THE W. C. T. U. CONVENTION.

Work Done by the Schuylkill County Fraternity.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS!

A Fund for the Tablet in the Chicago Temple—Interesting Address by Mrs. Annabel M. Holvey.

The annual convention of the Women's Christian Temperance Union of Schuylkill County was held in town yesterday and was attended by a number of ladies engaged in advancing the interests of the Union, among them Mrs. Annabel Holvey, of West Pittston, a lady of brilliant qualities, thoroughly acquainted with newspaper work on account of association with it for years, and who is state superintendent of press work for the Union.

The convention was opened in the temperance headquarters in the post office building by devotional exercises, after which the following delegates were reported in attendance: Mrs. Pugh and Mrs. Heiser, Mahanoy City; Mrs. Yost, Mrs. Cashner and Mrs. Matter, of the Shenandoah; Misses Edith Morgan, Fanny Davis and Clara Yost, of the Shenandoah.

The following committees were appointed: Miss Bella Brown, Mrs. Pugh and Mrs. Yost, on resolutions; Mrs. Cather and Miss Edith Morgan, on audit. Reports were read by the following county delegates: Miss Hattie A. Callen, of Shenandoah, on juvenile department; Mrs. Zimmerman, Mahanoy City, on railroad department; Mrs. Rowbottom, Mahanoy City, on unfortunates; Mrs. Lottie Hollister, on demerit contestants; Miss Belle Brown, on "Y" work.

The second session opened with the singing of "Draw me Nearer," followed by scripture reading by Mrs. Rowbottom and prayer by Mrs. Heiser.

Under the head of new business the Chicago temple fund was mentioned. The president stated that Mahanoy City purposed raising $100 for the fund, so as to have the name of the Union placed upon the tablet; that they have succeeded in securing fifty dollars towards said amount and feel that they have reached their limit. The president also stated that she had brought the subject to the attention of the Shenandoah "Y" and that they, together with the J. Y. and the I. T. L., have pledged the remaining $50, and the name of the Schuylkill County W. C. T. U. will be engraved on the tablet.

The address of welcome to the delegates and visitors was then delivered by Miss Edith Morgan and responded to by Mrs. Pugh.

After congregational singing the report of the flower mission was read by the superintendent, Miss Priscilla Smith, who also gave an interesting address on her personal work under the head of the flower mission department. The report was accepted and Miss Smith given a vote of thanks.

The president then read the annual address, which was listened to with great pleasure. The election of officers resulted as follows: President, Mrs. Lottie Hollister, Shenandoah; Vice President at Large, Mrs. J. P. Zimmerman, Mahanoy City; Secretary, Miss Hattie A. Callen, Shenandoah; Treasurer, Mrs. J. M. Hoppes, Mahanoy City.

Remarks relative to the work of the Union were made by Mrs. Hyde, late of New Jersey and now of Shenandoah; Mrs. Cather, Mrs. Rowbottom, Mrs. Pugh and Mrs. Heiser. The evening session was held in the Presbyterian church and opened by congregational singing. "Where are the Rescuers?" followed by prayer by Rev. T. Maxwell Morrison; a solo by Miss Sallie Wasley; reading of the national delegate's report by Miss Hattie A. Callen, the county secretary; and congregational singing "The Women's Crusade Shall Win."

Mrs. Annabel M. Holvey then delivered the address of the evening on "The Government and Its Relation to the Christian Church." It was an able effort and exceedingly interesting, showing great research and a thorough knowledge of the subject. Mrs. Holvey spoke for an hour and twenty minutes, after which Mr. D. John Price rendered a solo and the exercises closed with congregational singing, the doxology and benediction.

Excursion to Allentown Fair.

The 14th annual excursion of the Citizens' Band of Mahanoy City to Allentown fair promises to exceed in numbers all former excursions to this—the best fair in the state. Besides the fair, the noted Central Park, located between Allentown and Bethlehem, offers an attraction for the excursionist. The grounds are beautifully located, and are fitted up with swing boats and everything to amuse both young and old. The Zoological exhibits are many. It will be visited by a large number of the excursionists.

