Republican State Ticket.

- For Governor, GENL. DANIEL H. HASTINGS, Centre county. For Lieutenant-Governor, WALTER LYON, Allegheny county. For Auditor-General, AMOS H. MYLIN, Lancaster county.

WERE WE RIGHT?

Over two years ago the HERALD warned the citizens of Shenandoah that they were being deceived by the people who were agitating new water works...

To all these warnings the public water works enthusiasts tauntingly replied that they could and would establish works superior in every respect to the old plant.

Who was right? Long before the special election was held the enthusiasts abandoned the $70,000 and $80,000 theory...

Who was right? Verily the developments of the present day form a balm for the HERALD which it can most heartily appreciate.

And now the question arises: where is the excess of $35,844.56, in addition to the sum which is to be paid for the Turbert and other lands, to come from?

It is about time the people found out where the Councilmen stand in this matter.

The ticket placed in the field by the Republicans to-day is worthy of the support of every member of the party in Schuylkill county.

It is about time the people found out where the Councilmen stand in this matter.

REPUBLICAN CONVENTION.

On resolutions were Heuben, Barto, Pinegrove, C. E. Breckons, St. Clair, James A. McLaughlin, Mahanoy City, W. J. Whitehouse, Pottsville, Isaac Leeb, Schuylkill Haven, Charles Weller, New Castle, John Tahaney, Mahanoy township.

At 12:10 p. m. the convention adjourned until 10 a. m. to give the committee on credentials and resolutions time to prepare their reports.

A LITTLE TIPP. Just before the convention was called to order at 1:45 this afternoon an animated conversation was overheard between Charles A. Snyder, the reading clerk, and Chairman Moyer.

Mr. Snyder accused the chairman of being a Greenbacker and said it had been so long since he (Moyer) had voted the Republican ticket that Moyer had forgotten the time and that he (Moyer) could not come any of his Greenback tactics in the convention.

Chairman Moyer made little reply, but said that some of Mr. Snyder's work as reading clerk was opposed by the chair, that he exceeded his authority in his position.

The grumpy young clerk carried his point, however, and continued his duties.

LOUGH GAINS TWO DELEGATES. The afternoon session was taken up until three o'clock on a fight over the seating of two delegates from the Fifth ward of Mahanoy City.

It was charged by Mr. Whitehouse that the vote taken at Scheurman's place was illegal and the regular vote was the one taken at Jones' place.

The delegates elected at Scheurman's were William Kellet and William Jones. These two delegates were strong for Brumm.

The delegates elected at Jones' place were David Jenkins and William Hale. They were supposed by some to be Brumm men, but it was generally believed they would hop over to either Shoener or Loech.

Mr. Kellet answered Mr. Whitehouse by saying that Scheurman's was the place ordered by the committee, and because they could not have a fair count at Jones' place.

After much wrangling a vote was taken and a motion to seat Kellet and Jones was defeated by 139-53 yeas and 139-23 nays.

Accordingly Jenkins and Hale, the delegates elected at Jones', were directed to take their seats.

At 3 o'clock Mr. Whitehouse took the platform and commenced the reading of a lengthy report by the committee on resolutions.

BRUMM NOMINATED. 4:05.—The ballot to nominate a candidate for Congress has just been completed with the following result:

Benm 5055, Loech 3023, Shoener 3055. Great enthusiasm prevailed when the result was announced.

The nomination was subsequently made unanimous.

Mr. Brumm was called upon for a speech. He responded briefly, but very ably.

Benm was named by Jacob Britton, Pottsville; Mr. Loech by J. Harry Hilbert, of Schuylkill Haven, and Mr. Shoener by H. S. Albright, of Orwigsburg.

Judge Ricks Courts Investigation. CLEVELAND, Aug. 13.—United States District Judge A. J. Ricks has returned from his vacation, which was spent in Maine. When approached regarding the investigation about to be made of his official conduct by the judicial committee of the house Judge Ricks said: "I have no fear at all of a full and fair investigation, and I notified the attorney general that I courted it. I am confident that the result will fully exonerate me from all charges of fraud or wrong doing."

The Omaha Strike a Failure. OMAHA, Neb., Aug. 13.—Yesterday definitely decided the course of the state officers in reference to the presence of the troops to keep the South Omaha strikers quiet. As all was quiet the Omaha Guards and Thurston Guards were released, and only three companies from the interior of the state will be retained for a day or so longer.

Four Drowned by an Ocean Collision. LONDON, Aug. 13.—The bark Braekka, from Hernoand for Rio Janeiro, was in collision with the schooner Pilgrim, from Port Madoc for Stettin, on Saturday morning last, off Avuil Point. The schooner was sunk and four members of her crew were drowned. The Braekka received considerable damage.

