THIRDEDITION

THE OLD, OLD STORY.

The Corbett-Fitz-banaous Fight-Will Warry Jacksonville for Awhile.

Jacksonville, for Awhile.

Jacksonvyller, Fla., (jet. 13.—Unless there shall be a radical change in public sentiment there will be no apposition to the proposed fight here between Corbett and Flizzimmons. Mr. Blehardson, one of the principal backers of the Florida Athletic chall, is reported to have said that the new side would not have emburked in this scheme if there was any chance of one the new cinb would not have emberted by this scheme if there was any chance of op-position by the governor or bostile legisla-tion at Tullahaesee next spring, so the opinion here is that the backers of the club have been given 'inside' assurance that they have nothing to fear from the legislature, rome surprise is felt at the public dien in the Utizen—a paper which took no stand in appointum to the Corbett-Mitchell Light when it was pending—of an editorial article as follows:

"Allow us to remark right new that the preliminaries for this so-called glove con-test may as well be absorbed at once. As soon as the legislature of most spring shall have been organized, and some member swigget the attention of the speaker, we shall have as tron bound, anti-prize fight have that will cover every phase of this and ject. There is no mistake about this, and ject. There is no mistake about this, and Messrs. Corbett and Fitzalmaners only pre-pare to take their show to some how didized and more lawless country.

Escaped by a Legal Error.

Washington, Oct. 15.—Robert Isdale "military prisone No. 55." at the Leaven worth military prison, has had a narrow worth military prison, has had a narrow rescape from a romarkably severe sentence. He was tried by a court martial for writing letters threatening to kill Colonel Pope, the superintendent of the prison, and for ordeavoring to secure the aid of a fellow prisoner in an attempt upon the life of the officer. He was convicted and sentenced to be confined at hard labor in a sentence of the confined at hard labor in a sentence of the confined at hard labor in a sentence of the confined at hard labor in a penitentiary for seven years. The convic-tion was all right, but the court made at tend was all right, out the court made an error in the sentence. It night have sentenced the prisoner legally is even ten years in the military prison, but not for any time in a pentientiary. This fault made the sentence illegal, and the war department disapproved of it, which action prevents further proceedings against Islake on the charge.

A Bomb Outrage Prevented.

Brustsonan, England, Oct. 13.—A glass tinle, filled with grappowder and bullets, charged with chlorate of petash and hav-ing a lighted fine attached to it, was dis-covered outside the Metropolitan bank, at Walsall, a town eight ridles from this city. The fuse was extinguished before an explosion could occur. Walsall was the same of the anarchistic prosecutions which occurred in the beginning of 1892. which occurred in the beginning of 1802.

The Chanvin Inquest,

Deracit, Oct. 13.—The inquest on the body of the murdered hermit, Charles B. Chauvin, was resumed today. The sensational feature of the case is the fact that one of the nephews and heirs to the large fortune of the dead man had sold his interest in the estate, amounting to $125,000, for something 10s 82,000. He was arrested charged with the minu, but has since been charged with the crime, but has since beer

An Old Woman Charged with Murder, Balthment, Oct. 13.—John Boltyles, 61 years old, died yesterday under suspicious eirenmetances, and his wife Mary, and 60 years, is held at the Canton police station charged with causing his death. He died of internal hemmorphages, produced, it is dialined, by a kick in the stomach.

Pall Biver Strike Ended.

FALL RIVER, Mass., Oct. 18.—The Mule Spinners' association voted vesterday to accept the manufacturers proposition. It is believed this action will break the strike of the 21,000 operatives in this city, an that all will return to work on Monday.

To Revise New Jersey's Game Laws. Therefor, Oct. 13.—The state board of fish and game commissioners held a conference at the capitol yesterday regarding the necessity for a revision of the game and the necessity for a revision of the game and fish laws of the state. They are in a mud-died condition, and it was determined to have them all repealed at the next session of the legislature. In place of them a gen-eral act to cover the whole subject will be passed. Nearly all of the forty-one fish wardens of the state attended the meeting. Hereafter the fish warden making the most arrests in a year, the one scenning the mest convictions and the one submit-ting the best yearly report will each reting the best yearly report will each re-ceive a gold medal.

Judges Appeal to the Czar.

