THIRDEDITION

ONE-DAY EXCURSION.

Via Pennsylvania Bailroad to the World-

famed Zoological Garden, Phila. The Pennsylvania Railroad Company announces a special one-day excursion to the Zoological Garden (within the precincts of the famous Falemount Park)

Philadelphia, on Saturday, September 29 Philadelphia, on Saturday, September 29.
The Zoological Garden contains an unequaled collection of living representatives of thomsands of well known as well as rare species of animals, birds, and reptiles. It is an immense living object lesson for old and young, and is of especial educational value in supplementing instruction in natural history. With this object in view, Saturday has been selected for the excursion, in order to enable teachest and school children to take advantage of the low rates offered.

Aspecial train will be run on the following schedule, and the tickets, which will be good only on the appeal train in each direction, will be sold at the rates quoted, including admission to the Garden.

While in Chicago, Mr. Churles L. Kahler, a prominent shoe merchant of Des Moines, Iowa, had quite a serious time of it. He took such a severe cold that he could hardly talk or navigate, but the prompt use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy cared him of his cold so quickly that others at the hotel who had but colds followed his example and half a dozen persons ordered it from the near est drug store. They were profuse in their thanks to Mr. Kahler for telling them how to care a bad cold so quickly. For sale by Gruhler Bros.

Kinney says Overfield and Abrams are the only persons wanted for the hold up. There are two others in the conspiracy, and the other a simple minded and harm-less sort of a fellow, who was pursuaded by McDaniels to abandon the enterprise. by McIbuilois to sibandon the enterprise.

Kinney denies that McDaniels originated the bold plot. He says Abrams and Overfield approached McDaniels, who at once sought the advice of A. J. Daggs, a lawyer of Memphis. Daggs advised McDaniels to inform the railroad and express authorities, and the two went to Chicago and told the story. Then General Manager Frey was informed, and the case was placed in Kinney's hands.

eral Manager Frey was informed, and the case was pisced in Kinney's hands.

After the piants of the compirators had been formed they slected McDaniels leader. McDaniels notified Kinney of this and Kinney instructed McDaniels that he must not be the leader that it was not the desire of the railward or express company to the commission of pany to lend men, into the commission of crime, and he must put one of the others forward. Accordingly McDaniels declined

The Company Not Responsible.

FRANKLIN, Fa., Sept. 22.—The case of John Roach vs. Eelipse Lubricating com-pany, which has been on trial here for two days, came to an abrupt termination yesterday afternoon, Judge Taylor grantyesterday afternoon, Judge Taylor granting a compulsory non-suit on the ground that no case had been made out. The suit resulted from the great flood and fire catastrophe in Oil City on June 5, 1892, in which over fifty lives were lost. The plaintiff in the case lost his entirely family, and based a suit for damages on the supposed negligence of the defendant company in leaving a benzine tack not sufficiently protected there, causing it to be undermined by the flood and the benzine to append on the waters, which, when it exploded, killed his family.

Two Murderers Hanged.

Columbia, S. C., Sept. 22—John and Jasper Atkins, white, were hanged at Winnsboro, S. C., yesterday for the mur-der of William Clamp, also white, on Feb. 19, 1893. They died without a tremor, but neither denied or admitted their guilt. The murder was an atrecious one. They killed Clamp in order that John might live with Clamp's wife and Jasper with his daughter and between them divide up what little property the dead man had. what little property the dead man had.

Murdered by Negro Burglars.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Sept. 22—P. C. Patton, a prominent merchant of McGhee, Ark., was nurdered and his store looted by robbers Thursday night. The bandits are a gang of lawless negroes who have been a terror to the white and colored citizens of that section for some time. They were captured at Pine Hluff yester-day afternoon and taken back to McGhee. Excitement is running high, and lynching is expected.

NATURALIZATION PAPERS.

A Bucks County Judge Presents a Very Important Opinion.

Judge Yerkes, of Doylestown, on Thurs lay read an opinion upon the subject of nemorial presented by a number of Buck memorial presented by a number of Bucks county citizens. Judge Yerkes referred to the character of the different nationalities who made application to become observed and stated that only those who intended to become loyal and patriotic citizens should be naturalized. The new rules regulating the naturalization of allens were then read, and will go into immediate effect. The terms of Criminal Court of January, March, June and November are fixed for the heuring of petitions for naturalization of allens. Every petition must be sworn to and filed as required by law, and will then lie over until the next term for exceptions and objections.

the next term for exceptions and objections.

Public notice of the application must be made in two newspapers at the cost of the petitioner two weeks prior to the final hearing, and any five citizens will be allowed to file remenstrances or objections to the naturalization. It must appear of record that within five years the petitioner has not been engaged in any unlawful assembly, riot, affray or other breach of the peace, or been convicted of any criminal offence, or attempted to unlawfully interfere with or control any person in the full and free enjoyment of his lawfull rights, or participated in any combination or conspiracy to obstruct the due execution of the law. Every applicant must show that he is able to read and understand the English language, and has read and understands the Constitution of the United States and of the State of Pennsylvania.

Nopublic officer or candidate for office or member of any campaign or political organization will be accepted as a voucher for any petitioner. Neither will any petition be granted where the petitioner has not voluntarily appeared for naturalization, or where the party applies at the solicitation of any party organization or person for the purpose of acquiring the right to vote. Every petition shell be endorced by an attorney, who shall certify that he is the bona fide attorney for the applicant, and that he is not presenting the same as the representative of any political party, committee or organization.

A petitioner not a resident of the county will be required to show under outh that his petition has not been rejected by any other Court, and that there is a satisfactory reason for applying before this Court instead of in the Court of his domicile. Public notice of the application must

AMUSEMENTS.

Aiden Benedict's "Fablo Romani," a dramatization of the "Vendetta," was produced last night at the Grand operahouse. A large audience assisted on the occasion and showed its appreciation by frequent and hearty applause. The play is essentially sombre in tone, but is releved by comedy. The situations are thrilling, and the motive strong and dramatic. The false wife Nina, was well played by Miss Engel Summer. The scenic effects, particularly an eruption of Mr. Vesuvius, were very pretentious. The Spanish skirt dance by Miss Grace Hunter was repeatedly encored. The living pictures were marvelous visions of loveliness.—New York Evening Sun. At Ferguson's theatre on Thursday evening, Sept. 37th.

"SHE COULDN'T MARRY THEER." PARIO ROMANL

"SHE COULDN'T MARRY TRIBER." "SHE COULDN'T MAIRLY THREE."

The small boy who, when asked his age, replied that, judged by the fun he had had, he was 100 years old, pretty accurately described the feeling of the large andience at the Academy last night. Lillian Kennedy made a decided hit, and the amusement that was crowded into three hours to unravel "She Couldn't Marry Three" was enough for two nights, and all the roles essayed by Miss Kennedy and the strong support, was equally charming and successful. The company is far above the average, and is sure of big business.—New York Herald, July 13.
