

A PROBLEM THAT MAKES MOTHERS STUDY.

A Minister's Wife Who Dresses Her Family in Excellent Taste—How a Small Income Went a Long Way.

The mothers in many a mother's forehead are deepened as she studies how to dress her boys and girls in a respectable manner on the small amount that is available.

A minister's wife in a small town near Shenandoah was confronted by this discouraging situation, but her woman's wit and a few ten-cent packages of diamond dyed clothes solved the problem, and handsome clothes were soon evolved from a pile of odds and ends.

The Home, Housekeeper, Ladies' Home Companion, and other household papers have published many articles telling how to use diamond dyes in making new clothing out of old. Pretty dresses, handsome cloaks, serviceable stockings, and gay hat ribbons and feathers are obtained at but little expense, not only for children, but for the mothers as well.

The ease with which diamond dyes are used is really surprising. They make beautiful colors that never croak and are non-fading. "While there are other package dyes, there are none so easily used, nor such fast colors," says Jean Hunt in a recent number of The Home. "I have tried other dyes, but the diamond color the most goods. Their fast coloring black is the only black dye for cotton I have ever found that makes a fast black which never turns gray when washed."

PROBABLY FATAL ACCIDENT.

People Trampled Under Horses' Feet During Baltimore's Grand Parade.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 3.—During the grand procession last night a serious accident occurred, and that it did not result fatally to several persons is only little short of miraculous. When the parade had reached the corner of Lexington and Howard streets, the six horses attached to a heavy wagon in which were a large number of people became frightened at the fireworks, and made a plunge into the crowd.

The streets at this point were a perfect jam of humanity, wedged in so tightly as to render it impossible for them to escape. Most of them being women and children made the matter worse. The horses, becoming more and more frightened at the screams of the people, reared, plunged and trampled them down in a frightful manner. When officers and others had secured the horses and succeeded in getting them off the sidewalk, eleven persons, mostly women and children, were found to be more or less injured.

Florence Ingle, aged 18, was taken out from under the horses' feet unconscious, and has since remained in that condition. It is feared her skull is fractured. Henry Kruehler, aged 15, had both his arms so badly crushed that amputation will be necessary. These two will probably die.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

There is no medicine so often needed in every home and so admirably adapted to the purposes for which it is intended, as Chamberlain's Pain Balm. Hardly a week passes but some member of the family has need of it. A toothache or headache may be cured by it. A touch of rheumatism or neuralgia quieted. The severe pain of a burn or scald promptly relieved and the sore healed in much less time than when medicine has to be sent for. A sprain may be promptly treated before inflammation sets in, which insures a cure in about one-third of the time otherwise required. Cuts and bruises should receive immediate treatment before the parts become swollen, which can only be done when Pain Balm is kept at hand. A sore throat may be cured before it becomes serious. A troublesome coryza may be removed by applying it twice a day for a week or two. A lame back may be cured and several days of valuable time saved or a pain in the side or chest relieved without paying a doctor bill. Procure a 60 cent bottle at once and you will never regret it. For sale by Grubler Bros.

Coming Events.

Oct. 10th.—Annual supper of the English Baptist church in Robbins' opera house. Oct. 16.—Lecture, entitled "Social Purity," by Rev. Anna Shaw, of Philadelphia, in the Evangelical church, under the auspices of the Shenandoah W. C. T. U.

Every mother should know that croup can be prevented. The first symptom of true croup is hoarseness. This is followed by a peculiar rough cough, if Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is given freely as soon as the child becomes hoarse or even after the cough has developed it will prevent the attack. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Grubler Bros.

CLUB LAW IN NEW YORK

Brutality to Citizens Who Offend the High and Mighty Politic.

New York, Oct. 3.—Chief Counsel Goff surprised the Lexow committee yesterday. He subpoenaed all the members of the force who had been convicted of clubbing citizens during the past year, but who for some reason have retained positions on the force. There are nearly a hundred cases of this character, and almost all of the officers summoned were in attendance. One of the first officers who testified was Thomas Coleman, who had been called to explain his statements in connection with the alleged assault upon George Appo. The theory of the police and the testimony of the proprietor and the inmates of the hotel where Appo was injured is that Appo cut his own throat. Coleman was badly rattled at times during the examination.