VILNA, Russia, Oct. 13.—The trial of seventy peasants of Kroscho, whose resistance to the Cossachs who chosed their Catholic church in November last, led to a terrible massacra, was concluded yesterday. The majority of the accused were con-The majority of the accused were con-victed and sontenced to imprisonment for terms ranging from ten years' penal servi-tude to four months in prison. The court, however, in view of the provocation, and the brutality of the Cossacia, resolved to petition the czar to reduce the ten years' sentence to a year's imprisonment and to pardon the other prisoners

An Alleged Foreign Contract Laborer, New Your, Oct. 13.—John James How ard, who it is claimed came to this coun try as a contract laborer, having been engaged in England by Hon. Levi P. Morton to enter his employ as a coschman, was taken to kills Island yesterday. He was in charge of Prentiss C. Dodge, the immigration inspector of the district of Ver-mont, who made the arrest. It is expected that an effort will be made to have How and's case brought into court. Otherwise he will be sent back to loughed on the teamship Paris next Wednesday.

In a State of Siege,

CAPE Town, Africa. Oct., 18.—The correspondence town of Laurence Marquez is n a complete state of slege. All the treets on the land side of the town are burriesded to prevent if possible, the entry of the Kaffirs, who are in arms against the Portuguese. Guns are mounted at the hardcades, and a grand is kept by soven-teen Portuguese. Four hundred soldiers form a cordon from Beren to Rouben Point. The town will be at the mercy of the natives if they make an attack.

Fears for a Passenger Steamer

BALTIMORE, Oct. 13 .- The North German Baltimons, Oct. is.—The North German Lloyd steamer Brannschweig, which satled from Bremen on Sept. 27, should have ar-rived at her pier at Leonist Point on Turs-day. The local agents have heard nothing of the steamer since she salled from the other side. On board the Brannschweig are 142 steamer tassenous board to points are 142 steerage passengers bound to points in the west. She is an old vessel and not very fast, and may have been delayed by the recent heavy weather at sea.

A Few Terse Paragraphs on Events of the Times.

Dr. John Salupas has moved to Nes York, where he hopes to secure more latitude for the expression of his views without danger to his friends and meighbors. His mission here proved a failure and many who beirlanded him have had occasion to feel disappointed over happenings since his departure.

The close of the Shenandoah base ball genson has wound up the usefulness of the Shenandosh syndicate. If current reports are correct the syndicate lost heavily and several sore creditors are left. Next season the town will be obliged to get along with an amateur club, unless responsible and enterprising people step into the field. Good faith will be required next season to make the game a success and the management will have to tabor Sanday playing.

The election officers who will serve at the polls next month will be objects of pity, since no relief has been afforded for the arduous duties they must perform for small pay. The HERALD has sought to bring about relief in a division of the wards, but one of its contemporaries and a few hidr bound Democrats opposed to the suggestion has succeeded in warding it off. If the Democrats have a sure thing in the town a division would not injure them and they should not be afraid to

AMUSEMENTS.

"OUR DUST VISITORS,"

"Our Irish Visitors" is one of the best farce comedies without a doubt now before the public, and the success does not depend upon any individual one, as the company this year is far above the average one. With such clever artists as W. J. Mason, Frank Davis, Victoria Walters, Enrily Northrup and Memie Fish, it may be judged that a performance of the highest order is assured. "Our Irish Visitors" will appear at Ferguson's theatre this evening.

"AFTER THE BALLS!"
This laughable and spirited comedy, adapted from the French by Joseph Herbert, will be produced at Ferguson's theatre next Tuesday evening, and those who are fond of merriment will do well to drop in and see "After the Ball." It is sustained by an unusual strong comedy company, selected by Mr. Herbert, the author. They have been very fortunate in securing Emmet Corrigan to head the east. Mr. Corrigan has been for the past five years a member of Charles Frohman's New York Empire theatre stock company. He will introduce his celebrated and novel Shakespear's "Seven Ages," in which he will appear in seven distinct characters (with complete change of costumes and make-up suited to each character). Mr. Corrigan is a drawing card in bimself, and we would recommend all to see him. Don't Tobacco Spit or Smoke your Life Away Is the truthful, startling title of a little book that tells all about No-to-bac, the wanderful harmless guaranteed tobacco habit cure. The cost is triffing and the man who wants to quit and can't runs no physical or financial risk in using "No-to-bac." Sold by all druggists.
