WINK THE OTHER EYE. Chairman Wilson's services on behalf of English industries have been appropri-lieved now to be endangered by rebelious and unestrained troops. The cable ad-vices stating that the European powers are moving in that direction were shown to the secretary, who said that about three weeks age he had suggested to Ad-quet, and was moved to display his gratiquet, and was moved to display his gratitude by a speech which would have so-joined the heart of Cobden. He described the Luited States as having followed for twenty five years the Chinese policy of ports and other coast towns where for commercial seclusion, and asserted that the faisity and impotence of Protection as an economic system and its Incompolicy, and predicted that the manufacturing supremacy of the world would speedly go to the United States. All the monufacturers in the United Kingdom are now straining every effort to cheapen production and to cut wages and prices so as to force their goods into the United States and close up Amers loan factories. Chairman Wilson is the leader in Congress who has offered them this chance, and they appreciate his services; and when he tells them that the time is coming when commercial supremacy will be taken away from them, they put their tongues in their cheeks and pretend to be very serious. THE Rev. William Booth, the founder and the head of the Salvation Army, who has already arrived on this continent, is about to make a six months' tour of inspection of the Salvation Army in America. General Booth is a most interesting and forceful man. He began life with no advantages of birth, wealth or education as a lay exhorter of a small and obscure sect of Christians. But he soon outgrew the narrow limitations of such work, though he did so at first without being conscious whither he was tending. Indeed, it was the suspicion and jealousy of the ministers under whom he worked that drove him into founding the Salvation Army almost by accident. But, of course, uo secident can explain the establishment and growth of the Salvation Army. It Is entirely within bounds to say that to the unique genius and organizing skill of William Booth it owes its existence and success. And to say this is to put him among the remarkable religious leaders of the world. General Booth will not find the Salvation Army in this country the power that it has become in England. There are many reasons for this, perhaps the greatest being the fact that religious forces more or less akin to the Army are already at work here. Until recently English Christianity did little for the unchurched masses, and thus gave the Army an unoccupied field, which it had the wisdom to seize. But just because American Christianity is alive to the duty of reaching the masses, its feeling toward the Army is one of friendly sympathy; and its great founder will find that he has a bost of friends and well wishers in America, whose names are not recorded in the roster of the Sal-

"Mrs. Drayton will certainly file a reply to her husband's suit," said Mr. Shipman,
"There has never for a moment, been any doubt about that. The question of when her reply will be entered has been left entirely to the judgment of her counsel. All the reports that the time had expired or would expire, that she would allow would expire, that she would allow judg-ment to be taken by default and that she would not defend the suit, have been and are wickedly untrue. Mrs. Drayton's re-ply will be a full and absolute denial of each and every allegation of her husband's complaint."

Mr. Drayton is living quietly at Ber-nardsville, N. J., with his children, after having spent the summer at Bar Harbon. Mrs. Drayton is supposed to be in Paris.

Further Startling Evidence Before the Lexow Committee.

CHARGES AGAINST AN INSPECTOR.

A Woman Who Had Been Profusely Money Went to Captain, New Inspector McLaughlin,

NEW YORK, Oct. 5 .- "Commodore Gerry has eiled in here under full blast, and is now running down this committee be-cause in a stray puff of wind we ran across his bowspit vestorday. I would respect-fully suggest that when he comes before this committee he come with a pilot who is familiar with the rocks and shoals, with which he is evidently unfamiliar."

Headache, Indigestion, Debility, Catarrh, Rheumatism, Kidney and Liver Comwith which he is evidently unfamiliar."

It was in this facetious and nautical fashion that Chief Counsel Goff alluded to the refusal of Commodore Gerry, presi-dent of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children, to take an oath at the Lexow committee hearing yesterday.
Mr. Gerry had prepared a long type written statement, and he insisted upon reading it. Mr. Goff insisted that the evidence presented to the committee must be swor. presented to the committee must be sworn to. Then there was a war of words. Mr. Gerry accused the members and counsel of the committee of assaulting the work of the society. Mr. Goff insisted that the society had not been attacked, but he thought that the powers given to Mr. Gerry and his assistants were arbitrary.

Mr. Gerry said that Mr. Goff was trying to make political capital out of the attack, the name of the chief counsel having been suggested for mayor by the anti-Tam-many organizations at a meeting Wednesday night. Mr. Goff retorted that if he was a candidate that Mr. Gerry, whose name has been mentioned in this connec tion, would do well to look after his own chances. Mr. Gerry finally went way without reading his statement, and the regular examination of witnesses contin-

During the morning session much tes timony similar to that which had been already adduced was produced—of levies and attempted levies for "police protec-tion," of brutal assaults by officers on un-offending citizens, and of arrests on trumped up charges of keeping disorderly houses when the 'boodle' was not forthcoming. Thomas Lucas, who had been brutally clubbed by Officer Bernard A. Dunn, presented a sickening spectacle, but told his story of the assault without a break. Dunn, on the other hand. on the other hand, contradicted himself many times, and many of his statements were so evidently a tissue of lies that they excited the indignation of all who heard them. At the afternoon session a little woman dressed in black took the stand. Mr. Goff prefaced her exemination with a remarkable statement. "This morning," said he, "an attempt was made to get this woman out of the country." Mr. Goff did not go into details then. He drew from the wit-ness how she had lavished her money on ex-Wardman Frank Wilson, formerly un-der Captain Allaire. She was the keeper of a house of ill fame on Elizabeth street. Under threats of "pulling" the house, he got from her about everything she possessed. She furnished his house, bought a silver set, diamond rings for his wife and clothing for his children. Wilson, she and docting for its entered. Wison, she said, resigned from the force the day the committee opened its enimpaign. He was now living in Philadelphia. Then came a sensation. Inspector Me-

Then came a sensation. Inspector Mc-Laughlin's name was dragged in. Mc-Laughlin was formerly estitain of the Eleventh precinct. The woman swore that shopsid 6300 initiation fee to Wardman Burns under Captain McLaughlin, Every month she paid $50 to Burns, When Burns wanted a diamend stud he got $165 from her to purchase it. She said she was now broken down and penniless. Her money had gone into the police coffers.

Referring to the Gerry society agents, she said they collected money from all houses where girls under age were kept. Mr. Goff made the most of this bit of tes he was the son-in-law of Superinten Jenkins of the society. When she left New York the witness said she opened a saloon in Newark, and was raided by the the police. She went to Captain Cross and he sent Alderman Smith, of this city, to Newark, and the police there gave her protection. She is now penniless, and lives in Brooklyn,
"This morning," said she, "a man came up to me and said you are subpossed to up to me and said you are subpaned to go before the Lexow committee. 'How do you know,' I asked. 'I know,' he answered. 'You go right up to Inspector Melaughlin, and he will buy you off. I han I go before the Lexow committee.' I refused also advice."

When asked by Mr. Goff about how
