ON THE MOVE.

The Republican Executive Committee of Schuylkill county is displaying much energy in pushing the local canvass. It is holding or preparing to hold public meetings at all important points, securing the best speakers available. These speakers include home talent as well as the best that can be procured from other places. The new election law leaves little for committees to do except to promote such meetings and get out the vote. The vote can no longer be greatly influenced at the polls, the voting being done in booths, where there is absolute privacy unless the voter swears that he needs assistance by reason of physical or educational infirmity. It is evident that the County Committee is not going to remand itself to "innocuous desuetude," but that it will find abundant work in promoting public discussion and in canvassing at the residences of the voters. All of these things are legitimate campaign work, and we are glad that the Committee realizes the value of adapting its work to the new situation. We believe the meetings will be well attended, and productive of good results. The way to get a big majority for the ticket throughout the state, and to gain in Congressmen, is to keep up a lively canvass in every section, for enthusiasm is contagious, and so, too, is apathy.

DUNN'S REVIEW fills two pages with abstracts of reports regarding retail trade at cities in all parts of the country, which show an increase over last year in staples apparently about 10 per cent., but on the whole somewhat less, while in comparison with 1892 there appears a decrease which is thought to average about 20 per cent. While some trades are doing well, and in a few cities better than in previous years, others are lagging behind, and in several cities the aggregate is said to be less than a year ago. That there has been a recent increase is clearly shown, but it may also be perceived that reductions of wages and want of employment lessen the buying power of the people. It is natural to infer from such accounts that the further orders, for which the industries are waiting, can hardly be expected, unless distribution to consumers expands somewhat more.

THE prosperity of the people depends upon the employment and the wages of labor. There is no other test that is worth anything, and if merchants of this country were handling more goods to-day than the merchants of England, that would be no evidence of general well-being here, if the wages paid were as poor as those paid in London, or if the proportion of unemployed was as great and the sufferings of the prisoners of poverty were as severe. If our laws do not give us a better condition of things than existed before the struggle for that enactment prostrated all business and depressed all wages, the people will condemn the policy which injures them, whether some traders get big business and profits or not. There is not a man of average intelligence in the state who does not know that there has been a great reduction in wages since the election of 1892 and a frightful one in the number of men unemployed. It is all because of Republican laws. Democrats now indignantly assert. But the Democrats had given to them two years ago the power to alter Republican laws as much as they pleased, and if they have been incompetent, or have wasted two years in wrangling over partisan devices, or have been corrupted by the money of trusts and monopolies, the responsibility rests with them.

An astonishing rebuke has been administered to President Cleveland in the mutilation of the "Democratic Campaign Hook" in order to expunge his famous letters to Representative Wilson and Catchings. He need not be downcast, however. The Republican managers and the Republican press will not permit the country to forget those notable letters. They are check-full of first class campaign matter for the Republican party, and will be certain to have a wide circulation. "Party perfidy and party dishonor," "the communism of self" and "the deadly blight of treason blasting the counsels of the brave" are too good things to lose. They will not be lost.

REV. I. W. HILL.

Pastor Methodist Church, Accord, N. Y., Says Cancerous Diseases Can be Cured.

Accord, N. Y.—Under the old school method it was believed that any disease of cancerous growth could never be cured. The surgeon's knife was resorted to, but the old trouble was sure to break out again. Since the discovery of Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy, all this has been changed—the action of Favorite Remedy upon the system leaves no trace of poison in the blood, the seeds of disease are expelled and lost health restored.

A notable case of the efficacy of Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy is that of the Rev. I. W. Hill, of this town. Some years ago he was suffering from a cancer of long standing, on his hip, and finally concluded to have it removed. In speaking of his case, Pastor Hill said: "About three weeks previous to having the operation performed, I purchased Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy and continued taking it for some time after the cancer was removed. Ten long years have passed since then, and no trace of the ugly thing has returned. I speak with knowledge in the highest terms of Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy as being able to cure the troubles for which it is prepared."

One of our local physicians said, in explaining the demand for Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy: "It acts as a nerve and blood food, and to my knowledge it has made many permanent cures of Nervous Debility, Sleeplessness, Dyspepsia, Rheumatism and of the sickness peculiar to women, where other treatments have failed. For headaches, constipation and the run-down condition, one often suffers with, there is nothing else so good."

BRAVE FIREMEN KILLED

Six Lives Lost in a Conflagration at Detroit.

LOOKS BAD FOR THE FIRE CHIEF.

Estimations That He Exposed the Men To a High Control to Unnecessary Danger—Probability That the Charges Will be Generally Investigated.

DETROIT, Mich., Oct. 6.—Fire yesterday completely gutted Keenan & John's furniture store, at 215, 217 and 219 Woodward avenue, entailing a loss of $20,000 on stock and $25,000 on the building. The fire started in the boiler room and shot up the freight elevator shaft, obtaining such headway that the firemen were unable to save any portion of the building or contents.

