperate struggle Frank Larrabee, whose mistress she had been, overpowered her, and with a razor cut her throat. In the terrible struggle the woman's cheeks, neck and breast were frightfully slashed. Pushing the dying woman from him he drew the razor across his throat, in an attempt to end his own life. The woman bled to death, but Larrabee will live.

Notorious Mail Robber Caught.

CHICAGO, Aug. 8.—James K. Stratton, a notorious mail robber and convict, is under arrest here, awaiting officers from Denver. Stratton escaped from a Colorado prison in September, 1893, while serving a two year sentence for robbery, and a large government reward was offered for his capture. He was arrested by Chicago detectives on State street, and fiercely fought the officers before he was overpowered.

Voted to Continue the Strike.

CINCINNATI, Aug. 8.—The striking railway men held a meeting at Beethoven hall to hear the report of Master Sheehan, who had just returned from a conference with Dela. By a vote of 24 to 24 the meeting voted to continue the strike. It was not a full representation. Meantime the railways here refuse to re-employ any strikers.

Probably Committed Suicide.

CHICAGO, Aug. 8.—Two south side girls, Ida Dreyer and Hattie Johnson, have been missing since Sunday, and it is feared that they have committed suicide. They had been forbidden each other's company by relatives, and becoming despondent the girls threatened to jump into the lake together. The police are dragging the lake.

Harry Manfredi Hanged.

POTTSVILLE, Pa., Aug. 8.—Harry Manfredi, the murderer of George Ochs, was hanged in the county prison jail yard, in the presence of 300 people, yesterday. Manfredi was a native of Italy, and was 24 years of age. He came to this country when but 15 years old.

FINNEY HAS WITHDRAWN.

He is no Longer a Candidate For the Legislature.

AN IMPORTANT REPORT!

MacHenry Wilhelm Withdraws From the Republican Senatorial Fight. Finney Will be Urged to Run.

John F. Finney is out of the contest for the legislative nomination on the Republican ticket in this district. This statement is made upon a positive assertion made by Mr. Finney yesterday, and which he confirmed last night when several prominent politicians called upon him to ascertain if a report that he had made an announcement to that effect was correct. Mr. Finney gave no special reasons for his withdrawal, simply intimating that he had other interests which might seriously interfere with him making a canvass which the occasion requires.

The change in this respect throws the canvass upon the hands of Joseph Wyatt, of town; Rees Rosser, of Mahanoy City, and Robert Peel, of Lost Creek. Following upon the heels of Mr. Finney's withdrawal from the legislative contest comes a report that a number of his friends, backed by encouragement from several very prominent and influential Republicans of the district, have decided to prevail upon him to make an effort for the Republican Senatorial nomination.

One of the most influential Republicans of the district said to-day: "It is true that there is a movement on foot to induce Mr. Finney to come out for Senator, now that he has declared himself out of the fight for Legislature. During the past two days there has been a change which I think will very materially aid Mr. Finney should he consent to run. An effort was made to see him to-day, but it was found that he had gone to Harrisburg. The situation is this: MacHenry Wilhelm has withdrawn from the Senatorial field and that leaves Coyle a clear road. Now, it is an indisputable fact that there is a strong feeling against Mr. Coyle among many Republicans of this district, and they will try to turn heaven and earth to bring out some one to at least make a fight in the convention. Those whom I have consulted feel that the opportunity is ripe. These Republicans I speak of want an alternative, and I believe that Mr. Finney would be just the man for the emergency."

Mr. Finney left Shenandoah for Pottsville on an early train this morning and later in the day proceeded to Harrisburg. He will return to-morrow, and if he is to be a candidate for the Senate it will be probably learned then. It is well known that Mr. Finney has recently become interested in so many enterprises that his time is pretty well absorbed, and as that caused his withdrawal from the legislative fight it may deter him from entering the arena for the Senatorial nomination. However, his return and later developments in the reported movement will be awaited with an interest bordering on fever heat.

RAILROAD RUMBLINGS.

A Large Contract for Coal Cars Awarded to the Milton Car Works.

Within the past few days the Milton car works have closed a contract for four hundred hopper bottom coal cars. They will be built for the New York, Susquehanna & Western Railroad. Operations will commence as material can be procured. The starting up of these works will be heard with joy by a large number of men and by the business men of Milton. A great many poor but deserving men will be given labor.

If the railroads of this country had the $20,000,000 they pay express companies, the $20,000,000 paid out to private car lines, commissions on passenger tickets and rebates on freight, they could more than double the $100,000,000 or so now paid out as dividends.

