CRASHED INTO THE BREAKER

Queer Accident at the Kehley Run Breaker this Morning.

CAR RUNS ON TWO TRACKS

A Wreck Train Crew Investigates the Matter, But Fails to Reach a Conclusion as to the Cause.

While Watchmen Selfert was making his lonely rounds through the big black Kehley Run breaker at three o'clock this morning he was suddenly startled by a heavy crash, followed by the splintering of wood down near the small coal chutes. Arriving on the scene a moment after, he saw a big box car standing across the track, one end imbedded in the chute platform, and half a dozen railroaders moving about swearing and wondering how in Halifax it happened.

And that is what the officials were wondering in their investigation this morning. A brakeman who was riding the car got off without injury. The wrecked car, B. R. & P. No. 2730, loaded with ice, was on the end of a train that was being pushed toward the Reading freight yard. As it struck the switch at the colliery, the first truck took the colliery track, while the other wheels and the rest of the train dashed over on to the main track, for which the switch was set. The adventurous car soon found out that running on two tracks was about as difficult as the much tried experiment of passing another train on the same track, and after plowing up the road bed, and smashing in its both ends, in contact with the breaker, where it remained until removed by the wreckers this morning.

The switch points lay too close to the rail to have tripped the first wheels, and the theory that a brakeman had thrown the switch after the first truck had passed over, was dispensed by an official, who stated that no one was at the switch, and so the accident goes down among the many that happen on railroads without an apparent cause.

A COUNTY SEAT LETTER.

The Political Field Surveyed by an Interesting Letter.

WHO WILL BE CHAIRMAN?

Loesch and Davis Suggested in the Interest of Continued Harmony—Loesch Declares Himself on the Ticket.

SPECIAL HERALD CORRESPONDENCE.

POTTSVILLE, Aug. 20.—The next step in the program of the Republicans of this county will be the selection of a county chairman. Among the names mentioned are Daniel Duffy, Hiram Moyer and Al. Shortall, all three ex-Greenbackers and men of ability; but while any one of the three would make an excellent chairman the selection would not please many of the out-and-out Republicans. Argument is already being made that the men who are Republicans and have always been Republicans should have some show. Messrs. Brumm and Scott need not harbor apprehension that their interests would be well cared for if a straight-out Republican should be made chairman, and such a selection would show a disposition to please all parties and keep the whole united as at present.

While I have no particular choice in the matter, I am inclined to favor the suggestion that the position be tendered to either Hon. Elias Davis or Hon. S. A. Loesch. Both gentlemen have executive ability and experience that would be a great service in this campaign. I have not sifted the suggestion thoroughly, but from what I have learned I am convinced that it does not come from any expressed desire or intimation from either of the gentlemen, but from a number of prominent politicians who take the view that the step would cement all the factions. Anyone who has followed the campaign, and probably for all time to come, I would look upon the selection as a forerunner of almost certain victory.

True to my prediction of several days ago, Mr. Loesch has made known his desire to see Mr. Brumm and the whole Republican county ticket elected. I have good reason to believe that he is thoroughly earnest in this declaration and will do his utmost to bring about a victory.

I understand from the best authority that Mr. Loesch would not have been a candidate for Congress this year had it not been for some of the county leaders who promised to make the fight for him, but at the last moment left him in the lurch. Anyone with the assurance given Mr. Loesch would have gone into the fight. Mr. Brumm's name had not been mentioned at the time and it was almost certain he would not be a candidate.

Hon. James B. Reilly will be home next week and will begin the work of hatching the egg the Democratic county convention laid for him, but if one-half many of the Democrats say is true, Mr. Reilly's sitting days are over and its a bad sign he got under him this time; but with promises of a $2,000 vote at building at Pottsville, a full score of government patronage at his beck, and what kind remembrances he may have created by his pension favor, Mr. Reilly is not likely to give up the fight. He has trained three-year-olds, and the Republicans must not take their eyes off these advantages. Mr. Reilly may have a tea set out of the china egg and foot the other fellow, after all. Wide awake should be the motto.

The three Republican candidates for the Legislature in this district will have a walk-over this fall. No one appears to know the men who are on the Democratic ticket.

Next month Criminal Court commences and a trial north-of-the-mountain influx is expected to make our city lively. A number of very important trials are on the calendar.

The promised extensions of the electric railway system here is awaited anxiously. The county is waiting the final action of the Borough Council. The extensions will boom the properties along the line and prove a boon to the town generally.

It is reported that James Grant, of Shenandoah, will succeed Michael Mellet as postmaster that town when the latter's term expires. Mr. Grant is a warm personal friend of Hon. J. J. Coyle, who will be the next Senator in the Thirtieth district.

Hon. Charles F. King, the Democratic candidate for Senator in the 30th district, is making ready for a thorough canvass of his district. He has a majority of nearly 5,000 to start on, but says he will not count upon it. He is aware that prominent Irish Democrats will work and vote for Coyle and he will try and counteract this by making up with Republicans he has favored in the past.

Hon. T. J. Higgins, the Democratic candidate for Sheriff, was down this way today, shaking hands with friend and foe. As Tom owes his nomination to a great degree to south-of-the-mountain friends, he expects as much towards his election.

