The Business Men's Holiday Will be a Success.

A GENERAL CLOSING UP!

Women Take a Hand in the Arrangements and Render the Committee Invaluable Aid.

To-morrow is the day fixed for the great Business Men's Holiday, the Industrial parade, the parade of all civic and other societies of the town and the grand picnic and fireworks demonstration at Columbia park, in aid of the Soldiers' monument fund, and to be held under the auspices of the Soldiers' Monument Association.

During the eight weeks arrangements for the event have been under way the committee has resorted to heroic measures to make the affair elaborate and if the weather is favorable their efforts will be crowned with success. The members of the Women's Relief Corps and Ladies' Aid Society have been doing noble work and as a result of their efforts the people who attend the picnic will find the arrangements for refreshments ample and first-class.

One of the branches of work which has involved considerable labor has been a canvass of the town to see how many of the business people proposed closing their places on Thursday and how many would have displays in the parade. The result has been very satisfactory. The following business men have declared their intention of "closing up shop" for the day:

John T. Graf	Yeager & Riegel
Samuel Davis	M. F. Maloy
E. C. Jacob	H. H. Morgan
Hook & Brown	Behlert Bros.
Joseph Ball	A. H. Swartz
City Supply Company	O. S. Kohler
George W. Keiser	Alex. Swenson
John J. Bobbin	H. Bury
Oscar Yost	Peter Heck
George H. Williams	Joseph M. Furest
Meluskey & Son	Thomas & Messer
Shenandoah F. & L. Co.	M. P. Fowler
W. H. Williams & Co.	W. C. Cavanaugh
E. B. Foley	H. M. Gourse
A. F. Morgan	T. J. Broghall
R. Blocker	Edmund Harris
Monaghan & Son	W. C. Cavanaugh
Joseph Haines	William Krick
L. J. Wilkinson	S. L. Brown
A. Owens	Grant Union Tea Co.
Frank Balshanic	Michael Graham
Max Reese	Richard Ormsby
W. Schoppe	W. C. Cavanaugh
J. F. Higgins	Charles Girvin
J. J. Franey	P. J. Gaughan
W. H. Jacobs	City Cash Store
Daniel Ellis, Jr.	Shenandoah Mfg. Co.

In addition to this all the P. & R. C. & I. Co. collieries will be idle.

The merchants who will have displays in the parade are:

John T. Graf	Yeager & Riegel
E. C. Jacob	H. H. Morgan
Alex. Snedden	John J. Bobbin
Meluskey & Son	F. E. Magargle
Shenandoah F. & L. Co.	M. P. Fowler
J. P. Williams & Son	E. B. Foley
Christ. Schmidt	Edmund Harris
A. Owens	James Shields
W. J. Taber	J. J. Franey
W. J. Dech

Last evening the committee met to make final arrangements for the parade and picnic. Among the most important reports considered was that of the committee on parade.

The line and route of parade have been arranged and if the weather is favorable the display will be one of the finest ever seen in the town. One of the gratifying statements of the committee on parade was that the Grant Band had volunteered its services to the committee.

The reports made last night on the probability of a large attendance were of such an encouraging character that the committee decided to erect several additional refreshment stands on the grounds and carpenters commenced work on them this morning.

The famous Schoppe orchestra has been engaged to furnish the dancing music.

Col. J. K. P. Scheilly will have charge of the clam chowder and he promises to do it up in grand style.

The picnic will open immediately upon the arrival of the line of parade at Columbia Park.

The committee has decided to hold the picnic to-morrow irrespective of the weather. There will be no postponement. If the day opens disagreeably the committee will proceed with its arrangements and hope for a change during the latter part of the day.

Chief Burgess Burns has assured the committee that he will not allow any fakirs to ply their schemes on or near the grounds, or along any of the streets. This is a good step and it is hoped the Burgess will see that the other officials of the borough keep the fakirs at a distance.

The Marshals of all organizations which contemplate taking part in the parade to-morrow are requested to report to the Chief Marshal, David Morgan, at 8:30 o'clock to-morrow morning, at the Borough building.

Every member of the Lillian Kennedy Company is a thorough artist, picked from the best attractions on the road.

Jr. O. U. A. M. Notice. All members of Major Jennings Council No. 367, Jr. O. U. A. M., are requested to meet in the Council room on Thursday, 4th Inst., at 8:30 a. m., to prepare for the parade, which takes place at 9:30.

A. S. HAGENBUCH, Councilor.

Attest:—W. J. JACOBS, Secretary.

PARK PLACE MYSTERY.

It is Suspected That Samuel Bacon Met Foul Play.

Samuel Bacon, a resident of Park Place, was found bleeding and unconscious on the Lehigh Valley railroad near Trenton. He was picked up by the crew of a freight train. There were three ugly wounds on the back of his head which were first supposed to have been inflicted by a locomotive, but the examining physician has stated that the wounds must have been inflicted in some other manner. Bacon is still unconscious. The victim's family suspects foul play and the case is being investigated.

PERSONAL.

George W. Beldall spent to-day at Mt. Carmel.

John R. Leisinger, of Hazleton, was a town visitor to-day.