The South Jersey Railroad Company, the new line to Cape May, having perfected its schedule to that point and Sea Isle City, has issued an exceedingly neat and handy little pocket time table, particularly attractive from an artistic point of view, and gives a map of the route and full and concise information regarding the train service of the line.

The excursions to the different seashore and mountain resorts are largely patronized daily. The railroads are making up for lost time on account of the strike. Car shops all over the country have plenty of orders for more cars to replace the ones destroyed by the strikers on the Western roads.

Gaining Ground.

Joseph Wyatt, the Republican candidate for the nomination for Legislature in this district, keeps up a traveling which portends that vigor and promise which generally serves as a forerunner of success. He has canvassed every quarter of the district with excellent results. If there is victory in the timber Joe will pull it out.

P. O. S. OF A. DELEGATES.

Preparing for Their Trip to the Erie Convention.

The delegates from the three local camps to the state convention of the P. O. S. of A., which will convene in Erie on the 25th inst., have about completed all arrangements to attend the sessions of that body. They will go via picturesque Lehigh Valley route, leaving here at 4:58 p. m. Sunday, August 26th, joining the delegates from Philadelphia, Reading and other eastern points at Glen Onoko. They will stop over at Buffalo for several hours, and on the return trip they will enjoy a day's sight seeing at Niagara Falls.

During their stay at Erie, the members of Erie camp have arranged for a forty-mile trip across the lake to Fort Dover, a pleasure resort on the Canada side. This trip will occupy a three-hour ride on the lake. Trips also will be arranged to Massawonga Point, at the head of Presque Isle Bay, which is accessible by electric cars and steam yachts.

The delegates from this town include Mr. H. Kohler, H. J. Axt and Edwin J. Davies, Camp 115; A. C. Morgan and M. H. Master, Camp 206, and Robert Lawson and Edward Danks, Camp 183. District President S. L. Brown, of town, has been appointed to represent this district on the committee of arrangements.

The contest for state officers is becoming interesting, and the friends of each candidate are making a spirited canvass. It is generally conceded that Past National President Clarence N. Huth, of Shamokin, will be elected State President, Sharyhill country will ask for recognition on the State Executive Committee in the person of District President S. L. Brown, of town, whose friends are booming him for Vice President. He is now serving his second term in the former office, and has the district in excellent shape. His friends, including a number of the leading members of the order, are sanguine of success, and predict a large majority for their candidate.

THE BROWNVILLE AFFRAY.

The Three Men Stabbed are Now Under Bail.

The stabbing case at Brownville has assumed a new and very important phase. When a reporter called at the house where a Polish wedding was in progress during the trouble the occupants denied that they knew anything about the affair, or that they knew any of the men who took part in it, but since then they have told quite a different story, and on the strength of it the three injured men have been put under $500 bail, as well as the two men who were charged with the stabbing.

The first version was that Mike and William Petuski and John Polnack, the three men stabbed and beaten, were attacked on the Brownville highway by Enoch Kilgusos and Peter Savakunos and that no one knew why the attack had been made.

Kilgusos and Savakunos have now entered counter charges, claiming that the three men intruded at the wedding festivities and walked out with a bottle of whiskey which the groom had placed as the deposit of the guests. Kilgusos and Savakunos claimed they followed the three men to recover the whiskey, and were assaulted, whereupon Kilgusos drew a knife and Savakunos assisted him in making a battle in self defense.

LITTLE LOCALS.

In some parts of town the goats are a nuisance.

Base ball is popular with all classes. The babies cry for it.

Dogs, dogs everywhere, and no dog catchers anywhere.

Fine fruit is in the market, but prices are away up.

The buckleberry season is nearly over. Fix the streets. Too much dilly-dallying.

It is time the bad pavements were looked after.

Have we a borough government? Every one appears to do as they please.

There are lots of beer kegs scattered all over the town. They are not ornaments.

People who live near pig-styes have much to complain of.

Some of the street gutters are filthy, and smell most foul.

Needs Attention.

The Tri-Washly Record says: "Lakosido is rapidly losing its prestige as a pleasant picnic ground. The present management do little or nothing in the way of affording accommodations to those who picnic in the grove. The tables and seats are few and very poor, while the swings, benches, and saw-logs are unfit for use. For the girls and boys the place affords very little amusement, while the older people cannot help but dislike the dirt and refuse that is scattered over the grounds. Unless the place receives attention, there will be but a small portion of Sunday school picnics held there next year."

Onward it Strides.

The demand for the EVENING HERALD has so greatly increased that it has become necessary to establish an additional agency at Hooks & Brown's stationary store, 4 North Main street.

Great Reductions.

Boots and shoes will be sold at rock bottom prices, and all summer suits are reduced to the very lowest figures at Elias Supowitz's bargain store, 23 South Main street. 5-8-94
