

SAUCY LITTLE JAPAN.

She Will Permit No Foreign Interference in Her War with China.

Hiroshima, Japan, Oct. 21.—The special sessions of the Japanese diet closed on Monday. The bills introduced by the government in order to further the progress of the war were passed unanimously.

In addition to the diet passed a memorandum to the cabinet earnestly requesting the government to execute the imperial declaration in order to secure a complete victory over the Chinese and to restore peace in the east while raising the glory of the nation.

The diet also recommended that China be severely punished, and in a manner which would not permit of her being able to again disturb the peace of the east.

Finally, the diet recommended that the ministers should let it be directly known that Japan will not tolerate any foreign interference which would prevent her from obtaining the objects of the war.

Reported Chinese Victory.

LONDON, Oct. 21.—A dispatch to The London Times from Peking says that the Chinese officials report that a battle occurred near Yi Chow on Monday and that the Japanese were repulsed southward with a loss of 8,000 men on each side.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21.—An official of the Japanese legation said today that no information had been received of the reported battle near Yi Chow. A dispatch from the minister of war at the headquarters at Hiroshima, Japan, came to Minister Kuroki last evening, but it contained no mention of any fight at the place named.

There is no medicine so often needed in every home and so admirably adapted to the purposes for which it is intended, as Chamberlain's Pain Balm. Hardly a week passes but some member of the family has need of it. A headache or headache may be cured by it. A touch of rheumatism or neuralgia quieted. The severe pain of a burn or scald promptly relieved and the sore healed in much less time than when medicine has to be sent for. A sprain may be promptly treated before inflammation sets in, which insures a cure in about one-third of the time otherwise required. Cuts and bruises should receive immediate treatment before the parts become swollen, which can only be done when Pain Balm is kept at hand. A sore throat may be cured before it becomes serious. A troublesome corn may be removed by applying it twice a day for a week or two. A lame back may be cured and several days of valuable time saved or a pain in the side or chest relieved without paying a doctor bill. Procure a 60 cent bottle at once and you will never regret it. Increasing Coal Production.

SHANTON, Pa., Oct. 21.—Coal mines here are greatly agitated over the news that the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Railroad Company is cutting rates in its monthly allotment of coal. This means that a system of grossly unfair mining will at once be inaugurated by the other companies. It is alleged here that have been working half time started on full time this morning. The Lackawanna mines have no coal all but a working full time for a week. The entire anthracite region will now boom until the market has been glutted.

Murdered by Tribesmen.

MARSHFIELD, Oct. 21.—Mail advices received here from Madagascar report that the Fohavalo tribesmen have killed a village near Majunga, at the entrance of Bembotoka bay, on the northeast coast. The Fohavalo attacked the French trading house and beheaded the two agents there, one of whom was English and the other French. A number of soldiers belonging to the Ilova tribe, the ruling tribe of the island, were close at hand when the attack was made, but they did not interfere to prevent the murder of the agents.

A DUBSITE ARGUMENT.

was wrong in contending that his presence as bishop with less than a quorum constituted a legal conference; that his conduct in suspending and excommunicating presiding elders and others was a "usurpation of power," and the sentences pronounced by him had "no force or effect"; that his action in assuming the powers of the regular East Pennsylvania Conference was usurpation; that his "falsifying orders and judgments with the utmost self-complacency" was "in plain disregard of the discipline." The Indianapolis Conference, the ecclesiastical court, decided that all these things which the Supreme Court denounces and overrules were proper and right in every sense. Will might the majesty of law in Pennsylvania exclaim of the priests that gathered together at Indianapolis in the language of Ezekiel, "Hee priests have violated my law and have profaned my holy things." The Bowman bishops are entirely right in deploring the division of the Church. The multiplication of denominations is not desirable; but neither is ecclesiastical tyranny endurable. People trained in monarchical countries may well submit to this arbitrary rule of preachers, but the citizens of a free commonwealth like Pennsylvania do not care to surrender their manhood in this object way. In this enlightened age, to ask Christian freemen voluntarily to submit to the unholy decision of a brutal majority, simply because it is a majority, is an invitation to slavery. With the same facility that the Indianapolis Conference decides, contrary to the Supreme Court, that Bishop Bowman's Allentown conference was the true one, the General conference, under the Bowman-Eber control, can decide any question of fact contrary to the fact and make it binding, under the discipline of the Evangelical church, on every one of its members. The action of the General Conference cannot be restrained by a written constitution, because it becomes the sole interpreter of the meaning of that constitution, and whatever it decides that meaning to be the Supreme Court of this state says the law. One is rather disposed to believe that there must be a defect in the organization of society when the state is so powerless, especially where property rights are involved, to protect a citizen in his Christian relations. Assuming this to be the law, it behooves every Christian to consider well the powers conferred upon ecclesiastical courts. This is an object lesson. Absolute power, unrestrained and not answerable to the law of the land, is un-American. The plain religious people of simple faith who founded the Evangelical Association in this county and organized the East Pennsylvania Conference, which is the mother conference of the whole church, little dreamed that in the future they should unwittingly create an absolute power in the church—a power represented by foreigners and strangers, which would ultimately decide the old East Pennsylvania Conference an illegal body and take from the descendants of the good people who founded the church their church property and all "cut at it no robbery." We greatly mistake the Christian character and high integrity of the people who have revolted against the tyranny and usurpation of Bishop Bowman and his followers if they can again be induced to bow their necks to his yoke. The loss of our churches is a severe blow. But a few years of self-denial will build new and better ones in more desirable locations. It is better to lose property than honor and character and, above all, truth. "Stand fast, brethren to the liberty wherewith Christ hath made you free, and be not entangled again with the yoke of bondage." A DUBSITE.

