FASHION AND ECONOMY BOTH AP-PROVE BLACK CLOTHING.

An Easy Way of Home-byeing-Cotton, Wool, Silk, and Feathers Readily Colored a Handsome Black-Use Only Diamond Dyes-Absolutely Fast Black.

It is only within the last few years that it has been possible for an inexperienced person to dye a black that would not crock, fade, or wash out. Even milldyed black goods were rarely absolutely The advent of three diamond dve fast blacks-for wool, for cotton, and for allk and feathers, has changed all this. Now, with a ten-cent package of one of these dyes, the first trial gives perfect success The directions on the packages are so plain and simple that even a child can get better results than the experienced dyer could a few years ago. The prevailing fashion for black stock ings, feathers, gowns, and cloaks, and the fact that anything can be colored with diamond dyes a black that will not crock or fade, explains their almost uni-The peculiar way in which the diamone dye fast blacks are made, gives them a great superiority over all other methods of home dyeing. There are some forty other colors of diamond dyes, each of which is there oughly reliable, and as superior to imitations as sunlight is to moonlight.

HAS SEARCEY CONFESSED? The Mysterious Mission on Which He Ac

conspicules Officers.

FREDERICKSBURG, Va., Oct. 23.—The bandit C. J. Scarcey is neither confined in Stafford county jail or in the Fredericks burg prison, but just hight was taken to the bridge tendor's house at Acquai Creek, mear the scene of the hold up.

He is in the custody of Robert A. Pink-erton, armed with a Winchester; Sergeant Edrington and Commonwealth Attorney W. Seymour White. The point was reached after miles of detour, and all indications would seem to give support to the belief that Pinkerton and his party are on a hunt for the treasure stolen from the express car and supposed to be buried. Searcey's manner and speech conclusively show that a treaty has been entered into with the authorities.

Searcey was taken from the jall here about noon and placed in a carriage. He was handcuffed to Superintendent Pinker ton. In the vehicle was a basket filled with enough provisions to last the party

Many fruitless efforts were made to clude the reporters who were following close behind. A brief stop was made at Brooks Station, on the R. F. and P. road, and then the ride was resumed to Stafford Court House. While Searcey was sitting in the parier of the clock's house the correspondent asked Pinkerton the object of the ex-

"The time is not ripe," he said, "but will be interesting developments

After repeated argings on this point the party left again without locking up their prisoner in the Stafford jail. In all probability Searcey is taking Pin-kerton and his associates to the spot near the Virginia Midland, where it is said thousands stolen from the express car were heard. were buried.

Rioting at Shamokin.

SHAMOKIN, Pa., Oct. 21.—Riots were numerous here Sunday night, as the foreigners and criminal classes were drink-ing heavily. Patcolman F. M. Diebler was struck on the head by a brick while trying to arrest William Districh, an old jall bird, and is suffering from concussion of the brain. William Homer, a citizen, was injured by a mob of dranken foreigners, and George Barock was shot in the leg by one of the same gang. Policeman Wil liam Gilman was also knocked down and beaton by a game of Hungarians. Dietrich and John and George Lachufski were ar-

FIVE KILLED BY EXPLOSIONS. Three More Will Die from the Terrible Burns Received.

JOLIET, Ills., Oct. 22.—One of the most disastrons explosions that has occurred on the Drainage canal was at 4 o'clock yesterday morning, when three men were killed outright and three more seriously injured. The explosion took place at Ricker & Lean's camp, near Summit. A gang of Lean's camp, near Summit. A gang of men were at work putting in a blast, when the gunpowder expleded, blowing three men to pieces. The names of the unfortunate trio cannot yet be obtained, as when the explosion took place the other men ran for their lives, and the dead could not be identified

John Smith, Henry Potter and Thomas Collins, who were wounded, were brought to this city, where their recovery is impos-sible, as their flesh in places is so burned that it is falling off. Went Down with a Palling Building.

St. Paul, Oct. 23.—Six men were buried nder the rains of an old building or Bridge square yesterday afternoon, and all badly injured, two fatally. The McClung building has stood for many years, and was finally condemned. Workmen had removed the roof and were loosening the boards on the second floor when the floor rave way beneath them, carrying them to he cellar. The list of injured is as follows: William Whales, aged 22 years, probably fatally: Frank Mullen, 34, probably fatally; Eugene Broderag, 41; Jacob Schmidt, 43; Andrew Milzack, 47; Stephen

Germany's Monarch & Poet,

BERLIN, Oct. 23 .- On Sunday next a matinee performance, the proceeds of which will go to the building fund of the William I memorial cathedral, will be given at the Royal Opera House. The most interesting number on the program will be the "Song to Aegir," the words and music of which are by Emperor William. This composition is for a male chorus, the design being the masterly effect of that of a German choral. The emperor composed the song three months ago while on his annual cruise along the coast of Norway.

The Case Against Morton's Conchman. NEW YORK, Oct. 23.—The examination in the case of John James Howard, Lev. P. Morton's employe, who was ordered sent back to England, where Mr. Morton is alleged to have engaged him as a coach-man, was continued yesterday at Ellis Island before a special board of inquiry chosen for the purpose. The proceedings were secret. The testimony will be sent to Secretary Carlisle, together with Dr. Sen-ner's recommendation. The decision will rest entirely with the secretary of the trens

The Weather. Generally fair; east winds, becoming FOOT BALL.

Points on Doings Among the Teams in Town.

The regular local foot ball team lined up against a newly organized one, known as the High School team, last evening, and had an interesting time of it. The regulars prevented the High School team from scoring in both halves. The latter team will be good, if handled right. The play ers average 140 pounds. They will line up against the regulars each evening for practice.

Manager Coughlin has added Sullivan of Cornell; Ogden, of Lehigh, and Trout-man, of town, to the regulars. These nen show up well in practice and will rove valuable. The regulars will play the Pottaville trong eleven at the Trotting park next Saturday, at 3:50. This game will decide the championship of Schuylkill county, and therefore will be hotly contested. The nanagement has arranged to have officers on the grounds to detect all fence jumpers so that prosecutions may be entered against them. On Saturday last no less than 200 people jumped the fence and the mob was led by young men who lay claim to better principle. The players ought to nave uniforms, but will never succeed in raising the funds if people keep up the fence jumping and rob the gate. The beys should be encouraged by good paying attendances as they are furnishing

There is no medicine so often needed in svery home and so admirably adapted to the purposes for which it is intended, as Chamberlain's Pain Baim. Hardly a week passes but some member of the family has need of it. A toothache or headache may be cured by it. A tooch of rheumatism or neuralgis quieted. The severe pain of a burn or scald promptly relieved and the sore healed in much less time than when medicine has to be sent for. A sprain may be promptly treated before inflammation sets in, which insures a cure in about one-third of the time otherwise required. Cuts and bruises should receive immediate treatment before the parts become swollen, which can only be done when Pain Baim is kept at hand. A sore throat may be cured before it becomes serious. A troublesome corn may be removed by applying it twice a day for a week or two. A lame back may be cured and several days of valuable time saved or a pain in the side or chest relieved without paying a doctor bill. Procure a 60 cent bottle at once and you will never regret it.
