CLEAR STUPIDITY.

The attempt to pull the wool over the eyes of the people by the projectors of the new water works by trying to make Quinn & Kerns, the contractors, scapegoats, will not go down. The root of the whole evil lies in the contract, which was, in the first place, loosely drawn; in the second place, it was altered so much that even its own father failed to recognize it.

The Reflections of a Married Woman. "I am not pleased if she is delicate, run-down, or overworked. She feels 'played out.' Her smile and her good spirits have taken flight. It worries her husband as well as herself." This is the time to build up her strength and cure those weaknesses of ailments which are the result of her troubles.

It would not pay to sell a poor medicine on these terms.