Princess Alix's Conversion.

The Future Center Received Into the Greek Church.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 21.—The rumors that the czarowitz proposed to renounce the throne were based upon a misinterpretation of the czar's order that Grand Duke George, his majesty's second son, who is seriously ill with consumption, renounce his rights of succession to his younger brother, Grand Duke Michael. The issuing of this order was a mere formality, as Grand Duke George's condition is almost as desperate as that of his father. FATAL FORGETFULNESS.

It Results in a Railroad Collision, with Two Deaths.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Oct. 21.—Traffic is interrupted between San Antonio and Houston on the Southern Pacific. A stock train collided with passenger train No. 29 near Walker, about fifteen miles east of San Antonio, and the freight cars, the mail car and passenger engine were demolished. The dead are: Marion Hess, conductor freight train; Bruce Scorsbury, brakeman freight train. The injured are: Con Conners, engineer freight, both legs broken, will probably die; Carl Hunn, conductor, broken leg, legs badly contused; baggage-master J. A. Irvine and Mail Clerk Hamilton received slight injuries.

The cause of the wreck is attributed to the operator at Stafford, who failed to give orders. As the train passed he remembered he had orders, but it was then too late.

Ambassador Bayard in the Campaign.

DOVER, Del., Oct. 21.—The Dover Opera House was crowded last night with enthusiastic Democrats who gathered to greet Hon. Thomas E. Bayard, United States ambassador to Great Britain. Mr. Bayard reached Dover at 5 o'clock and went at once to the residence of General Richard R. Kenney. After dinner the distinguished Delawarean, accompanied by General Kenney, Samuel Hancock, candidate for congress, and E. W. Tammell, candidate for governor, went to the Opera House, where about 1,200 persons were awaiting to greet them. Mr. Bayard was introduced by Dr. Henry Ribley of this city, and was greeted with tumultuous applause. His speech, which was frequently interrupted by applause, was a masterly presentation of Democratic principles.

RACKED WITH PAIN.

Tortured With Rheumatism For Quarter of a Century.

Relief Came at Last to the Patient Sufferer—How She Was Cured.

Sarah H. Smith, Pineville, Bucks county, Pa., says: "I was a great sufferer from rheumatism. I had the disease for over twenty-five years, and the torture I have undergone during the past quarter of a century no pen could describe. Every attack I had, my entire body was racked with pain, and I was in a terrible condition. I tried doctor after doctor and every remedy that could be suggested, but all with the same result. None of them ever gave me the slightest relief. I had had the disease so long that it had become chronic when I began to use Munyon's Rheumatism Cure. It was not long before I felt a great deal better, and after using it a short time the rheumatism left me. I have not had a trace of it since, and am convinced that I am permanently cured."

Munyon's Rheumatism Cure is guaranteed to cure rheumatism in any part of the body. Acute or muscular rheumatism cured in from one to five days. It never fails to cure sharp, shooting pains in the arms, legs, sides, back or breast, or soreness in any part of the body in from one to three hours. It is guaranteed to promptly cure lameness, stiff and swollen joints, stiff back, and all pains in the hips and loins. Chronic rheumatism, sciatica, lumbago or pain in the back are speedily cured.
