AFRAID OF CONSUMPTION.

People who lose flesh are in danger of consumption. Light weight is too often a sign of some "wasting disease," which gets its start from indigestion. Cure the indigestion and health is rapidly re-

Paskola, the pre-digested food, prevents indigestion by its wonderful invigorating and nutritive properties. For loss of wigor, dull feelings, headaches, constipation, sour risings and other symptoms of dyspepsia it is a sovereign cure.

Paskola rapidly increases the weight. Under its nourishing power the hectic flush soon leaves the consumptive's cheek, the skin assumes the hus of health, the night sweats cease, the cough dies away, and the emaciation is lost under a coating of solid, warm and normal flesh.

Paskola is not a medicine but a food, pleasant to the taste and agreeable to the weakest stomach. Being pre-digested it is absorbed by the system the instant it is Prolley Cars in Collision.

HAZLETON, Par, Ang. ID—Twenty-five people were injured, some of them seriously, in a collision between two trolley cars on the Electric road, near Oakdale. When the collision occurred the cars were going at a high rate of speed, in opposite directions. The passengers in the car bound for this city, which was an open one, saw the approach of danger and jumped for their lives, falling among the rocks that lined the road. The cars came together with a terrific crash, throwing together with a terrific crish, throwing those who remained in them to the floor and splintered the front of the cars into kindling wood. Not a single passenger

EVENING HERALD THE CHINESE EMPEROR

He Objects to the Control of the Dowager Empress.

LI HUNG CHANG NOT REDUCED.

The Report That He Had Been Dieci plined Was Without Foundation-Chiness Government Guarantees Protection to Fereigners and Missionaries.

LONDON, Aug. 10.-The Times publishes a letter from Pekin which tells in detail of the emperor's chaffing against the leading strings of the dowagor empress and of his constant struggle to take the government in his own hands. The writer says that the emperor's knowledge of English leads him to encourage long talks English leads him to encourage long talks with foreign diplomats, with the result that the diplomatic service is becoming popular. His majesty has taken the matter of official appointments largely into his own bands, and is supporting in a great measure the grand council.

The emperor is very severe on cases of official wrongdoing. An instance of his appointments in the council of the council official wrongloing. An instance of his severity is found in the case of a former minister to Washington. The minister finding that punishment for his corruption while in the United States was inevitable, appealed for an appointment on

THE ENTEROR OF CHINA. Li Hung Chang's staff. On a recent in spection tour the viceroy referred the application to the emperor. The latter found himself unable to refuse, but he insisted that the minister first pass a difficult lit-erary examination, which he failed to do. The emperor then degraded him in the Han Lin academy, and stripped him of his official rank, reducing him four grades, from the red button to the white grades, from the red button to the white button. He was thus punished for crimes which were not alluded to in his sentence. The correspondent of The Times at Tientsin declares that the report that the rank and privileges of the viceroy, Li Hung Chang, have been reduced by im-perial command is untirely unfounded. The report that the Chimes General The report that the Chinese General Len was killed in a battle with Japanese at Yashan is also declared to be untrue. A further denial is made of the report that the Chinese steamer Kwangui has been sunk. The English colony in Tientsin have signed a petition to the home government requesting that British gunboats be sent to that port to prevent panies.
