Give Them Your Orders.

Hooks & Brown, the North Main street stationers, are the authorized town agents of the EVENING HERALD and all orders left in their care will be promptly attended to.

While in Chicago, Mr. Charles L. Kahler, a prominent shoe merchant of Des Moines, Iowa, had quite a serious time of it. He took such a severe cold that he could hardly talk or say quite, but the prompt use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy cured him of his cold so quickly that others at the hotel who had bad colds followed his example and half a dozen persons ordered it from the nearest drug store. They were profuse in their thanks to Mr. Kahler for telling them how to cure a bad cold so quickly. For sale by Grubler Bros.

Now or Never.

People who have not secured copies of the exquisite photographs of the World's Fair entered in "The Magic City," and appear also of famous men and women and scenes in every land as incorporated in "Voyage Around the World," should apply for them at the HERALD office without delay, as only a few copies are left and the supply will not be renewed. No household should be without a complete set of these marvelous productions.

A. M. Bailey, a well known citizen of Eugene, Oregon, says his wife has for years been troubled with chronic diarrhoea and used many remedies with little relief until she tried Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which has cured her sound and well. Give it a trial and you will be surprised at the prompt relief it affords. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Grubler Bros.

ODD FELLOWS IN SESSION.

Seventieth Annual Meeting of the Sovereign Grand Lodge.

LOUISVILLE, Tenn., Sept. 18.—The first business of the seventieth annual session of the sovereign grand lodge Independent Order of Odd Fellows was transacted yesterday. Conventions hall was crowded with distinguished Odd Fellows, grand representatives and citizens. Henry Schwerts, of Chattanooga, acted as master of ceremonies.

Governor Turney, on behalf of the state of Tennessee, made an address of welcome, which was enthusiastically received. George W. Ochs, mayor of Chattanooga, welcomed the visitors on behalf of the city. W. A. Barry, of Nashville, welcomed the grand representatives on behalf of the grand lodge of Tennessee.

Another investigation of Doylestown's Jail.

DOYLESTOWN, Pa., Sept. 18.—Judge Yerkes handed to the clerk of court the report of the state board of charities on the investigation of the jail made some weeks ago. After reciting the circumstances leading up to the investigation and the evidence adduced, shows mismanagement on the part of the jail officials. The judge ordered another investigation to be made, this time in open court, when the parties charged with violating the law will be brought before the court to testify.

Refused to Naturalize Hung.

MATCH CHUNK, Pa., Sept. 18.—Judge Craig, presiding at a session of the Carbon county court, has refused to naturalize five Hungarians from Beaver Meadow. The applicants were unable to answer the questions asked by the court, several of them not even knowing their age. The action of the judge in passing upon the qualifications of applicants for citizenship has caused consternation among the politicians.

Right of Way Fight Settled.

NORTHWESTON, Pa., Sept. 18.—The court read an opinion refusing the preliminary injunction asked for by the township of Plymouth to restrain the Norristown and Chestnut Hill Railway company from occupying any of the roads of the township with its tracks. The company will now proceed to complete the road between Norristown and Chestnut Hill.

Killed His Wife's Estranger.

BALLAS, Tex., Sept. 18.—John Morrow, after an absence of two weeks, returned home and found his wife. After a search he found her in the company of James O'Neil. A fight ensued, in which Morrow stabbed and killed O'Neil. Morrow is now in jail. He came here from Indiana, and his wife was Miss Gertrude Holden, of Mississippi.

A New Catholic Priest.

THRENTON, N. J., Sept. 18.—The Very Rev. James A. McFaul, of St. Mary's Cathedral, this city, has received word of his appointment to the bishopric of the Catholic diocese of Trenton, to succeed the late Bishop O'Farrell, under whom he was vicar general. Father McFaul is at present the administrator of the diocese.

Thread Mills Resume.

FALL RIVER, Mass., Sept. 18.—The Kerr thread mill, the Duffee and the Seacoast mills have resumed operations. All are running under a reduction in wages.

The Weather.

Showers; probably slightly cooler; variable winds.

ALL WERE DROWNED.