Ellis Supowitz Returned.

Ellis Supowitz has returned from New York bringing with him hundreds of suits for men, boys and children. They are the new city styles and the latest patterns ever seen in the coal regions. Owing to reductions on duty by the new tariff, and by paying cash, he was enabled to buy at half below last year's prices. His customers will have the benefit of this reduction. Don't forget the place. 35 South Main street. 9-27c

"She Couldn't Marry Three."

It is an actual fact that an audience has been heard to laugh half a mile from the theatre during the production of "She Couldn't Marry Three." No more exciting and thrilling sensational effects ever used than in the production of "She Couldn't Marry Three." A complete set of calcium lights give an added charm to the beautiful scenery in "She Couldn't Marry Three."

Arbitrators Appointed.

M. C. Watson, John A. Betty and A. H. Roads have been selected to arbitrate the case of Christian Schmidt against Thomas C. Waters and will meet for that purpose at the office of M. M. Burke, Esq., on the 20th inst.

HE WATCHES THEM.

A Few Observations by a Rambler About the Town. Two of our town officials stood on one of the streets accusing each other of crookedness in their respective departments and attracted quite a crowd of bystanders. The Council Chamber is the proper place for such discussions, gentlemen.

While strolling along Gilbert street last evening one of our charming young ladies who is always ready for anything pertaining to fun told me of the manner in which she called down a fresh, everyday drummer. The young lady was on her way home, which, by the way is in Brownsville, when she was accosted by his freshness and asked to take a walk. "Why, certainly; let's go up the Hingtow hill" was the response, and the drummer jumped with glee. The young lady walked him 'till he nearly had a fit and upon arriving near her home said sweetly and without much ado, "Good night, my dear fellow. His business standing in a dark alley as lonely and rigid as surprise could make him."

Well, the show season has arrived again and with it comes the give-me-your-passion nuisance. Manager Ferguson should check this at the start.

Next season, under the new management, Shenandoah will have a base ball team that will go up against the best of them and win, too. See?

Pottsville will have a band to meet her City Jacks on their return from Philadelphia, while our boys will have all the come-and-see-me-Charley-gals to meet them. O, what a difference in base ball!

The Soldiers' Monument picnic committee has issued circulars petitioning the citizens to refrain from eating as much as possible before the picnic to be held on the Business Men's Holiday, so that they may be in condition to fill up on the best the land can afford on that day. BILLY BLINKER.

ENCAMPMENT ELECTIONS.

Col. Lawler Elected Commander by an Exceedingly Close Vote.

SPECIAL TO EVENING HERALD. PITTSBURG, Sept. 13.—At the National Encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic here this morning Col. Thomas G. Lawler was elected Commander over T. H. Walker by eleven votes.

This is the closest contest on an election of officers in the history of the organization.

Major A. T. Burchfield was elected Second Post Commander and Charles Shatta, Sr., Vice Commander. A. P. A.

Rupture.

Care guaranteed. No operation. Inquire at the Shenandoah drug store, No. 8 South Main street. 9-13M

"Spiders" Like Wine.

After the show last evening three young dancemasters who figured in the ballet of "Spider and Fly" joined two Wilkes-Barre blades and a well known young man of town at a champagne supper. The women proved adept at wine drinking and cigarette smoking, and the dancemasters fought the bill found himself "short" when he started for his hotel.

Second to None.

Schoener and Tampest, of the oyster bay on North Main street, between Lloyd and Coal streets, are leaders, not followers. They supply families with the finest oysters in the market and at the bay serve the bivalve in the finest style. Their place will be elaborately decorated next Saturday evening.

Engine Disabled.

Lahigh Valley passenger engine No. 407 was disabled while making a trip to Ashland this morning. The air cock gave out and the train was run the balance of the way to Ashland and back to this town with the hand brakes in use. An engine sent down from Delano took the train to Pottsville. The disabled engine was sent to the Delano shops.

To the Public.

