

Thousands flocking there to attend the G. A. R. Encampment.

PITTSBURG, Sept. 15.—"Comrades" and friends have been flocking into Pittsburg all day, taking complete possession of the city.

Among the noted arrivals are two men from Honolulu. They represent the full membership of the G. A. R. in Hawaii.

Governor Pattison and staff arrived this morning. The first fatality among the veterans to be reported is the sudden death of Comrade Louis Trester, of McClure, Snyder county, Pa.

STORY OF WHOLESALE MURDER

Farm Laborers Killed and Their Bodies Robbed by Their Employers.

ST. PETERSBURG, Sept. 15.—A story of wholesale murder comes from Pogonovka, a village of Samara. Eight farmers living near the village employed twenty-one laborers to help sow their land.

Two Rescued from the Surf.

ATLANTIC CITY, Sept. 15.—Miss Fannie Brylawski, aged 18 years, a guest at the Oceanic hotel, at the foot of Mississippi avenue, was saved from drowning in front of her hotel by the heroism of Thomas Foley.

CAPE MAY, Sept. 15.—Mrs. James S. Carstairs, of Philadelphia, was rescued from the surf in a semi-conscious condition. She was brought ashore by a number of gentlemen who heard her cries for help.

A Chance to Invest.

If you have a few thousand dollars you can make a good investment in a 500-acre coal and timber tract in Tennessee. It will be sold at a sacrifice, the owner being pushed for money.

While in Chicago, Mr. Charles L. Kahler, a prominent shoe merchant of Des Moines, Iowa, had quite a serious time of it. He took a severe cold that he could hardly talk or navigate, but the prompt use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy cured him of his cold so quickly that others at the hotel who had colds followed his example and had a dozen persons ordered it from the nearest drug store.

Low Rates to Norristown.

For the benefit of persons desiring to visit Norristown during the time of the Annual Convention of the Pennsylvania State Firemen's Association to be held at that point September 18 to 21, the Pennsylvania Railroad Company will sell to the public on September 20 round-trip tickets from Pottsville and intermediate stations to Norristown and return at rate of one first class fare for the round trip.

A. M. Bailey, a well known citizen of Eugene, Oregon, says his wife has for years been troubled with chronic diarrhoea and used many remedies with little relief until she tried Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which has cured her sound and well.

Now or Never.

People who have not secured copies of the exquisite photographic of the World's Fair embraced in "The Magic City," and superb photographs of famous men and women and scenes in every land as incorporated in "Voyage Around the World," should apply for them at the HERALD office without delay, as only a few copies are left and the supply will not be renewed.

Tested to Murder the Priest.

RECHARTREY, Sept. 15.—During the celebration of mass in a Catholic church a lunatic, who brandished a long knife, rushed to the altar and tried to murder the priest. He was seized and disarmed before he could do any harm.

NUGGETS OF NEWS.

A trolley ambulance is being tried by St. Louis authorities. Oswald Ottendorfer, editor of the New York Staats Zeitung, is seriously ill. After a picnic at Lendville, Col., Hugh Porter, aged 21, of Bridgeport, Conn., who had brain trouble, shot himself dead.

THE WAR IN THE ORIENT.

The Japanese Commander Gives His Reasons for Firing on the Kow Shing.

VICTORIA, B. C., Sept. 15.—The Northern Pacific liner Sikh, from Yokohama, brings interesting advice of the war in the Orient. The reason given by the commander of the Japanese warship Naniwa Kow, when asked why he fired upon the Kow Shing, seeing she was flying the British flag, is now given for the first time, and is certainly pertinent.

Notwithstanding this explanation, the same party which gives it publicity announces that the sum of $750,000 has been agreed to by the Japanese government as reparation for the sinking of Captain Galworthy's vessel and compensation to those dependent upon the Europeans lost with her.

Both China and Japan are at present keenly alert for articles contraband of war. The Sikh was delayed at Shanghai by a Chinese gunboat, which made an effort to gain possession of the rice portion of her cargo.

China is now hurrying an army of hundreds of thousands of men through northern China to Corea, but as they are subsisting on the products of the country through which they are passing, and most of it is mountainous, it is hard to see what success they will have.