Recorder Henry Schehrman, of Mahanoy City, spent a few hours of to-day in town.

Miss McDonald and lady friend, of Ashland, spent to-day as guests of town friends.

Contractor Joseph Gorman, of Pottsville, was observed greeting friends on our streets this morning.

Miss Emma F. Davis left town this morning for New York City, where she expects to remain for some time.

T. J. Davies and Leo Hamburger were among the Shenandoahites who witnessed the game at Pottsville yesterday.

Thomas Williams, Sr., who spent the past week as guests of friends in town and at Ellengrove, left for his home in Mt. Carmel this morning.

There will be an entire change of program each evening, and special scenery used for every production.

Jurers to-night.

The following are among the people drawn for duty as grand and petit jurors during the week of criminal court at Pottsville beginning Monday, November 12: Joseph Seick, Bees Rosser, William Edwards, John S. Mergan, Daniel Skeath and Andrew Comrey, of Mahanoy City; Gideon Beaver and Henry Hart, of Ringtown; A. Meloy, of Shenandoah; P. J. Morphy, Gilberton; John Thomas, Frackville; W. Wilde, Mahanoy township.

There is so much to be seen during the limited engagement of Lillian Kennedy Company, that it is impossible to describe it all—go see them.

The Electric Railway.

Owing to the delay in making the trolley and other electrical connections on White and Oak streets the Lakeside Railway Company was unable to get the trolley and bridge sections of the road ready for trial trips this afternoon. An effort will be made to complete the connections to-night and if this can be accomplished the road will be put in operation to-morrow to take advantage of the traffic to Columbia Park. The bridge builders have finished their work and left town to-day.

Robbed the Machine.

Mike Pribula yesterday put $1.50 as bait in the nickel-in-the-slot machine which he has in his saloon on East Centre street and left the place for a few minutes. Upon his return he found that the machine had been robbed. The one who took the money inserted the blade of a pen knife under the glass front of the machine and tipped the pockets.

McElhenny's ladies' dining rooms are the cosiest in town.

An Early Pay.

The employees of the Kehley Run colliery, who received their pay last Friday, will be paid again next Friday. Three weeks will then elapse before the next pay day arrives. The change is said to have been arranged in order to give Mr. Robert Thomas, of the Thomas Coal Company, a chance to make a western trip.

Dr. Roberts Married.

Dr. J. Pierce Roberts, of town, and Miss Mame Hardisty, daughter of ex-Senator Hardisty, of Baltimore, Md., were married yesterday in Philadelphia. The doctor and his bride will limit the bridal tour and expect to come to Shenandoah to-morrow evening.

Camp H2, Attention!

All members of Washington Camp, No. 112, P. O. S. of A., are requested to meet in Egan's hall, South Main street, at 9 a. m. to-morrow (Thursday) to take part in the parade.

LEWIS LEHR, JR., Pres.

Attest:—F. C. REESE, Sec'y.

How to Make Money.

Great wealth has been accumulated by small savings. You can save money by purchasing Wall Paper now to keep for future use. I am selling out my entire stock at just what it cost me. Come and see the bargains.

J. P. CARDEW, 234 West Centre street.

Schools to Close.

It was stated to-day that in consequence of the proposed business men's demonstration all the public schools of town will be closed to-morrow.

Will be Idle To-morrow.

The Wm. Penn colliery will be idle to-morrow to give its employes a chance to witness the business men's demonstration and attend the picnic.

HELD FOR BURGLARY.

An Old Offender With Many Alias in the Tolls.

MAKES A PLEA OF GUILT.

He Acknowledges Being an Accomplice and Charges Another Man With Being the Real Burglar—A Denial.

Enoch Selbert, alias Adam Borolaki, alias Ladosky, alias Amos, was brought to town last evening from Sunbury to answer charges of burglary and receiving stolen goods. Selbert was brought here handcuffed by William B. Jones, of Mt. Carmel, a representative of County Detective Amour, of this place.

Selbert was arrested several weeks ago in Mt. Carmel while trying to dispose of a large number of watch chains, charms and sleeve buttons. It was suspected that the goods were stolen and while Selbert was held in the Sunbury jail to await trial on a charge of peddling without a license efforts were made to trace the jewelry, and with success.

It was found that the chains and sleeve buttons had been stolen from the store of Samuel Block, on South Main street, this town. When Selbert was called for trial at Sunbury on Monday the nominal charge against him was not pressed and he was turned over to Special Officer Jones.

When Selbert appeared before Justice Williams last night he was neatly dressed and did not look by any means like the ordinary run of burglars. He is good looking and speaks English well. His general appearance is directly contrary to his record.

Selbert was told of the charge against him and said he was guilty only as an accomplice. He stated that on the night of June 3, last, he met one Stiney Ketolski in a saloon on South Main street and after having several drinks Ketolski persuaded him to go to the store of Block. It is Selbert says that Ketolski gave him a large knife and told him to stand guard at the door. Ketolski then went into the house and came out with his pockets full of jewelry. He made two trips into the place and secured jewelry each time.

