The Evangelical Association Insists Upon Its Claim.

NO PROPERTY FOR SALE!

The Newly Assigned Pastor Says There Must be an Unconditional Surrender to the Discipline of the Church.

Rev. J. S. Newhart, pastor of the Zion church of the Evangelical Association, Pottsville, who was recently appointed by Bishop S. C. Breyfogel and the Presiding Elders of the Eastern Pennsylvania Conference to take charge of the Ebenezer Evangelical church of this town, made an official visit here yesterday afternoon and called at the HERALD office. He stated that his mission was as a minister of the church to save and administer to the wants of the people.

Rev. Newhart also stated that he expects, ere long, to arrange regular services here and has issued the following as a part of an official pastoral address to the members of the congregation on the critical stage through which the church has passed of late:

"To those members of the Evangelical Association, scattered throughout the bounds of the East Pennsylvania Conference, who have been associated with the so-called 'minority movement,' but whose sincere and evident purpose it has been throughout to remain in the denomination; in the name of our blessed Lord, greeting!

"We desire to say to you, therefore, that in placing the properly authorized pastors into the various pulpits and in restoring a normal status in the congregations, not one among you who desires to remain in the church with us, and who sincerely subscribes to its doctrines, submits to its order and discipline, and accepts the conclusions of the General Conference, held at Indianapolis, Ind., in 1891, will be barred out, but on the contrary your membership with all its rights, privileges, and obligations will be sacredly regarded. We speak in the name of East Pa. Conference of the Evangelical Association and voice the sentiment of the Church at large.

"Do not allow yourselves, because of any personal preference or prejudice, to become permanently alienated in your affections and attachment from the church we all have reason to love so much. We entreat you in the sacred name of our Lord to worship in the church at whose altars you were saved, under whose ministrations you were edified in Christ Jesus, and whose history and spirit we all hold in such honored and hallowed memory! Your present and eternal welfare is our highest concern, and that none of those whom God has given as a heritage to the Evangelical Association should be lost either to the church or to her divine Lord, our highest purpose."

Rev. Newhart spoke quite frankly with the reporter on the situation of the affairs of the church and admitted that one of the objects of his visit was identical with that of Rev. Fredericks' visit here last week—to gain possession of the church keys. He called upon several members of the church, he said, and they told him of the action taken by the congregational meeting on Monday night, which, of course, put out of question the surrender of the keys without legal proceedings.

In answer to a question as to whether he had heard of the congregation's decision to ascertain the price at which the church could be bought Rev. Newhart said that such overtures would be useless; that the Evangelical Association intended to place itself in possession here and had no property for sale.

In regard to the standing of the congregation the visitor said that the Evangelical Association did not propose to drive anybody out of the fold, but rather aimed to keep everybody within it, subject, of course, to the discipline of the party which had been successful in the battle through the courts. Such members who may be unwilling to subject themselves to that discipline will be allowed to depart and will be marked on the records of the Evangelical Association as "illegally withdrawn."

When asked as to the standing of Rev. Lichtenwalner and other clergymen who sided with the Dubettes in the conflict, Rev. Newhart said he wished to say that Rev. Lichtenwalner and himself had been warmest friends and colleagues in the Evangelical Association work for the past sixteen years and were still warm friends personally. As to the standing of the clergymen who were on the side that lost the court battles he was sorry to say they had openly opposed the prevailing powers and were therefore marked as "illegally withdrawn." They are no longer members of the Evangelical Association clergy.

Bishop Breyfogel will conduct service in the Pottsville Evangelical church next Sunday evening and will hold service in the church of this town later on. Rev. Newhart said the Association would not be in a hurry to institute legal proceedings to gain possession of the church, as it did not want to put costs on the congregation. He had hopes that the keys would soon be surrendered to save the expense. As soon as they are he will take possession.

GOOD NEWS, IF TRUE.

Reported That the Collieries Will Work Full Time.

It was reported in town to-day that all the collieries of the Philadelphia and Reading Coal and Iron Company and the Lehigh Valley Coal Company in this district will be operated six days this week. A reporter failed to get the report confirmed at official sources, but there is reason to believe that it is correct.

PERSONAL.

Harry Davidson spent yesterday at St. Clair and Pottsville.

John R. Leisenring, of Hazleton, transacted business here to-day.

Miss Host McElhenny spent to-day visiting friends at Tamnqua.

Ex Senator Torbert, of Girard Manor, was a visitor to town this morning.

Editor M. E. Doyle, of the News, spent to-day visiting relatives at Forrestville.

Rev. Pickersgill and wife, of Minersville, was in town yesterday the guests of some of the friends Rev. Pickersgill made when he was the pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church.

Miss Laura Horneby, the accommodating and captivating attendant at the Mahanoy City telephone exchange, paid a visit to the HERALD office yesterday afternoon, accompanied by her cousin, Miss Laura Robertson, of town.

The Play.

