SWELL the Soldiers' Monument fund.

Business men seldom have a holiday. Will they take advantage of tomorrow's opportunity? Still will be the next President of the United States. That settles it.

EVERY patriotic citizen in the town who can possibly do so should help make tomorrow's demonstration a success.

JAPAN goes right ahead smashing China just as if Secretary Gresham had not warned her to keep hands off Korea. Japan either didn't receive Gresham's order or she is using it for gunwadding.

No wonder the Louisiana planters are hot when they see the $10,000,000 bounty taken away from them and a $0,000,000 bounty given to the Hawaii planters, who are the agents merely of the Sugar Trust.

The Japanese have for years called themselves "the Yankees of the Orient," and their style of fighting rather goes to support their claim to the title. Their warfare against China is going ahead in an immensely practical businesslike way, and the results of it are peculiarly American in character.

The British Admiralty are formulating a plan to man certain subsidized merchant steamships with the officers and men of the Royal Naval Reserve. This would place on these vessels thoroughly disciplined crews, ready to assist in naval warfare at once, if necessary. The project includes twenty vessels, such as the Maxwell, Stravia and Umbria.

We have been so much accustomed of late years to hear of the intensity of Irish poverty that it is rather satisfactory to learn from an official report presented to Parliament that during the first six months of the current year the deposits and balances in the joint-stock banks of the Emerald Isle have increased by more than $2,000,000, the total at the end of June being $180,000,000, the largest amount ever shown on hand at that date, inasmuch as it is the Irish farmers who are the chief depositors in the joint-stock banks, their condition, to say the least, shows improvement. The savings banks afford similar evidence respecting the peasantry and the poorer classes in the towns, the increase in deposits during the half year exceeding $3,000,000; the total on hand being $40,000,000.

WHAT sickly and silly sentimentalism! Here are members of the Democratic Congressional Committee and Senator

Faulkner, of West Virginia, in a dreadful state of mind because the Free Traders of London have invited Representative Wilson, chairman of the Democratic Committee of Ways and Means, to a grand banquet. The courtesy appears to people on this side a cheap way of paying a big debt, and yet in fashion an honest and manly way. Chairman Wilson has served the British industries and British commerce better than any other man in this country for the last thirty years, except President Cleveland, and the President does not happen to be in London and within range of honors or social courtesies. Mr. Wilson is there, and in some remarks recently published has graciously informed his British friends that the fight for Free Trade on this side has only just begun, and that he and his party mean to do a great deal better than they yet have done in the way of promoting British instead of American industries. It would have been shabby in the last degree if such distinguished performance and such gratifying promises had not been thought worthy of recognition.

Professor Shortidge Has a Relapse.
CHESTER, Pa., Oct. 2.—Dr. Richardson, physician in charge of the male department of the Norristown Insane Asylum, reports that Professor S. C. Shortidge, acquitted last week of murdering his wife because of insanity, has taken a change for the worse. The strain upon him was too severe, and his nervous system has received a serious setback.

New Zealand's Sweeping Exclusion Law.
ATKLAND, N. Z., Oct. 2.—The minister of labor has introduced a bill in the house of representatives, providing for the exclusion from the colony of undesirable immigrants, such as Chinese and other Asiatics, contract workmen, cripples, consumptives and paupers.

Poisoned by Bologna Sausage.
LANCASTER, Pa., Oct. 2.—The family of E. O. Daily, comprising his wife and five children, whose ages range from 2 to 12 years, were taken seriously ill last night after eating bologna sausage purchased at a neighboring grocery store. The doctor pronounced it a case of poisoning, due to decomposed meat in the bologna, which was of imported variety. Prompt administration of emetics somewhat restored the victims, but all are still in a serious condition.

Death of an Eminent Lawyer.
PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 2.—Richard C. McMurtrie, the eminent lawyer, died at his home in Chestnut Hill yesterday, aged 75. He was a member of the United States bar, and then entered upon the practice of the law. He quickly attained prominence, and at his death was one of the recognized leaders of the Philadelphia bar.

Plans of Russia's Imperial Family.
St. PETERSBURG, Oct. 2.—It is now reported that the Imperial family, with the exception of Grand Duke George, will pass the winter at Corfu, one of the Ionian Islands of Greece. Grand Duke George, it is added, will go to Cairo. The czarowitz will not go to Darmstadt in order to visit his intended wife, Princess Alix, as previously proposed. He will be appointed regent during his father's absence from Russia.

Fattening Oysters to Music.
Down in South street there is an aged oysterman who fattens his oysters by feeding them on oatmeal and water, and during the meal the bivalves are regaled with a concert especially arranged for their benefit. The old man has a cool, dark cellar, and the oatmeal water is kept in this and splashed over the oysters with a dipper, but they are not fed until the concert is well under way. An oyster, it seems, has a soul for music, and it is not particular so long as the music is loud and lively. Therefore while the old man is making the water and meal a negro boy, who is known in the neighborhood of Fulton market as "the black boy," sits on an upright piano and plays the cornet with considerable rough skill.