After the burglary Ketolski and Selbert went to Turkey Run and the former tried to persuade his brother to keep the jewelry in his house. The brother refused and the two men hid the stolen property in a bush. Selbert says he then left town and unsuccessfully sought work at other places. He returned, and being short of money, took the jewelry and tried to sell it at Mt. Carmel.

Upon this statement Justice Williams issued a warrant for Ketolski's arrest last evening and he was taken into custody. The accused man denied Selbert's story in toto and said he was in no way engaged in the burglary.

Selbert, on the other hand, repeated his story in the presence of Ketolski, and parts of it were confirmed by Policeman Walaitis and Ketolski's brother. Walaitis said he saw two men leave the rear of Block's place about four o'clock in the morning of the day stated by Selbert. Walaitis blew his whistle for assistance, but the men disappeared in the meantime. The brother testified that Ketolski and Selbert called at his house in Turkey Run, but he was not clear as to the object of the call.

About seventy watch chains and dozens of sleeve buttons were spread upon the Justice's table and Mr. Block identified them as his property. Several watches which were found in Ketolski's house were also produced, but not identified.

Justice Williams decided to hold Selbert and Ketolski for further hearing this evening and they are confined in the lockup.

Policeman Walaitis has a warrant for Selbert for robbing a South Main street barber shop.

Three cases of burglary against Selbert were not pressed at Pottsville during the last term of court, because the District Attorney could not find Selbert, who was in the Sunbury jail at the time.

Special for One Week.

We offer to-day a full line of ready-made sheets, pillow cases and bolster cases at less than the price of the muslin alone. Sheets, bleached or unbleached, for 50 cents; pillow cases 15 cents; bolster cases 25 cents. All the best quality.

A Dangerous Trap.

An insecure cover of a coal hole in a pavement on the east side of North Main street, between Lloyd and Coal streets, threw Mrs. Joseph Temple violently to the pavement, but fortunately she escaped serious injury. People who have such traps on their properties should give them the strictest attention.

House Wanted.

A five or six-room house, centrally located, is wanted. Address, HERALD office.

WILL HOLD ON.

The Anti-Bowmanites of Town Will Not Give Up.

The decision of the Supreme Court in the Reading case hanging upon the dispute in the Evangelical Association between the Bowmanites on one side and the Dabsties and Escherites on the other will not change the administration of the local Evangelical church, for the present at least. This church has a membership of over 150, and a gentleman who seems to know says that but half a dozen have any inclination towards the Bowmanites, and only one of them is a trustee, the six other trustees standing by the majority of the congregation.

The church and pulpit will be claimed and held on the ground that the majority of a parish own the property. Before possession will be surrendered there will be another law suit in which the question of ownership will be put to a test. This is also said to be the sentiment of the Evangelical congregations of Mahanoy City, Frackville and Ashland, where the anti-Bowmanites are very strong.

The Bowmanite fight is in the hands of Bishops Bowman and Escher, of Chicago; Bishop Breyfogle, of Reading, and Bishop Horn, of Cleveland.

The leaders of the anti-Bowman fight are Bishop Dubs, of Chicago; Bishop Hamen, of Reading; Bishop Stanford, of Harrisburg; Rev. W. F. Hell, of Allentown; and Rev. A. M. Sampsell, of Reading.

Rev. Frederick, now pastor of the Evangelical church at Tamaqua, was elected at the Bowmanite conference last February to take charge of the churches at Shenandoah, Mahanoy City, Frackville, Ashland and Tamaqua. He has been holding back, awaiting the decision of the Supreme Court. Now that the Bowmanites have won he will no doubt attempt to exercise his authority in the churches named and when he does, it is said, the Bowmanite war will open in Schuylkill.

McElhenny will have snapper, clam and oyster soup this evening.

NOT AS BAD AS REPORTED.

Still Eight Per Cent. and Half Time is a turns of collieries draw wages for the last half of September and first half of October has made the following report:

Draper col., P. & R. C. & I. Co.	$2.49
Preston, No. 2	2.50
Lucas Spring	2.58.0
Oak Hill, Leisinger & Co.	2.11.0
Reliance, P. & R. C. & I. Co.	2.10.0

The average of these prices is $2.37.1 per ton and the rate of wages is 8 per cent. below the $2.50 basis.

It was reported here on Monday that the rate would be 11 per cent. below the basis. While there is cause for rejoicing that the rate did not drop that low and that it is one per cent. above the rate of the last four weeks, still it is low enough to work much hardship in connection with the half time schedule of working time.

Fun, fast and furious, attends the development of the new edition of "She Couldn't Marry Three."

BASE BALL.

The Boston won at Pottsville yesterday in a pretty game by a score of 6 to 5. The Boston made the winning run after two men were out, Duffy knocking out a home run.

The Pottsvilles disbanded last night, but they will play here to-morrow on the co-operative plan, if the weather permits. Shenandoah and Pottsville will play at the latter place on Friday for the benefit of Manager Smith, of the Pottsvilles.

Ashenback goes to his home at Cincinnati on Monday. Pottsville has hinted that she wants him for next season, but he is inclined to play in one of the western leagues.