Six Months for Assault. NEW BLOOMFIELD, Pa., Aug. 13.—In the criminal court Jay C. Aldrich was convicted of assaulting Editor Harry Hain of Dancon, and sentenced to an imprisonment of six months. Aldrich struck Hain seven severe blows on the head with brass knuckles.

A Hundred Killed in a Week. ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 13.—Official figures show that from Aug. 5 to Saturday, inclusive, there were 156 new cases of cholera reported. In the same time there occurred 101 deaths from the disease.

The Weather. Fair; warmer easterly winds, becoming southerly.

ALL WISE HEADS agree that the use of a liver pill after dinner, or to assist in the removal of bile, is an important step in civilization. Dr. Felt's Pleasant Pills are better than any other pills in almost every respect. They are the smallest, easiest to take, most natural in the way they act; cheapest, because guaranteed to give satisfaction, or money returned. We all have weak spots. Generally it's the liver. An active liver prevents impurities and poisons from entering the blood. "Pleasant Pills" have a tonic effect upon the liver and the general system. They cure Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Biliousness, Sick or Bitter Headaches, and all derangements of the liver, stomach and bowels.

THE MAKERS OF Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy will pay you $500 if they can't give you a complete and permanent cure.

SENATE BILL ACCEPTED

Speaker Crisp Says the House Bows to the Senate

The Committee on Ways and Means Instructed to Prepare Bills For Free Coal, Sugar and Iron.

Special to EVENING HERALD. WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 13, 2p. m.—The House has surrendered to the Senate.

The free trade champions are upon the threshold of victory. After the House caucus this morning Speaker Crisp announced that the House would accept the Senate bill.

At noon today Speaker Crisp introduced a resolution in the House providing for the acceptance of the Senate bill.

At the same time the resolution provided that the Ways and Means committee prepare separate bills placing sugar, iron and coal on the free list.

The resolution was adopted. A. P. A. M. T. CARMEL.

Mr. CARMEL, August 13, 1894. Miss Mary Harvey is one of the HERALD readers.

Miss Lettie Williams is the guest of Minersville friends. J. B. Gould Sundayed with his fair companion at Sunbury.

Miss Fannie Cope is being entertained by her Shamokin friends. Thomas Horn, of Centalla, was a pleasant caller on Saturday.

Miss Emma Yeager has returned home after a pleasant stay among relatives at Riverside. George W. Lentz, the Lehigh Valley operator, Sundayed with his best girl at Allentown.

Jeweler Kessler, mounted on his steed of steel, made a flying trip to Elizabethville yesterday.

Invitations have been issued for the marriage of Prof. C. E. Glass, of Mt. Carmel, and Miss Ada R. Kloss, of Snyderdowntown. The affair comes off Aug. 23rd.

"Ben" Wirt, the genial proprietor of the Valley House, presented his daughter, Miss Alice, with a very handsome mahogany concert grand Ivers & Pond piano. It was put in by C. C. Seebold, of Sunbury.

CHIT CHAT. We predict an early and severe winter. Don't forget the sparring match tomorrow at evening, where the boys will sleep on, sleep on, ye Board of Health! The doctors are very busy just now.

The new look-up is coming at last. Geiger, Gibson & Co. have been awarded the contract. The trolley will soon be in operation, and we fear the obituary column will swell as a result.

If we are a little behind date with some of our publications, they are written to attract the reader's eye, just the same.

The Mt. Carmel Lumber Company, under the management of John J. O'Hearn, is doing a thriving business with indications of a better future.

If we had a swelled pocketbook, we would give Mt. Carmel another daily paper. But be patient. It may come sooner than anticipated.

Leon W. Washburn's Railroad Shows will exhibit here to-morrow. Don't forget the magnificent street parade at 10 a. m. If you miss the half of your life will be gone. Admission 25 cents.

A certain gang of toughs who congregate every night at Gould's store, corner Oak and 2nd streets, seem to be full of natural gas. Why don't the cops show their authority here and effect a termination of such a nuisance. If the cops don't, some one will.

Constables Dick Walters and Harry Waters took Joseph Southwood to Sunbury last week, where he will remain until District Attorney Auten receives further orders. The current opinion is that the county court will send him to some insane hospital. Mr. Southwood was for merly from Centalla.

The Shenandoah and Mahanoy City Steam Marble and Granite works will establish a branch yard at Mt. Carmel under the management of John H. Miller. This is a recognized addition to Mt. Carmel's industry and we trust that under the direction of Mr. Miller the new firm may meet with abundant success. Their new works will occupy the vacant lot corner Market and 5th streets.