A Feminine Run.
Two very bright young women boarded a car bound west on Spring Garden street and looked about for seats. The car was of the kind denominated "dinky," being provided only with a driver and a box for the reception of fares. There was just one vacant seat in the car, and after a little good natured display of polite protestation on the part of both one young lady seated herself. On this young lady's right sat a very stylishly dressed young fellow. The girl who remained standing glared at him significantly, and he in turn glared at her indifferently. She was not at all good looking. The two girls exchanged glances, and then both glared at the dude. The girl who was seated finally nodded encouragingly to her companion, and opening her pocketbook took out a dime. "Will you please put one fare in the box?" she asked sweetly, turning to the dude. He took the money and walked to the front end of the car and dropped it in the box. When he came back the other girl was in his seat chatting pleasantly with her companion. The young man went out on the back platform and kicked himself.—Philadelphia Record.

SLEEPLESS AND RUN DOWN

You Can't Hold Out Long This Way.

You Are Working Too Hard and You Know It.

You Can Get Strong Without Stopping Your Work.

What the people want is to get over that weakness and tired feeling, that nervousness and sleeplessness without stopping their work. They can't afford to be idle. They must work.

And it is not necessary to rest. You can get well and strong without losing a day's work. There is a remedy so great and powerful in building up the system, strengthening the nerves and producing sleep, that it never fails. The following letter written and signed by Mr. Allen D. Place, of Hardswick, Va., will tell you what to do:

"Last spring I was in a very feeble state of health, being all run down. I could only work part of the time as I had very little strength. My nerves were terribly weak and I could not sleep. I had been falling for two years, gradually getting worse.

"I told my wife I must have something to help me right away. Seeing Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy advertised I had faith enough in it to try it. I had not taken a quarter of a bottle before I felt the good results.

"I write this for the good it will do my best to have everybody take it."

All kinds of nervous, chronic and blood diseases are quickly and permanently cured by Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy. Try it and notice the change in your feelings, for it acts quickly and it will make you well and strong.

Dr. Greene, the well-known physician, of 35 West 14th street, New York city, discovered it. He is the most successful specialist in curing nervous and chronic diseases, and can be consulted free, personally or by letter.

MR. ALLEN D. PLACE

THE ELECTION IN FLORIDA.
No Vote in Three of Jacksonville's Most Populous Districts.
JACKSONVILLE, Oct. 2.—The state and county election held in this city resulted in a tie which will probably take the courts to straighten. The fight was between two factions of the Democratic party, and fell fair to be a close one. Early in the morning, in consequence of fraud having been threatened, three deputy sheriffs walked into each polling place and signified their intention of remaining. The inspectors all over the city thereupon closed the voting booths, awaiting instructions from the leaders. A compromise was effected in several of the outlying wards in a short time and voting was resumed, but in three of the most populous wards in the city no vote was cast, owing to a failure to agree upon any arrangement. In consequence of this tie, out of a qualified vote of 5,000 in Duval county only a small proportion was polled.

Governor Mitchell on Monday ordered Adjutant General Houston to this city, and all day the state troops were held under arms at their quarters, but were not needed, as there was no disorder. The main issues of the factional fight were a commission and the alleged attempt of a railroad corporation to capture the next legislature, and nowhere has the bitterness grown to such an intensity as in Duval county. Throughout the state, however, for supreme court justices, has met with practically no opposition. The Populists cast a very small vote for their ticket.

Governor Worries Voters.

TRENTON, Oct. 2.—The special feature of interest in connection with the re-opening of the New Jersey legislature was the action of the governor in vetoing a batch of bills which were left on his hands when the legislature entered upon its long recess last May. The most important of these bills was the one to abolish the county courts as at present constituted and establish in their place elective courts, removing the lay judges from office at once. The naturalization bill and the marriage license bill were among the other vetoes.

Jossey Knights of the Golden Eagle.

TRENTON, Oct. 2.—The eleven annual session of the Knights of the Golden Eagle of New Jersey is being held here. The officers elected were: Past Grand Chief, Robert M. Foss of Woodbury; grand chief, W. C. Hunter of Swedesboro; vice chief, Frank Farley of Trenton; high priest, J. C. F. Trochssel of Craner Hill; master of records, Edward D. Senesman of Camden; sir herald, M. H. Huff of Manassas; keeper of exchequer, James Helly of Woodbury. The order has a total membership throughout the country of over 65,000 and more than 700 castles.

WRECKED BY CYCLONE.

Fearful Work of the Wind and Rain at Little Rock.

SEVERAL KILLED AND INJURED.

The Main Portion of the Business Section of the City Practically in Ruins. Buildings Unroofed and Stocks Greatly Damaged by Water.

