Notice!

Hereafter all political advertisements, etc., MUST BE PAID FOR IN ADVANCE. This is imperative, as the management has experienced long enough and finds that collections for this kind of work are more easily made at the time the contracts are made than at any other time.

A CANDIDATE who leaves the Republican party now for the Populist or any other party is wildly reckless.

CORREY has about given up hope of a match with Jackson, and Jackson has about given up hope of a match with Corbett. Singular how these valiant men give up hope for each other.

SHENKO is the man who invented the Shaker idea, and he is the man who was elected for Congress by the North Carolina vote of the First District. Skinned by a woman's faith gets there.

A latest railway wreck was caused by a freight car which had blown across the track near Chicago. When the air-brake failed there will be some lively traveling on the Western railways.

There was little excuse when the President made his famous lacer, and there is none now whatever. The Democracy in Vermont and Maine have shown by their votes against their party, and by their election from the polls that they repudiate the base surrender of principles made in the Bill of Sale to the Trusts.

The North is more solid and more determined against the British tariff policy of the Democratic party than it was against the rebellion. Maine votes more than Vermont. In the Green Mountain state 85 per cent of the Democratic vote in 1892 has vanished, or has been cast for Republican candidates. The startling feature in these returns is that the Northern people give heavier majorities for the Republican party than they gave in the heat and passion of the civil war. Maine gave 17,000 plurality for Lincoln in 1864, but now gives 37,000 plurality for the protection of American industries.

COWARDICE is bad for business, and overconfidence at least as bad. The duty of the newspaper is to supply the facts, which protect against both. Just now some journals are devoting many columns to exploitation of the improvement in business, which is indeed substantial, but which they find an interest in magnifying. Hence, the first thing to be done each week is to get at the facts, which show how much is real in the improvement, and how much is imaginary or hopeful. The records which manufacture themselves, and are not manufactured, show that business is larger than in previous months, but it ought to be larger in September than in August. It is larger than it was last year, measured by payments through clearing houses, 7.7 per cent., but smaller than in the first week of September, 1892, by 29.4 per cent. In that year the daily average was nearly $15,000,000 larger than in August, last year it was only $9,000,000 larger, and this year it begins the month about $10,000,000 larger. This tells of the aggregate of all kinds of business, but it is inevitable that under new laws, and with different crops, some kinds of business flourish more than others. Thus, contradictory phenomena easily deceive those who refuse to see anything which does not fit their theories.

TODAY'S GREAT BATTLE

The Breckinridge-Owens Verdict in the Hands of the Voters.

PRAYING FOR OWENS' SUCCESS.

The Women in All Parts of the Ashfield District Canvassing for the Primaries and Using Their Influence Against Breckinridge-Owens' Deal.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Sept. 15.—Both Owens and Breckinridge closed here last night, Breckinridge speaking at the court house and Owens at the Opera house. The Breckinridge forces made a big parade and demonstration, having several bands and a drum corps. Breckinridge's speech was simply an arraignment of Mr. Owens, repeating his charges and criticizing Owens' denial.

The Opera house was full, the principal speech being made by George C. Lockhart, of Paris. Mr. Owens denied in bitter terms Breckinridge's charges that he is a broken down gambler and that he was put out of a Louisville hotel. A conference was held by Mr. Owens' friends, and an additional statement to that made Thursday night was given out. The statement is an emphatic denial of all Breckinridge's charges.

He says over his signature: "It is significant that Breckinridge could obtain only the affidavit of J. A. Elliott to substantiate the charge of my gambling, and I write an intelligent person's attention to the character of the affidavit of Elliott. It bears all the earmarks of what the lawyers term a 'cooked' affidavit, and upon its face is unworthy of the respect of anyone."

"Elliott, under the pressure evidently placed upon him, could not say that he knew me personally, and if he knows me at all, his knowledge is such as shows him to be a certain unreliable witness. I disavow this charge which Breckinridge has harbored for months with the contempt that both he and I merit."