In consequence of the illness of a member of our firm we are obliged to put a strange carrier on one of the HERALD routes. We ask the indulgence of our patrons and will feel that should any of them call at our place in case they should not receive the paper this evening. BOOKS & BROWN.

A Wedding.

James Copley and Miss Margie Whitaker were united in marriage by Rev. P. C. McInure, at St. Canticus' church, Mahanoy City, 30-day, at noon. The contracting parties are well known and popular residents of Mahanoy City and have the congratulations of many friends, among them the HERALD.

He Bent a Woman.

Louis Petoak is an involuntary traveling companion of Constable Jack Dando to Pottsville this morning and is now a guest of Warden Dunkelberger. Petoak had a disagreement with a Polish woman and bent her. He was unable to furnish bail and consequently is obliged to remain in jail until he can be tried.

Both Sentenced.

Mrs. Mary McGeever, of this town, was yesterday sentenced by the court at Pottsville to sixty days imprisonment on a charge of adultery and William O'Brien, her co-defendant, was sent to jail for 30 days.

Important Announcement.

A large consignment of men's, boys', ladies' misses' and children's shoes, all Schuylkill county goods, will be sold cheap for the next 10 days, at private sale. Reese's Auction Rooms, West Centre street. Get your repairing done at Holderman's.

GLEANINGS OF THE DAY

Accidents Occurring in and Out of the Mines.

A RESERVOIR ACCIDENT!

An Italian Laborer Covered With Clay. Two Victims of Mishaps in the Mines. None Dangerously Injured.

Three accidents were added to the record yesterday, two having occurred in the mines and one at the Fowler's Run reservoir of the public water works, but fortunately none of the mishaps were of such a character as to endanger life. There was a singular coincident in connection with two of them.

The first victim was Giovanni Pontillo, an Italian laborer employed at Fowler's Run. He was engaged in plying a shovel in the excavation for the reservoir when a big clod of earth fell down upon him from the embankment, fracturing his right leg and inflicting internal injuries. He was removed to the Miners' Hospital at Fountain Springs.

While the injured Italian was at the Lehigh Valley depot awaiting the arrival of a train to take him to the hospital a crowd of Poles from the O'Hara row of houses opposite the depot gathered about him to learn the nature of the injuries and how they were sustained. Among these was William Pokis, who became satisfied and returned to his home. Two hours later, while Pokis was at work in a breast of the Shenandoah City colliery and telling his buddy of the Italian's misfortune, a large lump of coal rolled down at upon him and pinned him beneath it. It was at first thought that Pokis had been fatally crushed, but a careful examination showed that he had only sustained a squeeze of the thighs and no fractures. Pokis was taken to his home.

The third victim was John White, of West Oak street, employed as a loader at West Shenandoah colliery. He had his right hand mashed. While White was running cars into a siding his hand was caught between the brakes of two cars, as they bumped against each other. Although no bones were broken the hand will be disabled for some time.

How to Make Money.

Great wealth has been accumulated by small savings. You can save money by purchasing Wall Paper now to keep for future use. I am selling out my entire stock at just what it cost me. Come and see the bargains. J. P. GARDEN, 234 West Centre street.

His Head Blown Off.

William Fulweller, a rockman, was instantly killed at Tamaqua on Tuesday by an explosion of dynamite. He was engaged in blasting a rock upon the site chosen for Lehigh Valley conductor Henry L. Banker's private residence, and in the absence of fuse made a squib with which to set a charge of four pieces of dynamite and was in the act of lighting the squib when the explosion occurred, hurling the unfortunate man into the air. The left half of his head was blown away and his left arm. Fulweller was a son of Farmer Fulweller, of East Mahanoy Junction, and was unmarried. Fulweller's squib was nothing more than a little powder wrapped in paper. On applying fire to the end the squib burnt its length like a fuse, with the above unfortunate result.

Feeley's Cafe.

Largest schooners in town. Choice lunch at all hours. Music. 36 North Main street, Shenandoah. 8-18 im.

