

UP TO CONCERT PITCH

A Business Man Gives His Experience and Tells How He Gets Along Nicely Without Going Away.

"No vacation for me this year." Mr. J. Z. Clinton, a prominent business man, seemed quite cheerful as he made this remark.

"No," he said, "hard times and business cares prevent my usual holiday, but, let me tell you I am not so disappointed as I would have been in former years."

"How is that?" "Because I am enjoying sound health. I never felt better in my life. In spite of overwork and anxiety, I manage to keep strong and vigorous and instead of suffering from tired feelings, dyspepsia and nervousness as I did in years gone by, I feel like a new man. Even now I shudder as I think of the miserable symptoms I once experienced. What were they? Well, generally a headache in the morning; dull heaviness or aching at the base of the brain; wakefulness; loss of appetite and disgust with food; loss of mental energy and interest in ordinary duties and business; restlessness and anxiety without any assignable reason; bad breath; giddiness; palpitation of the heart; salivaceousness of the skin; coated tongue and gradual failure of strength and ambition. I consulted doctor after doctor and with but one exception I received the same advice, namely: to take a three months' vacation. This I could not do. At last, I consulted another physician and the result of my conversation was that he advised me to take predigested food about which I had heard a great deal. But I had had some experience with cod liver oil and feared that this food might be something like it and equally sickening. I said 'no,' I preferred to try something else. The doctor, however, persisted. 'This food,' he said, 'is not a drug or a medicine nor a greasy mixture like cod liver oil. It is a pure starch food, totally different from anything that has ever been introduced before. Its flavor is delicious, it is most refreshing, and it is stimulating to the weakest stomach. Take my word for it, and you will find Paskola is just what you need. So upon this recommendation I commenced taking Paskola.'

"And what has been the result?" "A decided victory for Paskola. Before many days had passed, I felt much better. All the miserable symptoms I had formerly endured passed away, and I found that by taking Paskola I could eat well and digest well. I also gained a healthy appetite and a feeling of fresh vigor that was simply wonderful. I took Paskola with great relish, for I found that, as the doctor had said, it has a very pleasant taste. Unlike all other health foods it causes no bloating sensations. Being predigested, it is absorbed by the system the instant it is swallowed, thus imparting nourishment immediately. The result is, I no longer suffer from indigestion, while under the nourishing influence of Paskola my weight has increased from 120 to 175 pounds in the past two months. I find it a splendid thing to take at noon, after a morning's hard work and at night when business is ended. It seems to take away that feeling of weariness and nervous strain from which most business men suffer. As I say, it has done much for me and made me so strong and well, that I have no need for a vacation even if I had the time and opportunity to take one."

Such statements as this are being continually made by people of all classes and such unadorned praise is the best evidence that Paskola gives its wonderful popularity to merit alone. You can obtain Paskola of any good druggist and a free pamphlet will be mailed by the Pre-digested Food Co., 30 Reeds Street, New York.