"Equally false and contemptible are the charges that I have been in the habit of gaming with intoxicated countrymen, that I engaged in games with such young men in order to take advantage of them, I disavow these charges with the full assurance that they will not deceive any friend of mine, and I submit to the generous nature of even my honorable enemies in this contest that the attack upon me at this time without opportunity of full investigation and production of evidence is like an assault in the night."

Sattle spoke at Owen to the people of his home county. The betting here today is two to one on Owens.

Thirty-five of the best women in Lexington met at the Opera house here and decided to invite the ministers of the city to meet with them today and to pray for the defeat of Breckinridge. They denounced as untrue the story that they had withdrawn their support from Owens.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 15.—Colonel Zeke Clay, the famous Kentucky horseman, resides in Bourbon county, Ky., near Paris. He has taken an active interest in the Breckinridge campaign and is a leader of the Owens element. The feeling has run so high that men who have been friends and neighbors for a life time are now at sword points. Colonel Clay made the emphatic declaration that blood would flow if his vote was challenged at the primary, and he was asked to make oath to support the nominees.

Capital Bradshaw is a leading citizen of Paris. He is one of the Breckinridge judges of election, and is expected to challenge Clay's vote. He was informed of Clay's statement. It is said that he has taken out $10,000 insurance on his life, and is engaged in straightening up his business affairs, so that whatever may happen today he will be prepared. Colonel Zeke Clay is a brother of Cassius M. Clay, Jr., now candidate for governor of Kentucky.

Kentucky Racing Distances Reduced.

LOUISVILLE, Sept. 15.—It is officially announced that the distance in the Kentucky derby has been reduced to a mile and a quarter, the Clark stake to one and one-eighth miles, and the Kentucky Oaks to one and one-sixteenth miles. The derby has a guaranteed value of $50,000. The Clark stakes $5,000 and the Oaks $3,000. All other stakes of 1995-96 are guaranteed, the cash value of none being below $2,000.

A. R. C. Officers Released.

INDIANAPOLIS, Sept. 15.—George Scholta, president of the Terre Haute branch of the American Railway union, and A. H. Daniels, who was chief of the grievance committee of the union at Terre Haute during the recent railroad strike, were both found guilty of contempt of court by Judge Baker, of the United States court. The court released the men on their good behavior.

Killed a Deputy Sheriff.

MIDDLEBORGH, Ky., Sept. 15.—News has reached here of a desperate encounter on Beech Fork between George Wilson, the deputy sheriff of Leslie county, and William North, a prominent Bell county farmer. Both parties fired six shots, one of which passed through Wilson's heart, killing him instantly. North was slightly wounded. The dispute grew out of a tax settlement.

Gloomy Crop Outlook in Mississippi.

NATCHEZ, Miss., Sept. 15.—The planters of this vicinity are very much depressed at the crop outlook. Heavy rains are of daily occurrence, causing rust, rot, blighting and sprouting in the bolls, and many are now apprehensive that they will not make more than two thirds of a crop. The rains continue and no cessation is looked for till the end of the month.

Bankers Arrested.

HARRISBURG, Sept. 15.—Charged with misapplying $50,000 of funds of the Middletown National bank, of Middletown, which failed last week, Charles P. Raymond, president, and his brother, Edward Raymond, the cashier, were arrested last night by Deputy Marshal Anderson.

Death of a Prominent Marylander.

ANAPOLIS, Md., Sept. 15.—James H. Brown, general manager of the Annapolis, Washington and Baltimore railroad, died here yesterday after an illness of several months. He was elected mayor of this city for three years, going out of office about one year ago.

Garment Workers Still on Strike.

NEWARK, N. J., Sept. 15.—Although the striking garment workers of this city hoped to adjust all difficulties and end the strike today, the bosses refused to give a bond as surety that they will comply with the conditions demanded, and the strike is still on.

MR. VILLARD'S DEFENSE.

Report of Unlawful Gains in His Dealings With the Northern Pacific.

NEW YORK, Sept. 15.—Ex-President Henry Villard, of the Northern Pacific Railroad company, who was charged in the report of Master in Chancery Carey in the proceedings against Receiver Oakes with having made unlawful gains in his dealings with the Northern Pacific Railroad company, is in the Orient. His counsel, Wheeler H. Peckham, makes the following statement for publication, in defense of Mr. Villard.

