

EVENING HERALD.

VOL. IX.—NO. 256.

SHENANDOAH, PA., MONDAY, OCTOBER 15, 1894.

ONE CENT

Big Bargain!

This beautiful ROCKER, upholstered in fine silk plush, Only $2.25. J. P. Williams & Son.

Special Sale on....

Broadhead Dress Goods.

Most of the trade know the quality and value of the Broadhead goods. For wear there is nothing in the market to equal it. The weave is of hard finish and will catch no dust. For one week these fabrics are reduced from 45c to 25c, and from 25c to 15c. This is certainly an extraordinary offer.

116-18 N. Main St.

J. P. Williams & Son

"Fancy China.

Chas. Girvin,

Successor to GIBBY, DUNCAN & WAILEY,

8 South Main Street.

The Tariff Has Done It! What?

Caused the manufacturers to unload 200 pairs Ladies' fine vice kid hand-welted Button Boots at a cut of $1 a pair, former price $3.25; we sell them at $2.25. This is an exceedingly low price. Great Bargains are offered by

Joseph Ball,

14 South Main Street, Shenandoah, Pa.

Buckwheat Cakes.

NEW FISHING CREEK

Buckwheat Flour.

Buckwheat Flour.

Best in the market—strictly pure goods.

New Mackerel.

The quality of Mackerel is improving. They will be still better in a few days. NEW BLOATER MACKEREL, NEW No. 1 MACKEREL just received.

FOR SALE.

3 Cars No. 1 Timothy Hay, 1 Car Corn, 2 Cars White Oats.

AT KEITER'S.

SUNDAY AT THE CHURCH.

The Anti-Bowmanites Still Hold the Evangelical Fort.

THEIR STAY UNCERTAIN!

A Meeting of the Congregation to be Held To-night to Form a Plan of Action—At Other Churches.

Every seat in the Evangelical church, at the corner of Cherry and West streets, was occupied last evening, many people who are not regular attendants at the services having been attracted by the announcement that it would probably be the last service of the anti-Bowmanites in the church.

As on the preceding Sunday, reference to the church troubles was made repeatedly during the service, both in prayer and sermon, but no announcement was made as to the present status of the case. The pastor, Rev. Lichtenwalner, took the text for the sermon from Philippians IV: 4: "Rejoice in the Lord always; and again, I say, rejoice." The pastor said that perhaps the text sounded strange, in view of the troubles the congregation was experiencing, but it was nevertheless appropriate to the occasion as the troubles which afflict the people are but blessings in disguise and that they should rejoice that they have a mediator in the Savior.

Just before the close of the service Rev. Lichtenwalner announced that the congregation would meet in the church at eight o'clock to-night to consider the situation which has been brought about by the decision of the Supreme Court and arrange plans for the future.

The church has been stripped of its carpets by the trustees under legal advice that the carpets are personal property of the congregation, and before the church is vacated the chandeliers and the pews will be removed. It is expected the Bowmanites will take steps to gain possession this week.

The pulpit of the Welsh Baptist church, corner of Oak and West streets, was occupied yesterday by Rev. Abel J. Parry, of Wales. The clergyman preached in Welsh at the morning service and in English in the evening. He is a man of commanding presence and a forcible and impressive pulpit orator. Rev. Parry is the author of a number of religious works and is known to the Welsh people throughout the world as one of the most able of their countrymen engaged in Christian work. Both services were attended by large numbers of people from neighboring towns. Rev. Parry went to Shamokin this morning.

Harvest Home services were held in the Methodist Episcopal church, on East Oak street, last evening. The interior of the church was handsomely decorated with plants, flowers and yielding of the harvest season. The pulpit was a beautiful sight. Rev. Bridgman, the pastor, delivered an effective sermon appropriate to the occasion.

There was a large attendance in the Methodist Episcopal church, on East Oak street, last evening, to hear an able discourse by Rev. William Powick on "Is there balm in Gilead?"

The Base Ball.

The Shenandoah HERALD objects because the Record published the defence of the Shenandoah base ball management. The Record is not concerned in this dispute. Our own experience is that sporting affairs usually end with a bankrupt treasury, and those who have done honest work fall to get their honest pay.—Mahogany Record. Our contemporary mistakes the HERALD's position. No objection has been made to anything the Record has done or said. The objection was lodged against the Shenandoah Base Ball Association misleading the public.

