Interesting Testimony in New York's Police Investigation.

POWER OF THE GERRY SOCIETY.

Counsel Goff Declares That It Is Too Arbitrary, and Should be Curtailed. Evidence That the Uniformed Highwaymen Are Still Demanding Tribute.

NEW YORK, Oct. 4 .- Mr. Moss, attornoy for the Parkhurst society, opened yester-day's proceedings before the Lexaw investigation committee by placing in evi-dence a chattel morning given by David Kroman to David Kroman. The first David has already testified before the committee that he gave the mortgage to committee that he gave the mortgage to pay the police for protection.

Policeman Ambrose W. Hussey, for-merly a ward detective, was the first wit-ness of any interest. Mrs. Urchitell, who, some time ago appeared before the com-mittee, had testified that an officer had walked her around the streets all one night and then took down her stockings

The prosecution tried to show that Hussey was the officer. Hussey testified that a stool pigeon named Block had told him that a policeman named Charles A. Place was the man who took the money.

Officer Place took the stand and swore he never saw the woman or took money

The woman than took the stand. She testified that her children were torn from her by a policeman and placed in an orphan asylum. She was accuraged from pillar to post by the police and by Max Hochstem, an east side politician who is at present under indictment for assaulting a reporter. Hochstem at first, under the guise of a friend, advised her to pay the guise of a friend, alviced her to pay the police, and later insuited and hounded her. Mrs. Urchittel refused to pay $50 tribute to the police for keeping a small cigar store. The woman, who is a Russian, was soon alterwards arrested on a charge of keeping a disorderly house and kept in jail many months.

Senator Bradley was so moved by the story of apparent injustice that he instructed Mr. Moss to secure the release of the children.

The woman had been looking around the court room. Her eyes lighted on Hussey. She recognized the author of her troubles instantly, and became intensely agitated. She pointed dramati-cally at the officer, and cried in English, of which she speaks but a little, "That's him! That's him!" For a moment she seemed as if she would spring at the of-

Too much power, he declared, was vested in the Gerry society. Children could be torn from their parents, and there was no way of getting them back if the society desired otherwise. While Mr. Gerry's, objects were humane his methods were too arbitrary.

Elias Mantel testified that in 1868 he kept a restaurant at 161 Delancey street. Hussey came to him and demanded 8100 for protection for gambting. Then he was

Alexander, a stenographer, who had been sitting next to the policeman and Peffer, swore he heard Hussey say, Til kill you," and others gave similar Peffer also told his story. In the course of his work as a committee detective he had incurred the cumity of Hussey. Hussey accused him in court of being the au-thor of all his trouble. After enting him a foul name the policeman threatened to blow his brains out. Hussey was again called to the bar and again denied the

"We will look further into this," said Mr. Goff as Hussey stepped from the Officers Hussey and Shalvey assisted in finding the thief, but, although they made arrests and had a strong class when it came up in the E-sex Market court, Masch was not allowed to call his witnesses and the thickey were discharged. Mrs. Annie Treyursen bed a significant story. The woman supports her family by selling newspenses in a stand at the orner of feast Broadway and Rulgers street. She has the permission of the owner of the premission from of which the country in head of the morning has the stand is located. This morning Po-Heeman Lynch asked the women if she pald ren. James W. Goodwin, a former roundsman of the Fourth precinct, told a sensational story. Sergount Magan was in the habit of bringing dissolate woman in the atation house for improper purposes.

As he turned out of the road in order to pass should be pulled up his horse with some difficulty and apologized for passing explaining that he was anxi-lous to overtake a man who was a quarter of a mile ahead. This may seem a little far forehed, but it is the partice in Nova Scotta. It may be remarked that in an extended journey this was the only person who was met that seemed to be in the least but of a harry The people there manifested a decided in climation to take things casy. In a village of 500, at the ringing of the village bell at 12 o'clock, every store in town is closed for one hour, while the proprietors go home for dinner. The same thing occurs again at 6 o'clock, business everywhere

It may be only a coincidence that while many patent medicines were adver-tised conspicuously no remedy for indiges tion was brought to one's attention. It is somewhat a matter of surprise to find in each small village a Salvation Army in full somewhat a matter of surprise to find in each small village a Salvation Army in full force, bass drum, barracks and all. One is apt to wender where they got their converts, for the churches are numerous and always well attended.

Taking into consideration the good reads for driving, the beautiful scenery, the first class conches and good railroad service, a journey through Neva Scotia is sure to be satisfactory. There are four water routes—and direct from Brooklyn by the steamers Portla and Servia. The three other lines leave Beston and are the Canada, Atlantic and Plant, direct to Halfax, with two large leas steamers the Yarmouth line, with two fine bants to Yarmouth, and the International Steamship company, with two well suppointed side wheel steamers raining to St. John.

The expanse of living in Nova Scotia is surprisingly choop. The writer boarded at a country hore five eight days at a total cost of $4.50.—Handligh Engle.

NO CONTROVERSY WITH FRANCE.

The Government Leaders Will Discousthe Propositiof Placing a Larger Parce of Subtrees in Chies to Protect Brillian

LONDON, Oct. 4.—Inquiries made by the Associated Press correspondent of the foreign office elicited the information that the calling of a cabinet council for this afternoon has no connection whatever with the meeting of the French cabinet on the same day.

The relations between Great Britals and France have certainly been straine during the past six months, since the a tacks of the French press on the Marqui of Dufferin, the Britsh ambrosator at Paris. Numerous colonial questions have also given rise to friction.

Although the government ministers would be gird to seize upon an occasion to discuss these matters, the cabinet would not have been summoned but for the dangerous appearance of the situa the dangerous appearance of the auto-tion in China.

The Marquis of Dufferin is still in the north of Irsiand, and he will not return until the end of the week. If the relations with France had been the cause of the summoning of a cabinet council Lord Dufferin would certainly have come to London to consult with Lord Rosebery, the premier.

The Marquis of Ripon, the colonial see retary, held a consultation last evening with various officials connected with at fairs in China.

The Indian office has been in com-munication with the vicercy and the com-mander-in-chief of the forces in India regarding the time requisite to dispatch troops to China. British Minister O'Con troops to Chims. British Minister O'Con-nor's dispatches from Pekin indicate that the danger to foreigners in China is con-siderable. Sir William Robinson, gover-nor of Hong Kong, and Admiral Fre-mantle, commander of the British fleet, are acting in conjuction with Mr. O'Con-nor for the protection of British residents. Admiral Fremantie has twenty vessels in Admirat Frenchis instwenty vessels in his fleet, but many of them are obsolete from a fighting point of view, and are only able to do duty as guardships. It is stated that China would make no objection to giving British troops a camp-ing ground on the mainland. The Reitish troops now at Hong Kong, about 500 in-fantry and two batteries of artillery, are quite inadequate to protect the British subjects at the various treaty ports,

The Paris correspondent of The Standard says that he has made impuries in the proper quarters and that he is in position to state that whatever tirget minimizations have been received by the British foreign office, they did not gome from France. A dispatch from Paris to The Daily News says there is no pend-ing question between France and Eng land grave enough to justify a seare.

Prof. L. D. Edwards, of Preston, Idaho, says: "I was all run down, weak, nervous and irritable through overwork. I suffered from brain fatigue, mental depression, etc. I became so weak and nervous that I could not sleep, I would arise tired, discouraged and blue. I began taking

Dr. Miles' Nervine