Mr. Peckham said: "The statement in the papers is calculated to do in some legal proceeding conducted in the ordinary way and to which Mr. Villard was a party, it had been adjudged by the master that Mr. Villard had made illegal gains."

"In the consolidated suit in the United States circuit court, eastern district of Wisconsin, against the Northern Pacific Railroad company, Thomas F. Oakes, its then president, and Messrs. Rouse and Payne were by consent of the company appointed receivers."

"This inquiry at Milwaukee was not made in order to recover anything from Mr. Villard. No judgment or decree of any kind can be rendered affecting him. The only result that can be effected is the removal or retention of Mr. Oakes as receiver."

"With the testimony taken by Master Mr. Carey I am not familiar. It was presented by Mr. Pettit, Mr. Ives' counsel, and I am told does not warrant the conclusion. The gist of Mr. Carey's report seems to be that in regard to the Northern Pacific and Manitoba Railway company Mr. Villard made a profit 'beyond a reasonable compensation for his services,' and made 'an unreasonable profit.' That profit is stated at $385,691.71. The question thus in the mind of the master seems to have been one of degree. The master conceded a right to compensation, but says Mr. Villard charged too much, and has apparently allowed him nothing."

"As to the charges made in the report, I can only say that Mr. Villard most emphatically denies any unlawful gains and any wrong doing whatever. The way to try whether Mr. Villard is culpable or otherwise is my suit against him. One such suit was brought about a year ago. To that suit Mr. Villard immediately filed a full and complete answer. The time to take testimony has long expired and the suit has been practically abandoned."

A FEMALE DEFAULTER.

The Ex-Treasurer of the Ladies of the G. A. R. Under Arrest.

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 15.—By official announcement today, Mrs. Anna E. Grubb, of Camden, N. J., past national treasurer of the Ladies of the G. A. R., is charged with misappropriating the funds of that organization.

This statement in the ladies' meeting created a sensation unequalled in the history of the order. The proceedings of the convention were secret, but one of the ladies, who is in high standing, makes the statement that Mrs. Grubb has defaulted to the amount of $500, and suit has been brought against her bondsman to recover."

Mrs. Grubb, she says, was re-elected to the office several times, and had the confidence of the ladies to such an extent that the auditors in going over her books considered it necessary only to make a cursory examination. How long the shortage has existed is not stated.

In the warm discussion which followed this announcement, Mrs. Margaret J. Stearns, of Camden, a member of the council of administration, and Mrs. Laura McNeil, who was the first national president, made urgent appeals in behalf of Mrs. Grubb, and suggested that the ladies donate enough to make up the deficiency, hoping to keep the scandal from becoming public. Others, however, bitterly denounced the ex-treasurer and insisted that the law take its course.

The majority voted in favor of prosecution, and the end is not yet. The excuse made for Mrs. Grubb by her friends is that when she used the money it was to help her husband out of financial straits and she could not return it when called upon.

Brothers Engage in a Fatal Quarrel.

NORTHPORT, Ala., Sept. 15.—A fatal duel occurred here today between John and Alexander Tyler, brothers. Both were prominent planters and their plantations adjoined. They quarreled a few days ago about the location of a line fence, and yesterday when they met in the road the difficulty was renewed. Hot words were followed by blows, and finally both drew pistols. They continued shooting until both had emptied their revolvers. John was wounded three times and Alexander three. The former died soon after being removed to his home and there is no chance for the latter's recovery.

An Insurance Company Goes Up.

HARRISBURG, Pa., Sept. 15.—Insurance Commissioner Tupper has revoked the license of the Commercial Alliance Life Insurance company, which has $3,000,000 of insurance in force, of which less than $600,000 is in this state. The insurance commission regards the failure as a bad one, with no hope of the company resuming business.

Japs Reputed With Heavy Losses.

LONDON, Sept. 15.—A dispatch to the Times from Thientsin says that news has reached there from Ping-Yan that the Japanese, on the night of Sept. 12, made an attempt to surprise the Chinese camp, but were repulsed with heavy loss. The movements of the Japanese troops were impeded by the standing crops, which also hid the enemy from them.
