THE LAMP AND WATCH.

An Investigation of the Arrest of a Special Officer.

STORIES OF WITNESSES!

The Case Based Upon Councilman McIntosh's Request That John Sapolis' Fine be Remitted.

A meeting of the lamp and watch committee was held in the Council chamber last night for the purpose of investigating the arrests made on circuit day, and in connection with which Councilman McIntosh has asked that a fine imposed upon one of the men arrested be remitted. This man was a Pole who claims that at the time he was arrested he was responding to a call for aid from Policeman Walaitis. The first witness at the investigation was Policeman Walaitis, who stated that on the day of the arrests he, in company with Officer Casey, undertook to arrest a fakir and was interrupted by companions of the fakir, who insisted that the officers had no right to make the arrest. Walaitis was told by Casey to take the prisoner to Justice Williams' office, which he did, and the prisoner was put under $500 bail. Walaitis did not know what the justice did in the case after. Walaitis also helped Casey to arrest Adam Mort, who had abused Walaitis. Walaitis told Mort to leave him alone and did not have anything to do with him. Walaitis asked John Sapolis, a citizen, to assist and while Sapolis was doing this he was arrested and placed in the lockup. Subsequently he had to pay a fine of $5. Adam Mort told Walaitis that he should not arrest the fakir, as he was not breaking the law. He accompanied the police and fakir and took the shells from the fakir. Policeman Casey testified that Adam Mort called him a— and when Casey attempted to arrest him Mort struck the officer twice. Mort was taken to the lockup. He has since settled the case. Casey could not find the Chief Burgess and took Mort before Justice Bailey. Casey was with Walaitis when he arrested the fakir and took him to Justice Williams' office. Casey then left and when he returned, the prisoner was gone. Walaitis and the justice were conversing in a back room. Casey made no search for the prisoner. He had no time and did not think it worth while. Councilman Finney and McGuire interceded for Mort and it was on that account the case was settled. Frank Cadrington stated that he was standing at the brewery and saw the excitement attending the arrest of the fakir. He saw the special officer (Sapolis) with uplifted cane in the act of striking the prisoner, but did not see him hit anybody. Cadrington was instructed to arrest Sapolis, which he did. Policeman Casey (recalled) stated that he told Cadrington to arrest the special officer for no other reason than that he heard the crowd call for his arrest. John Colett stated that he saw the officers bring the fakir, Billy Fitzsimmons, who asked Colett to see that he got a trial. Colett took the officer to the prisoner's trial and was told that he would be put in the lockup. Colett said the special officer wield his cane before he was arrested. Did not see him hit anybody with a cane. Mr. Hesser stated that he saw a crowd with the special officer following the prisoner, having hold of the prisoner's coat tails and wielding a cane. Sapolis struck the prisoner once with the cane, but did not hit him hard. Andrew Sattols stated that he had hold of the prisoner and somebody struck him (Sapolis) on the back of the neck. John Sapolis was with him. Andrew was sure John did not strike the prisoner. Chief Burgess Burns stated that he was in the lockup at 12 o'clock on the night of the arrest. Policeman Walaitis told the prisoner (Sapolis) not to pay the fine and told Burns he had no right to fine him. Burns told Walaitis the prisoner would have to pay a fine or serve time. The fine was paid. The case was adjourned for further investigation.

Do You Want to Save Money? Louis Goldin, of the Mammoth Clothing House, has just returned from a three weeks' trip abroad to the clothing manufacturers of New York. He purchased fall and winter stock to the value of $25,000 and hats to the cost of $5,000. By dealing direct with the manufacturers, in these immense lots he was enabled to buy cheaper than ever before. Clothing he bought at half what it cost him last year and hats at a little less than half. He will give his customers the benefit of these reductions. This stock is the best ever brought to Shenandoah, and includes the very latest styles in double and single breasted suits, also frocks and cutaways. Suits for men, boys and children. Finest kilt suits and other styles for the little ones at half what you paid for them last year. Fine soft and stiff hats so cheap that you will laugh at the price. These he bought in large case lots from the factories and therefore can sell them cheaper to you than other dealers who give part of their profits to the jobbers. Any one in need of a suit or hat should go to the Mammoth Clothing House, as they can purchase suits at from four to five dollars cheaper than in other stores in town. Money is not so plentiful this year that you can afford to give $4 or $5 to some other dealer, when you can get the same quality suit of nobler style at Louis Goldin's, largest clothing house in Shenandoah, 9 and 11 South Main street.

Water Notice.

On account of the continued drought the supply of water will be turned off at 6 p. m. to-morrow, Saturday, September 1st, 1894, and remain shut off until 1 o'clock Sunday morning, when the water will be turned on, again until 9 a. m. After that hour the water will remain turned off until 4 p. m. and remain in force from that time until 6 p. m. This arrangement will give the people a water supply two hours in the evening and two hours in the morning and will remain in force until the reservoirs are replenished. A watchman will be stationed at Fowler's lumber yard, on East Coal street, to turn on the water at a moment's notice in case the fire alarm is sounded.

