Heminway Silk. Our Window Display

During the past half century Heminway's silk has enjoyed a foremost position among American industries of its class. As long ago as 1855 it secured the Silver Medal at the American Institute Fair, the highest prize awarded for sewing silks on spools and embroidery silk. Since then medals of superiority have been awarded at every competitive exposition. We positively guarantee that all our high class "Art Needlework Silks" are fast dyes and their beauty and lustre increased by frequent washing.

TOPICS OF THE TIMES.

What is Going on in the Real Estate Market.

C. E. TITMAN'S PURCHASE.

Becomes the Owner of the Cather Property and Will Put New and Modern Style Dwellings on It.

One day last week the HERALD announced that the town was about to lose several of its most respected and influential citizens by the departure of Mine Inspector Stein's family and that Mr. Stein's removal was forced because he had been unable to secure a suitable residence in town. It is with pleasure that a change of determination is recorded on Mr. Stein's part. His family will remain here, and the desire for a suitable residence will be met.

The announcement, with the comment that it was a pity to see good citizens leave the town because of a lack of proper dwellings, aroused the interest of Mr. C. E. Titman and, as a result, he has become the purchaser of the Cather property on West Oak street. All negotiations are complete with the exception of the delivery of the deed and that will be forthcoming within a few days. The price fixed for the property is $6,500.

When Mr. Titman becomes possessed of his new purchase he will begin expending several thousand dollars in alterations and the erection of new buildings. The houses now occupied by the Stein and Cather families and which will be retained by them, as tenants, will be extensively altered. They will be furnished with all modern improvements and made almost new.

The vacant lots east of these houses, which have so frequently been the scenes of many delightful garden parties, will soon vanish from view. The masons and carpenters will soon remove the carpet of green grass and erect the erection of three first-class dwellings, each eighteen feet wide, sixty feet deep and three stories high, and supplied with all modern conveniences. The street upon which this property is located is a most desirable one for family residences, and when the improvements are completed Mr. Titman will doubtless find this investment a valuable one.

The extension of the Lakeside Electric Railway will result in building up some properties which have heretofore been considered almost worthless. For instance, properties on Plum alley, immediately south and north of the western end of the Oak street bridge, will become excellent sites for good dwellings, and the few stables now there will be transferred to some more secluded part of the town. The part of Plum alley referred to will be entirely changed as soon as the bridge is completed. Heretofore it has been a dark, neglected quarter, seldom visited by any other than the residents, but when the bridge is finished and people find that they can reach the First ward from Oak street direct, by means of the foot bridge, and when the electric cars run through the place its character will be changed entirely, and, with the good nature of the Borough Council, electric light will make the place almost as desirable as the corner of White and Oak streets.

There is another part of the town which needs the new life which only an electric railway can give, and that is Centre street, west of Jardin. There are a number of little houses in that quarter, many on account of the distance from the live quarter of the town than for any other reason. People from out of town never travel that street, unless it is to make visits. There is nothing to draw people there. The electric railway would draw them and something should be done to get either the Traction or Lakeside company to extend its road through that quarter.

AMUSEMENTS.

"A BREEZY TIME."

"A Breezy Time," a musical comedy, familiar to Wilkes-Barreans, was at the Grand opera house and the play again made the hit it caused the last time it was here. The music was bright and catchy, the comedians really funny, and the whole created roars of laughter and bursts of applause. The company is a strong one and kept up the fun from start to finish.—Wilkes-Barre Newsdealer, September 8th. At Ferguson's theatre on Friday evening, Sept. 21st.

A GREAT SUCCESS.

There are many remarkable successes on the road this season but none exceed the popularity enjoyed by the latest New York success, "She Couldn't Marry Three." Press and public accord it an ovation wherever presented. The scenic effects are superb, the story an intense and interesting one, unlike the many unreasonable and unnatural plays with which the public are afflicted. It is full of hearty laughter, bright and catchy music, the most sensational climaxes. The company is one of the strongest on the road, the scenery the most magnificent ever built, and as the curtain rises on each act, prolonged applause attest the public appreciation of each beautiful stage picture. The great scenic artists, Messrs. Daniel Cronimus and Herbert Speck, feel justly proud of their work on this production.