The feature of the day was the testimony of the men accused of clubbing citizens. A son of Rev. Dr. John Hall, the Presbyterian divine, claimed that he had been forcibly ejected from a station house because he had gone there and protested against an assault by an officer upon an Italian fruit peddler. A Columbia college student told of the assaults that the policemen made upon the students while they were holding buffets in a vacant lot to celebrate one of their victories.

Thomas Lucea said that he had asked Policeman Bernard Dunn if he had caught a thief who had stolen four dollars from him. By way of reply the policeman clubbed him, inflicting wounds on his head and requiring twenty-seven stitches to patch him up. When he reached the police station another policeman pummeled him in the face.

Policeman George Lair was accused of clubbing a woman and trying to tear her cheek by inserting his finger between her lips. Policeman William Kohrig acknowledged that he had broken a boy's jaw, but claimed that this particular case of clubbing was accidental.

One policeman who carelessly handled a revolver was fined twenty days pay, but was allowed to remain on the force, though it was admitted that the citizen who was injured died from his wounds.

San Captain Charged with Cruelty.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 3.—Jack Day, a student of Columbia college, New York, and J. H. Nicol, a student of the University of Pennsylvania, have arrived in San Francisco on the American ship Benjamin F. Packard. They went before the United States ship commissioner and told a story of alleged maltreatment at the hands of Captain Allen, to whom they said they had paid $100 each to be taken on board his ship as apprentices. They claim they were treated as common seamen before the mast, and in addition to this they were but half fed.

Killed in a Runaway.

THOY, N. Y., Oct. 3.—George Miller, his wife and Miss Jessie Gabler were on their way to Sand Lake last evening, after spending the day in Troy shopping. In the suburbs the team became frightened at an electric car and ran away. Mr. Miller was thrown against a post and his skull crushed. He died soon afterwards. Mrs. Miller was seriously injured, and may die. Miss Gabler received only a few scratches. Mr. Miller recently moved from Newark, N. J., to Sand Lake, where he purchased a paper mill he was operating.

Double Tragedy in Illinois.

Hullet was shot twice, dying instantly, but first inflicting wounds on Scott with a club from which he died a few hours later.

Serious Charge Against Martin Irons.

PAWNEE, Neb., Oct. 3.—A cyclone struck the home of John Nelson, seven miles south of here. The family of seven persons were blown into an adjoining field, and a little girl, 3-years-old, had a stick driven through her skull, and cannot live. Five others of the family were severely injured.

Jealousy and Murder.

HUNTINGTON, W. Va., Oct. 3.—On Beech Fork, twelve miles south of this city, William Adkins and Tom Mays, two prominent young men, became involved in a difficulty, when Adkins cut Mays's throat, the latter dying instantly. Jealousy was the cause of the trouble. Adkins is still at large.

"SHE COULDN'T MARRY THREE."

It sounds like a self-evident proposition that "She Couldn't Marry Three," but in the play of that name which Miss Lillian Kennedy brings to the theatre this evening it is shown what a lot of trouble may fall upon a girl because she can only marry one man at a time. This most charming little sourette, Miss Kennedy, has created in this play a new type of madly sweetness. There is plenty of excitement in the play, especially in the final climax where the villain tries to tie the hero to the railroad track upon which an express train is approaching. A real passenger locomotive steams upon the stage in this scene and for realism the tableau has never been beaten. Of course Miss Kennedy's songs and dances add greatly to the brightness of the play.

"IRISH INSPIRATION."

Mr. Barry O'Neil as Larry deserves special mention for his clever work, and was satisfactory in every sense of the word. He acted with vigor and sang sweetly, his dancing was one of the features of the performances.—New York Herald. At Ferguson's theatre on Wednesday evening, Oct. 10th.

Hopkins, the present incumbent, withdrew several days ago, and Packer and Lewis gave up the struggle yesterday.

Church Fair Lotteries Illegal.

ELIZABETH, N. J., Oct. 3.—Judge Van Syckle, in the Union county court, charged the grand jury that the practice at church fairs of holding drawings for prizes is a violation of the law against lotteries, and as such an offense as race track pool selling and other gambling. He read a program of a fair held in St. Joseph's Roman Catholic church at North Plainfield, at which there were drawings, and charged the jurors to investigate it.