When it was decided that Thursday, September 20, 1904, would be celebrated as a general holiday for the business men of Shenandoah and that a picnic would be held on that day in Columbia park, in aid of the Soldiers' Monument Fund, of Shenandoah, it was also decided to have a monster parade of all the business people and societies of the town and all other places which could be induced to take part in it and help make the demonstration a grand success.

In pursuance of these decisions we earnestly ask that you do what you can to aid in the movement and let us know what your representation will likely be at an early date as possible.

Businessmen will have the privilege of introducing any display they may see fit—the more unique the better.

The parade will start at 9:30 a. m., sharp, and the picnic will continue during the day and evening. Watch for further announcements.

Yesterday's Fatalities at Harrisburg.

HARRISBURG, Sept. 15.—Three fatalities occurred in this city yesterday. Harry L. Hassler, of Chambersburg, a printer employed at the state printing house, was found dead in his room, having been asphyxiated by escaping gas. It is supposed that he committed suicide. John Koehs, a bartender, fell out of a third story window at the Bateman House and fractured his skull, dying a few hours later. The third case was that of Charles Bretz, an employe of the power house of the East Harrisburg Railroad company, who was struck and instantly killed by the flying fragments of a broken flywheel. David Parliatt, a fireman, sustained serious injuries by being thrown from a horse carriage while running to a fire. There were also two other fires and a number of minor casualties during the day.

A Sonambulist's Fatal Shot.

WILMINGTON, Del., Sept. 15.—Samuel R. Barber, of 313 East Third street, fatally shot himself in his bedroom at an early hour in the morning. Those aroused by the shot, entered his room, found him lying on the floor with the left side of his face entirely shot away and the left eye destroyed. A piece of his jawbone was picked up from the floor. Barber said he did not know how the shooting happened. There is no known reason for a suicidal attempt, and as he has been a somnambulist at times it is believed by his family that he arose in his sleep and got the gun, which he discharged accidentally. He was taken to the Delaware hospital and the doctors say he cannot recover.

Affairs in Morocco.

NEW YORK, Sept. 15.—A special dispatch to the World, from Tangier, Morocco, says information comes from Fez, one of the capitals of the Empire of Morocco, and also from Rabat, that Muley Mohammed, the one-eyed and the eldest son of the late sultan, Muley Hassan, has been proclaimed sultan (or emperor) at Morocco City, another capital, by the formidable rebel tribes of the south. Those tribes threatened to besiege Fez, which is the present seat of government, headquarters of the ruling, recognized sultan, Abdul Aziz. The rebellion is spreading.

Railroaders in Convention.

HARRISBURG, Sept. 15.—The city is filled with visiting railroad men and delegates to the fourth biennial convention of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen, which convened this morning. Frank P. Sargent, the grand master, is in attendance. Two sessions will be held daily for two weeks, there being a large amount of business of importance to the Brotherhood to be transacted. The recent troubles growing out of the Pullman boycott will be among the most interesting of the many topics.

These Herself in Front of a Train.

NEW YORK, Sept. 15.—At the bridge terminus of the Brooklyn and Union Elevated road a shocking suicide occurred last night. An unknown woman cast herself down from the station platform in front of an approaching train. Her body was caught under the engine wheels and she was fearfully mangled. She doubtless met with instant death.

Still Finding Forest Fire Victims.

HICKLEY, Minn., Sept. 15.—Coroner Cowan and party went to Sandstone yesterday, where they buried eighty bodies. Five more bodies were found in a cellar in a house just north of Kettle river, and were buried where found. It is believed here that the death list in Pine county will exceed 500, as something like 100 are unaccounted for, according to Coroner Cowan's official statement.

Charged with Robbing Postoffice.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Sept. 15.—Agents of the postal department arrested Anthony Kendrick, Tom Bargo and Max Bargo at Alden. They are charged with breaking into a number of postoffices in Luzerne, Columbia and other counties. The prisoners were brought to Wilkesbarre and lodged in jail.

A GENERAL INVITATION.

Societies and Business People Invited by the Soldiers' Monument Association.