Rupture.

Cure guaranteed. No operation. In quire at the Shenandoah drug store, No 8 South Main street. 9-13-4f

A Non-Suit.

A $10,000 libel suit against the Morning News of Lancaster has been non-suited. Peter Honohman claimed that while he was coroner a boy was killed on a railway and the paper charged him with having sworn a jury which included stockholders of the railway company, in order to clear the corporation of blame. Honohman claimed he was defeated for re-nomination by the article. In granting the non-suit the Judge ruled the publication complained of was a proper subject for newspaper comment.

At the Theatre.

What is destined to become a very successful and funny comedy is "After the Ball," which will be produced here for the first time at Ferguson's theatre to-morrow evening. The company is headed by Emmet Corrigan, late of Charles Frohman's New York Empire theatre stock company. Together with "After the Ball" Mr. Corrigan will present between the second and third acts, his celebrated burlesque of Shakespeare's "Seven Ages," showing different characters of life from the cradle to the grave, the seven distinct changes being made without leaving the stage.

PERSONAL.

John Conlin, of Minersville, visited town yesterday.

George Beddall, Jr., of Mt. Carmel, was in town yesterday.

Meyer Kolb, of Philadelphia, is the guest of town friends.

Miss Annie Burke spent Saturday and Sunday with Pottsville friends.

Constable Thomas Toth spent to-day transacting business at the county seat.

Mrs. John I. Williams, of Mt. Carmel, spent yesterday as a guest of town friends, S. G. M. Hollinger, M. M. Burke, J. R. Coyle and T. B. Beddall, Esq., represented the legal profession at Pottsville to-day.

Miss Nettie Beaver, of Nonesuch, is the guest of the Hoover family, on West Coal street.

Miss Idaho P. Kolb, one of our popular public school teachers, is confined to her bed with illness.

Joseph Smith, wine clerk at McElhenney's cafe, spent Sunday at Reading visiting the fair sex.

M. P. Quinn, the Pottsville contractor, was in town to-day on business connected with the public water works.

Hon. Grant Herring, of Bloomsburg, was a guest of the Hess family, on West Lloyd street, yesterday. Mr. Herring and his father were among the most prominent residents of this town several years ago.

On Duty Again.

Frank W. McDermott, the genial and wide-awake local manager for the Philadelphia and Reading Telegraph Company, has resumed duty. Mr. McDermott was obliged to give up work on the 7th of last July on account of illness and since that time has been devoting his attention to recuperation. We are gratified in being able to state that the rest has been very beneficial and the skillful young operator is now able to work the key with the energy of his palmy days. Mr. Walter McGinness was the substitute during Mr. McDermott's absence and made himself very popular with the patrons of the office.

Almost Bled to Death.

As August Gilski opened the door of Pribula's saloon, on East Centre street, to enter the place he received a fearful blow in the face from a beer glass. The blow was such a hard one that it shattered the glass and broke the victim's nose, the pieces of the glass badly cutting the man's face. Gilski was taken to Dr. Hamilton's office. He bled profusely and after the injuries were dressed was so weak from loss of blood that it was necessary to take him home on a stretcher. John Olefski was the man who dealt the blow. He pleaded guilty and said he did not know why he hit the man. He was sent down to Pottsville in default of bail.

Very Acceptable Lay-Out.

Those who were fortunate enough to visit McElhenney's cafe Saturday and partake of his hospitality are loud in that gentleman's praise as a caterer. His soured-kroft lunch was superb. The public took full advantage of his invitation and there was a continuous stream of people through the cafe all evening. The ladies appreciated the opportunity for indulging in sour kroft, as they crowded the spacious dining parlors all evening. It is hoped that Mr. McElhenney will tender the public another invitation at an early day.

A Free Fight.

Mike Watella and Phil Spanella, Italians, got into a fight on East Lloyd street Saturday night with Poles named Andrew Rachits and William Rebk. Watella was severely beaten on the head with a bottle and Spanella lost several teeth and had his nose broken in the fight. Police-men O'Hara and Dougherty arrested the Poles and each was placed under $500 bail by Justice Toomey.

The Davis Funeral.

