COLD BLOODED MURDER

An English Hotel Servant Kills His Mis-

trees, a Handsome Musitte.
Winslow, N. J., Aug. 13.—Thomas Delbridge, aged 30 years, an Englishman, shot and instantly killed Georgeanus Spearman, a handsome mulatto woman, about 48 years of age, at the Junction House in this village yesterday afternoon. The this village yesterday afternoon. The murder was cold blooded and deliberate. Bothwell & White, proprietors of the hotel, formerly ran a house at a seaside resort, employing both Delbridge and the woman as servants, and the two became very intimate. A few months ago they moved to this village and assumed the management of the Jinetion House, They brought the woman with them, but

They brought the woman with them, but left Delbridge behind.
Several weeks ago Delbridge turned up in Winslow and was given odd chores to do around the hotel. He then resumed his intimacy with the mulatto woman. Delbridge went to an upper room in the hotel yesterday and carefully loaded a shirtgun, then went into the kitchen, where his victim was working, and de-liberately shot her in the head, killing her instantly. He then sat quietly down to await his arrest. The woman was in a delicate condition, and Deibridge's responsibility for the fact is thought to have supplied the motive for the crime. Del-bridge was locked up in the Camden Jail. He admits the shooting, but will not go into details.

The police have arrested George Bott, James Kelly and John Eckert, all of whom bad knives in their possession, on the charge of causing McCurdy's death, and also Edward Spode, Edward Goz and Charles Howlit as witnesses. These witnesses say that McCurdy tried to act as peacemaker in a fight at the notorious house of Bott's mother, and the suspects set upon him and chased him to the railset upon him and chased him to the rail-

A Lawyer's Heavy Fine for Contempt. New York, Aug. 18.—Lawyer Charles W. Brooks has been fined $551 for contemps of court, and an order has been signed by Judge Freedman, of the superior court, directing that he be committed for courf, directing that he be committed to jail until the fine is paid or he is otherwise discharged. The order was granted upon the application of Lawyer Edward J. McGuire, representing St. John's college, Fordham, which seemed a fudgment against Mr. Brooke on May 11, 1878, for $421.19, which has never been paid. Brooke would not notice the court's orders.

Poisoning Charges Dropped.

DOYLESTOWN, Pa., Aug. 18.—The theory that Theodore D. Vandsgrift, the Bensa-lem farmer who died July 31, was pul-soned, was exploded when District Attorney P.H. Appelbach dropped the case upor the failure of the accusers to make affidavit. Mrs. Vandegrift thinks that the charges were made by relatives, who are very much chargined over the provisions of her deceased husband's will