Nine Per Cent. Below.

The following collieries were drawn to return prices of coal sold in August, to determine the basis of wages to be paid, and make the following return:

Bear Ridge colliery, P. & R. C. & I. Co.	22.8
St. Nicholas	23.7
Alaska	23.1

The average of these prices is $23.6 and the rate of wages to be paid for labor in last half of August and first half of September, 1894, is nine (9) per cent. below the $2.30 basis.

The Injunction Dissolved.

The temporary injunction procured by Mrs. Yoder against the Lakeside Electric Railway in the construction of its road on South Bowers street came up for argument at Pottsville to-day, ex-Judge Ryan and A. L. Shay, Esq., appearing for Mrs. Yoder, and Sol. Foster and J. H. Penney, Esqs., appearing for the R. H. Company. The injunction was dissolved upon mutual consent of all parties concerned.

The "Journal's" Anniversary.

The Mimeo Journal of Pottsville to-day appeared in enlarged form and has commenced the publication of extracts from the files of the paper dating back as far as 1850. They are very interesting. The Journal is the leading and only morning Republican paper published in the county and should be in the hands of every Republican.

A COUNTY SEAT LETTER.

Interesting Correspondence From a Close Observer.

THE POLITICAL SITUATION

Ex-Senator King Has the Backing of the Wealthy Democrats—Reilly Must Roe His Own Row.

SPECIAL HERALD CORRESPONDENCE.

POTTSVILLE, Aug. 31.—When I wrote my last letter I had not learned the details of the meeting held by the Republican candidates or, perhaps, I should not have written the most of what I did. A year ago the Republican party adopted new rules which, among other things, provide that after the nomination of all candidates they shall meet and select a county chairman and that he shall be elected by a majority of the candidates.

Now if reports are true the action of the candidates in electing the chairman has thrown some of them into a channel which will throw them upon the rocks. In the first place the meeting was called before all the nominations were made, secondly, the candidates, contrary to the rules, made it necessary to the candidate for chairman should receive a unanimous vote.

If the candidates can change the rules and defy the convention which placed them upon the ticket, then every member of the Republican party can ignore them.

This is the condition of affairs at present and it is folly for anyone to pretend that there is a unanimity of spirit in the party. Evers of fair play are numerous and although there may be many of them, who have not been friendly to those turned down by the action of the candidates, it is more than probable that they will refuse to be satisfied until the wrong is undone.

I hear very good reports of Mr. Payne, the ex-chairman, and am glad that he has become experienced in political affairs. His integrity and honesty are unquestioned and he makes friends easily. At the same time he is a well educated gentleman and a born leader and has been known to stand to low politics. It is this latter characteristic which has probably led to the report that Mr. Payne feels hurt over the unfairness which is charged against his selection.

It is not in the main that the candidates made a mistake, but in the method by which they selected him.

I am told that the Republicans of Shenandoah will adopt the Crawford county system in their local campaigns. It is a good system and I hope to see it adopted by the Republicans of the whole county. The principal objection to it as a county measure is the expense, but this objection is imaginary. If you consider the cost of sending out circulars, publishing calls for primaries and caucuses, the expense of delegates and their loss of time, etc., and compare it with the cost of the Crawford county system you will find the latter much the cheaper, not counting the bulwark it throws up against corruption.

John T. J. Higgins is making a most earnest canvass for election as Sheriff and if his opponent, A. Scott, wants to win he will have to hustle. Mr. Higgins' policy is not to take things for granted or depend upon his party organization to get him through. He is making a personal appeal in the ranks of Republicans, Greenbackers and Democrats.

The friends of Ex-Senator King down this way, who are Legion, but cannot vote for their favorite by reason of not living in the district, will put up good work for him by other means. They will send emissaries throughout the Brunswigs, Unions, Schuylkill and Rush townships and Tamagus to work on the Germans. Money will be no object. They are not saying much, but keep sawing wood all the time. When the Pottsville leaders, who have the wealth and do little else than name candidates, become active they go deep into their pockets and generally win. It has been proved nine times out of ten. As to the other candidates I believe they are well represented. Kelly will be obliged to paddle his own canoe.

I have missed the honor of the acquaintance of Hon. John J. Coyle, the almost unanimous choice of the Republicans in the thirtieth district for Senator, but from the reports I hear he is a most able man, who succeeded in this campaign nothing will stand in his way for election to Congress in 1896. With a Democratic majority of from 1,500 to 2,000 to overcome and a popular candidate like Ex-Senator King against him many a man would be discouraged, but it is not so with Mr. Coyle. He is evidently making a fight which is born of indomitable courage.

I made the acquaintance of Joseph Wyatt the other day and was very favorably impressed by his personality. He is evidently a very intelligent gentleman and of jovial disposition. If I am a judge of human nature the voters of the first district will do well to send him to the Assembly. They will have a practical and sensible representative.

