VANDERBILT'S SIREN.

The Woman Whose Charms Captured the Multi-Millionaire.

SHREWD, SKILLED ADVENTURESS.

By Her Personal Courses She Has for Several Years Won the Admiration of Men of Wealth, and Made the Most of Her Opportunities.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 31.—Neilte Nen-EAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 31.—Notile Nen-streedter, the young woman who is said to be the cause of the family troubles of William K. Vanderbilt, is well known here. She is a naive of Eureka, Nev., was educated at Miles seminary, Alameda county, resided for a number of years in Say Errockee and has free anally faured San Francisco and has frequently figured in escapades that have won her notoriety both in the new and old worlds. She was born twenty-nine or thirty years ago in Euroka, where her father, Ben Cohen, kept a clothing store and became wealthy. She returned to Eureka from the seminary when she was 18 years old, and was the belle of the town.

According to the story printed in a local paper, after her return to Eureka from Miles seminary, her beauty and dashing manner captured the little town and also the heart of Frank Mills, a nephew of D. O. Mills. Young Mills was very devoted in his attentions, and in order to stop the affair Nellie's parents sent her to San Francisco. She was then 18 years old, and seemed to care for nothing but to have a good time. Already her tastes were ex-pensive, and she showered her favors on anybody who had the wealth and inclina-tion to cater to her pleasure. Up to 1884, as far as was known, Nellie's heart was as far as was known. Neitie's heart was whole, but in that year she became smitten with Heury Neustredtter, who was popularly known as "Judy," on account of his nose, which was a standing reminiscence of the old time Punch and Judy Ben Cohen, Nellie's father, was delighted when she showed her preference for Neustredtter. Neustredtter, who was then, as now, the agent of a well known brand of olgars, was not in affluent circumstances, but he was making a good income, and when he finally married Nel-lie, in 1884, he set up a nice little estab-Lahment on Sutter street, between Tayor and Jones. Business called Neustredtter to Portland and they, therefore, removed there and alternated between that city and Sau Francisco until 1887. Before the close of Francisco until 1881. Defore the close of that year Neilie was, in one sense of the word, "going to the dogs." She dressed expensively, wore good jeweiry, and in many ways showed she was handling many ways showed she was amounting plenty of money—far too much, in fact, from what she could get from her hus-band. Many and many an evening she sat down to dinner and supper at swell resurts with choice spirits like Porter Ashe, Fred Webster, Tom Williams and Harry Neouve, and she achieved her rep-utation as a thoroughbred, because no pace could be set that was too fast for her. She, however, managed to fool her hus-band, and he did not know anything was wrong until one day she told him she was going to New York to visit some of her going to New York to visit some of her relatives, and away she went.

After her arrival in Gotham strange stories came to her husband's cars. He had her trip to New York was in company with a crowd, one member of which was the celebrated Laura Edelman, of Los Angelos. Laura had a record of her own. She was one of the most beautiful women in southern Galifornia, but tiful women in southern California, but the moral traces could not hold her, and one day she let every one know she had kicked them over by descring her hus-bard and child.

Neustrediter began a close investiga-tion, and found that his fours were more week days. Sundays, 355, 456, 5, 539, 6, 7, 205 yants and all the money she wanted. In 1889 he took her to Europe, where she trav-eled like a princess. When she returned to New York she dazzled the people the elegance of her Worth dresses and the brilliancy of her jewels.

In the latter part of the same year she returned to San Francisco to visit her parents, who had removed to this city from Eureka. She took rooms at a leading hotel, dressed better than any woman in town, wore the usands of dolars' worth of gems and spent money as freely as if she had unlimited letter of credit on the United States mint. Her money began to give out and she went back to New York, taking with her Jessie

Whiting, a pretty Oakland girl. Shortly after they reached New York the news came to the coast that the two women had gone on a trip to Europe, and a few months afterwards came a cable-gram station ten Neille had been forci-bly ejected from the Continental horel in

To her parents Nellie recently wrote that she was studying for the stage, and she always concealed from them the fact that she was leading a fast life. She wrote that she would return to San Franciscoin October, but her plans may now be changed

Vanderbilt Wante Ble Children.

