ONE-DAY EXCURSION.

Via Pennsylvania Rallroad to the Worldfamed Zoological Garden, Phila.

The Pennnsylvania Railroad Company announces a special one-day excursion to the Zoological Garden (within the pre-Philadelphia, on Saturday, September 26.

Philadelphia, on Saturday, September 20.

The Zoological Garden contains an unequaled collection of living representatives of thousands of well known as well as more species of animals, birds, and reptiles. It is an immense living object lesson for old and young, and is of especial educational value in supplementing instruction in natural history. With this object in view, Saturday has been selected for the excursion, in order to enable teachers and school children to take advantage of the low rates offered.

A special train will be run on the following schedule, and the tickets, which will be good only on the special train in each direction, will be sold at the rates quoted, Including admission to the Garden:

Unabelias may be 'hedged about' by cobweb setutes. I will not swear that it is not on There may be laws that make such thiss property. But I am sure that the hissis contempt, the loud mouthed indignatic, of all civilized seates residually. of all civilized society would sibilate at roar at the bloodless poltroon who show engage law on his side to obtain for him the restitution of a lent umbrella."

White Lead as a Preservative.

The advantages of using genuine white lead for painting surfaces, especially iron work, have been known for years, but an Instance mentioned by Sir William Arrol will serve to impress the fact on the memory. Some years ago he purchased the materials of old Hammersmith bridge for the purpose of using a portion in erecting a temporary plant at one of his large undertakings. The iron work had been in position 62 years, and many of the parts, ow ing to imacors ability, had not been painted since they were placed in position. Finding them in so remarkable a state of preservation, Sir William Arral had some of the paint analyzed, when it was found to be genuine white lead.-English Me-
