

BABY'S "SECOND SUMMER"

Most Anxious Time for Mothers and Nurses.

Greater Susceptibility to Sudden Intestinal Disorders.

Worse Than the First Few Months of Its Life—Lactated Food.

The dangers of the "second summer" have always been a familiar piece of nursery wisdom.

Every year, with a regularity that strikes terror into thousands of homes, there comes with the midsummer weather the present fearful jump in the death rate among children.

An intimate knowledge of just what babies require to keep well and free from summer illness, produced lactated food. Children find on this thoughtfully considered nutriment grow rapidly and develop bone and muscle, as well as into fat, plump babies.

A food as simple in its composition, as rich in nutritive parts, and as closely resembling healthy mother's milk has never before been produced.

In thousands of cases, where nursing protracted into warm weather has reduced the vitality and richness of the breast milk, babies that showed signs of fretfulness and often colic become again fat and sturdy when put on a diet of lactated food.

Physicians prescribe lactated food to be kept always on hand and used at once upon the first indication of looseness or loss of strength, or if baby is evidently not thriving on its present diet.

BRECKINRIDGE AT GEORGETOWN

The Kentucky Orator Receives a Cool Reception at Owen's Home.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Aug. 21.—Colored W. C. P. Breckinridge spoke yesterday at Georgetown, the county seat of Scott county and the home of W. C. Owens, who is his most powerful opponent in his struggle for reelection.

Colonel Breckinridge was introduced by John A. Lewis, of Georgetown. His address was an appeal for mercy inasmuch as he had confessed his sins and laid himself at the feet of his people.

Professor J. F. Nelson, a teacher in the Kentucky state college at Lexington, was shot in the leg while trying to prevent a difficulty between a negro and a white man named Glass.

The big Owens barbecue will be held here at Breckinridge's home tomorrow. Ten beefs, 1,500 pounds of mutton, 1,000 gallons of buttermilk and 5,000 loaves of bread have been prepared to feed the crowd.

ITS OLD GAME AGAIN.

Disgraceful Proceedings on the Base Ball Diamond at Pottsville.

The ball game at Pottsville yesterday was one of the most disgraceful exhibitions ever seen on a diamond and will remain a blot upon the record of the club while its existence remains in memory.

The lovers of true sport who witnessed the game, some residents of Pottsville in cluded, arose en masse and decided the umpire on a glaringly incorrect decision and denounced Tighe, whose action on the diamond was that of a blackguard.

To add to the disgrace of the occasion a number of drunken rowdies hovered about the diamond and gazed the Shenandoah players, but Manager James Smith exercised good judgment in enjoining his men not to pay attention to the taunts and to make no reply on any occasion. Only once did the Shenandoahs forget the instruction. A barefaced false decision caused three or four players to gather about the umpire and argue the point, but on a wave of the hand by Manager Smith they retired to their respective positions.

The game was won by Shenandoah, but the club was bounced out of it by a man selected as umpire who hadn't the courage to stand by his convictions. He was humiliated by the ruffians Tighe and did not dare show his face at Pottsville.

In the fifth inning of the game Welker made for second base and was declared safe. Tighe claimed that the man was put out three feet from the base and the decision so angered him that he fired the ball at the umpire and struck him in the back. Wagner, the umpire, swallowed the humiliation and allowed the game to proceed without even reprimanding the player and from that time to the end of the game he was afraid to render a decision against Pottsville.

In a subsequent inning Potts was put out fully three feet away from second base, but the umpire declared him safe and in consequence of the decision Pottsville was enabled to roll up five runs.

Manager Smith says the Shenandoahs will not play another game at Pottsville unless the club of that place plays yesterday's game over again. Score: POTTSVILLE 11, SHENANDOAH 8.

Arrested for Spreading Immorality. LANCASTER, Pa., Aug. 21.—M. M. Denlinger, proprietor of the largest and most prominent boarding house in this city, and Charles C. Rickerson, a young man of good family, were arrested here yesterday on the charge of printing and circulating immoral literature through the mails.

The arrests were made through Anthony Constock, who came here with evidence that immoral books and pamphlets had been sent to schools in various sections of the state. In the upper story of Denlinger's house was found a well equipped printing office, where the matter was printed. Constock took Rickerson to Philadelphia to answer the charge of illegally using the United States mails, while Denlinger was locked up here to answer the charge of printing matter prohibited by the state law. Two large stacks of immoral literature were found in Denlinger's office.

Crosby, John Freyer, James Goodenough, William Nohm, Alexander Smith.

Tennessee's Republican Convention. NASHVILLE, Aug. 21.—The indications this morning are that the Republican state gubernatorial convention which assembles here this afternoon will be the largest that has assembled here for years. It is understood that there will be two candidates for the nomination for governor—J. W. Baker, of this city, and ex-Congressman H. C. Evans, of Chattanooga. It is generally believed that Baker will be easily nominated.

A Horse Causes a Fatal Wreck. ST. LOUIS, Aug. 21.—About midnight freight train No. 97, on the Wabash railroad, struck a horse two miles west of Jonesburg, which resulted in the death of the locomotive and nineteen cars, and the killing of Engineer C.
