

There's nothing so good as COTOLENE

The new vegetable shortening. When introduced, it drove lard from the kitchen, and indignation from the household. It has been tried by every test, and has met every requirement. It is as much superior to lard as the electric light is to the tallow-dip. The only question now is, will you give your family the benefits which its use bestows?

There's nothing like COTOLENE

In composition, in healthfulness, in flavor, or in economy. Its success has called out a lot of imitations and counterfeits made for the sole purpose of selling in the place and on the merits of COTOLENE.

Avoid them all. They are made to sell and they are a sell. Get the genuine COTOLENE.

SWEPT BY A TORNADO.

Disastrous Effects of Its Visit in Iowa and Minnesota.

TERRIBLE WORK OF THE WIND.

A Funnel Shaped Cloud Which Carried Everything Before It—The Loss of Life and Property Not Yet Fully Known, but Will be Very Heavy.

St. Paul, Sept. 24.—By a tornado that swept through this state and Iowa at least fifty lives were wiped out and thousands of dollars worth of property was wrecked. The storm assumed a cyclonic character west of northern Iowa in Palo Alto or Clay county, extending eastward through Kosciusko and Hancock counties, north-south through Cerro Gordo, Worth and Mitchell counties into Minnesota, continuing through Mower and Olmstead counties and spending its force in Winona county without leaving Minnesota.

Reports from Iowa show that Emmetsburg and the surrounding country suffered severely, and that several were killed and many seriously injured. In Kosciusko county many dwellings were blown down, and two deaths are reported. Parts of Hancock county were also devastated, and three deaths are reported near Brett. North Cerro Gordo was struck and several people are missing there. Malby and Plymouth were in the track of the wind.

In Minnesota three people were killed at Leroy, and the whole eastern part of the town was badly damaged, the loss being fully $100,000. The tornado struck Leroy from the southeast. The storm first struck the Milwaukee depot there, demolishing R. J. F. Track's two story store was crushed in, causing a loss of $2,000. Three elevators and three warehouses on the Milwaukee line were demolished. The Union Opera house fell in on a dancing party and two dead bodies were taken out. During the storm a fire broke out, destroying a hotel and three stores. Eighteen people who sought shelter in one of the demolished houses were severely hurt and one woman killed.

Lowther, a small town near Leroy, is wiped out of existence. Spring Valley suffers heavy losses, and three were killed and forty or fifty badly injured there. The storm then passed in a northeasterly direction, crossing the Root river and striking north of Preston, through the county of Williams, north of Randolph, and into Winona county, where it struck the little village of Homer, four miles south of Winona, destroying several houses. Heavy winds are reported from other parts of the state out of the line of the tornado.

George W. Beavers, of Algona, Ia., had just returned from the county fair with his wife and three children when the tornado struck the house and demolished it completely. The whole family was buried in the ruins. A loaded freight car standing on the side track at the Algona station was set in motion by the wind and ran out on the main track and down the grade east for about a mile, where it came into collision with a heavily loaded coal train. Engineer John Humphrey and Fireman Charles McElhannon and the brakemen jumped. The engineer and brakemen were very seriously injured.

The tornado struck the Gatter residence, three miles northeast of Osage, Ia., demolishing the house and farm buildings. At the same place Mrs. P. Longman's house was razed, and she was blown several rods into a hay lot, where she was picked up dead. Her daughter was badly injured. It destroyed P. R. Herbert's dwelling, killing Mrs. Herbert and two children, and then struck F. Perry's house, killing his daughter Anna, and it is thought fatally injuring several others.

At Burd, Ia., it is definitely known that eight people were killed and several injured, and a large number of farm houses and barns were blown down and destroyed.

Burr Oak, Ia., a village four miles northeast of Osage, was destroyed. Thirteen farm houses in the vicinity were totally demolished, even fences and stumps of trees being blown away and uprooted.

North of Mason City, Ia., four persons were battered to death by falling timbers, and nine badly injured are not expected to live. At the farm of David Haddow the house was lifted in the air over a grove of trees, landed in a cornfield, then swept back against the trees, smashing it to bits and killing Haddow and his wife. A lad 15 years old was blown three-fourths of a mile away. He still lives.

At the farm of D. E. McKeercher, three miles west of Manly, Ia., the 10-year-old son and his hired man, Louis Grayvaud, were killed.

Three miles north of Wesley, Kosciusko county, J. Bingham's house was overturned and set afire. The inmates had a narrow escape. There were a total of fourteen killed in the vicinity of Mason City so far as heard from.

The storm struck near Crystal Lake. At Brit, Hancock county, two persons are known to have been killed and several were seriously injured.

What is CASTORIA

Castoria is Dr. Samuel Pitcher's prescription for Infants and Children. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other Narcotic substance. It is a harmless substitute for Paregoric, Drops, Soothing Syrups, and Castor Oil. It is Pleasant. Its guarantee is thirty years' use by Millions of Mothers. Castoria is the Children's Panacea—the Mother's Friend.

Castoria is well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any prescription known to me." H. A. Arcata, M. D., 111 So. Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

"The use of 'Castoria' is an universal and its merits so well known that it secures a work of supererogation to endorse it. Few are the intelligent families who do not keep Castoria within easy reach." CARLOS MARTIN, D. D., New York City.

"For several years I have recommended your 'Castoria,' and shall always continue to do so as it has invariably produced beneficial results." EDWIN F. PARKER, M. D., 125th Street and 7th Ave., New York City.

