THE MINE LAW IGNORED

An Inspector Makes a Discovery Which Provokes Him.

Several Breasts Worked For Many Yards Without Regard to Ventilation—The Inspector Stops Operations.

There is considerable talk in mining circles over certain proceedings in the workings of the Ellengowan colliery yesterday and it is said that what was done there is only a forerunner of a vigorous enforcement of the mine laws. The information comes from a very reliable source.

It appears from the statements made that Mine Inspector Stein left this town yesterday for Ellengowan, with a surprise up his sleeve. He went direct to the Ellengowan mine and down into the workings without stopping to confer with any one.

The Inspector was evidently determined to explode a bomb, and he did. Arriving at certain breasts he commenced an inspection which resulted in the official ordering that operations in seven of the breasts be stopped until the places could be ventilated according to law.

It is said the Inspector found that the breasts were practically without ventilation and he also discovered that, although some of the breasts had been driven upwards of twenty yards, the inside foreman had not visited them from the time they were started.

This discovery, it is said, so incensed the Inspector that when he met the foreman he laid down the mine law in unmistakable terms and expressed himself freely in the condemnation of apparent indifference to the law.

Lodge Room for Rent.

Schmidt's hall is vacant Tuesday and Saturdays. Any one wishing to rent same may apply to Max Schmidt. 9-25-94

Will Practice Here.

Dr. William Stein has made arrangements different to those previously announced, and instead of opening an office at Scranton will practice here. He has secured a suite of offices in the new Egan building, corner of Main and Centre streets, and will open them next Monday. Dr. Stein is a young man who has a brilliant future in store. As a member of the graduating class of physicians at the University of Pennsylvania in Philadelphia he ranked among the foremost and brightest members of the class, having secured a very high percentage in the final examinations. Dr. Stein is a son of Mine Inspector Stein. He is a gentleman of amiable spirit, is studious and an indefatigable worker, and he will soon become one of the most prominent physicians of the town. We wish him success.

Canine Population.

The total number of dogs assessed in the county, according to the returns made by the various Assessors to the County Commissioners, is 8,502. Of this number Pottsville leads the list with 646, while the borough of Gilberton and the Third ward of Shenandoah take the second honors with only six canines. How many escaped the Assessors can only be conjectured, but if we take the Third ward as a criterion, the majority of these officials don't know what a dog looks like. Just imagine only six canines in the largest ward in the town. The First ward is credited with 23, the Second, 36, the Fourth, 82, and the Fifth, 14.

It is understood that about fifty prosecutions are under way.

PERSHING ILL AGAIN.

His Honor Unable to Appear Upon the Bench To-day.

SOME SPECULATION CAUSED

Intimate Friends of the Judge Say That It is Only a Temporary Nervous Prostration.

Special to EVENING HERALD.

POTTSVILLE, Sept. 26.—Some uneasiness was manifested this morning by the non-appearance of Judge Cyrus L. Pershing when the No. 2 court was opened.

It was subsequently announced that Judge Pershing was ill and that his physician had advised him not to go upon the bench.

It is claimed by some that Judge Pershing is really only suffering from a slight indisposition, but several of the most prominent members of the bar are somewhat apprehensive.

There is no disguising the fact that Judge Pershing's non-appearance on the bench this morning has caused considerable uneasiness.

The Judge is a hard worker and his intimate friends say that nothing other than extraordinary would be allowed to prevent his performance of duty to-day.

A gentleman who visited the Judge's house to-day stated that his Honor was suffering from overwork, but a day or two of rest would in all probability be of great benefit and enable him to again go upon the bench.

PHILLIPS WINS.

He Secures a Verdict on the Sanitary Question.

The trial of the suit of Constable Tallies Phillips against the Borough of Shenandoah was concluded yesterday afternoon, but the result was not made known until this morning, the jury having returned a sealed verdict.

There was a rumor about town last evening that Mr. Phillips had been awarded a verdict of $1,500, but it subsequently developed that a verdict in another case had been confounded with that of the one in question.

Mr. Phillips' verdict is $500 and costs. This is another rebuke to the borough for loose administration.

It is true that the borough generally becomes a victim when it goes before a jury, but a judgment is nevertheless a judgment and it serves as additional warning to the borough authorities to be always alert and give their attention to the borough interests.

While the amount awarded Mr. Phillips is considerably less than the amount claimed ($5,000) nevertheless it forms a precedent and a HERALD reporter was informed to-day that, assured by the rest of the Phillips case, as a result, several other suits will follow and among them will be a claim for damages by Mr. D. J. Doyle, on similar grounds.

BASE BALL.

The Pottsvilles Defeat the Senators in the Fifth Game.

The Pottsvilles succeeded in getting the band out yesterday and defeated the Harrisburgs on their own grounds in the fifth game for the championship by a score of 7 to 5. The game was won through errors by the Senators. Score:

Pottsville	011113100x	7	12	3
Harrisburg	000001310	6	10	6

Jack Stivetta has written to friends in Ashland that he will twirl the ball for the Boston National league club when it meets the Shenandoahs at the Trotting park on Sunday next.

Pottsville has raised the cry that the Harrisburgs are playing dirty ball. It is a cry of despair.

Rupture.