NEW YORK, Aug. 31.—There is some change today in the talk about the trouble the William K. Vanderbilt family Vanderbilt's friends have refraine from saying much so far, but they did not hesitate to say today that when the truth was known he would be amply vindicated So far as can be learned from statements made to persons in the confidence of the Vanderbilt family, their sympathies are all with the husband. They hope that the matter will be settled out of court. It is not a question of money. Mr. Vanderbilt is willing, it is said, to give his wife all the money she wants, but he insists upon retaining charge of the children.

Another of Nellie's Victims. PORTLAND, Ore., Aug. 81.-Nellie Neu-stredtter, the woman who figures in the family troubles of the Vandorbilts, was well known in this city four or five years ago. The number of men of this city ago. The number of men of this city who have fallen more or less under her captivating influence is legion. Walls she was living with her husband here she became very intimate with a Mrs. Eddie Foy, the wife of a gambler of Spokane. Mineral waters, Welss beer. Bottlers of the finest lager beers.

Fey, finding his wife's affectations estranged by the wiles of the Neustredt ter woman, committed suicide with morphine.

WORKING A REVOLUTION.

That is What the New Artificially De gested Food is Disg.

A REMARKABLE ADVANCE.

It is Now Possible to Give the Stomach a Vacation Because the Food is Digested Before Being Eaten.

Paskola works won-leve

The great pre-digested food that makes people well is winning more praises by reason of what it has done for despeptly sufferers than any other preparation ever offered to the public.

A person who suffers from this distress ing complaint usually feels a gnawing at the stomach, an "all gone" feeling as it suffering for want of food. There is a bad taste in the mouth, a coated tougue gas rises from the stomech and some times there is sickness with a constant beadache.

When people lose flesh they generally begin to feel alarmed. They want to re-gain what they have lost. Sometimes they are unfor unate enough to take codliver oil for that purpose. The effect of cod-liver oil taken into a weak, disordered stomach is to make dyspepsia worse Cod-liver oil will sieken a well person Imagine its effects on a dyspeptic suffered with a weak stomach.

But modern science has happily put an end to all this. People are rapidly finding out that the way to cure dyspepsia is not to make it worse. They are discovering that the best way to get flesh is to digest their food properly, and that when their food is well digested they do not suffer from dyspepsis.

Paskola cures dyspepsia, it makes sound healthy flesh, because it is not a medicine but a food. Drugs cannot make thin peo ple fat or cure dyspeptics of their dyspep-

Paskola is a pre-digested food which gives nourishment without the aid of the stomach. It contains those principles which are essential to the natural diges ive process-it aids digestion. When it s taken, it enters at once. Into the tissues of the body giving instant nourishment It permits the stomach to take a rest and get into a better condition.

Paskola is pleasant to the taste and agreeable to the most sensitive stomach It has no nauseating or bloating effects but tones up the whole body and creates a healthy appetite. It drives away all billious, sensations and enables every partiels of ordinary food to be perfectly Faskola may be bought of any reputs ble druggist. An interesting pamphlet on food and digestion will be mailed free on application to the Pre-digested Food Co., 30 Reade St., New York.

British and German Warships Put Down the Rebellion.

SHELLED REBEL FORTIFICATIONS.

