The recommendation of "John T. Lewis & Bros."

to you by your merchant is an evidence of his reliability, as he can sell you cheap ready-mixed paints and bogus White Lead and make a larger profit. Many short-sighted dealers do so.

FOR COLORED-National Lead Co.'s Pure White Lead Paints in a one-pound can is a 25-cent keg of Lead and mix your own paints. Saves time and annoyance in matching shades, and insures the best paint that is possible to put on wood.

Send us a postal card and get our book on paints and color-cards free; it will probably save you a good many dollars.

A SANGUINE JAPANESE.

He Believes the War with China Will End Before Winter.

ANOTHER BIG BATTLE PREDICTED.

A Japanese Naval Constructor Who Declares That His Country Will Force Matters to a Finish Next Month—Chinese Soldiers Poorly Equipped.

LONDON, Sept. 25.—The Associated Press correspondent had an interview with M. Miyabara, a Japanese naval constructor, who is here supervising the building of two first class men-of-war for Japan. Each of the vessels is to be of 15,000 tons and they are to be completed in four years.

With regard to the campaign M. Miyabara thought that everything pointed in the direction of a Japanese march toward Peking. Beyond that he was not inclined to say much. Personally he believed the war would terminate before winter.

A dispatch from Shanghai says: The British steamer Irene, from Hamburg, loaded with large quantities of munitions of war, has safely arrived at Taku and landed her cargo.

It is understood that the governor of Manchuria is concentrating all the troops in the province upon Mukden, and that on the route to Wu-Jin extensive earth-works have been thrown up. The levies are composed of hardy north Chihmen, and are excellent material, but they are badly armed, only about 4,000 of them having good military rifles. Further supplies, however, are being hurried up from the southern arsenals.

The Chinese force entrenched upon the Yalu river is estimated to number 38,000 men. Many of these are raw levies and also badly armed. The loss of field guns, rifles and ammunition suffered at Ping Yang has greatly embarrassed the Chinese war department. It is recognized that a battle must be fought on the Yalu, and the Chinese are straining every nerve to retrieve the disaster at Ping Yang.

Union Carpenters' Political Platform. INDIANAPOLIS, Sept. 25.—Cleveland gets the next convention of the Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners. This was decided by a vote of 47 for Cleveland and 30 for Brooklyn. The convention adopted the platform of planks which is to form the nucleus of the platform of the coming national labor party.

A Church Request Revoked. CHICAGO, Sept. 25.—The Protestant Episcopal Church of the Ascension, which was left $100,000 by the will of the late Isaac Clarence Marsh, on condition of its remaining "high church," is likely to lose the legacy through a second will, which was found yesterday. By the second will the church will receive the money only in the event of the testator's sisters dying without children.

Sentenced to Electrocuton. SYRACUSE, N. Y., Sept. 25.—Charles F. Wilson was sentenced by Justice Williams to be electrocuted at Auburn state prison during the week beginning Nov. 6 for participation in the murder of Detective James Harvey.

George A. Vernon, an 18-year-old Baltimorean, is under arrest at Jacksonville, Fla., for robbing his father of $1,000. The government cruiser Yorktown, of the Behring sea fleet, arrived at San Francisco yesterday, where she will be overhauled.

'FEEL LIKE A NEW MAN!'

So says every one who has used Paskola, the great flesh-forming food. And why shouldn't they? Being artificially digested it virtually forces nourishment upon the system regardless of what may be the condition of the natural digestive organs.

Nothing equals it for building up sound healthy flesh, enriching the blood and imparting new strength. It is just the thing for thin, weak people who get no benefit from the food they eat and who are discouraged by the failure of medicines to help them.

The practical results derived from the use of Paskola are well demonstrated by the following statements from a few of the many who have used it with entire satisfaction during the past thirty days:

Mr. A. Alexander, of Taylor, Texas, says: "I am now using the second bottle of Paskola and find myself greatly improved. My appetite is better than it has been for years, and since I have been using Paskola I have gained 55 pounds."

Mrs. Fred Groves, of Miami, Ohio, writes under date of August 16th, to the following effect: "When I began to take Paskola I did not think that it would do me any good and had made up my mind to quit using medicines and let nature take its course. I accidentally got hold of one of your little books and decided to give pre-digested food a trial. I have taken four bottles and never felt better in my life. I do not know how much I have gained in flesh, but I do know that I can eat anything I want and sleep soundly at night. My friends all remark upon my improved appearance."

Dr. Alexander Hunt, of Mad River, Kentucky, has been testing the preparation in the case of his little grand-daughter, two years old. The child was nothing but a skeleton when he commenced giving her Paskola, and in two weeks she gained nine (9) pounds, and, in his own language, "is now fat, red and rosy." In fact she enjoys the best of health.

Paskola is kept by all druggists and the Pro-Digested Food Co., No. 30 Rensselaer street, New York, its proprietors, will be glad to supply a free pamphlet on the subject of food and digestion upon application.

A Broad Hint.

Sir Andrew Agnew of Lucknow, a well-known Scotch baronet, was long pestered by an importunate sort of person, who insisted on being constantly underfoot.