The production of "After the Ball" at Ferguson's theatre last night, by Emmet Corrigan and his company, did not meet the approval of the audience. Messrs. Corrigan, Charles Drake and George M. Herbert squeezed out all the fun there was in the comedy, but it is not exactly the kind audiences in this town appreciate. The plot is complicated and there is not enough rollicking fun in it. Besides this there are no specialties in it and without them it seems a comedy will not take here. There are several amusing situations and they provoked some laughter, but on the whole the comedy was not a success with the audience.

Extensive Alterations.

It is easy enough to get into P. J. Mulholland's saloon, on East Centre street, because the whole front of the place is torn out, but should any one enter to get a drink he will be disappointed, as all the taps have been turned off and business has been suspended pending extensive alterations. The ceiling of the saloon is being raised, new flooring and walls are being put in and when the new fixtures and front are in place there will be a complete change from the former appearance of the hostelry.

Young Wanderers.

Two little boys of the First ward got on a Pennsylvania railroad freight train yesterday to take a free ride to Pottsville, but were put off at Wetherill Junction. They walked the rest of the way to their destination and then walked back to town. They arrived here foot sore and weary last night and were warmly received at their respective homes.

Rally at Delano.

A Republican rally was held at Delano last night and was one of the most enthusiastic political demonstrations held in the place for several years. The meeting was addressed by Hon. C. N. Brumm, Hon. J. J. Coyle and T. H. B. Lyons, Esq. A number of Shenandoah people attended the meeting and they say that Delano is solid for the Republican state and county tickets.

At the White House.

The bill of fare at the White House, 121 North Main street, for Friday, Saturday and Sunday will be as follows: Oysters, raw, stewed, panned and fried; oyster pie, sea trout, fish cakes, pigs' feet, tongue, tripe, limburger, swiss and domestic cheese, French imported and American sardines, steak and chops, chicken stewed and fried, pies and cakes.

General Manager Dec.

Thomas H. Dec, of Lost Creek, has been appointed general manager for the Ballentine Brewing Company, of Newark, N. J., his territory covering Schuylkill, Columbia, Northumberland, Luzerne and Carbon counties. Mr. Dec is a gentleman of engaging manners and excellent business ability. He will no doubt build up a lucrative business.

Mr. Hess Dying.

It is with regret that we announce there is no hope for the recovery of Mr. S. D. Hess, the superintendent of the Citizens' Water & Gas Company. The attending physicians announced yesterday that he could not survive forty hours and this afternoon he was reported as sinking fast.

CONTRACT AWARDED.

Cost of the Brandonville Boiler and Engine House.

WORK TO BE DONE AT ONCE

There Were Several Bidders For the Job and the Lowest Got It—Mr. Lamb Made Timekeeper.

The water works occupied the attention of the Borough Council at a special meeting held last night, and there was a five-minute curtain lecture by Contractor McAdam to the Councilmen, which had the effect of inoculating a more generous spirit into the latter than has characterized their treatment of the contractor in the past.

Mr. McAdam stated that he had declined to make the trench at the Fowler's Run reservoir for the lump price fixed by Council ($700) and he proceeded with the work on the day's wages plan under instructions of the committee until Council could meet. He has performed thousands of dollars worth of work on the day's wages plan for different people in the past and his integrity has never been questioned. He considered that Council's action at the last meeting reflected upon him.

Continuing Mr. McAdam stated that Mr. M. P. Quinn, the original contractor of the works, had given notice that he would not be responsible for any work that was being done by him (McAdam) in completing the storage reservoir.

Council assured Mr. McAdam that he would be paid for all work done by himself and instructed him to proceed with the ditch on the day's wages plan. Under this Mr. McAdam will receive ten per cent, on the cost of the work.

Several carpenters were in attendance with bids for furnishing material and the erection of an engine and boiler house to be built at the Davis' Run dam, at Brandonville. The bids were as follows: Jesse B. Davis, $2,975; Charles Schoppe and John Burns, $2,900; Shenandoah Feed & Lumber Co., $2,600; Lingham & Morris, $2,340. The contract was awarded to the latter.

The building is to be 89 feet long and 43 feet wide. The side posts of the engine room are to be 16 feet high and those of the boiler house 19 feet. The sides and roof of the building are to be covered with corrugated iron and receive two coats of mineral paint. The time to complete the frame work is limited to three weeks from next Monday and a penalty of $30 for every day's delay has been fixed. A bond for the full amount of the contract price is also required.

Contractor McAdam suggested that the Council appoint some one to keep time at Fowler's Run for all work done at days wages and that some one also be deputized to see that the reservoir at Brandonville is cleared of vegetation. On motion Mr. A. B. Lamb was employed as timekeeper and to supervise the other work recommended.

On motion the water committee was instructed to employ two men at $3 per day to paint the steel pipe which is being laid from the pumping station to the storage reservoir at Fowler's Run.

Mr. McAdam stated that the repairs to the reservoir at Brandonville would be completed by next Saturday. The Councilmen will drive to the reservoir next Sunday to inspect the works.

William Wilhelm Injured.