Cure guaranteed. No operation. Inquire at the Shenandoah drug store, No. 8 South Main street. 9-15-94

Moved to Millersburg.

Dr. J. B. Gise, who has been a resident of town for the past nine years, to-day moved with his family to Millersburg, Danville county. Dr. Gise during his residence here proved himself an excellent veterinary surgeon and made an enviable reputation. As a citizen Dr. Gise also became very popular and he leaves behind a host of friends who wish him prosperity in his new home.

Lots of songs, dances and fun in the new edition of "She Couldn't Marry Three."

Relief Corps Convention.

The convention of the Seventh District, Woman's Relief Corps, is in session in Hall's hall, on South Main street, and will close this evening. At seven o'clock there will be a reception and entertainment in Mellet's hall, under the auspices of the local corps. The delegates to the convention will be in attendance.

Sues for Damages.

Isadore Lauterstein, who is a member of the Schuylkill Hat and Cap Manufacturing Company, of town, has sued Samuel Block, the South Main street merchant, for $1,000 damages for defamation of character. The papers were filed in the Prothonotary's office yesterday.

Property Improvements.

The properties of Thomas Conners and Hon. Patrick Conry, in the First ward, are undergoing improvements through the hands of painters.

AMUSEMENTS.

FABIO ROMANI.

Alden Benedic's play of "Fabio Romani," which opened at the Grand opera house last night, is a play with a strong and stirring interest in it. Those who have read the book entitled "The Vendetta," will easily remember the plot of the story; a deceived husband pretends suicide and then comes back in disguise to torture the unfaithful wife, finally killing her at the moment he makes himself known. The novel furnishes several intense scenes. The principals in the piece are Walter Lawrence and Miss Kugel Summer, and were both excellent in their roles, and were well supported. The scenic effects were very fine. The living pictures over which the world seems to have gone mad, were revelations of beauty and of high artistic merit.—New York Morning Journal. At Ferguson's theatre to-morrow evening.

WAIT FOR THE BIG SHOW.

A manager who expends thousands of dollars in order that nothing will be neglected that might add to the enjoyment of his patrons certainly deserves success, and, as a rule, he generally gets it, if the public would endeavor to discriminate between responsible companies and those who possess no stability. There are plenty of good shows, but, unfortunately, there are hundreds which are utterly devoid of merit. Now, any one can tell at a glance if they see a magnificent new store with massive plate glass windows, that it necessarily calls for a great outlay of money to erect it, and the stock in such a store is generally of the finest. The same line of reasoning to theatrical enterprises; for instance, when you see a show billed in the lavish and expensive manner that characterizes "She Couldn't Marry Three" company you can rest assured that there is money and push back of it. The beautiful, artistic pictorial lithographic work, the finest and the costliest on the road. No lithographic firm would attempt that kind of work without having ten thousand dollars down to insure them from loss. This is only one of the many items of a great show, and the same good taste which provides this beautiful printing will neglect no other department of the show. So there is no doubt that the production of "She Couldn't Marry Three" is the biggest show of the season.

Will Hold a Fair.

The Rescue Hook and Ladder Company are making arrangements to hold a fair during the holidays, on an elaborate scale. It will be held in the company's hall.

Mrs. Bridgeman, R. C. M., teaches violin (specialty) cello and piano. Corner of Jardin and Lloyd streets. 9-25-94

Breezes.

Autumn.
Chestnuts ripening.
The flies are disappearing.
Pleasies are about done for this season.
The boys are now engaged in playing marbles.
It is only a little over a month now until the fall election.
It won't be long until we will be having frosty mornings.
It won't be long until the Autumnal winds will bring their chilling blasts.
The days and nights will be equal on Saturday, it being the Autumnal equinox.
The days are growing shorter rapidly now, the foliage is taking on its autumnal tints.

The great railroad scene in the new edition of "She Couldn't Marry Three" represents an outlay of many thousands of dollars.

Died.

DUNLAP.—At Wm. Penn. Penn. September 25th, 1894, Ida Bertha, daughter of John and Mary Dunlap, aged 5 years, 5 months and 3 days. Services at the residence of the parents on Thursday, September 27th, at 2 o'clock. Interment in Odd Fellows' cemetery.

Be sure and see the funny comedians with Lillian Kennedy company. New songs, dances, every night.

The Berks County Fair

To be held in the city of Reading on October 2, 3, 4 and 5. It is promised to be, weather permitting, the largest, finest and most successful fair ever held in that county. An unusually extensive program will be presented each day, while every department will be overflowing with exhibits. Many entries have already been made. The special features and attractions will be numerous. Reading is one of the most attractive places in the state to visit, and the low excursion rates on the railroads, which will prevail during the week of the fair, will undoubtedly all that city with thousands of strangers.

McElhenney's ladies' dining rooms are the coolest in town.

Casby Must Stay.
For some time past the friends of Edward Casby, who was convicted of making fraudulent election returns in Butler township, have been making efforts to secure a pardon for the man, but yesterday the Board of Pardoners at Harrisburg denied the application and Casby must remain in the Pottsville jail.

McElhenney will have snapper, clam and oyster soup this evening.

Did Your Butterman Disappoint You!

The reason was he did not have enough to go around. It is pretty scarce, but we have enough for you all. Finest Creamery. Some cheap, but not as good.
