HERALD,

TO EVACUATE PEKIN

The Chinese Court Prepared for a Japanese Invasion.

THE EMPEROR MAY GO TO NANKIN.

That China Fears Japaness Occupation of Pekin Is Evidenced by the Fact That Arrangements Are Perfected for Possibis Removal to the Capital of the South-

London, Sept. 26.—A dispatch from Shanghai says: It is reported that most of the Japanese men-of-war have left the Island of Hai Yantan. Their destination is unknown, and there is great uneasiness here regarding their whereabouts and in-tentions.

The Chinese no longer claim that more than one Japanese vessel was sunk in the battle off the Yain. They insist that a large Japanese cruiser was successfully rammed and sunk by the Chinese ship Chin Yuen before that vessel went down. The Chinese declare that this statement is supported by the testimony of eye wit-

Chinese agents in Europe and the United States have been ordered to purchase forthwith any warships that are obtainable. Two serviceable vessels were purchased at Buenos Ayres on China's account prior to the Yalu battle. Many vossels loaded with munitions of war are on their way here from Hamburg and other Engineers parts.

other European ports.
Following a similar action recently taken by Japan orders have been issued from Tientsin directing that a register be kept in every district of the Japanese residents, who are still numerous.

The hostile feeling against foreigners at Pekin is increasing in bitterness. Soldiers insult and annoy them in the streets, and in many other ways is their position made unpleasant.

A Berlin dispatch to The Standard says:
Telegrams received here from Pekin state that if the Japanese should occupy Pekin the emperor will withdraw with the court to Nankin. The viceroy of Nankin, the dispatches assert, has already been instructed to prepare for such an eventuality. ventuality.

The Chinese emperors used to reside at Nankin, and it was not until the twelfth century that they removed to Kambalu, in order to have the rebellions Mongols better under their eye. Kambalu afterwards received the name of Pekin, that is, the capital of the north, whereas Nankin means the capital of the south. Be-fore leaving Pekin his majesty will in-vite the diplomatic corps to follow him to Nankin, but it is believed that they will prefer to go to Shanghai, where they will have the European warships at their disposal. The Standard's correspondent adds The Japanese Prince Yamashina told some military men at Swinemunde the other day, on the occasion of his visit there to say farewell to Emperor William, that he based his hopes that Japan would be victorious on the excellent condition of the Japanese army and the abundance of money placed at the disposal of the gov-ernment by the Japanese nobility. He described the Chinese soldiers as rather below the mark with regard to training arms and clothing.

A dispatch to The Times from Tokio says: Nothing is known here of the reported successful landing of Chinese troops in Yalu. The Japanese certainly sighted the Chinese fleet on the high seas, and no transports were seen either then or during the engagement. If troops were really landed the transports probably kept close to shore in comparatively shallow water, and on reaching the Yalu as-cended it far enough to be invisible to vessels in the estuary.

FIGHTING FOR WAITING FOR WHITNEY

New York Democrats Still Undecided on the Governorship.

JUDGE GAYNOR AGAIN DECLINES.

In Response to an Urgent Telegram That Gentleman Researts His Determination Not to Allow the Use of His Name-The Hoom for Frederick Cook,

SARATORA, Sept. 25,-"There is no sit-Santyona, sept. 20. There is no unation, and there will be no unation until William C. Whitney arrives in New York and gives his ultimatum. If he sees no, then there will be a hustle on the part no, then there will be a hustle on the part of the prominent candidates, and un-doubtedly the springing up of new candi-dates that would prolong the convention over Thursday," said a party leader last night.

This view of the situation is concurred in by every politician on the ground. The convention met in the Casino rink, where Governor Flower was nominated in 1891, at noon today. The decision of Mr. Whitney had not reached here before the confield basides him have had little chance to work up their individual booms, and will unitedly ask for an adjournment so that a canvass may be made. This will bring the nominations for governor late into the night, and following that will come the canvass for the offices of lieu-tenant governor and judge of the court of

For these offices few names have yet been mentioned and another recess will have to be taken until the third day, so as to allow the delegates to present the names which are as yet stored away in vest pockets. If Mr. Whitney says "no," Mr. Lockwood, of Buffalo, will come into

Mr. Lockwood, of Buffalo, will come into the field as a prominent candidate against Frederick Cook, John Boyd Thacher and Judge Gaynor, and the fight will be a lively one. The friends of every one of the candidates are extremely confident.

The Gaynor boom, which languished because of the allegation that Judge Gaynor would not consent to run, and that his telegrams here Monday night containing such information was evidence of that fact, had a revival last night when the Associated Press gave the leaders a copy of a telegram signed by Judge Gaynor, in which he refuted all statements sent out from this place concerning his affairs. from this place concerning his affairs Accordingly another telegram was sent to the judge strongly urging him to allow the use of his name. To this an answer was received at midnight from Judge Gaynor saying that he cannot be a caudi date for the nomination.

Lisutenant Governor Sheehan, when shown the message, said "I presumethat means that Judge Gaynor is still in the race. Well, the more the merrier." The supporters of John Hoyd Thacher are rather enthusiastic over his chances, but at the same time some of them seem to be perfectly willing that he should ac or be perfectly willing that he abount accept second piace on the ticket, provided Mr. Whitney's answer is affirmative, but contend that if that gentlemen answers in the negative Mr. Thacher is the logical sandidate of the party.

I The Lockwood boom is still in a state of apathy. Mr. Leckwood will not absolutely declare his intentions, and the Erie

By ar the brightest of booms, excludingly, of course, of Whitney's, is that of hir took, of books for, because at present he is favored by both Schator Hilland Mr. Sheshan, it is urged that there is a very larg German vine in the state which is usually Republican, but that could be obtained for the Democracy in case Mr. Gook was a candidate. It is infimited here tonight that Mr. Cock will only be a candidate when told to do so by party candidate when told to do so by parry leaders. That is to say, that Mr. Gook will either write a letter declining the monimation or accepting it, as he may be told to do by Senator Hill, Mr. Murphy or Lieutenant Governor Sheehan. The leaders are divided. As have been said, Mr. Sheeban and Senator Hill favor

Mr. Cook's condidacy, while Tammany and Senator Murphy are for Whitney if Whitney will have it. Nothing can be determined and nothing will be done in til Mr. Whilney steps his foot into New Fork city and answers definitely the query which the party budges have to put to him. Mr. Giroy and Mr. Grimmins and Senator Murphy are quite confident that Mr. Whitney will say yes, arging that the only reas in that he declined bes tec use he be eved that Go