Resolutions of Condolence. At a regular meeting of the Phoenix Fire Company, of Shenandoah, Pa., held on Tuesday evening, August 7, 1894, the following preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That in his infinite wisdom and goodness, to remove from our midst our late brother, Joseph Shidels, therefore, be it

Resolved, That we bow in humble submission to the will of Him who doeth all things well, and we cannot refrain from expressing regret at the departure of one who, by word and action, always endeared himself to us, and who, by his general conduct, was a valuable citizen of the borough.

Resolved, That in the death of our late brother the company loses a useful member, the community a good citizen, and his family a kind and indulgent father.

Resolved, That in respect to the memory of our late brother our charter be draped in mourning for a period of thirty days, that these resolutions be spread upon our minutes, be published in the EVENING HERALD and the Sunday News, and a copy of the same duly engrossed be presented to the family of the deceased.

PETER HARRISON. CHAS. J. O'NEILL, JAMES F. O'NEILL, Committee.

A Powerful Arabian. Bedway Ferris, an Arabian peddler, got on the warpath last evening at his boarding house in Bradley's row and threatened to whip anybody who dared to cross his path, the police intervened. He fought with the strength of a lion and it required the united efforts of Constable Giblin and four specials to get him to the lockup. Ferris is the man whom Thomas Joyce, the well known business man of Mahanoy City, encountered at that place several weeks ago. He is a tall, muscular and wiry fellow, about 35 years of age, and is said to be a little weak mentally.

Onward It Strides. The demand for the EVENING HERALD has so greatly increased that it has become necessary to establish an additional agency at Hooks & Brown's stationary store, 4 North Main street.

MAHANAY CITY.

MAHANAY CITY, Aug. 13.

Guy Irish has returned from Philadelphia. Mr. Moore, of East Centre street, visited his parents at Pottsville yesterday.

W. H. Evans, of East Centre street, visited the Miners' Hospital on Sunday. J. Wesley Bahler returned home yesterday after a week's visit to New York.

Misses Minnie Moyer and Emma Evans, of East Centre street, visited Shenandoah last evening.

Charles Perry, of Philadelphia, is visiting his grandmother, Mrs. Wolf, of East Centre street.

William Helms, one of William Morgan's bustling plumbers, visited his parents at Pottsville yesterday.

The burning out of a trolley wire which got in contact with an electric light wire on West Centre street Sunday night caused some excitement. The electric sparks shot in all directions and made a very pretty sight.

Buck Mountain was the scene of a lively battle among a crowd of drunken Hungarians last evening, which resulted in Mike Longoro being seriously stabbed and another man was badly beaten about the head. Constable Lichtenberg, with the aid of William Hookins, made a raid on the place and several of the men were put under hall by Justice May.

A constable of this place went to a Polish wedding Saturday evening and while under the influence of drink attempted to arrest an innocent young man, who refused to accompany the officer. The latter drew his revolver and attempted to use it, but friends of the young man interfered and the constable was forced to surrender. An attempt was made to throw him into the creek, but on second thought he was left in the mud.

An informal reception was tendered by Miss Mame Hackett to her numerous friends Saturday evening at her pretty home on East Centre street. Dancing, vocal and instrumental music, orations, essays and recitations were the principal features of amusement. At 11:30 o'clock the guests seated themselves at an elegant repast and did it justice, after which they departed for their homes, among those present were Misses Jennie Stapleton and Catherine Gilmore, Tamaqua; Mollie and Maggie O'Hara, Shenandoah; Lou Galligan, Pottsville; Jewell Gorman, Nellie Larkin, Cresce Kaier, Mame Dunn and Rose G. Johnson, Mahanoy City; Messrs. Joseph Robinson, Kutztown; Patrick Mahony, Gilberton; William Hanck, Sunbury; John Campbell and William Slattery, Shenandoah; James Haughey, James Murphy, James Kershner, Peter O'Brien, Joseph Robinson and Thomas Moore, Mahanoy City.

PERSONAL. C. E. Titman returned from a week's stay at Ocean Grove.

Mrs. J. F. Finney and daughter, Nellie, are the guests of Mrs. Thomas Rich, at Mahanoy City.

Frank Puritz has returned from Orwigsburg, where he spent the past two weeks visiting friends.

Harris Self has returned from a four weeks' sojourn at Saratoga, N. Y., looking hale and hearty.

Miss Jennie Macdonald, of Providence, Rhode Island, is the guest of James Daniels, of North White street.

Will Harmon, of Delano, accompanied by his lady friend, Miss Lizzie Powell, of town, spent yesterday at Orwigsburg.

Joseph Holbrook, one of Philadelphia's thirty year old young business men, and his son, Harvey, are spending a few days in town, the guests of George Seager, of East Coal street.

