THE man who statted the story that Gladstone retired from politics in order to take holy orders has been given the belt as the champton liar.

Ex-SPEAKER REED in common with al other observers, is fully persuaded that the Republican party will have no trouble in counting a quorum this year

THISE are indeed peace times, seeing that it will take a year to supply our small army with the new magazine gun. The militia will die of old age before they are supplied with it.

THE Pacific Express Company has given notice that it will not receive any more money for transportation in the Indian Territory. The train robber seems to have done his work thoroughly out there.

THE head and front of Chairman Wilson's offending is not that he should have gone to London and slopped over in a sentimental speech glorifying free trade, but that he should come back to this country and boldly try to defend his ntterances.

CHAIRMAN WILSON'S friends are dunning the New York Importers very lively to get the funds with which to buy his ra election, but not "frying as much fat out of them" as expected. The importers seem to think Wilson is doomed, and that, any way, his usefulness to them has been exhausted.

For two or three years Democratic orators and organs have rolled as a sweet morsel under their tongues the "Billion Dollar" record of the Fifty-first Congress The fact that some $40,000,000 of the appropriations made by that Congress were on account of Democratic deficiencies didn't make any difference. But now the record of the present Congress has been made up, and it appears that its appropriations to date exceed by more than $30,000,000 the appropriations of the Fifty- the vestry of All Saints P. E. church. first Congress. One Democratic gun has been spiked.

THE post office department has taken another very important step in relation to the letter carriers which will further carry out the true extent of the Civil Service rules. Acting Assistant Postmaster General Jones, in a circular to Postmasters of free delivery offices, directs that hereafter substitute letter carriers must be nominated from the eligible list; that vacanwhere practicable, by the promotion of substitutes; that all removals and new employment of clerks and carriers must be reported to the First Assistant Postcles in the carrier force must be filled master-General as soon as made; that no carrier is to be removed, except for cause and upon written charges filed with the Post Office Department and full opportunity given for defence, and that no res-Publication office and me hanical department, ignation asked for by a postmaster will be accepted by the department. It is further decreed that postmasters must submit to the Department all questions relating to appointments, removals and reinstatement of letter carriers, for settlemen or correspondence between the Department and the Civil Service Commission,

> For the veterans the situation is much the most critical of any time since the close of the war. They simply must elect a Republican to Congress wherever such a thing is possible, in order to offset the vote against them of the slums of the great cities and of the Solid South. They know to an absolute certainty that every man elected from those places will be a bitter enemy of justice to veterans. This is something that they can calculate upon as surely as that the sun will rise to morrow. This is their crowning emergency. The fight now will be decisive. If they lose it they may resign all hope. If they win they should have a conclusive victory which will give them peace for the rest of their lives. Let them make it conclusive by a solid vote of all the veterans in the country, which will insure an overwhelming triumph.

TELLING of the unwisdom of certain workingmen who, for some petty and trifling reasons, voted themselves out of pros perity in 1892, ex-Speaker Reed, of Maine, said in a recent speech : "A man cares infinitely more for a little thing which is present than for a great thing afar off, and, as he thinks, contingent. A man will be set wild by sand in his shoes, and give no thought to the question of a final place of punishment for the wicked. A man will be deeply outraged by a bug in his cup, and give no heed to a thunderstorm lowering black in the distant sky. But when the thunderstorm breaks and capsizes his tent as this one has, beats him black and blue with hall, and leaves him damp and shivering, he realizes the difference between a storm and a bug. Therefore, I believe that the workingman this year and hereafter will say to his employer: You and I will adjourn our fight, we will go together to get something to divide, and after that we will fight on the divide, for we can no longer fight where here is nothing to fight for.""

A Playful Struggle Ends in Death.