THE CHRYSLER COMPANY, 37 HUDSON STREET, NEW YORK CITY

unhurt. The force of the wind was such that barbed wire was stripped from the posts.

At George Holman's the roof of the house went, leaving the walls standing, and the whole family was carried up from between the walls and away about twenty rods, one of the children being killed. M. W. Ferguson's family was carried through the air, and all but one landed in a willow hedge. The baby went a little further and was found seated on a piece of the roof. The wife of Swan Peterson had her skull cut open in two places, and some exposed parts of her head were literally packed with sand, plaster, hair and grass.

Particulars are coming in all the time which indicate that half of the terrors of the cyclone has not been told. The scene of desolation was visited all day by great crowds, every available conveyance being chartered. The devastation of property will not be less than $10,000. Most of the farmers were well to do, with some bank accounts, and others were wealthy, but numbers of the victims who were renters lost everything, some of them even losing their families. The permanently crippled will make a long list.

The wires are down and news is hard to get out.

NEW YORK DEMOCRATS

No Selection of a Candidate for Governor as Yet.

GAYNOR OF BROOKLYN LEADS.

John Boyd Thatcher, Frederick F. Cook and Senator Hill Also Mentioned, Though It is Said the Senator Will Not Permit the Use of His Name.

SARATOGA, N. Y., Sept. 24.—A situation more strange than any that has yet confronted the Democratic party, and the like of which has never been seen by any of the assembled party leaders, is presented here today, within twenty-four hours of the time set for the nomination of a candidate for the office of governor of the state of New York. No selection of a candidate has yet been made, and while one name is prominently mentioned here, no one person can be said to have anything like a mortgage on the nomination. Nothing can be indulged in but speculation. It is true that Judge Gaynor's name is on every lip, but when it is known that the delegates here number less than a fourth of the whole number it is easy to see that events of the day may change the whole current.

So far there are four candidates mentioned for governor, Judge Gaynor of Brooklyn, John Boyd Thatcher of Albany, Frederick F. Cook of Rochester and Senator David B. Hill. Daniel S. Lockwood, of Buffalo, was mentioned, but it is said by those who know today that he is practically out of the race, and that Mr. Sheehan's support, which may dominate Erie, will be thrown towards Frederick Cook. Every effort will be made, however, to induce Mr. Cook to accept the second place upon the ticket in case either Judge Gaynor or Senator Hill is a nominee. As to Mr. Hill as a candidate, Lieutenant Governor Sheehan said last evening:

"I conversed with Senator Hill on the matter Saturday afternoon, before leaving Albany for Saratoga. He not only said that he would not be a candidate, but insisted that I should not broach the subject to him any more, and hoped that no further mention of it would be made."

Notwithstanding the assertion of Mr. Sheehan, there are some people here who profess to believe that Senator Hill may yet be induced to accept. With this feeling prevailing Tammany, at its meeting this afternoon will, at the suggestion of Senator Cantor, send a committee to wait upon the senator and try to prevail upon him to be a candidate.

"Would Mr. Hill make a good candidate?" was asked of Charles S. Fairchild. "I must decline to answer that question," said Mr. Fairchild. "I am not here in the interest of any candidate, but simply to see that all Democrats have a representation in the convention."

Mr. Sheehan, who represents the same faction in Kings county as Mr. Fairchild represents in New York, was asked if there was anything new in their contest. He said:

"Nothing except what the Associated Press has already sent out. We shall appear before the committee on credentials and ask that our whole delegation be seated. So far as nominations are concerned we are for Judge Gaynor."

For lieutenant governor there are three names mentioned this morning—Frederick Cook of Rochester, John J. Linton of Ulster county and Jacob K. Cantor of New York, with the chances seemingly largely in favor of the second named.

For judge of the court of appeals only one candidate is mentioned this morning—Judge Tamm, of Erie—although there is a rumor that the name of Justice A. H. Parker will be presented by his friends.

There was a little hitch in the obtaining of the convention hall for the holding of the convention. The Unitarian conference, who began their meeting here this forenoon, say that the hall belongs to them, and that they have made no arrangements with the Democratic leaders to give it up. In the Unitarian church yesterday it was announced that the Lord's Supper would be administered in the convention hall at 11:30 tomorrow morning. The party leaders, however, declare that they secured the hall through proper authorities, and it is believed that the little difficulty will be amicably settled.

Cheering for Clothing Workers.

BOSTON, Sept. 24.—The executive council of the striking garment makers held an all day meeting yesterday. Twenty-two contractors appeared before them, ready to sign agreements, but they were denied on the ground that an agreement signed on Sunday would not be legal. Several of the largest manufacturers have instructed their contractors to pay the rate demanded by the strikers, and it is now confidently expected that the strike will end by Wednesday in a complete victory for the employes.

A Waiter's Windfall.

BINGHAMTON, N. Y., Sept. 24.—Will Palmer, young man employed in a State street restaurant in this city, who for the past twenty-one years has been generally supposed to be the son of a Mr. and Mrs. Palmer, residing on a farm near this city, has just learned that he is the son and only heir of a rich English lady, whose fortune has been estimated at $2,000,000. Palmer's mother has provided amply for his needs and made preparations to send him to college.

The Whisky Trust Ouster.

CHICAGO, Sept. 24.—The formal judgment of ouster in the whisky trust case was entered by Judge Gibbons. The judgment as entered ousts the Cattle Feeding and Distilling company of all its corporate privileges and compels the respondent to pay the costs of the suit instituted by the people. An appeal was prayed and allowed to the supreme court.