"A broad hint?" repeated the inquirer. "I thought he was one of those who never could be induced to take one."

"By no means," said Sir Andrew, "he was obliged to take it! For as the child would gang out at the door I just thrust him out of the window!"—Youth's Companion.

An Italian on Trial for Murder.

WILMINGTON, Del., Sept. 25.—Michael Falno, an Italian, charged with the murder of Carlo Ruva, another Italian, began here yesterday. The murder was committed on April 20, 1894, and was the result of a dispute over cards. Ruva was fatally stabbed by Falno, who was afterwards arrested.

FOUGHT TO A DRAW.

Lively Pugilistic Encounter Between Plimmer and Murphy. PLIMMER HAD THE BEST OF IT.

But He Was Unable to Get in a Knock-out Blow on the Finchy Little Bostonian, Who Held Out for Twenty-five Rounds.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 25.—The first of the series of the fights which will form the pugilistic triple event at the Olympic club took place last night in the presence of about 500 spectators. Professor John P. Eckhart officiated as referee. Murphy and Plimmer fought for a purse of $2,500, $2,000 to the winner and $500 to the loser. The men were in splendid condition, and weighed in at the stipulated weight—115 pounds.

The stakes were introduced for the first time, and so far as appearances went seemed to be an improvement on the old style roping ring.

Plimmer was seconded by Billy McCarthy, Benny Murphy and Al Robb. Murphy was looked after by James Conery, Jake Kilrain and Andy Howan. Frank Caranback was official timekeeper. First Round—The work in the first round was very pretty. Plimmer landed several left hand punches on the head and right over the heart. Though he missed one of the most vicious swings ever seen in the ring here, Plimmer had a very good round.

Second Round—Murphy landed a left swing on the jaw, though he received a severe stomach punch in return. Murphy received a right on the jaw and got in a moment later in the same place. Murphy received severe punishment, especially on the body.

Third Round—Plimmer became the aggressor, landing a right body punch and sending in the right and left a moment later. Both men landed left, though Plimmer got the best of the exchange. Plimmer punched at will all over the ring, and the Boston bantam looked like a "worse for wear" at the end of the round.

Fourth Round—Plimmer forced the fighting from the start, being much the stronger of the two, though Murphy got in one or two good right handers on the jaw. In the middle of the ring Murphy ducked into a heavy left upper cut, and got much the worst of the encounter. In the end of the round there was a rapid exchange of blows, and beautiful out-fighting marked the meeting of the men in the middle of the ring. Murphy's blows landed smart, though his science was of the poorest order. This was Plimmer's round.

Fifth Round—There was considerable mixing in this round, and the work, though heavy at times, was of the most artistic character. Plimmer's right hand body punches were terrific, though the Boston man took his medicine quietly.

Sixth Round—Plimmer was having much the best of this round from the commencement, though Murphy assailed him, missing some heavy left hands. Plimmer was continually punning at the heart, though Murphy's right eye showed signs of punning. As the round unfolded Plimmer landed a heavy right on the body.

Seventh Round—Plimmer was the aggressor, landing his left in the stomach and his right at will. There was a heavy knock in the middle of the ring in which both men lost their tempers.

Eighth Round—Plimmer forced the fighting, though Murphy landed a good upper cut on the Englishman's face. Plimmer more than evened up the punishment. Later, however, Murphy scored the best hitting during the fight.

Ninth Round—All the honors were Plimmer's in the ninth. Tenth Round—Murphy was still strong, and a clinch near the ropes gave Plimmer from his ring. Murphy was the greatest nose. Murphy was nearly taken off his feet by a heavy right hand swing. This was a give-and-take round, and Murphy did the best he had done so far.

Eleventh Round—Both men landed heavy swings, though the body punning Murphy was getting very terrific. Murphy looked a little tired at the end of the round, but was doing better work than in the early stages of the contest.

Twelfth Round—Murphy evened things up in this round, landing better blows, and it looked as if he had the best of the round. In rounds thirteen and fourteen the fighting was terrific, Murphy getting some fearful punches. In the fifteenth and sixteenth rounds they fought desperately. Murphy got the greater number of blows and the harder ones, too. Still the Englishman failed to weaken him.

In the seventeenth and eighteenth rounds Plimmer had very much the better of the fighting, but in the eighteenth round Plimmer's exertion was terrible. He landed a heavy right on Murphy's throat, knocking the latter to the ground, and though Murphy got up and fought gamely, he was hammered around the ring to the end of the round. The nineteenth to the twenty-first rounds were in Plimmer's favor, the latter jabbing Murphy all around the ring. Plimmer was knocked down in the twenty-second round by a heavy right in the jaw. This was Murphy's round. In rounds twenty-three and twenty-four there was terrific fighting in Plimmer's favor. Murphy's recuperative powers, however, were immense. In the twenty-fifth and last round Plimmer's blows seemed to have the most stomach. The audience rose in a body to hear the verdict. The referee declared the match a draw, and his decision received general approbation. Plimmer had the best of the hitting, but the little Bostonian's gameness and generalship enabled him to continue the contest to the required twenty-five rounds.