The funeral of Superintendent John J. Davis took place yesterday afternoon from the family residence at St. Nicholas. The attendance was very large, a special train of fifteen cars being required to convey the relatives and friends to Ashland, where interment was made. The local Masonic lodge sent a large delegation to the funeral.

Woman Assaulted.

At about twelve o'clock Saturday night Mrs. Martha Stanawicz rushed into Justice Toomey's office with blood streaming from a number of wounds on her head. She said that William Pukis had attacked her with a club. Constable Giblin made an unsuccessful search for Pukis.

Some Cold Weather Bargains.

Special values offered this week in ladies' and children's coats, shawls, blankets, underwear, flannels and woolen dress goods. Our prices are always lower than you expect to pay and our assortments in the various departments were never so complete as now.

L. J. WILKINSON,
39 South Main street,
Shenandoah, Pa.

10-15-4f

Another Rally.

The Republicans of town will hold their second rally next Wednesday evening. A mass meeting will be held in Robbins' opera house and will be addressed by a number of prominent speakers, among them ex-Lieutenant Governor Davis.

Fresh oysters opened at the White House daily, 121 North Main street, Shenandoah. 10-15-4f

REAL ESTATE DEALINGS.

A New Building For the Phoenix Fire Company.

HARKINS PROPERTY SOLD!

To be Transformed into a Hose House. The "Herald" Property Also Sold. Room for a Factory.

It is gratifying to know that in spite of the general complaint of hard times there are people in town who have money and grit to expend it in a channel which will give some of the unemployed a chance to better their condition. Two important real estate deals have just been made and they will be of direct benefit to many of the masons, carpenters, bricklayers and other workmen.

One of the deals is the purchase of the Harkins property, on North Jardin street, by the Phoenix Hose Company. The consideration is $4,000. The property immediately adjoins the hose house on the south side and is now occupied by two-story frame dwellings which were constructed many years ago.

The object of the purchase is to enable the hose company to provide itself with larger and more suitable quarters than it has at present. The old buildings on the property just purchased will be razed and a brick structure will be put up in their place. It has not been decided whether the building will be two or three stories high, but a plan for the latter will probably be decided upon.

It is intended to make the building one of the most complete fire company headquarters in this part of the state. The first floor will be used for the apparatus. The second floor will be divided into a loafing, reading and bath rooms. Should a three-story structure be decided upon the upper floor will be fitted up as a lodge room. The company will hold a ball on New Year's Eve to raise money for the building fund.

Another deal is the purchase of the property on East Coal street now occupied by the HERALD Publishing Company. The property was sold by the company to the Schuykill Hat & Cap Manufacturing Company on Saturday, and under the terms of the sale possession is to be surrendered on December 1st, next. The negotiations for this sale had been under way for almost a year.

The purchasers will transform the present two-story brick structure into a three-story factory, abandoning the present quarters on North White street, which have become too small for their constantly increasing business. It is intended to equip the new building with all the latest improved machinery for the manufacture of hats and caps and make it a complete plant in every detail.

Messrs. Seff and Lauterstein, representatives of the company, were on the ground to-day and said they intended to begin building operations at once, but in such a manner as not to interfere with the present occupants. The new structure will be wider than the present one, the third story taking the full width of the old building to the rear.

The HERALD Publishing Company will make preparations at once to vacate the property and has three good places in view within half a square of the corner of Main and Centre streets. A location will probably be decided upon before the close of this week. The transfer of the office from the outskirts to the heart of the town will be a great advantage to the publishers.

Keep Your Feet Dry.

Just received a full line of cork-sole shoes and water-proof boots. Also a full line of ladies', misses' and children's shoes, which will be sold at the lowest bottom prices. Higgins', 34 South Main street. 10-5-4f

A Cooking Club.

The Cooking Club is the title of a new organization of young ladies of Mt. Carmel. What the object of the association is cannot be definitely determined, though it is claimed that it is the desire of these young ladies to learn to cook. In other words, the young woman of Mt. Carmel hopes some day to be a thing of joy to her husband and when she promises to bake him something nice she will fulfill it by placing before him a plate of toothsome cookies instead of the notorious "slinkers."

New Candy Kitchen.

S. Rosasco, of Philadelphia, opened a candy kitchen on Saturday, Oct. 13th, in the Dougherty building, 34 West Centre street. Fresh candies made every day. Wholesale and retail. 10-12-3f

Electric Railway Extensions.