New BRUSSWICE, N. J., Oct. 22.—Henry Stern, a gotting man from Chicago, who was shot in the ablumen while struggling with two young ladies for the possession of a revolver a week ago, died on Saturday. He had the revolver in his pocket while he and the young women were gathering chestnus. The pistol showed from his pocket as he descended from a tree, and one of the young women pulled out the re-velver. He knew the danger, and tried to get it from her. The other woman went to help her companion, and in the strug-gle which followed the chamber under the ner was discharged.

To be Tried for Extortion.

New Your, Oct. 22.—The following ex-po-ice officers were arrested on Saturday: Exstain Doherty and his ward detectives, Hock and Mechan; ex-Sergeants Liebers, Parkerson, Jordan, Clark and McKenna. The warrants were issued on charges brought out before the Lexow committee and substantiated at the defendants' trial before the police board. The alleged of-fenses consist obiefly of extortion.

There is no medicine so often needed in every home and so admirably adapted to the purposes for which it is intended, as Chamberlain's Pain Balm. Hardly a week passes but some member of the family has need of it. A toothache or headsche may be cured by it. A touch of rheumatism or neuralis quieted. The severe pain of a turn or scald promptly relieved and the sore healed in much less time than when medicine has to be sent for. A sgrain may be promptly treated before inflammation sets in, which insures a cure in about one-third of the time otherwise required. Cuts and bruises should receive immediate treatment before the junts become swollen, which can only be done when Pain Balm is kept at hand. A sore throat may be cured before it becomes serious. A troublesome corn may be removed by applying it twice a day for a week nortwo. A lame back may be cured and several days of valuable time saved or a pain in the adds or chest relieved without paying a doctor bill. Procure a 60 cent bottle at once and you will never regret it. A KINGLY TREASURE.

less Value

It is Within the Reach of Everyone Who Wants It

A Subject Which is Interesting People All Over This Wide Land.

The greatest treasures are those which bring the most good, which do the most towards benefitting mankind. Everywhere we go, we see sickness and suffering, until it seems as though there was not a perfectly healthy person in exlatence. And such is about the case, for there are very few who are not troubled in some way.

The most common complaint is ner vousness. There are thousands who would not acknowledge thay were nervous, and yet they feel weak and tired, and their actions show their nerves are weak and irritable. This is a dangerous condition to neglect for it often leads to nervous prostration or other serious disease.

All kinds of nervous and chronic disease are fearfully common, and the remedy that will cure them may well be called a kingly treasure. Such a medicine exists, and it is constantly curing these diseases. Read what Mrs. W. H. Smith, of 74 Sutton street, Providence, R. I., has to say

"I was taken sick five years ago with the grippe. It left my whole system and specially my nerves in a terribly weak condition. I was dreadfully nervous, and lost almost complete control of myself. I was all discouraged and did not know what I should do.

was all discouraged and did not know what I should do.

"My limbs were swollen, my feet ached and I had pains all over my body. I got scarcely any sleep, and what little I did get did me no good. I took many remedies but without benefit. Finally, hearing Dr. Greene's Nevura shoet and nerve remedy highly recommended, I determined to use it.

"After taking one bottle I was almost entirely cored of all my troubles. My nerves were strong, the pains left me, the swelling disappeared, and I could steep well. Thanks to this wonderful me licine I am cured. I wish every sufferer might use it."

Uncle Sam's Increased Coal Bill.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22 .- According to washistron, Oct. 22.—According to Commodore Chairwick, chief of the tureau of naval equipment, the coal bills of the navy are steadily increasing, owing to the greater consumption of coal by modern high powered vessels. The annual report of the bureau shows that there will be a deflectory of $50,000 in the appropriation for equipment, owing to the fact that $191,-291 more was expended for coal in the past year than in the year previous. There were purchased at home 42,190 tons of coal, costing $178,168, of which 9,503 tons were pured on the Pacific coast at an average cost of $7.02 per ton, and 32,000 tons on the rings latterly have often been performed Atlantic coast at a cost of $3,50 per ton.

Death of Historian Fronds.