The parade committee of the Soldiers' Monument Association has issued the following circular and sent it broadcast:

When it was decided that Thursday, September 20, 1904, would be celebrated as a general holiday for the business men of Shenandoah and that a picnic would be held on that day in Columbia park, in aid of the Soldiers' Monument Fund, of Shenandoah, it was also decided to have a monster parade of all the business people and societies of the town and all other places which could be induced to take part in it and help make the demonstration a grand success.

In pursuance of these decisions we earnestly ask that you do what you can to aid in the movement and let us know what your representation will likely be at an early date as possible.

Businessmen will have the privilege of introducing any display they may see fit—the more unique the better.

The parade will start at 9:30 a. m., sharp, and the picnic will continue during the day and evening. Watch for further announcements.

AMUSEMENTS.

"SPIDER AND FLY." Bright dialogue, clever people, showy scenery, mirthful music and fetching acting are the more important features which will insure the success of the "Spider and Fly." It is a tremendous hit and a big go.—New York Dramatic News, at Fergusons' theatre on Wednesday evening, Sept. 15th.

MAHANOY CITY.

MAHANOY CITY, Sept. 15.—Thomas Samuels is attending to business in Shenandoah to-day. Misses Stanek and Ryan, of Shenandoah, were seen in town last evening. J. Hopkins received a fine lot of peaches from Goodman & Bros. this morning. A child named Barnhart was slightly injured yesterday by being run over by a carriage.

Dr. James, of Carbonate, was the guest of Miss Meyer, of East Mahanoy avenue last evening. Misses Estella Prosser and Hattie Chester, of Tamaqua, were the guests of their friend, Miss Ella Fladt, yesterday.

Flag Raising at Bernville.

Thirty-five hundred Sons of America paraded at a flag raising at Bernville, Berks county, last Saturday afternoon. The camp at that place presented flags to the public schools. H. H. Brown, Miller of Orwigsburg, made the presentation speech while ex-Mayor Kenney, of Reading, accepted the flag on behalf of the School Board. State President Huth made an able address on the aims and objects of the P. O. S. of A. and music was furnished by the famous Ringgold Band, of Reading. Among the others who took part were State Vice President S. L. Brown, of Shenandoah; State Secretary William Weand, of Philadelphia; State Master of Forms George B. Anderson, of Wilkes Barre; State Treasurer I. S. Smith, of Reading.

Thrown Heading from a Horse.

YORK, Pa., Sept. 15.—Samuel Keller, youngest son of Joseph Keller, mounted a horse and started to a field to drive the cattle home. While riding at a rapid rate the horse made a sudden stop, throwing young Keller heading, striking his head on a large stone. He is dangerously and possibly fatally injured.

Charged with Incendiarism.

ASHLAND, Wis., Sept. 15.—Michael Roepfer has been arrested and brought to Ashland from Marengo on a charge of setting fire to forests, causing the loss of eight lives at High Bridge. He was bound over for trial and lodged in jail. The feeling is intensely bitter against him.

Legs Mangled by Car Wheels.

POTTSVILLE, Pa., Sept. 15.—Elmer Freehafer, a brakeman employed at Cresona, while attempting to board an engine on which he worked, fell under the wheels. Both legs were severely crushed. His right leg was hurt so badly that amputation above the ankle was necessary.

Mercury and the Sun.

The distance of Mercury from the sun varies, owing to the eccentricity of its orbit. When he is nearest to the sun, he receives 10 1/2 times more light and heat than we do, but when he removes to his greatest distance the light and heat are reduced by more than one-half. Even then, however, the sun blazes in the skies of Mercury with a disk 4 1/2 times larger than that which he shows to us on earth.—Chicago Herald.

Beauty More Than Skin Deep.

Take the case of a lovely human face. It may be asked, "What can science say about this without detracting from its charm?" If beauty were only skin deep, we might dread her interference here. But science says that beauty is not skin deep. She can tell you that half the charm of that face—at the least the expression of it—is a matter of little muscles and a complex labyrinth of nerves, that the curves of the lips, the glance of the eyes, the droop of their lids, are a matter of the prevalent use of certain muscles in obedience to a prevalent aspect of the mind; moreover, that the use of those organs of expression has come down long ancestral lines, and that the molds of the features themselves is a question of heredity. "What is life?" is a question with which men have puzzled themselves in vain from all times.—Sunday Magazine.