Alex. Scott, the good-looking Republican candidate for Sheriff, will soon begin a thorough individual canvass of the county. His able lieutenants who assisted him in making the nomination will not lay down their arms until after the polls close.

HOPPER—On the 19th inst., at Mahanoy City, Andrew Hoppes, aged 88 years and 7 months. Funeral will take place on Thursday, 23rd inst., at 10 a. m., from the late residence, corner of Centre and Third streets. Services in the Evangelical church. Proceed by special train at 2 p. m. to Tanawaga, where interment will be made in the Odd Fellows' cemetery. Relatives and friends respectfully invited to attend. 8-21-94.

THE BUTCHERS AND BAKERS.

The Dough Kneaders Down the Trips Picklers in a Close Game.

Runs and errors fell so fast in the struggle for supremacy between the Butchers and the Bakers at the Trotting park yesterday that an official scorer and a reporter were barely able to record them.

The Bakers had everything their own way up to the third inning, when the score stood 13 to 3. Capt. Mayberry, of the Butchers, stimulated his men to greater effort and in the fourth reduced the gap by four runs, the score then standing 12 to 3. In the sixth inning the Bakers scored five runs, and from that time on the Butchers worked hard and succeeded in holding down the dough kneaders, but not sufficiently so to become winners.

In the second inning P. Hoehler stole two bases as slick as an old leaguer, and Mayberry won the applause from the grand stand by knocking a beautiful fly to left field, which, however, was prettily fielded by Grubler.

Two men were put out by a triple play by Knoll, Jennings and Mayberry. Burkhardt in running for third, dove under Stern, who in some way fell over the runner's back and turned a somersault, landing hard on the ground, insensible. A bucket of water, some rubbing and two glasses of beer brought him to consciousness, however, when he pluckily took his position, but was afterwards relieved.

While Grubler was making a run for third base the leather was sent to Snoyer at third, but the ineffectual baseman was listening to an argument with the umpire and allowed the ball to pass and the big druggist to make a home run. P. Hoehler and Mayberry did some very clever base stealing and Kreiger, in making a forty-mile gait for the ball in the eighth, slipped and turned several crab somersaults before coming to a stop.

The curves of Burkhardt, who played with the Y. M. C. A. last year, worried the sausage men for quite awhile, and P. Hoehler twirled the sphere in a way that puzzled some of the Bakers, although others hit him freely. Other players made pretty plays and on the whole the game was one of the cleverest played here by amateurs this season. The Butchers club was composed of the following named knights of the apron: H. Hoehler, P. Hoehler, P. G. Knoll, S. Mayberry, I. Jennings, B. Stern, B. Zimmernann, L. Ryndkiewicz, C. F. Taber, F. T. The Bakers were: Davis, C. Burkhardt, P. Kreiger, S. Ploppert, I. B. Manley, B. Schieder, B. Grubler, L. F. Otto, C. F. and Merkel, r. f.

The score follows by innings:

Butchers.....	1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9	13 3-20
Bakers.....	1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9	3 12 1-2-1

Umpire—Daniel Hesser. Time of game—Two hours and twenty minutes.

Mrs. Bridgman's classes in piano, cello and violin will open September 1, 8-15-4m

PENCIL POINTS.

The coming picnic for the benefit of the monumental fund should be generously patronized.

The fakirs following up the Washburn circus got $25 out of a Shamokin man and $100 out of a Mt. Carmel innocent.

The streets along the line of the numerous pipe lines will be in a dreadful condition this fall and winter if they are not attended to in time.

Good times are expected in this region with the adjournment of Congress. There won't be that uncertainty of the past eight or nine months.

The steel trestle to be thrown over the Lehigh Valley railroad at East Oak street is expected to be here this week. It has already been shipped.

The Evangelical camp meeting held at Zion's Grove on Sunday last was one of the best attended and most successful of any held for several years.

Because of a failure to declare a dividend on the stock of the Lehigh Valley Railroad the Lehigh University is compelled to charge tuition fees.

M. M. Burke, Esq., has secured the bright and cheerful corner room in the new Egan building at Main and Centre streets, where he will soon open his law office.

The Mt. Carmel and Shamokin electric railway will be put in operation for the first time on Labor Day. Motor men are being instructed at the Green Ridge power house.

Watkin Waters Post, No. 146, Grand Army of the Republic, accompanied by the Grant Band, will go to Freeland on Thursday, to attend the unveiling of the Soldiers' monument.

Shenandoah will have a big time next year when the Soldiers' monument is unveiled. The money, or the greater part of it, should be well in hand, and the contract made for the monument before winter sets in. The committee meets tonight, at 8 o'clock, in the Borough Council chamber.

Fare from all points on the Lakeside Electric Railway to the Shenandoah base ball grounds will be reduced to 5 cents tomorrow and Thursday.

Notice to the Public.

The schools will open on Thursday, August 23d. The step-by-step will be in his office, Main street building, on Tuesday and Wednesday forenoon, to issue tickets of admission. No children, who have not been vaccinated within seven years, will receive tickets. The teachers will meet in the High school room on Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. M. P.