LITTLE ROCK, Oct. 2.—A terrible cyclone struck this city at 7:30 o'clock last evening, and almost devastated the business portion of the city. Several people are known to have been killed and injured, while it is feared scores of others have met the same fate. The main portion of the business center is practically in ruins, and the amount of damage is incalculable. The total property loss will probably approximate $200,000. The cyclone was accompanied by a terrific rain storm, and the stocks of goods in the business houses which were unroofed, though not otherwise wrecked, were destroyed by water.

The storm struck the state penitentiary, which stands on a hill in the western part of the city, with fearful force, destroying the dining room, tearing down the stable and shops, unroofing the main cell building and demolishing the warden's office. Several of the convicts were seriously injured, one of whom died an hour afterwards.

Down town the lightning struck the Martin block, wrecking the third floor. A man named Eaton was fatally injured there. The Tilles building was unroofed, and a part of the fourth floor of Gleason's hotel was blown away. At Main and Second streets the tops of several adjacent buildings were piled up in an indescribable heap.

The worst damage, however, was done to property on Markham and Commerce streets. Nearly every building in that district was unroofed, and many are totally wrecked. The large three story building at Market and Cumberland, occupied by the E. H. McCarthy company, is a total wreck, as is also the two story building on the opposite corner, occupied by Max Elkins as a saloon. The third story of the old Deering House was blown off, and the several stores under it were flooded by water and filled with debris.

The large cotton warehouse, situated at Second and Scott, owned by J. H. Bacon, was wrecked. It fell on the Western Union Telegraph office, next door, and wrecked it, thus cutting off all telegraphic communication with outside points. The city was left in the deepest darkness, and the streets are veritable streams of mud.

The streets are filled with tin roofs, electric wires and other wreckage, and it will be several days before the extent of the damage is known accurately. Rescuing parties are busy searching for the dead and wounded, but a list of casualties is utterly unobtainable.

Among those known to have been seriously and probably fatally wounded are J. P. Monroe, member of the Arkansas legislature, and Eaton and Sam Smith, a prominent cotton buyer, is also badly injured.

All kinds of rumors are afloat, one to the effect that the insane asylum, in which about 600 patients are confined, has been blown down and many patients injured from the city, and the rumor cannot be confirmed. A number of escaped lunatics have been captured near the Union depot, and this fact gives color to the rumor.

Postmortem Fatally Assailed.
EAST PATERSON, N. J., Oct. 2.—Late last night Postmortem David S. Smythe was attacked by footpads, and received injuries which will probably result in his death. He had closed the office and started for home, carrying a tin box containing stamps and money. When a short distance from the office two men sprang upon him and beat him until he was senseless. He recovered partially and was cradled to his home. His head and face were battered to a jelly. The physicians say he cannot recover. No clues.

Convict Scandal in Naples.

NAPLES, Oct. 2.—A convict scandal has arisen over the forcible detention at the Convict of St. Joseph and St. Theresa of a wealthy girl named Silvia Palmieri. The young lady, who is 18 years of age, accuses the abbot, who is said of allowing her to be chloroformed and assaulted by elderly men, who, she says, often visited the convent. The abbot, who is 70 years of age, has been placed in prison pending trial on the charges made by the girl.

The Convicts Wanted Vegetables.

WATKINS, Ga., Oct. 2.—Colonel Jones, superintendent of convicts, returned from Watertown, where he held an investigation of the convicts' mutiny. The complaint by the convicts was that they had been getting little food, except bread and bacon. They wanted vegetables. Colonel Jones ordered them to be flogged, when they began to plead for mercy. They were forgiven on apologizing to their employer and promising future obedience.

A Partial Victory for Helra.

RICHMOND, Va., Oct. 2.—Mrs. Belva A. Lockwood is qualified to practice law in Henric county district court. Mrs. Lockwood's application to be allowed to practice before the Virginia court of appeals was refused last spring. She carried the case to the supreme court, which sustained the Virginia court.

Again the Lons Highwayman.

YUBA, Cal., Oct. 2.—The stage running between this place and Fort Jones was held up by a masked highwayman. The robber took Wells, Fargo & Co.'s express box, which contained valuable treasure. The driver and eight passengers were not molested. A posse is in pursuit of the highwayman.

Maryland Congressional Nominees.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 2.—Congressman Talcott and Rusk were yesterday renominated by the Second and Third Democratic congressional conventions. The Fourth district gathering nominated by acclamation Hon. John K. Cowen.

Attacking the Soldiers.

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 3.—News has reached here from Ezerzun, Armenia, that the people of Sasun have attacked the Kurdish and Turkish soldiers and killed and wounded over 500 of them.

Mercurer Sparing the Eed.

MONTREAL, Oct. 2.—Friend of Hon. Mr. Mercier, ex-premier of Quebec, has been summoned to his bedside from Quebec and other points, as the family believe the end is near at hand.