The Centralia branch of the Shamokin-Mt. Carmel street railway is well under way. The work is being pushed from the Centralia end and it is expected to be finished by next December. The Locust Gap branch will not be started until spring.

The First Snow.

The first snow of the season in this region fell yesterday afternoon. It did not last long, but the flakes were sufficient in quantity to give the cum banks a thin white covering.

ADVISORY COUNCIL.

A County Organization Formed at Ashland by the Jr. O. U. A. M.

ASHLAND, Oct. 13.—An important and well-attended meeting of the representatives of the Junior Order United American Mechanics from Schuylkill and Northumberland counties was held here on Saturday, in the P. O. S. of A. hall. The result of the meeting will prove of much benefit to the order in those two counties, as subsequent events will prove.

A permanent organization was effected to be known as the Advisory Council of Schuylkill and Northumberland counties, and regular monthly meetings will be held at different towns for the consideration of such matters as may be of interest to the order. A county organizer will very likely be placed in the field.

The most important matter under consideration at the meeting was the compulsory education, employment of nuns as teachers in the public schools, and other matters that will come before the Legislature in the shape of bills at the next session.

A permanent organization was effected by the election of the following officers: Jr. P. Councilor, Wm. Shertle, of Pottsville; Councilor, S. H. Kepner, Orwigsburg; V. Councilor, Thos. Sanger, Mt. Carmel; H. Sec'y, Dr. R. R. Raessler, Mt. Carmel; Treasurer, J. J. Snyder, Mahanoy City; F. Sec'y, J. L. Seltzer, Palo Alto; Cond., S. W. Brown, Cresona; Guards, Chas. Applegate, Kingtown, and John C. Mast, Ashland; Law Committee, Thomas Sanger and Dr. R. R. Raessler; Committee on Resolutions and Press, C. T. Stranglin, Charles Yohe and Wm. H. Detroy.

The next meeting will be held at Pottsville on November 17th, at 2 o'clock p. m., in the Jr. O. U. A. M. hall.

A new lot of window shades at Fricke's carpet store. 10-10-4f

PENCIL POINTS.

Local News Gleanings Condensed for Hasty Perusal.

There is no epidemic in town, but the doctors are busy.

We are promised water from the public works by November.

Some of our merchants have commenced displaying holiday goods.

Cider will be much more plentiful this year than for years past.

The stove men are busy putting up stoves for the belated housekeepers.

It was cold enough this morning to freeze the water in the milkmen's cans.

Prof. G. W. Wales, of Schuylkill Haven, the county superintendent of public instruction, is getting ready for the County Institute. He has a splendid program of entertainments for that week.

Mrs. Bridgman, R. C. M., teaches violin (specialty) cello and piano. Corner of Jardin and Lloyd streets. 9-3-4f

Fun for the Boys.

The Mahanoy City Record says a merry party was that escorting Mr. and Mrs. Hetrick to the Lehigh Valley station Friday afternoon. They came in two cabs, ten to a cab, blowing horns, throwing rice and having a gay time generally.

The station platform on all sides was covered with rice as with snow and one of the station employes claims to have swept up enough to keep his chickens all winter.

When the groom opened the car window for the final leave-taking, he and the bride were almost deluged with rice, while another mischievous fellow tacked a 3x3 foot banner beneath their window bearing the legend "Pop and Mom, their first day out." Another industriously drove about fifty tacks to a sign on their trunk, which bore the words: "Just married, for better or worse, leave them alone."

The prettiest oil cloth and linoleum in town at Fricke's carpet store. 10-10-1w

Children Entertained.

This afternoon Miss Thomas, Glover and Johnson gave an entertainment to the pupils of the Sunday school class in the chapel of the Presbyterian church. A very entertaining program was rendered and refreshments were served to the little ones, who were delighted.

An Amputation.

Anthony McMeniman, the young man who had his right ankle crushed on the Lehigh Valley railroad Friday night, suffered an amputation of the leg just above the ankle at the Miners' Hospital on Saturday.

Remnants of carpets and oil cloths cheap, at Fricke's carpet store. 10-10-1w

Look Out!

For packed eggs. Lots of them on the market. We never sell any. Wont touch 'em. Only fresh ones at our store.

Graf's

122 North Jardin St.