"Spider and Fly."

M. B. Leavitt's production of the operatic burlesque, "Spider and Fly," at Pottsville, last night, was visited by a large audience, which was swelled by the attendance of many people from other towns. The burlesque was very well rendered and a number of very pleasant specialties were introduced. Steve Corry was particularly amusing and the acrobatic feats of the three Lassards won deserved applause. Miss Fanny Daboll's vocalisms were also appreciated. The scenery lacked the spectacular effects expected and the ballet was somewhat indifferent. Some of the young women who took part in it would be much better placed if cast for the spiders.

Steam Removating Co. call for, clean and deliver Ingrain and Brussels at 25c per yard; heavier carpets 4c. 32 E. Coal St.

Mrs. Boyer's Anniversary.

Mrs. John S. Boyer was surprised yesterday by her home-coming daughter, Tamaqua, in honor of her eighty-second birthday. Those present were Mr. Daniel Boyer, of Reading; Mr. George Boyer, of Shenandoah; Mrs. Lou Greenwald and son and daughter, George and Florence, of Pottsville; Mrs. Emma Hirsch, her daughter, Annie and Lottie, of Easton; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Shuman and two daughters, of Catawissa; Mrs. Susan C. Minor and son, Robert, of Easton, and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Fox and daughters, Annie, Emma and Jamella, of Tamaqua.

Main's Circus.

During the performance of the Walter L. Main's circus show on earth, a number of new features were introduced proving that the old theory: "Circuses are all alike," is untrue. The show is wonderfully free of fakirs and games of chance and the management courteous and gentlemanly.—Clarke's, West Virginia, Daily Telegram. Will exhibit in Shenandoah on Friday, Sept. 21st.

Lavelle Fair.

Lavelle Fair, Sept. 19, 20, and 21. First-class trotting, pacing, running and bicycle races each day. Admission—Adults 50c; children under 12 years of age, 15c; teams, and horse and rider, saddle, 25c. Excursion rates on railroad. 9-13-94

September Blanket Sale.

To buyers of blankets during this month we will offer the following special bargains: Five hundred pairs in all, to go at 25 cents; 75 cents and $1 per pair. L. J. WILKINSON, 29 South Main St.

PENCIL POINTS.

Local News Gleanings Condensed for Hasty Perusal.

Hazelton is to have another brewery. Typhoid fever prevails to an alarming extent in Beaver Valley.

It's a still Hibernian wedding that doesn't produce half a dozen law suits. Shamokin's Borough Council has dismissed two policemen for neglect of duty.

The Tamaqua papers are kicking against the shifting engines at that place using soft coal.

Out of town pupils of the Mahanoy City High school are required to pay $5 per month as tuition fees.

The early closing movement is again being actuated by some of Hazelton's leading merchants. They were satisfied with the trial given it during the late hot spell and favor it as a permanent institution.

The Pennsylvania Telephone Company has given the lessees of telephones in Tamaqua thirty days' notice that the exchange will be closed early in October. The company claims that the service has been maintained at a loss owing to the small number of subscribers.

Hicks' weather prophesies are that there will be a storm period from September 14th to 18th with equinoctial gales. Cool nights and danger of frost in that period may be looked for. On 20th and 21st revolutionary storm centers. The full and new moon falling in storm periods anywhere near the equinox greatly intensify storms and seismic shocks. The last storm period is 26th followed by a very cold wave to end the month.

The Bridgeman Cometh.

Mr. P. J. Ferguson and his bride, nee Miss Dillon, of Mahanoy City, arrived in town last evening after a delightful tour following their marriage at Atlantic City last week. The tour included a visit to Washington, D. C. Mr. and Mrs. Ferguson have taken possession of their handsomely furnished mansion on South White street.

"She Couldn't Marry Three."

Manager Ferguson informs us that he is negotiating with the manager of "She Couldn't Marry Three" for one night.

Mrs. Bridgeman, R. C. M., teaches violin (specialty) cello and piano. Corner of Jardin and Lloyd streets. 9-13-11