The dead, all of whose bodies have been recovered from the ruins, are Michael H. Donaghy, lieutenant of chemical engine company; J. H. Daly, pipeman; John W. Fogel, pipeman; Julius Cummings, pipeman; Martin Ball, pipeman; Frederick Bussey, electrical worker and substitute fireman.

In addition to the above ten firemen were injured, some of them very severely. After the interior of the building had been partially burned out it became apparent that the front and rear walls were in danger of falling, but Fire Chief Elliott permitted his men to advance with the hose as closely as possible, both from front and rear. Suddenly the front wall sagged forward, and the great mass of hot brick, timber and iron crashed to the sidewalk with a tremendous roar. Almost at the same instant the rear wall crumbled and fell into the alley in the rear. Above the tumult of the panic-stricken crowd rose the shrieks of the wounded and imprisoned firemen. Sixteen in all were in the path of the falling walls, but ten escaped alive, after a few seconds of thrilling experiences.

When the first crack of the falling floors was heard the men started to run, but the walls came down on them so swiftly that all were buried under tons of brick and mortar. The walls did not fall outside of the middle of the sidewalk, and the last brick had scarcely touched the walk before the work of rescue began.

The first body recovered was that of Lieutenant Donaghy, then the bodies of Fogel, Daly, Cummings and Ball were taken out in succession. Michael Gray was badly injured, as was also Stevens. The building was a five-story brick, with 15-inch filled walls, and it is said that it had been condemned as being unsafe. The insurance on the building foots up $10,000 and on the stock about $20,000.

Chief Elliott is being roundly scolded for risking the lives of his men, when, as it is claimed, there was no call for such a hazard. He says that he had no reason to believe the walls were unsafe, and that the men were only doing their regular duties as firemen. The walls of the building, as was well known, were considered especially thin, so much so that the city building inspectors had refused to allow the owners of a new building now being erected on adjoining property to use the partition wall. It is considered probable that an investigation as to the necessity for risking the men's lives will be held.

Wang Fong Tsao Condemned.

SHANGHAI, Oct. 6.—Wang Fong Tsao, late Chinese minister at Tokio, has had an audience at Peking, and was severely censured on account of his ignorance of the Japanese designs in Korea. Two Japanese spies have been arrested at Nankin. One of them confessed that he had been furnishing information to the Japanese, and added that he regretted that he had been captured before he finished his work. The other prisoner, a clerk to the other spy, pleaded youth and ignorance in extenuation of his offense. Both are now awaiting the decision of the viceroy in their case.

A Minister Killed in a Fight.

LOUISVILLE, Oct. 6.—Rev. John W. Walker was killed near Corydon, Ind., by David Wheat. The latter had received a note warning him to leave the country on peril of being whipped. He was visited by masked men last Sunday night, but drove them away with a few shots. Thursday Mr. Walker and his son Alva went to see Wheat, and ordered him to give him the warning note. Upon his refusal, a fight followed, and in the melee Wheat knocked the minister down with a billet of wood and killed him.

Captured an American Heiress.

PARIS, Oct. 6.—The civil marriage of Miss Elizabeth Sperry, of San Francisco, to Prince Andre Poniatowsky took place in the office of the mayor at Nancy yesterday morning. The religious ceremony took place today in the Catholic church of St. Pierre de Chaillet and afterwards in the American Protestant church of the Holy Trinity. The bride has a fortune of $1,000,000. The prince has ample literary and artistic ability but has no fortune.

Prohibition Nomination Papers Too Late.

HARRISBURG, Oct. 6.—Among the callers at the state department was Chairman H. D. Patton, of the Prohibition state committee, who wanted to know about the latest certificates of nomination from Philadelphia and Scranton. He was shown that the certificates, while mailed in ample time, did not reach the state department until one day too late, they being sent by registered letter. It is believed the courts will order the filing of the papers.

Charged with His Uncle's Murder.

DETROIT, Oct. 6.—William D. Trembley is locked up at police headquarters on suspicion of being connected with the murder of Charles H. Chanin, his uncle. Trembley is the missing heir to the Chanin estate in New York and who sold his interest in the Chanin estate to John H. Seltz. Detectives claim that they are weaving a strong chain of evidence against Trembley.

Held Up the Whole Family.

UTICA, Mich., Oct. 6.—Two masked men entered the house of Samuel Hotchkiss, a wealthy farmer near here, at midnight, and at the point of a revolver held the entire family up. Hotchkiss made some show of resistance, and was struck on the head with a club and fatally wounded. The robbers escaped.

The Weather.

Generally fair, westerly winds; slightly cooler in eastern New York and extreme eastern Pennsylvania.

CAPTAIN HOWGATE TALKS

Declines That His Arrest Might Have Been Made Years Ago.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 6.—Captain Howgate was interviewed at the district jail as to District Attorney Birney's purpose to bring the prisoner to trial within the next sixty days.