Opening of the Season.

The season at Ferguson's theatre was opened last night by the production of J. Z. Little's comedy drama, "The World." The audience was of fair size and composed principally of ladies, and the picturesque scenes of the play were heartily applauded, but the company was inferior to those which produced the play here previously. Mr. J. Z. Little is in the cast and assumes the character of Morris Abram very satisfactorily. Miss Edith Mai was very clever in the dual role of Harry Ellison and Jack Bover and Miss Mabel Hunt was a very pleasing Ross. Louis Howard was quite amusing as Dennis, the Irish retainer.

BIG DAY AT MT. CARMEL.

Jr. O. U. A. M., and P. O. S. of A. and Their Friends Fill the Town.

SPECIAL TO THE HERALD.

Mr. CARMEI, Sept. 1.—This town is in glorious holiday attire to-day, in celebration of Labor Day and the American Demonstration. People from all the adjoining counties have flocked into the town by the hundreds and the hotels and restaurants are taxed to their utmost capacity for accommodations.

Fully seven thousand visitors are here and among the honored guests are Governor Pattison, William T. Kerr, State Comptroller, Jr. O. U. A. M., and C. F. Huth, State President, P. O. S. of A.

The town is brilliantly decorated, there being scarcely a house without its flags, bunting and streamers. There is an immense arch at the corner of Third and Oak streets and at Fourth street stands a handsome monument. Both are decorated with bunting and flags and the emblems of the Jr. O. U. A. M. and the P. O. S. of A.

Governor Pattison arrived here via the Pennsylvania railroad at 12:00 p. m., and was immediately driven to the residence of Mr. Thomas M. Righter, the Mt. Carmel coal magnate.

The American Demonstration general committee met in convention in the G. A. R. hall at 1:30 and decided to have a celebration in Shenandoah on February 22nd, 1895. It was also decided that the Labor Day celebration of 1895 shall be held at Orwigsburg.

The convention has adjourned until after the parade, which started at two o'clock.

Mrs. A. Owens spent to-day in Philadelphia.

James Lewis, of Minersville, is visiting friends here.

Benjamin Richards has returned from Atlantic City.

Lewis Hopkins, the janitor of the High school building, is dangerously ill.

Messrs. Arthur Cryer and Harry J. Parrott, of Philadelphia, spent to-day in town.

David Owens left this morning for Philadelphia, where he will take a business course at Peirce's College.

Richard Flynn, one of the leading politicians of Hazelton township, made a pleasant call at the Herald office to-day.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Snyder have gone to Allentown to be at the bedside of George W. Hassler, Mr. Snyder's brother-in-law.

Mrs. Jennie Spears and son left town this morning for Allentown, where they will remain the guests of friends until Monday.

Miss Lizzie Schofield, of Chester, Charlotte Maria, of Catawissa, and Robert Selzer, of Reading, are the guests of P. E. D. Kirlin, on East Oak street.

S. L. Brown, Evan J. Davies, B. J. Yost, Robert Lawson, Edward Danks, M. H. Moyer, A. C. Morgan and Frank Delcamp have returned from Erie, where they were in attendance at the P. O. S. of A. State camp.

The many friends in town of George W. Hassler will be pained to hear that he is a victim of typhoid fever and at the point of death at his home in Allentown. Mr. Hassler was a visitor here a short time ago and on his return to Allentown was taken ill. The fever developed and he grew rapidly worse and yesterday his relatives here were notified that death was expected.

Many Go Out of Town.

The Labor Day celebrations at St. Clair and Mt. Carmel drew large numbers of people from town to town, the exodus to Mt. Carmel being especially large on both the Lehigh valley and P. & L. railroads. The Grant Band and Jr. O. U. A. M. formed a large party leaving on the 10:30 train for Mt. Carmel this morning.

The Cause.

One of the young women who states she was interested in the disturbance on Main street on Wednesday night says the affair did not arise out of a quarrel over a young man, but was caused by stories circulated by a young business man of Main street. The young woman who was dressed in blue makes the statement.

Send the Children.

The Loyal Temperance Legion will resume its meetings this evening and will meet each Saturday evening, at 6:30 o'clock, in the "Y" room, in Robbins' building. Parents are requested to send their children to these meetings.

Charged With Embezzlement.

Joseph Yedick was before Justice Shoemaker last night, charged with embezzlement by A. E. Tabor, the butcher. He was held under $200 bail for trial. The amount involved in the embezzlement is said to be about $200.

Skipped a Board Bill.

Mike Shumel was committed in default of $200 bail by Justice Williams last night on a charge of defrauding Joseph Marshelus out of a board bill.

The Other Day

We saw an advertisement wherein a tub of butter is represented as a living being, and strong enough to hold out a 500 pound weight at arm's length. That's not the kind of butter we sell, ours is not strong. It's sweet, and we have lots of it.