After Agreeing to Submit to Malieton's Bule the Rebeis Again Attack the King's Warriors, and the Naval Officers Decide to Give Them a Salutary Lesson.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 31, -The steamer Maripe-a, which arrived last evening from Sydney, Auckland, Apia and Hono-lulu, brings news of further fighting among the natives of Samoa and foreible interference of British and German war-ships stationed at Apia. Two skirmishes had taken place between the warring tribes, resulting in the kill ing of eight or ten natives, and the wound ing of many more, and besides, the natives had become short of food, not having planted or looked after their crops, and had taken to stealing from foreigners throughout the island. Their mode of living had produced a great deal of illness, much suffering and many deaths, so that in the interest of common humanity interference by the powers became absolutely necessary. Something had to be done to put a stop to the so called war-

It was with this end in view that the diplomatic and naval officials held several conferences. The ultimate result was a resolution to notify the rebels that they must disperse from their fortified atronghold at La Tuanun or suffer a shelling from the guns of the warships. On Fri-day, Aug. 10, the British warship Curacoa and the German warship Buzzard left Apia for La Tuanuu, Arriving there the rebel chiefs were called on board the gunboats and informed that their stronghold would be bombarded at 9 o'clock the following morning. During Friday night, however, the rebels evacuated the place. On Saturday morning the fortifications

On Saturday morning the fortifications were shelled by the warships and all but destroyed. The king's warriors had been sent overland to co-operate with the gunboats in the attack on the rebels. When the bombarding gunners had fluished their work King Malleton's warriors were signalled to advance and occupy the deserted position. Before the rebel warriors evacuated La Tuanun they set fire to all the huts in the vicinity, as well as their forts, the destruction of which the bombarders fluished, and destroyed all the bread fruit trees which were growing near.

the fixed streaming and communicated with the rebei chiefs and ordered them to disperse and surrender their rifles. Instead of obeying the mandate, however, the rebeis moved off toward Saturafata, which is less than fifteen miles from Apia.
On Sunday morning the robels and the king's warriors, who numbered fully 000, came together at Luffluff. The rebels made an attack and killed and wounded several of Malietoa's men. During all of Sunday there was desultory fighting, and Sunday there was desultery lighting, and the naval commanders resolved to again attack the ribels and deal with them summarily. Early on Monday morning, Aug. 13, the Curason and Buzzard changed their positions and again opened fire on the rebets, killing and injuring a large number. Simultaneously the king's warriors attacked them on shore.

In the fight the king lost aix killed and

In the fight the king lost six killed and several wounded. At this writing it is impossible to ascertain a reliable estimate impossible to ascertain a reliable estimate of the rebel loss, but it is known to have been heavy. The gross of the warships did deadly execution. On Monday evening the rebels sized for panee. Their chiefs were ordered to come on board the Curacoa on the following day. They obeyed the order and made promises of commists submission to Malleton's rule, agreeing to near their faxes, return to their homes. pay their taxes, return to their homes and to deliver up 100,000 rifles.

Immediately after this meeting the Curacoa steamed away to Apia, believing the trouble was over. The Curacoa's commander was eager to catch the mail steamer Mariposa, that he might report steamer Mariposa, that he might report the result of his operations to the British geverament. The Buzzard remained at the scene of action to receive the rifles from the rebels and see that they carried out their promises. Great was the sur-prise of the commander of the Curacoa when, at midwight, the Buzzard signaled that Chief Tanushez, leader of the Aama whell had loused the Ama party with rebels, had joined the Atua party with over 400 Anna men, and that these combined forces had attacked the king's war

The Curaçoa got under way again and The Curacoa got under way again and left for the scene of the trouble. Capitain Gibsen left determined to demand a com-plete surrender of the robels, and unless the robels are sulmissive the shughter will undoubtedly be terrible, as his gunners will fire to kill.

It is now certain unless vigorous Uses are taken the position of the for-eigners here will be eritical. At the hour of the sailing of the Maripean it is re-ported that the rebels have made comdete surrender, but the rumor lacks con-

HEART DISEASE!

Fluttering, No Appetite, Could Not. Sleep, Wind on Stomach.

"For a long time I had a terrible pain at my heart, which fluttered almost incessuntly. I had no appetite and could not sleep. I would be compelled to sit up in bed and beleft gas from my stemach until I thought that every minute would be my last. There was a feelling of oppression about my beart, and I was afraid to draw a full breath. I could not sweep a room without resting. My husband induced me to try

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure and am happy to say it has cured me. I now have a splendid appetite and sleep well. Its effect was truly marvelous."