Joshua Riegel, who has been an engineer on the Lehigh Valley railroad since the Mahanoy branch was first opened, today makes his reappearance on the branch for the first time since he left the Hazleton hospital, where he was under treatment for injuries sustained in a railroad wreck near Hazleton about three months ago. Riegel resides at Match Creek and is an engineer on the passenger train of Conductor Henry Sigfried, which runs between that place and Shamokin.

Quarrelled with the Police. Adam Mort got into an argument with Police Officer Dougherty at Orwigsburg. Joseph Willoughby, of Orwigsburg, was arrested on Saturday afternoon, and it was continued on the road, resulting in a struggle and Mort being arrested. He was subsequently released under bail. It seems that Mort was charged with attempting to get the shell game man away from Policeman Walz's, a charge he vehemently denied. Mort claimed, to the contrary, that he tried to assist the officer.

Kenneth Bazemore had the good fortune to receive a small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy when three members of his family were sick with dysentery. This one small bottle cured them all and he had some left which he gave to Geo. W. Baker, a prominent merchant of the place, Lewisville, N. C., and it cured him of the same complaint. When troubled with dysentery, cholera, colic or cholera morbus, give this remedy a trial and you will be more than pleased with the result. The praise that naturally follows its introduction and use has made it very popular. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Grubbs Bros.

Wyatt the Man. The results of the Republican primaries are so brilliant to witness that Joseph Wyatt, of town, will receive the Republican nomination for the Legislature in this district. The people will find in Mr. Wyatt an intelligent, persistent and vigorous worker in their behalf and he will undoubtedly make a record in case of his election to the Legislature which will reflect credit upon the judgment of his constituents in sending him there.

H. Boyer, cashier of the Merchants' National Bank, Williamsport, and ex-Deputy Sheriff D. H. Boyer, of this county, and an aunt of H. C. Boyer, of the HERALD.

Now or Never. People who have not secured copies of the exquisite photographic "World's Fair" embraced in "The Magic City" and superb photographs of famous men and women and scenes in every land as incorporated in "Voyage Around the World," should apply for them at the HERALD office without delay, as only a few copies are left and the supply will not be renewed. No household should be without a complete set of these marvelous productions.

Shell Game Man Pulled. William Fitzsimmons, a Pottsville man who was following up the circus with a shell game, was arrested on East Centre street, Shenandoah, while trying to collect the coin from a group of curious spectators. The arrest was made by Policeman Walz. Fitzsimmons was released after paying a fine of $5 and costs and promising to get out of the town.

NICARAGUAN SOLDIERS KILLED.

Fired Upon by a Mob While Trying to Make an Arrest.

New York, Aug. 13.—The American schooner George Whitford arrived yesterday from Corn Island, Nicaragua. The Whitford brings news of an encounter between some of the natives and a few Nicaraguan soldiers on July 5 last, during which four of the soldiers were killed and two wounded. From what could be learned aboard the Whitford it appears that a lawyer named Russell, who is a Jamaican, called on Governor Maximo Diaz in reference to a lawsuit in which he had been retained as counsel. The governor declined to examine the papers, as they were not in Spanish, and this led to a heated discussion between them and ended by the governor tearing to pieces the lawyer's papers.

This enraged Russell, and he proceeded to lecture the governor severely. The governor threatened to arrest him, but did not do so, there being no one present at the time except the governor's secretary. Russell defied the governor to do his worst, and orders were sent at once to Bluefields for troops to aid the governor in arresting the lawyer. Meanwhile Russell had gathered about him several of his friends and openly defied the troops to arrest him. On their arrival the troops were ordered to arrest Russell at once. Russell refused to surrender, and his party fired on the soldiers, killing four and wounding two. The governor's secretary was slightly wounded, as was also a merchant, who was riding on horseback through the street.

Russell and his friends thought their victory a good opportunity to settle other grudges, so, with eight others, they set out to wipe the Nicaraguan officials from the face of Corn Island. They ran up against the remainder of the troops, three in number. Two more were killed. The only one left went into hiding, leaving the governor and his secretary to the tender mercies of the Jamaican and his following.

Russell advanced on the government house, and the governor and secretary retreated to the cellar and barricaded themselves. In the shooting the secretary, who was wounded, opened fire with a horse pistol, wounding M. Gale, one of Russell's friends. Then the rebels retreated to the beach. From thence they made another onslaught, burning two government houses and the pier.

On the following day Gale and several others, presumably confederates, were captured. Russell and Lincoln escaped in a dory, but later were captured at Port Dimon. Diaz emerged from his retirement and put all hands to jail. Then he resigned, leaving a strong recommendation that the prisoners be sentenced to the full penalty for the insult to Nicaragua. In Central America this means death.