William Wilhelm, Esq., one of the most prominent members of the legal profession at Pottsville, was seriously injured last night by the upsetting of his carriage at Mine Hill Gap. It was very dark and the carriage collided with a wagon. Mr. Wilhelm and his companion, Charles H. Davis, an electrical engineer of New York, were thrown to the road. The latter escaped injuries, but the lawyer received a gash on the forehead that caused the flesh to hang over one of his eyes. The horses ran away after the carriage turned over and were caught at Minersville. Mr. Wilhelm was assisted to the house of Hon. Charles N. Brumm, at Minersville, and was treated there by Dr. B. C. Guldin, who put several stitches in the wound in the forehead.

Waking Up.

Hon. J. J. Coyle was summoned to Philadelphia by telegram last night and left for that city at 9 o'clock this morning. It is said that the trip will have something to do with putting renewed vigor into the Republican campaign in Mr. Coyle's district. The rally to be held in Robbins' opera house to-morrow night will be worth attending. The issues of the day will be intelligently discussed and explained and all voters, irrespective of party, should be on hand to hear the addresses.

An Official Visit.

District President W. S. Britton, of Girardville, will pay an official visit to Camp 206, P. O. S. of A., of town, to-morrow evening. He will install several newly-elected officers, and a good time is anticipated by the membership.

TERSELY TOLD.

Topics of the Times Abreviated for Hasty Perusal.

Ernest A. Sanerbrej, who died suddenly at his home at Mahanoy City on Monday, was a member of the G. A. R. and one of the First Defenders. He had an excellent war record. He was captured by the rebels at Savage Station on June 23, 1862, and on August 5th of the same year was exchanged after confinement in Libby Prison. On April 1st, 1863, he was honorably discharged on account of wounds. When Mr. Sanerbrej went out with the First Defenders he was a corporal, and on his return re-enlisted in Co. A, 96th Regiment, Pennsylvania Volunteers, Col. H. L. Calk commanding, as a sergeant. He was afterwards promoted as First (or Orderly) and then to Second Lieutenant. He was a strict disciplinarian without being harsh to his men and he had a big heart. It is to be regretted that his indigent circumstances were unknown until the last moment, as many veterans and their friends would have been only too happy to make such a brave man's last days more cheerful than they appear to have been.

Major Levi Huber and wife, of Pottsville, last night celebrated the fiftieth, or golden, anniversary of their marriage. They were married at Stackpole, Juniata county, on October 10th, 1844.

"Peter," the horse which won two good purses at the recent Orwigsburg fair, has been proved a rank ringer and the association will not deliver the purses. The horse came from Michigan and was formerly known as "Roschmanne," with a record of 2:27. He was entered in the 2:40 and 2:45 classes at Orwigsburg.

Official notice is being sent out that pensioners can make the required oath necessary before the village postmaster or other fourth-class postmasters. They can also witness pension vouchers. Such postmaster shall affix the stamp of his office to his signature to such vouchers, and he is authorized to charge and receive for each voucher not exceeding 25 cents, to be paid by the pensioner. The act does not give authority to the assistants of such postmasters to execute vouchers.

Emmet Corrigan, the excellent comedian who appeared at Ferguson's theatre last night, has been a frequent visitor to this place. He was the donor of the gold-headed cane which the late "Col." Edward Gibbons carried for several years with so much pride.

Ex-Poor Director James Kellegher died at his home in Minersville yesterday, in his 65th year. He was a native of Ireland and settled at Forestville about fifty years ago.

Surprise Party.

Mrs. John Link, who has been ill for several months past, was tendered a surprise party last night by a number of her sympathizing friends, at her residence on East Coal street. After an evening of pastimes a supper was enjoyed by Mrs. Charles Lex and Miss Lex, of Kingston; Mrs. John Uhl, Ashland; Miss Mame Kreiger, Olyphant; Mrs. Maud Acker, Mrs. Kate Lambert, Mrs. Mary A. James, Mrs. Celia Marshall, Mrs. Eekle, Mrs. Ludwig, Mr. and Mrs. George Holvey, Mr. and Mrs. William Kreiger, Mr. and Mrs. Bury, Miss Acker and Mr. Henry Holvey.

Ready for the Trade.

S. I. Rosasco, who recently opened the candy factory in the new Dougherty building, on West Centre street, is now prepared to furnish the trade with all kinds of his products. Give him a trial and be pleased. 10-17-94

Treats for the Public.

Free lunches are being served at McElhenny's cafe every evening this week, but on Friday and Saturday evenings there will be special layouts. On Friday delicious clam soup will be served. The turtles that attract so much attention in front of the cafe were received from Baltimore yesterday. They will be served as free lunch on Saturday evening. Turtle soup. Don't miss it.

Will be Disciplined.

Some brakemen on the Lehigh Valley trains have been in the habit of carelessly uncoupling cars and allowing the air hose to be pulled apart, instead of uncoupling it by hand, and the company has given notice that anyone caught doing so hereafter will be disciplined.