The Steamer Nanayang Goes Down With All on Board.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 18.—One of the most peculiar stories of the loss of a vessel that has been received in this city for many months is brought in advices via Hong Kong. The Nanayang, a 1,500 ton steamer, is said to have gone down with all hands on board in the Carimata straits while on a passage from Soura Baya to Singapore. There were eight white men and fifty Malays before the mast and employed on the ship in addition to the officers.

Work of an Incendiary.

NORTH END, O. T., Sept. 18.—Firends destroyed almost all that has been accumulated in this town in the past year, and today, where was the most substantial part of North End, is a black, charred mass of ruins and several business men without a dollar in the world. F. & Kirk was taken out of his building unscathed, and C. N. Whitaker, editor of the Daily Tribune, fell exhausted almost in the flames, but was rescued and escaped with slight burns. The origin of the fire was incendiary.

Colonel Thompson's Disappointment.

NEW YORK, Sept. 17.—Colonel Beckwith's defeat was a severe disappointment to Colonel Phil Thompson, who was one of the counsel for the Kentuckian in the suit brought by Miss Pollard. Colonel Thompson said: "It seems that the merits of Colonel Beckwith have triumphed. No man has been more shamefully misrepresented and vilified, and all because he would not elevate his mistress to a place above his children in his own household. But he gave his opponents a game fight. He had the praying women and the zealous clergymen, and yet he was beaten by only a few hundred votes."

Outraged, Then Murdered.

THOMASVILLE, Ga., Sept. 17.—There was a peculiarly brutal rape and murder in Thomas county about six miles from here. A 12-year-old white girl, daughter of Martin Butler, had gone to a spring to get water, and not returning, her mother started in search and found that she had been assaulted and her throat cut. The girl was not dead and the name of her assailant, a negro living in the neighborhood, The little sufferer died to death. Sheriff Doss has captured the man and slayed the lynchers.

The Ezeta Case Closed.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 17.—Attorney Pierson closed his argument in the Ezeta case and the case was then submitted. Judge Morrow said he would like to give an immediate decision, but owing to the gravity of the proceedings, he would have to take it under advisement.

Female Murderer Found Guilty.

RENO, Nev., Sept. 17.—The jury in the case of Mrs. Alice Hartley, charged with the murder of State Senator M. D. Foley, returned a verdict of guilty of murder in the second degree, recommending the defendant to the mercy of the court.

Treasury Official Asked to Resign.

NEW YORK, Sept. 18.—A Washington dispatch last night says that Secretary Carlisle has asked for the immediate resignation of Jeremiah O'Rourke, of Newark, N. J., supervising architect of the treasury department.

Fatally Injured by a Train.

BOSTON, Sept. 18.—James Godfrey, freight agent of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul railroad, in this city, was struck by a train yesterday at Everett station. He died a few hours later. He leaves a widow and four children.

CENTRALIA.

James Collman and Peter Carey, two of our popular young men, cast smiles on the fair ones at Lost Creek on Sunday.

The picnic held here on Saturday under the auspices of the American band was a grand success and attracted numerous young folks from this and surrounding towns.

The next grand social event will be the Eglantine Literary Club's party on September 30th. All who received invitations should attend, as it promises to be one of the best parties ever held here.

The ball for the benefit of Peter Lennahan, held in the Byrnesville school house on Saturday, was a grand success. A large crowd of young folks from here and surrounding towns attended and all kinds of amusements were indulged in. Music was furnished by Laubenstein's orchestra, of Ashland.

An Ashland paper recently published an article stating that "At Centralia a dance is called a soiree and a raffle is styled a reception." This is a vindictive slash which will fall back upon the heads of the party who is responsible for it. We do not practice Ashland tricks by calling things by improper names, and if the Ashland newspaper man will attend the party next Thursday evening we will show him an affair from which the Ashland people might take example with profit.

Fear'd He Would Starve to Death.

MILAN, Mo., Sept. 18.—Adam Law, a prosperous farmer in the eastern part of this county, attempted suicide by slashing himself across the face and throat with a razor and trying to beat out his brains with a hammer. He gave up his reason that he was afraid he was going to starve to death. He had been a miser all his life and is worth $75,000.