MAIN'S CIRCUS.

During the performance of the Walter L. Main grandest show on earth, a number of new features were introduced, proving that the old theory "Circuses are all alike," is untrue. The show is wonderfully free of fakirs and games of chance and the management courteous and gentlemanly.—Clarksville, West Virginia, Daily Telegram. Will exhibit in Shenandoah on Friday, Sept. 21st.

PERSONAL.

John F. Finney went to Harrisburg to-day. Harry Mellet, of Mahanoy City, was a town visitor this morning.

Miss Annie Morrison left to-day for a visit to New York and Philadelphia.

Postmaster Mellet dined with Congressman James B. Kelly at Pottsville yesterday.

W. D. Chmielewski, of East Centre street, has returned from a visit to relatives in Poland.

Mine Host McElhenny witnessed the Providence-Pottsville base ball game at the latter place yesterday.

Hon. T. J. Fluhgus, the Democratic candidate for Sheriff, spent to-day in fixing up his Mahanoy City fences.

Deputy Sheriff O'Donnell, of Pottsville, spent several hours in town last night looking after official business.

Joseph Wyatt, the general Republican candidate for the Legislature in this district, spent to-day at Pottsville.

Miss Laura Michael, a charming young lady of New York city, spent the past few weeks as the guest of M. Moses and wife.

The rumors that Hugh J. Evans has received a position in one of the government departments at Washington, D. C., continue spreading, but they are without foundation. Mr. Evans holds a clerkship at the Pennsylvania colliery, Green Ridge.

Leysham Lewis, a dashing young man of Philadelphia, is the guest of his brother, D. R. Lewis, in town. Mr. Lewis was formerly a resident of this town and has many warm friends here. For some time past he has been engaged as the operator of the ice machine at Betz's Germania brewery, in Philadelphia.

McElhenny's fried oysters are acknowledged the finest in the county.

BASE BALL.

The Readings have disbanded. The Hasletons have disbanded.

The Mahanoy City club has a batch of law suits on hand for playing on Sunday.

The Ashlands will have a game or two with the Shenandoahs before the season closes.

The Pottsvilles whitewashed the Providence Eastern league club at Pottsville yesterday. The score was 6 to 0. Wilson proved an enigma to the visitors.

The early formation of a stock company to manage next season's Shenandoah club is being agitated with some success. Now is the time to organize and sign players.

The Shenandoahs will be about the last to leave the diamond this season. Their last game will be played here on the 20th inst., with the Boston National league club.

Naturalization Refused.

MARCH CRIGER, Pa., Sept. 18.—Judge Craig, presiding at a session of the Carbon County Court yesterday, refused to naturalize five Hungarians from Beaver Meadow. The applicants were unable to answer the questions asked by the Court, several of them not even knowing their age. The action of the Judge in passing upon the qualifications of applicants for citizenship has caused consternation among the politicians. Judge Craig objects to turning his court into a naturalization mill.

Foot Mashed.

Lewis Danus, a thirteen-year-old Polish boy residing on West Cherry street, had one of his feet mashed on Sunday afternoon. Danus and other boys were playing on the turn-table at the Pennsylvania round-house, when the accident happened. Dr. Hamilton gave temporary treatment, after which the boy was removed to the Miners' Hospital. Dr. Biddle hopes to save the foot.

Fahy Didn't Enter.

Mart Fahy, the well known local sprinter, is at Coney Island and was booked to enter the 100-yard handicap foot race at that place yesterday, but failed to go into it on account of not being in condition. Martin is looked upon by many as the fastest man in the coal regions and his friends believe that had he entered the race he would have been well to the front at the finish.

Not a Snake Story.

C. H. Hagenbuch spent yesterday afternoon at Lakeside fishing and met with much success. His basket was filled with twenty-five fish ranging from eight to eleven and a half inches in length. Charles takes great delight in relating his exploits to his friends, and at the same time assures them it is no fake snake story.

McElhenny will have snapper, clam and oyster soup this evening.

Foot Ball.

The regular Shenandoah eleven evidently intends to keep itself in good trim for teams which may cross its path. The captain has called for practice at Glover's Hill every Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday evenings, at 6 o'clock.

Died From Appendicitis.