LONDON. Oct. 22.— James Anthony Fronce, the British historian died in this city, aged 76. Many persons will remem-ber the visit of Fronde to America in the autumn of 1872. THE CZARINA ALSO STRICKEN.

Her Mind Seriously Affected by the Strain of Nursing Her Busband and Anxiety for Her Second Son - Slight Improvement in His Majesty's Condition.

St. Peterssung. Oct. 22.—The dearth of news from Livadia occasioned the wild-est rumors to circulate on Saturday to the effect that the exar was actually dead, but that the fact was concealed because the that the fact was concealed because the carrowits had renounced the succession to the throne, and that the Grand Duke George, the czar's second son, had also died from the lung trouble from which he has long been a sufferer. These ramors were effectually silonced by the issuing of a bulletin at night stating in substance that the czar had been out of his bed during the day, but that his general condition was unclinaged. was unchanged.

Yesterday, however, the rumors were revived in an intensified form, Sabbath leisure and the gathering of unusually large congregations attracted by the special prayers for the czar assisting in the growth of idle rumor and speculation everywhere recognized that the doctors in attendance upon the czar have no hopes of his recovery, and that they are only devoting their efforts to prolong the czar's life till the arrival of Princess Alix at Yalta, so that her marriage to the czarowitz may be celebrated before his death.

It is asserted that the physicians have now been compelled to turn their attennow seen competed to turn under atten-tions to the carrina, whose mind is said to have been seriously affected by the strain of nursing her husband and anxiety con-cerning Grand Duke George.

The city bears its usual aspect, only the eager and excited discussions in all the public resorts indicating the gravity of impending events. The special services in all the chirches yesterilay were well at-tended. The reverence displayed and the sincerity of the prayers offered showed how deeply the public mind is affected.

In the theaters both here and at Moscov In the theaters both here and at Moscow during the past few days there have been numerous instances, during the Intervals between the acts, of the audience calling upon the erchestra to play the national hymn, "God Protect the Czar," to which he people would listen standing. Yesterday morning an unofficial dispatch as received from Livadia stating that the ezar had passed a better night, and had been able to sleep a little. This somewhat alleviated the anxiety, although even the official bulletins are now received with a certain amount of suspicion. 'clock last night, when an official bulletin reported a continued slight improve-ment in his majesty's condition, adding that he had a better appetite.

This bulletin is signed by the five phy sicians in attendance upon his majesty. The crowds that had long and patiently awaited the issue of the bulletin read and discussed it with evident relief, and then rapidly dispersed.

According to the best information obtainable there will be a formal betrothal and exchange of rings between the czarowitz and Princess Alix at Livadia on Wednesday, parhaps somer, according to circumstances. This presupposes the performance of the ceremony of reconcillation to the orthodox church, which in the usual course must take place first. The mar-riage of a foreign unorthodox princess to a Russian heir apparent necessitates three distinct ceremonies—reconciliation to the orthodex church, betrothal and nuptials, The ceremonies formerly were always sep-arately, but the betrothal and actual mar-

An official step has just been taken in re-gard to the appearance of bulletins in the press which is curious, to say the least. All the Russian newspapers have been requested to print special copies of their re-spective jorunals for subscribers in Livadia, omitting the bulletins altogether. This is now being done. The wildest rumors are circulating in St. Petersburg, and an extra

Another curious instance of suppression of news may be mentioned. Judging by the telegraphic inquiries received here from abroad there must be far more visible spontaneous concern in the foreign in St. Petersburg, where the press i vet allowed to after a single word of the grow at the bedside of the sick monarch The ministers and high officers of state, who themselves are astonished at the mysteri ous and tardy way the little official news venchsafed is sent from the Crimes, have to telephone all day long and half through the night to The Official Gazette begging for information.

In the remoter parts of the empire there are probably whole populations who have hardly yet heard that the exar is seriously iii. As a Russlan has expressed it, the Rus sian howspapers are waiting to know when the police will allow them to weep and to expresse their feelings freely.