"I am glad to hear it," said he. "I am ready for trial at any time. I ask no favors" "but that simple justice shall be done me. If I want is fair treatment. That I believe I shall have."

Referring to his capture by ex-Chief Drummond Capt. Howgate smiled and said: "I have been great, I am amused at what Mr. Drummond claims was a great piece of detective enterprise. The whole truth of the matter is I have openly walked the streets of New York for the last eight years. Hardly a day or night has passed that I have not recognized and been recognized by people of Washington."

"The fact of the matter is that I could have been arrested at any time during these years. So the impression which I am told prevails that I was not really wanted seems to me to be pretty well warranted."

Socialism in Germany.

LONDON, Oct. 6.—The Times Berlin correspondent says that the center of the electoral struggle in Norway has shifted to Christians, where the election of delegates is fixed for next Thursday. Last week's election in Bergen shows that the Radical leaders, though they avoid an open alliance, have a tacit agreement with the Socialists. As a result of this agreement three Radicals and a Socialist named Brunehorst were returned for the four Bergen seats. Brunehorst's return is evidently an acknowledgment of the indebtedness of the Radicals to the labor party, and with him socialism makes its first appearance in the Norwegian parliament. The Radicals, however, are losing ground in the rural districts.

Is He After a Senatorship?

CHICAGO, Oct. 6.—Reports are current that the erstwhile prominent Democrat, Judge Lyman Trumbull, in appearing as a Populist campaign speaker, is carrying out the part of a deep laid scheme. It is asserted that having made himself solid with the Populists he hopes to be the choice for United States senator of such representatives of that party as may succeed in being elected to the Illinois legislature. It is not impossible that the Populists may hold the balance of power in the joint assembly, and it is claimed that Judge Trumbull sees a chance to have himself forced upon the Democrats as a compromise, and Franklin MacVeagh dropped as an impossibility.

Great Britain Will Not Interfere.

LONDON, Oct. 6.—A dispatch received here from Berlin says that it has been learned on high authority that the meeting of the British cabinet was called to discuss a proposal for combined action on the part of the powers to interfere and prevent the overthrow of the Chinese dynasty, which it was claimed would result in anarchy in the empire and the massacre of Europeans. One power, it is said, favored a compulsory settlement of the Chinese-Japanese dispute. It was decided that Great Britain should not interfere.

The Crime of a Discarded Lover.

AKRON, O., Oct. 6.—Henry D. Tolley, a traveling salesman, was brought to task by his fiancée, Miss Gertrude Lewis, daughter of Judge Lewis, for false representation regarding his business. Yesterday Tolley called on Miss Lewis, but found her unrecognizing. He then chloroformed her and carried her to an upper room. She partly regained consciousness and rushed to the street, where she asked protection of a passing mail carrier. As the mail carrier entered the house Tolley drew a revolver and shot himself, dying instantly.

Mrs. Hubbard Wants a Divorce.

CHICAGO, Oct. 6.—Daniel B. Hubbard, the merchant from Grafton, Mass., who created a sensation on the night of Sept. 27 by shooting his young wife and a friend who were walking on Evanston avenue, is defendant in a suit for divorce brought in the circuit court by Louise Hubbard. She makes the shooting the cause of her action for divorce. Mrs. Hubbard says she met Hubbard in Europe while studying music and they were married in Scotland in December, 1891.

Whiteyettes Badly Defeated.

ST. JOHN'S, N. F., Oct. 6.—Two very important by-elections were conducted yesterday which will no doubt have great influence on the several contests yet to take place. The elections occurred Tuesday, but the polls were not declared till yesterday, owing to severe weather preventing the collection of the ballot boxes. The majorities against Whiteyette candidates were largely increased.

Fusion Falls in North Dakota.

FARGO, N. D., Oct. 6.—The Democratic executive committee adjourned yesterday after an all night discussion of the Populist committee's final ultimatum concerning fusion. The Populists refused to force Newton, the candidate for the supreme bench, off their ticket, and the Democrats refused to make any more concessions, and will let the tickets remain as they are.

The Car's Condition Hopeless.

LONDON, Oct. 6.—The correspondent at Vienna of The Telegraph says he has learned from a trustworthy source that the condition of the car is hopeless. Temporary improvement is only possible by a complete abandonment of state business. His majesty is conscious of his condition, and has been lately engaged in writing a sort of political testament.

Both Detectives Killed.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Oct. 5.—William Underhill and James Carrer, two mail hands, engaged in a deadly encounter over a crypt at Market Tree, and both were killed. Carrer used a shotgun on Underhill with deadly effect, but Underhill, after he had been shot, succeeded in mortally wounding his antagonist with a Winchester.

Impersonated for Contempt of Court.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 5.—Ex-District Attorney Burnett was last evening sentenced by Judge Sage to six months' imprisonment in Warren county jail for contempt of court. His contempt was a neglect to pay over a sum of money which he held in trust when ordered by the United States court to pay it.