Robert, son of Jacob Deppen, of Pottsville, died at the German Hospital at Philadelphia after undergoing an operation for appendicitis. The disease was brought on by a grape seed lodging in the boy's bowels.

WEDDING THIS MORNING!

Two Prominent Young People Bound in the Bonds of Wedlock at the Residence of Mr. R. C. Smith.

A very pretty wedding took place at noon to-day at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Smith, 301 West Lloyd street. The principals were Miss Carrie M. Smith, until recently one of the efficient public school teachers of this borough, and Mr. W. H. Kerslake, shipper at the P. & R. C. & I. Co.'s Maple Hill colliery. The parlor, where the ceremony took place, and the adjoining dining room were elaborately decorated with plants, vases and flowers and in one corner of the parlor was an artistically arranged mound of rocks and moss, which had a very pretty effect.

The bridesmaid was Miss Mattie Linton, of Mahanoy City, and Mr. John Hough, of town, the groomsmen. Misses Ethel Hollister and Nellie Jacobs were the flower girls. Emily Smith, sister of the bride, acted as maid of honor. The wedding march was rendered by Miss Mame Wasley and Rev. William Powick, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church, officiated at the ceremony.

The bride was attired in a white silk Bengaline, which was handsomely trimmed, and she carried a small white bible. The bridegroom wore conventional black.

The bridal party left town on the 4:10 Pennsylvania train for the bridal tour, which will include visits to Philadelphia, New York, New Rochelle and Ocean Grove.

Among the relatives and friends who attended the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. George M. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. George J. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Nausbaum, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Little, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. A. The magic lantern entertainment given by the advance agent of a "A Breezy Time," was pronounced a grand success by the audience which applauded it freely.

Fitz & Webster will appear at Kaiser's opera house to-night in "A Breezy Time." Judging from the success they met with here last season they will have a crowded house.

The funeral of William Duke, of East Pine street, who died from the effects of pneumonia, took place to-day and was well attended. Gen'l Grant Lodge, No. 575, I. O. O. F., attended in a body.

Many of the sports of this place left on the 11:45 a. m. train to-day for Williamsport to witness the glove contest to be held between Jersey Gordon, of Willis, Pa., and Wilson, the colored champion of Pennsylvania, which takes place in the Williamsport Athletic Club room to-night.

There was quite an excitement on West Centre street last night, caused by the report that a Polisher had cut his wife's throat, but upon investigation it proved that her throat had not been cut, although she received an ugly scratch across it. Her husband heard she was going to elope and he assaulted her.

A row occurred between several Hungarians on West Centre street, when one, George Hereso, drew out a large butcher knife and stabbed one of his countrymen three times. Not being satisfied with this he rushed at another Hun and gave him two ugly gashes, one on the forehead and the other on the wrist. The wounds, although very painful, are not considered dangerous. They had been drinking all day.

William Shadinsky, single, and who boards at 619 West Centre street, was hurt by a fall of rock at the Elmwood colliery yesterday afternoon. He had finished his day's work and was about to go home, when the rock fell upon him, crushing his abdomen very badly. It took five men to remove the rock of the unfortunate man. He was conveyed to the L. V. R. R. station and taken to the Miners' Hospital.

The Electric Trestle.

The steel trestle of the Lakeside Electric Railway is now complete, with the exception of sills and rails, as far as the embankment on the east side of the Lehigh Valley tracks, and the pier of masonry on the west embankment was finished yesterday by Contractor Miller. The foot girders which are to span the Lehigh tracks have been shipped and are expected here to-morrow. They will be put in position as soon as they arrive, as everything is in readiness for them. If the weather is favorable the work of filling and grading the road from the west pier to the track already laid on Oak street will begin to-morrow. As the riveting of parts of the trestle is very slow work at least three weeks must elapse before this branch of the line can be opened.

A Lamp Exploded.

The prompt and effective action of a woman prevented a serious fire on North Jardin street last night. A lamp exploded in the Collier residence. Mrs. E. A. Stock saw the occurrence from the street and running into the house quickly smothered the flaming oil which had scattered over the carpet. The Plymouth Hose Company hurried to the house with its apparatus, but its services were not required. No alarm was sounded. The damage done was slight.
